May 26-29, 2002
Claflin University
Orangeburg, South Carolina

"Open Hearts, Open Minds, Open Doors"

The First Day – Sunday Evening
May 26, 2002

Memorial Service and Holy Communion. The Memorial Service and Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was held at 7:00 p.m. in the Edward L. Tullis Arena of the Jonas T. Kennedy Health and Physical Education Center, Claflin University, Orangeburg, South Carolina.

Participants in the Service included Mrs. Carolyn Rogerson, Lector; Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey, Celebrant; and the Conference Youth Choir under the direction of Mrs. Kathy Jo Long. The Preacher was the Reverend Dr. C.J. Lupo, Jr. The offering received was designated for the benefit of the United Methodist Committee on Relief. The following deceased ministers and spouses were remembered: James G. Mishoe, James M. Aiken, Max H. Christopher, Frank O. Geissinger, T. Edward Giles, S. Rufus Glenn, Eulalia C. Gonzalez, James R. Gregg, Charles C. Iliff, Theodore E. Jones, Pete J. Millwood, Dwight H. Mims, Ralph T. Mirse, C. LeGrande Moody, Jr., William L.J. Nelson, Henry J. Phillips, E. Robert Rowell, Jean C. Anderson, Betty S. Ferguson, Mildred F. Greer, Ferrell D. Jenkins, Sara S. Lazar, Lula W. Rouse, Daisy B. Sullivan, Mildred K. Bates, Leola J. Brown, Dazalee W. Bryant, Anna Delia M. Colter, Gertrude B. Dial, Bertha W. Dicks, Clara Kathleen S. DuBose, Rhoda C. Johnson, Margaret R. Patillo, Ida Mae H. Meredith, Eugenia L. Vickery, and Caroline Z. Washington.

"They Still Witness And They Still Serve"

C.J. Lupo, Jr.

The 1785 Annual Conference used to have the Memorial Service on the day when retiring ministers were recognized. But surely it is easier for family members to be present at an evening service on the opening day of Conference, and it seems appropriate to link the Communion Service and the Memorial Service. In the Service of Holy Communion, there is a remembering. We always recall how Jesus said, at the Last Supper: "Do this in remembrance of me." And the Memorial Service is certainly a remembering: a remembering of clergy and spouses who shared a ministry; a remembering by family members, church members, and colleagues in ministry. As names are called, some of us will remember intimate contacts we had with someone as our pastor, our mentor, or constant and caring friend. We remember speeches made on the Conference floor, or a church or churches that really became the body of Christ under their leadership.

Another word for the Communion Service is the Eucharist, and the basic meaning of that word is "joyful thanksgiving." And the Memorial Service is that, too, as we remember and give thanks for those servants who have blessed our lives, and who no longer walk among us, but who will continue to bless and inspire us.

As the author of the Letter to the Hebrews begins his recital of heroes of faith, he makes a very interesting comment after mentioning Abel in Chapter 11, verse 4: "He died, but through his faith he still speaks." And, after finishing a fairly long list of people who were examples of faith, he concludes: "Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith." (12:1 & 2)

I know that when I read or heard these words as a child, (and probably a teenager too) my mental picture was sort of like being on an athletic field with a huge crowd of people watching me to see how I played. Put in more religious terms, I imagined crowds of people who knew me who had died peering over the parapets of heaven to see how I was behaving,

The author of the Letter to the Hebrews did not mean these heroes of faith were spectators looking at us; rather, they are witnesses to God.

Many of them lived long years ago. Look where the list starts—with Abel, son of Adam and Eve, murdered by his brother Cain. And the list continues with Abraham and Joseph and Moses, Gideon, Barak, Samson, and Jephthah, David and Samuel, and the prophets. "All of these", the writer was saying, "are witnesses to the faithfulness of God, and so they are still serving."

Consider: God called a man named Abram who had lived in Ur and had gone with his father to Haran to leave his country and kinsmen, to follow God's leadership, and promised to give him a new land and make of him a great nation. And Abram was then 75 years old, and Sarah about 10 years younger. They had no children. Yet, Abram responded, and was renamed Abraham. They gave up hope of having a child by Sarah and so, when Abraham was 86, he fathered a son, Ishmael, by Hagar—Sarah's Egyptian slave girl who served her. When Abraham was 100, Sarah finally had her child, Isaac. Abraham became known as the father of the faithful—the father of the Hebrew people. He trusted God, and his very life is a continuing witness to the fact that God is faithful; God can be trusted; God always keeps his word.

And we might say of those we remember this night: "They trusted, and were not put to shame." Their very lives are a witness to the faithfulness of God.

The writer in Hebrews does not spell it out, but there is something else pretty obvious in his listing of heroes of faith who are witnesses. Not only are they witnesses to the faithfulness of God; their lives constitute a continuing witness to the amazing grace of God.

Take Abraham, for instance. Remember we said that earlier on, Abraham gave up on the possibility of fathering a child by Sarah, and so he had a son, Ishmael, by her Egyptian slave, Hagar. Ishmael was born when Abraham was 86 years old, and 14 years later (when he was 100) Isaac was born. One day Sarah saw Ishmael playing with Isaac. Some commentators interpret this to mean he was teasing Isaac; others suggest he was mocking Isaac, or tormenting him in some way. In any event, Sarah became insistent that she simply would not allow Ishmael to share the inheritance with her own flesh and blood son. She demanded that Abraham send Hagar and Ishmael away which he did. He gave Hagar some food and a skin full of water, and sent them off, with no promise of continued child support. (see Genesis 21) What do you think Social Service would say about such conduct today?

Not only that, but we are told that twice he told Sarah to tell other groups they encountered that she was his sister, not his wife. He thought that would keep him from being killed when powerful people thought her beautiful and desirable, and so he allowed the Pharaoh in Egypt and later King Abimelech to take her—until they found out the truth.

We all have problems with some of the things that Abraham did. But God called Abraham and he responded, and because God's amazing grace was adequate, God could and did use Abraham to accomplish great things. And surely you remember David and the story of his relationship with Bathsheba, and how he conspired to have her husband Uriah killed in battle. Yet God used David mightily, and he came to be recognized as Israel's greatest king, and was ancestor of our Lord, who was, as the hymn says, "born of David's line."

Portrait painters have the option of whether to paint a wart on a subject's face. But the biblical record makes no attempt to hide the blemishes in a person's character or failings in faithfulness. So we are told that while Jesus was on trial, three times Peter denied, even cursed and swore, that he had never known Jesus. And we are given fairly graphic descriptions of how Saul of Tarsus did everything in his power to stamp out this new movement of religion that focused on Christ. Yet Peter became the undisputed leader of the early Christian Church and Saul, renamed Paul, became the foremost apostle to the Gentiles, missionary-founder of many churches, and had much to do with the development of Christianity and the foundation of our faith. Paul once described himself as "the chief of sinners", and his very life story is a continuing witness to the amazing grace of God that accepts us, freely forgives us, and continues to use us in his service.

I once heard a story about two men who went to the funeral of one of their buddies. The funeral was held in the church, and the pastor waxed eloquent in his eulogy, depicting the deceased as a model husband, father, church member, and citizen. At one point in the eulogy, one of the men said to the other: "When they invite people to come up for a viewing, let's go so we can see if he is talking about the man we know by that name!" The story reminds me of a time when Herbert Spell was my District Superintendent in Marion. One day he stopped by the parsonage after returning from an appointment-making cabinet meeting. He said: "C.J., do you have a conference picture book? The people some of the Superintendents are talking about are not the people I know by those names." He wanted to see the picture!

I suspect all of these we remember tonight had some warts, some blemishes of one sort or another. I do not know these. Maybe family members did. Maybe church members somewhere knew. But God called them, and they responded, and they were accepted, and their lives constitute a continuing witness to that amazing grace of God that accepts us, and empowers us to be his witnesses.

In the third place, these we remember who have gone before us help us to believe the promise of Easter, the promise of victory over death, the promise of resurrection.

The real reason for belief is Jesus' resurrection, but sometimes we need help. Before his own death on the cross, Jesus had spoken to his disciples of his resurrection to come, but apparently they did not understand or expect it. When Jesus was crucified, they were in despair. They went into hiding in fear. Thomas was not with them the first time Jesus appeared to them. When they told him about it, and said, "Jesus is alive; he was here with us", Thomas insisted he would not believe just because they said so, he would insist on proof—feeling the nail wounds in his hands, and the spear wound in his side.

I am not sure that belief is any easier in our day. The words in the committal service, "earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust", and the sobering words in the Ash Wednesday service, "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return", these are stark reminders of our mortality. Death seems too final.

On Easter Sunday, we retell and celebrate Jesus' victory over death, and we are reminded of his promise that "Because I live, you shall live also." But doubts assail, and we wonder how that can possibly be.

At these times, knowing how some who have gone before us have dealt with this, can and does help us.

Rufus Glenn was a resident of Rolling Green in Greenville the last few years of his life. His mind was always keen, but he fought a losing battle with Parkinson's disease. He never let up in the slightest his absolute commitment to his Lord and Master. DeArmond Canaday writes in his Memoir of Rufus: "Shortly after his 92nd birthday, with remarkable clarity of mind and warmth of spirit, he delivered from his wheelchair a sermon filled with love to the residents of Rolling Green."

"Rufus said he had prayed: 'Lord, you called me to teach people how to live, and I have tried to do that. What do you want me to do now?' 'The answer came back,' he said: 'I want you to show people how to die!' And so he did, peacefully, triumphantly."

It is said that when John Quincy Adams was 80 years old, he met a friend on the streets of Boston. The friend asked, "And how is Mr. Adams today?" His answer was: "John Quincy Adams himself is very well, thank you. But the house he lives in is badly dilapidated. It is tottering on its foundations. The walls are badly shattered, and the roof is worn. The building trembles with every wind, and I think John Quincy Adams will have to move out before very long. But he himself is well."

In John 12:24, Jesus says, "Unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain, but if it dies it bears much fruit." In his Letter to the Corinthians, Paul refers to this and says, "What you sow does not come to life unless it dies." (I Cor. 15:36) He had preached resurrection, not only the resurrection of Christ, but also the promised victory of life over death for Christ's followers. But a lot of people in his churches had a lot of questions, even as we do. Some asked, "How are the dead raised up? With what kind of body do they come?" (vs. 35) You remember Paul's wonderful words about the changes to come through death: "What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable. It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. It is sown a physical body, it is raised a spiritual body." (vs.42-44)

I don't know anybody who knows or can prove what that will be like. Through the years I have been helped as I remember one of my pastors when I was growing up. He was not a handsome man, by any means, so I will not call his name. One day he was being pestered by a woman church member who would never be even a runner-up in any beauty contest. She kept wanting to know what kind of body we would have and what we would look like in heaven. He must have gotten a little weary and even short of patience, perhaps one of his warts, and he said, "I don't know what we will look like in the life to come, but I feel sure that if the good Lord has another shot at you and me he will make us both better looking than he did the first time."

Theologically, I am helped by Georgia Harkness, probably the first recognized female theologian in our denomination. Though she died many years ago, her influence lives on; and her book Christian Beliefs has enriched the understanding of clergy and lay people of several generations. When she dealt with this matter, she suggested the following approach. "God has given us bodies wonderfully suited to meeting our needs and expressing our personalities in this life. Can't we simply trust God to give us whatever we need to sustain us and express who we are in the life to come?" I believe we can.

Georgia Harkness left the particulars vague, and they are often vague in my thoughts. But the conviction was firm in her, and it is firm in me, that beyond the event we can death there is new life in the nearer presence of God. And the witness of these we remember tonight helps me to believe—even when I cannot understand how this can be.

Through the years I have spent time with a good many people I would describe as being homesick for heaven. No, they have never been there. But they have many loved ones, family members, friends, colleagues who are there now. Sometimes they begin to feel that they have closer ties with more people on the yonder side of death than they do on this side. And so heaven seems nearer and dearer, a more familiar place, and though they may not sing it, they feel the words of the spiritual which says: "I'm tramping, tramping, 'gwine to make heaven my home, Hallelujah!"

The witness of these we remember tonight is not ended; their service is not over. Twice I served churches where Rufus Glenn had been pastor years before, but people still remembered him, and his influence lived on in their lives and in the very life of those churches. And I was pastor of a church which LeGrande Moody had served, and I followed him as Superintendent of a District. In the local church, and in all the churches of the District, I could see his footprints and evidence that his witness and works were still bearing fruit for the kingdom of God. As the names were called tonight, many of you know that you have had similar experiences. As the writer in Hebrews says of Abel, so we could say of them, "they died, but through their faith they still speak."

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith."

The Second Day – Monday Morning

May 27, 2002

Holy Communion. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was celebrated at 7:15 a.m. in the auditorium of the W.V. Middleton Fine Arts Center. The Reverend Michael C. Walker was the liturgist and preacher. Ms. Shirley Huges was the lay reader.

Lay Orientation. An orientation session was conducted for Lay Members by the Board of Laity at 8:30 a.m. in the Tullis Arena of the Kennedy Center. The session was under the leadership of Mrs. Carolyn Rogerson, Conference Lay Leader.

Clergy Session. The Clergy Session was convened at 8:30 a.m. in the auditorium of the Middleton Fine Arts Center by Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey. The session began with the singing of the hymn, "I Am Thine, O Lord." Bishop McCleskey read and shared reflections on Mark 1:16-20, concluding with prayer. The Reverend B. McIver Alexander reported for the Administrative Review Committee certifying that fair process was followed in the matter of the recommendation by the Board of Ordained Ministry of the discontinuance from Probationary Membership of the Reverend Joanna Kay Keels.

The report of the Board of Ordained Ministry was introduced by the chairperson, the Reverend Patricia Parrish, who commented briefly on the work of the Board in preparing for Annual Conference. Attention was called to the plan of the Board to review during the coming year the status of all persons who have been continued on leave of absence for five years or longer. Appreciation was expressed for the work of the Reverend Ted H. Walter, Coordinator of Clergy Services.

The Business Questions pertaining to ordained ministers and local pastors as corrected were presented by the Rev. Timothy J. Rogers, Registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry. A motion was offered by Mr. Rogers to fix and approve the items listed on the Consent Calendar which included the responses to the Business Questions No. 25 - 40 and 47 - No. 64. The motion was seconded and adopted as presented.

Business Questions No. 19 and 20 were presented as information as were questions No. 22, No. 23, and 24.

Business Question No. 21 a), b), c), and e) was approved as presented. Those elected to Probationary Membership and Full Connection were presented and approved. Those elected for ordination as elders and deacons were presented and approved.

Those received by transfer from other annual conferences of the United Methodist Church (question No. 41) were announced by Bishop McCleskey and presented to the Clergy Session. Question No. 45 was presented for information. Question No. 46 was presented and was approved as was Question No. 50.a) and No. 50.c).

The names of the deceased ministers were read by the Registrar as the Clergy Session stood in silent remembrance with the Bishop concluding the time of remembrance with prayer.

Question No. 53 was presented for information. Those listed in Question No. 54 a) on leave of absence for five years or less were approved as presented. Those listed on leave of absence for more than five years were approved as presented. Question No. 54.c) and No. 54.d) were approved as presented.

A motion to authorize the Registrar of the Board and the Coordinator of Clergy Services to make such editorial changes and corrections as may be needed to perfect the report for publication was offered by Mr. Rogers and was approved.

The Clergy Session was concluded with a word of benediction by Bishop McCleskey.

Organizational Session. Bishop McCleskey called the Conference to order at 10:03 a.m.

The Reverend Willie Wilson led in the singing of "And Are We Yet Alive" followed by a time of reflection and prayer led by Bishop McCleskey. Words of welcome to Claflin University were brought by Dr. Henry Tisdale. Mrs. Margaret F. McCleskey was presented to the Conference and she shared remarks highlighting the involvement of the Conference in such missions as Salkehatchie Summer Service and Africa University. There followed a time of recognition of the Reverend Delos D. Corderman for eighteen years of service as Secretary of the Annual Conference. Mrs. Evelyn Corderman was presented. Remarks were made by Bishop McCleskey, the Reverend W. Timothy McClendon and the Reverend Larry D. McCutcheon in appreciation of Mr. Corderman and his many years of service to the Conference. Presentations of a plaque and a large "check" to be endorsed during the Conference Session with expressions of appreciation from the clergy and lay members were made. The recognition concluded with a response by Mr. Corderman during which he expressed his appreciation to the South Carolina Annual Conference for accepting him and giving him the opportunity to serve in the ministry in South Carolina.

The Secretary presented the following organizational motions: (1) That the "Bar of the Conference" be defined as all seats in the Tullis Arena, including wheel chairs, except those seats reserved for guests; (2) that the signed attendance registers be designated the official roll of the Annual Conference Session; (3) that the program printed in the pre-conference materials be adopted as the agenda of the Annual Conference Session, provided that the Presiding Officer may adjust the schedule to expedite the business of the Session; and (4) that the Tellers nominated by their District Superintendents be elected as nominated and their names be published in the Conference Journal without reading. These motions were adopted as presented. The Tellers nominated and elected were: Severena Aaron, Barry Allen, Hope R. Avins, John Bauknight, Shawn Bell, Susie Berry, John Bolin, Steven Booth, William H. Bower, George H. Boyd, Jr., Greta Bridges, Shirley Brown, Dennis Burford, Jerry Campbell, James Cannon, Philip Chandler, Pat Cook, Henry Davis, IV, Sherry Davis, Ralph Dove, Phillip E. Stout, Kim Eanes, Wade H. Everett, Samuel B. George, III, Ray Gilbert, Harold Gordon, Tom Graham, Carol Grant, Luzanne Griffith, Janice Hagler, Francis Hipp, Bill Houx, David Inman, Steve Jordan, Erik Kling, Jones L. Brewer, Randy Lawrence, Pearl Lawson, Earlene Love, Ron Lucas, Bill Lynch, Willamae Mackey, Edward Maftson, William Malambri, Eva Manigault, Angie Manly, Priscilla McClellan, Kenneth L. Nelson, Phil Owens, Anne Parrott, Pat Pettus, John D. Pettus, Jerry L. Phillips, Jr., Angelia Price, Victoria Richardson, Leonard Ripley, Margaret Ross, Michael Rouse, Ben Schooler, Helen Scott, Karen Shafer, James Smith, Scarlett Tanner, Maureen Thomas, Michael Turner, Frances Vaughn, Larry Wannamaker, Kirk Wheeler, Jackie Williams, John M. Williams, III, and Michael L. Written.

Report of the Committee on Standing Rules. The Report was presented by the chairperson, the Reverend Robert T. Cannon. The proposed amendment to SR 49 to add the words "who are active participants in the pension and group insurance plans in which the annual conference is the Plan Sponsor" after "six (6) be clergy persons" was presented and was approved as presented.

An amendment was proposed to SR 74.c which would delete the sentence beginning "The group, individual, or cluster presenting . . ." and add in its place the following two sentences: "The group, individual, or cluster presenting a resolution must be responsible for printing their resolution for all members of the Annual Conference Session. The resolutions considered by the Committee on the first full day of the session shall be distributed by the close of the morning session of the second full business day of the conference." The amendment was approved as presented.

An amendment was proposed to SR 74.d. to replace the word "amendments" with the word "resolutions" in the rule. The amendment was approved as presented.

An amendment was proposed to SR 80 to add the following sentence following the first sentence, "The responsibilities of the council are set forth in paragraph 656 of The Book of Discipline 2000; to delete the sentences beginning with "The District Superintendent shall consult ... through the sentence, "additional resource persons may be added;" and to add in their place the following sentences: "The membership of the District Council on Ministries shall include the following: the District Superintendent, the District Lay Leader, the District Director of Lay Speaking Ministries, the District President of United Methodist Men, the District President of United Methodist Women, the President of the District Youth Council, the Disaster Response Coordinator for the district, and the Chairperson of the District Board for Congregational Development. Persons representing program areas and additional resource persons may be added." The amendment was approved as presented.

An amendment was proposed to SR 84 to add the following sentences to the rule: "Between sessions of annual conference, vacancies on district boards and committees may be filled upon nomination by the district superintendent, in consultation with the District Committee on Nominations. Such vacancies shall be subject to election by the next annual conference and reported by the Conference Committee on Nominations." A substitution for the proposed amendment was moved by Carolyn Rogerson as follows: "Between sessions of annual conference, vacancies on district boards and committees may be filled upon nomination by the District Committee on Nominations. Such vacancies shall be subject to election by the next annual conference and reported by the Conference Committee on Nominations." Ms. Rogerson argued that the amendment to SR 84 as presented by the Committee placed too much responsibility and authority with the District Superintendent for the selection of persons to fill interim vacancies on district boards and committees. The proposed substitute was adopted as presented and SR 84 was amended accordingly.

An amendment was proposed to SR 48 to add the following sentence to the rule: "If the Psychological Assessment Vendor is United Methodist, the vendor may serve as an ex-officio member of the Board with voice, but without vote, in accordance with the nominating process of The Book of Discipline." The amendment was approved as presented.

Mr. Cannon moved the adoption of the Standing Rules as amended for the 2002 Session with the right reserved to make editorial corrections, and they were adopted.

Consent Calendar. The Secretary directed the attention of the Annual Conference to the Consent Calendar and noted the process required for removing an item from the Consent Calendar. Mr. James R. Allen, Conference Chancellor, requested that his report be added to the Consent Calendar, and it was done.

Election of New Conference Secretary. Bishop McCleskey introduced the process for the nomination of a new Secretary of the Annual Conference to complete the remaining two years of the current unexpired quadrennial term. This action was necessitated by the resignation of the Reverend Delos D. Corderman. Bishop McCleskey indicated that upon election the new person would become the Secretary-Elect for the duration of the Session and, upon its conclusion, would immediately become the Secretary and assume all responsibilities of the office. The floor was opened for nominations. The Reverend Michael L. Vandiver placed in nomination the name of the Reverend Roger M. Gramling. The nomination was seconded. There were no other nominations. The Reverend Clark A. Jenkins and others moved that the Reverend Roger M. Gramling be elected by acclamation. Accordingly, he was elected. The Secretary-Elect was invited to the platform and expressed his appreciation to the Conference and to his predecessor.

Report of the Committee on Nominations. The Reverend Evelyn C. Middleton, Chairperson of the Conference Committee on Nominations, presented the "2002 Personnel Needs Report" for the Committee. The omnibus report contained nominations for vacancies on the boards, commissions, committees, and boards of trust. The Report also presented nominations for the boards of the Wesley Foundations, as well as district boards and committees. A number of corrections were announced by the Chairperson. The Report was received as presented. A question was raised by Mr. Richard Wilhite, Hartsville District Lay Leader, regarding the election of any new district lay leaders. The chair replied that the matter would be looked into following the report by the Reverend Charles L. Johnson that the need for such elections had not yet been brought to the Committee's attention. The Bishop opened the floor for any additional nominations for those included in the Committee's Report. There were none. Action upon the Report was deferred until Wednesday as provided for in the Standing Rules.

Report of the Council on Finance and Administration. The Reverend Michael B. Henderson, Chairperson of the Council, presented the reports for information and review, and to receive any questions, with perfection and action on the reports scheduled for Wednesday under the Standing Rules. There were no questions. Mr. Henderson noted for the record, that the number of churches paying one hundred percent of their apportionments was at an all time high, from 30% paying 100% in 1986 to 75% in 2001. Payments on apportioned items reached 91% last year. Mr. Henderson directed the Conference's attention to the "Record of Giving" distributed to the Conference which lists the churches paying 100% as well as those that increased their giving for 2001. Appreciation was expressed to these churches and their congregations by Bishop McCleskey as their pastors and lay members were asked to stand.

Mr. Henderson reported that since 1986, the number of churches paying apportionments in full has grown from 306 to 749, an increase of 110%. Also, during the first four months of 2002, the percentage paid on apportionments was greater than the percentage paid during the same period of 2001 even with the downturn in the economy. Mr. Henderson distributed to the Conference an information sheet containing two articles – one on the subject "Forming the Annual Conference Budget" and the second a "Brief Numerical Analysis" of information related to growth of and giving to the Conference Budget, local church expenditures, average compensation, and per capita giving.

Recognition of St. Andrew By-The-Sea. The Reverend Daniel S. Bradley, Chairperson of the Conference Committee on Congregational Development, noted with appreciation the support given by St. Andrew By-The-Sea in the organization of the new Church of the Palms. He indicated that the support given by St. Andrew By-The-Sea included sixty thousand dollars for housing allowances, forty thousand dollars towards the purchase of a site, a loan of forty thousand dollars at four percent interest, gifts of twenty thousand dollars by groups and individuals within the church, as well as various services contributed to Church of the Palms by members of St. Andrew. Mr. Bradley noted the assistance given by St. Andrew as an example of how local churches can partner with new churches as they are formed. A Certificate of Appreciation was presented to St. Andrew. The pastor of St. Andrew, the Reverend Willie S. Teague, gave credit to the members of the St. Andrew congregation, but more especially to his predecessor, the Reverend Douglas A. Bowling, for his pastoral leadership in the efforts to support the establishment of the new Church of the Palms. Bishop McCleskey added his words of appreciation for this example of "connectionalism" at its best, one church doing for another church.

Recognition of Mrs. Hazel K. Colcock. Mrs. Hazel K. Colcock, Administrative Secretary in the Episcopal Office for the last eighteen years, was escorted to the platform by the Reverend W. Timothy McClendon, Conference Parliamentarian. Bishop McCleskey reported to the Conference on Mrs. Colcock's decision to retire effective July 1, 2002. Letters to Mrs. Colcock from Bishops Roy C. Clark and Robert H. Spain were acknowledged as well as the presence on the stage of Miss Josefa Bethea, daughter of the late Bishop and Mrs. Joseph B. Bethea. Words of appreciation for Mrs. Colcock and her service were expressed by Bishop McCleskey along with best wishes to her and her husband in their retirement. Two large wooden rocking chairs were brought to the platform and presented to Mrs. Colcock on behalf of the Episcopal Office and the Conference. Mrs. Colcock spoke briefly to the Conference remembering advice given her by her mother that each person was like a link in a chain; all were important, and the strength of the chain, and success in life, lay in each link doing its particular job. Mrs. Colcock expressed her appreciation to the conference, the district office secretaries, to the bishops she served under, and to her family for the assistance she received in her work. She indicated that she would be returning to her home place and church in the South Georgia Conference. Before leaving the platform Mrs. Colcock sat in one of the rocking chairs.

Committee on Resolutions and Appeals. Mrs. Martha F. Thompson, Chairperson, called the Conference's attention to the resolutions distributed in the pre-conference materials and registration packet. She reported that the following resolutions had been filed with the Committee and were to be distributed to the Conference: Resolution on Appropriate Response to Terrorism and War, and Resolution Against Permanent Storage of Plutonium in South Carolina. These were received for referral to the Committee. The Reverend Charles L. Johnson presented a resolution for distribution and referral from the Council on Ministries to merge the Board of Education Corporation into the Annual Conference Corporation. It was received and referred to the Committee. Mrs. Thompson announced that the Committee would meet in Room 104 following the adjournment of the afternoon session to consider and hear matters related to these resolutions.

In regard to the resolution dealing with The Methodist Oaks, Bishop McCleskey stated that it had been determined that at least one of the signers of the resolution dealing with The Methodist Oaks was a member of the Annual Conference, and, therefore, the resolution could be brought before the Conference. He noted, however, that after having read and studied the resolution for several days, it was his ruling that the resolution was out of order. Bishop McCleskey stated that the Annual Conference has no investigative entities as mentioned in the first "resolved" paragraph. Further, while the Annual Conference elects the trustees of conference-related institutions, it does not "instruct" those trustees in the doing of their work. Bishop McCleskey stated further that in terms of fiscal matters, all institutions receiving funds from the Conference are required to provide annually an audit report to the Council on Finance and Administration. If the Council, upon receiving that report, has questions, then, according to Bishop McCleskey the Council has the right to raise those questions with the institutions or to receive questions about fiscal matters related to those reports.

Mr. Tommy Thompson, St. Paul's, Orangeburg, moved that the Conference Council on Finance and Administration investigate the concerns expressed regarding the financial and administrative management of The Methodist Oaks and that the Conference Council on Finance and Administration report on its investigation to the 2003 Annual Conference. Bishop McCleskey responded that, in light of the ruling just made and the reasons stated in that ruling regarding the authority of the Council on Finance and Administration, this motion is also ruled out of order.

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. The Report was presented by the Reverend Patricia J. Parrish, Chairperson of the Board. Attention was directed to the written report of the Board's work during the year. Proposed changes to the Board's Policy were presented. It was proposed to amend Section II.c(5) by adding the words "For Local Pastors" at the beginning of the current sentence. The amendment was approved. A new item, X.c(3): DCOM Mentor Support to Candidate was approved to read "The Board of Ordained Ministry secretary will advise in writing any candidate, who is not approved by the Board, that the candidate shall seek the support of their assigned DCOM Mentor with regard to any deficiencies noted by the Board or one of its committees." The proposed new item was approved. A new item Section X.c(17) was proposed to read "confidentiality between a clergy mentor (Par. 347.1b) and mentee is essential to effective mentoring, but is subordinated only to the mentor's duty to report, which includes the annual reports to DCOM and the BOM." The item was approved. Lengthy and extensive modifications to Section XI were proposed to avoid negating the 2000 Book of Discipline (Par. 338.3b) related to Transfers, to incorporate the previously adopted Transfer/Approval for Service process, and to specify that the Approved Service period of at least three years shall constitute the Probationary Member (OF 338.3) period to complete disciplinary and Board of Ministry required studies, etc. These were approved. A new item XII.B.1 Certified Candidates for Ordained Deacons under Par. 315.5 was proposed to read "Eligible certified candidates for Ordained Deacon in Full Membership under Par. 315.5 may be granted Ministerial Education Funds for completion of required courses taken toward their ordination. The loan-grants will be equal to the per course rate approved for General Board of Higher Education and Ministry grants (currently $250 per required course)." The proposed new item was approved. It was proposed to amend Section XII.D.9 to read "Prior to transferring into another Annual Conference, an MEF borrower with less than 3 years of active service may be required to satisfy the note(s) outstanding. Repayment may be made in full or at a rate of at least $1200 per year until paid in full." The policy was approved as amended. A new item XIII.F was proposed to read "If a Board member has a relationship (mentor, relative, etc.) appearing before the Board or a board committee, that Board member shall be entitled to be present only in the committee meeting in which the Board member is assigned. However, any Board member may elect to be recused from that meeting." The proposed new item was approved.

A new provision was proposed dealing with the issue of academic integrity growing out of experiences which the Board has had with candidates submitting work not their own or work plagiarized from other sources. The Board determined that a stronger policy statement was needed, according to Ms. Parrish, and one which held clergy accountable. The following statement was presented, to appear as X.C.4 in the Policy Guidelines, and was approved.

Academic Integrity Statement and Policies

This statement shall be included in General Instructions to candidates and in oral orientations.

All work submitted to the Board of Ordained Ministry should be guided by the highest standards of academic integrity and intellectual honesty. The following definition of academic dishonesty is excerpted from the Columbia College Department of English statement on academic integrity and has been used with permission of the Department:

- Claiming as your own work an assignment written by another student.
- Turning in an assignment that is largely a restatement in your own words of a text written by someone else, even if you give credit to that person for those ideas. The thesis and organizing principles of an assignment must be your own.
- Turning in an assignment that contains paraphrases of someone else's ideas but does not give proper credit to that person for those ideas.
- Turning in an assignment that uses the exact words of another author without using quotation marks, even if proper credit is given in a parenthetical citation, or that changes the words only slightly and claims them to be paraphrases.

Academic dishonesty, as defined above, in the submission of materials to the Board of Ordained Ministry will result in a minimum of three-year suspension from the commissioning/ordination process and appropriate Disciplinary action.

Signed Statement (to be included somewhere in work submitted by candidate):

Completion of the following statement indicates that you understand the meaning of academic integrity and the consequences of academic dishonesty. Please attach a signed copy of this statement to all written work submitted to the Board of Ordained Ministry.

I certify that the work I am submitting is my own. I have given proper credit to all sources of information and have neither given nor received unauthorized assistance, as defined in section X.C.4 of the South Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry Policy Guidelines.

The policy changes being completed, the Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry was adopted as a whole. Bishop McCleskey expressed the appreciation of the Annual Conference to the members of the Board of Ordained Ministry and to the Reverend Ted H. Walter, Coordinator of Clergy Services, for all they do in preparing persons for service as ministers in the Annual Conference.

Bessie Bellamy Parker Memorial Scholarship Award. The Reverend Lillian H. Washington presented the 2002 Bessie Bellamy Parker Memorial Scholarship Award in the amount of $4,000.00 to the Reverend Peggy J. Garland, Pastor at Salem United Methodist Church in the Anderson District and a 2nd year student at the Candler School of Theology.

Africa University Interpreter. Yollande Mavund, a graduate of Africa University, a native of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, and a Senior at Wesley Theological Seminary, was introduced to the Annual Conference. She is serving as an interpreter for Africa University.

Church for All God's Children Recognition. Mrs. June Willson, Associate Director of the Conference Council on Ministries, presented a "Church for All God's Children" recognition award to the Reverend Robert J. Howell, Jr., Pastor, the Reverend Ruth Ann Ivey, Minister of Christian Education, and the lay members of Bethany United Methodist Church, Summerville. Mrs. Willson noted the many requirements which Bethany had to meet in order to qualify for the award. Bishop McCleskey also noted that Bethany, Summerville, is one of fifteen churches around the United States participating in the Summer Teaching Program of Duke Divinity School. Will Grady, a member of Trenholm Road Church, Columbia, serving as Bethany's Summer Intern, was introduced by Mr. Howell.

The Monday morning session was concluded with prayer by the Reverend Robert J. Howell, Jr.

The morning session was followed by the Laity Luncheon held on the campus of South Carolina State University in the Smith-Hammond-Middleton Center. Mrs. Carolyn Rogerson presided. Information on the Laity Convocation and the Conference's Lay Speaking Ministries was shared. Speakers were the following members of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries: Kristopher Roof, Brandon Taylor, Catherine Shell, and Skyler Nimmons. The program was concluded with a benediction by Bishop McCleskey.

Monday Afternoon, The Second Day May 27, 2002

The Conference reconvened at 2:03 p.m. The Reverend Willie Wilson led in the singing of "He Leadeth Me" followed with prayer led by Bishop McCleskey.

Report of the Refugee Coordinator. The Reverend Hazel C. Bennett reported on the current crisis resulting from persons having to flee their homes for a variety of tragic reasons, natural and otherwise. She stated that United Methodists are involved in refugee assistance and resettlement through the United Methodist Committee on Relief and, in South Carolina, through Lutheran Family Services as well. Ms. Bennett urged members of the Conference to challenge their local churches to become involved in ministry to refugees. She reported that there has been renewed interest in refugee sponsorship in South Carolina during the last year. Three families have recently been assigned to three churches in the South Carolina Annual Conference. Shandon United Methodist Church was recognized for their involvement in refugee resettlement. Shandon sponsored a Bosnian family of five in 1999 and a second family in 2001. The Reverend Michael L. Guffee accepted a Certificate of Appreciation on behalf of Shandon and reported the progress which both families have made.

Volunteers in Mission. The Reverend Noble F. Miller, Jr., reported on the work of Volunteers in Mission. In 2002 more than a dozen teams will be going to places of great need. Those present who have served on mission teams were asked to stand and receive the appreciation of the Conference.

SIP Summer Missioners. The Reverend C. Lane Glaze, Campus Minister at Clemson University, presented twelve of the thirteen "missioners" who have prepared for summer service at eight locations in South Carolina as a part of the Summer Investment Program. Each missionary introduced himself or herself and indicated the location where they would be serving.

Salkehatchie Summer Service. The Reverend Stephen M. McCormick, Chairperson of the Steering Committee, reported that there would be thirty-four camps this summer with more than two thousand three hundred and fifty registered participants working on more than two hundred homes. Mr. McCormick reported that the Reverend Thomas B. Wilkes, III, will be the new Chairperson of the Steering Committee. Appreciation was expressed to the Conference for the support received from the churches. Special appreciation was expressed to the Outreach Section Office of the Council on Ministries for its staff support and coordination of the program. Bishop McCleskey reflected on his visits during the Summer of 2001 to a third of the Salkehatchie Camps and the album of photographs which he made during these visits and which will remain in his office.

Bishop McCleskey led the Conference in a Commissioning Service for participants and representatives of United Methodist Volunteers in Mission, the Summer Investment Program, and Salkehatchie Summer Service concluding with the hymn, "Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life" and prayer.

Michael C. Watson Volunteer in Mission Award. The award, named for Dr. Michael C. Watson founder of South Carolina Volunteers in Mission, recognizes one lay person and one clergy person who have exemplified extraordinary volunteer mission service. The award was presented by Ms. Veronica Clinkscales, Chairperson of the Conference Board of Global Ministry, to Mr. Joseph Stasiukaitis, Bethany United Methodist Church, Summerville, and to the Reverend H. Bruce Palmer, pastor of the Pendleton United Methodist Church.

Shirley Cundiff Bethea Award. Mrs. Carolyn Rogerson, Conference Lay Leader, was joined by Miss Josefa Bethea, Mrs. Bethea's daughter, for the presentation of the award. Mrs. Rogerson noted that the focus of the award has changed from an award recognizing "volunteerism" to a scholarship award for post-graduate study. Scholarship awards of $500.00 each were presented to Cheryl Jones Casey, who is leaving a nursing career to prepare to enter the field of Christian Education, and to Donna Morris Watson, a second year student at Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary. Miss Josefa Bethea reflecting upon her mother's life and interests expressed her feeling that her mother would be pleased to be remembered through the presentation of these scholarships. She added her own appreciation for the care, concern, and support extended to her by the South Carolina Annual Conference. Brief remarks of appreciation were shared by the recipients.

Barbara Boultinghouse Bridge Builder Award. Ms. Betty Walker, Chairperson of the Conference Commission on Religion and Race, presented the award which recognizes persons or organizations which have built bridges of understanding by promoting inclusiveness, to the Reverend Lucy Davis, Executive Director of the New Life Rescue Ministries in Florence, which includes ministry to homeless men and women.

Report of the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate. The Reverend Norman A. Brown, Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, presented the Report and expressed the appreciation of the Advocate Board and Staff for the support of the Conference. The Editor, Karl Davie Burgdorf, was introduced and spoke to the Conference about the role of the Advocate in providing information and telling the story of the Church. He reminded the Conference of the plan begun last year to provide a one year free subscription to the Advocate to new members of local churches and reported the plan to continue this program. He also reminded the Conference that the Advocate provides five free subscriptions to every local church.

Report of the Commission on Communications. The Report was presented by Dr. Mary Lynn Polk, Chairperson of the Commission. She called attention specifically to two areas of work. The first was the latest T.V. spots from the Igniting Ministry Media Campaign and the particular audience and situation to which they were directed including the media work developed in connection with the events of 9/11 and the service of remembrance planned to commemorate the events of 9/11. The second area being given attention by the Commission is district and local church training in communications and media resources. She mentioned new resources available and closed the Report with an excerpt from one of the "Spirit Filled" videos in the Tool Kit One-Two-Three.

Alston Wilkes Society. Ms. Anne Walker, Executive Director of the Alston Wilkes Society, was presented to the Conference to express the Society's appreciation for the support of the Annual Conference on the occasion of the Society's 40th Anniversary. The Society was founded as the South Carolina Therapeutic Association by the Reverend Eli Alston Wilkes. She shared several experiences from her work with the Society. The Society is one of seventeen Advance Special Ministries supported by the Conference. She stressed understanding the "worth of the soul" as the main focus of the Alston Wilkes Society and other Advance Special Ministries and closed with a reading of "The Touch of the Master's Hand".

Announcement of Evening Worship. The Reverend Ethel G. Jefferson, Chairperson of the Board of Evangelism, announced the evening worship service planned by the Board of Evangelism, the Conference Staff, and the churches of the Orangeburg District to be a powerful worship experience. Ms. Jefferson presented the preacher for the evening service, the Reverend Tyrone Gordon, Pastor of the St. Mark United Methodist Church, Wichita, Kansas.

The Conference took a brief recess at 3:30 p.m. reconvening at 3:40 p.m. as the Reverend Willie Wilson led in singing, "To God Be The Glory".

Report of the Trustees of the United Methodist Center. The Report was presented by the Reverend Harry R. Stullenbarger. The Board recommended the expansion and renovation of the Conference Headquarters and requested authorization to borrow up to two million dollars for the work and to establish an apportionment of two million to retire the indebtedness over a period not to exceed five years beginning in 2003. He reported that the Board had carefully studied the various alternatives to the current crowded situation and concluded that the cost of other alternatives would be prohibitive. The cost of the proposed addition and reconfiguring of the current building was found to be less than the alternatives. He reported that included in the proposed renovations was the addition of a gabled roof to the current structure which has been plagued by leaks in the flat roof and the installation of a sprinkler system to bring the current building up to fire code. The architect, Mr. Gary Brown of Goforth and Brown and Associates, Florence, was introduced.

There were a number of questions from members of the Conference. Ms. Carleathea Benson questioned why not a second story on the proposed addition to allow for future accommodations. Mr. Stullenbarger replied that the Trustees felt that the cost of a second story would be prohibitive and that future accommodations could be made by reconfiguring the space now being proposed. The Reverend Frank J. Griffith asked if the Trustees considered moving the Bishop's office and the Columbia District Superintendent to another location outside of the United Methodist Center. Mr. Stullenbarger replied that this had been considered but that the consensus of opinion was that these offices should remain in the headquarters but be separated off in the proposed addition. Mr. Griffith also questioned if a study had been done of future needs. Mr. Stullenbarger replied that this had been done and that projected needs had been incorporated into the proposed plans. He further stated that the space used now for conference rooms could be converted into office space in the future if needed. The Reverend John W. Culp questioned the "timing" of the proposal for this year. Mr. Stullenbarger responded that this proposal comes after four years of study and review. The Reverend Michael B. Henderson asked about the use of the word "apportioned" in the Report stating that it was CF&A's understanding from discussion with the Trustees that this would not be an "apportionment" in the same sense that the other apportionments are. Mr. Stullenbarger replied that this was correct, that the amount asked of the churches would be a separate item, not included in the apportionments.

Mr. Harry Kent questioned an earlier reply regarding the comparable costs between a one story building and a two story building given the same amount of square footage. Mr. Brown, the architect, replied that given the scale of this building addition, 5,741 square feet, to make the project a two story solution would require two additional stairways and would call into question the adequacy of the current single elevator unit.

A question was raised by Mr. Ben Nesbitt, College Place United Methodist Church, regarding the specific cost to his church of the proposal. The Reverend Michael B. Henderson replied that given the two million dollar figure, a local church could look at its current apportionment for Congregational Development, double that figure, and spread it out over five years to get a good estimate of what it would be asked to contribute for this project. Mr. Nesbitt also asked if the proposed plan was designed for current staff or if adding additional staff is anticipated. Mr. Stullenbarger replied that staffing is not the responsibility of the Center Trustees, and he knows nothing of plans currently for additional staff, but that the Center plan is such that additional space for staff could be developed later. The Reverend Michael L. Vandiver asked if the two million dollar figure included the loan costs. Mr. Stullenbarger replied that it does. The Reverend Wade H. Everett asked about the funding plan and how to explain it to his congregation. Bishop McCleskey replied that it was his understanding that using the current formula for apportionments, an amount would be given to each church with the request that it participate in the plan by providing that amount spread over a five year payment period. A question was raised by the Reverend John T. Rush regarding the cost of the loan. Mr. Stullenbarger replied that the actual cost of the project would be about 1.4 million dollars in round figures which, when amortized over five years, with interest would be about two million dollars. The Trustees will bid the loan and will seek the lowest interest rate available in the state. Mr. Rush asked if there would be "an asking" for an additional year if the needed funds were not received by the end of the five year period. Bishop McCleskey replied that if that situation developed he felt it would be necessary for the Trustees to come back to the Annual Conference with a proposal to address that problem. The Conference proceeded to debate the proposed recommendations.

The Reverend H. Sam Johnson spoke in favor of the plan reflecting upon his experience as a conference staff person while the offices were in different locations around Columbia during the time the current Center was being built. He used the term "asking" in characterizing the funding request and urged the Conference to approve the plan in order to support the conference agencies being together in one location as has been proposed. The Reverend Joseph W. Alley spoke against the proposal stating that he had not heard a thorough discussion of how the Annual Conference might make better use of urban properties around Columbia currently vastly underused. He noted that, with one-third of the people in South Carolina barely able to survive, the Conference should seriously question expanding its bureaucracy and that, at this point, he was not persuaded that this was something the Conference needed to do.

The Reverend Paul W. Wood, Jr., who spent five years working in the Conference Center, spoke in favor of the proposal noting the advantage of staff being in the same location. He stated that expansion of ministries in the Conference has made additional space necessary and that he was proud of that expansion of ministries. Mr. Jerry Campbell, Mauldin United Methodist Church, spoke against the proposal, based not so much on what was being proposed, but rather on the fact that no specific information about the cost of the proposal to each local church had been provided prior to Conference which would have allowed prior consideration by each local church. The Reverend J. Thomas Williams, past Chairperson of the Center Trustees, spoke of the years spent considering what to do at the Center, given the program of the Conference. He stated that the proposed plan offered the most economical alternative given the expanding Conference Program. He expressed the belief that something had to be done, either now or later. An opportunity for a closing statement was given the Chairperson of the Board. Mr. Stullenbarger stated that he felt that the growth of the Conference agencies and programs was a healthy sign for the Church especially since many programs were being underwritten by grants from the General Church. He also indicated that costs will increase if the Conference delays action. Given the amount of study about the situation over the last four years, he urged the Conference to approve the plan and make a venture in faith that the funding will come because of the Conference's desire to be in ministry and outreach. The recommendations of the Board of Trustees were approved by the Conference.

Claffin University Chapel Observance. Dr. Henry N. Tisdale presented the chapel initiative at Claffin. Dr. Tisdale stressed Claffin's long partnership with the Church and its commitment to training leaders, clergy and laity, for the Church. The proposed chapel will nurture and enrich the spiritual lives of all who live, work, and study at Claffin and will be a space dedicated to public and private worship and supportive of the University's religious life activities. A challenge grant of $250,000.00 has been provided by Dr. and Mrs. James Elmore to begin the project for a chapel. Dr. Tisdale reported that the project has been approved by the Claffin Board of Trustees and that the Bishop and Cabinet and the Council on Finance and Administration have approved Claffin's soliciting gifts from churches and individuals although the project is not a conference appeal. A video presentation was shared with the Conference. Dr. Tisdale stated that three million dollars was needed to build the chapel on the campus. He announced that personal commitments had been received from the Bishop and members of the Cabinet, from several churches and individuals, from the Claffin Board of Trustees and Board of Visitors, and from alumni, faculty, staff and students. According to Dr. Tisdale, there are plans to visit each of the twelve districts and as many churches as possible.

Black College Fund 25th Anniversary. Ms. Danine J. Fleming brought greetings on behalf of the Black College Fund. Ms. Fleming, a 1996 graduate of Claffin University, spoke of the important lifeline provided by the Black College Fund to historically Black colleges and universities and expressed appreciation to the churches of the South Carolina Annual Conference for their support of this Fund.

Reception of Classes. The Reverend Jimmy J. Montgomery, Vice Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, spoke of the process for approval of candidates for ordained ministry and then introduced the Reverend Timothy J. Rogers, Registrar of the Board, who presented the candidates for reception into Conference membership. Mr. Rogers presented the following newly elected Probationary Members for reception into the Annual Conference: Dawn McGahee Compton, Barry Alexander Allen, Richard Alan Broomall, Cheryl Mitchell Caruso, Clark Dennis Cundiff, Melanie Lynn Dobson, Judy Correll Hames, Stacey Lynn Hanson, Rebecca Jean Huguley, James Thomas Lowery, III, Joel William McMakin, Albert Middleton, Lewis Marion Mims, Jr., Phillip Lynwood Pace, Jr., Jeffrey Salley, Stephen Ray Streett, Samuel Simpson Warwick, and Whittaker Vernon Middleton.

Mr. Rogers next presented the following newly elected Full Members for reception into the Annual Conference: Robert Anthony Adams, Henry Allen Altman, John Patrick Bolin, Kenneth Neal Carter, Telley Lynnette Gadson, Archer Judson King, Wayne Robert Major, Carolyn Rampley Malphrus, Edward Lovell McCutcheon, Kenneth Leroy Smith, Sr., and Sandra Stevens-Poirel.

Bishop McCleskey first examined those being received as Probationary Members using the "historic questions" of Methodism. Next Bishop McCleskey examined those being received as Full Members using the "historic questions" of Methodism. The classes were received. Bishop McCleskey next introduced to the Annual Conference those persons being received into Conference Membership by transfer from other annual conferences. Harold Jackson Bailey (Virginia), Lisa Kim Eanes (Iowa), Candice Yeary Sloan (Texas) were introduced as coming as Elders in Full Connection. Margaret Sue Kelly (Louisiana) and Suzanne Harris Pruitt (North Alabama) were introduced as coming as Deacons in Full Connection. Those presented and introduced were received and welcomed.

The Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry including those sections in Part III and Part IV of the Business Questions was received in its entirety.

Commissioning of Probationary Members. "An Order for Commissioning Probationary Members For Service" followed the reception of classes. The service began with the singing of "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee". Following the hymn, the Candidates were presented for commissioning in preparation for the Order of the Elder by the Reverend Luonne A. Rouse. The following were presented for commissioning: Barry Alexander Allen, Richard Alan Broomall, Cheryl Mitchell Caruso, Clark Dennis Cundiff, Melanie Lynn Dobson, Judy Correll

Hames, Stacey Lynn Hanson, Rebecca Jean Huguley, James Thomas Lowery, III, Joel William McMakin, Albert Middleton, Lewis Marion Mims, Jr., Phillip Lynwood Pace, Jr., Jeffrey Salley, Stephen Ray Streett, and Samuel Simpson Warwick. The Reverend Jean Osborne presented Dawn MaGahee Compton to be commissioned as a Probationary Member in preparation for the Order of Deacon.

The Scripture, Luke 10:1-12, was read by Louise Marion Mims, Jr., a candidate. There followed the Charge and Examination by Bishop McCleskey. Each candidate was commissioned by Bishop McCleskey. The Commissioning Service was concluded with the singing of "A Charge To Keep I Have" followed by the benediction by Bishop McCleskey. The afternoon session of the Conference was concluded at 5:10 p.m.

Monday Evening, The Second Day May 27, 2002

The evening program began with music by the "Norway Experience" Choir, an interdenominational choir from the Norway, South Carolina area. Mr. David Williamson, St. Paul UMC, Orangeburg, welcomed those attending the evening session to Orangeburg and expressed the hope that members of the Conference would visit the Edisto Memorial Gardens while in Orangeburg. A time of congregational singing followed after which prayer was offered. Special music was presented by the "Quartet Five" of St. Paul's UMC, Orangeburg, and by the Jarvis Brothers of Trinity UMC, Orangeburg. The groups performed separately and together and offered themselves to come to sing in the local churches of the Conference to witness to God and to the unity they have found through singing together. Two personal testimonies followed the special music.

Ms. Starr Ward, Secretary of the Board of Evangelism, presented the Denman Evangelism Award to the lay recipient, Mrs. Deloris Goodwine, a member of Murray United Methodist Church, Ridgeville. The Reverend Ethel G. Jefferson, Chairperson of the Board of Evangelism, presented the Denman Evangelism Award to the clergy recipient, the Reverend Hayes T. Gainey, pastor of the Edisto Fork United Methodist Church, Orangeburg. Both recipients spoke to the Conference to express their appreciation.

An offering was received for the Africa Initiative in support of the Hope for the Children of Africa appeal and Africa University.

The Reverend Ethel G. Jefferson introduced the preacher for the evening, the Reverend Tyrone Gordon, a member of the Kansas West Annual Conference and since September 1, 1988, Pastor of the St. Mark UMC in Wichita, Kansas, which during his pastorate has grown from 350 members to over 2,500 members and is considered one of the fastest growing African American churches in United Methodism. Ms. Jefferson announced that shortly he will succeed the Reverend Zan Holmes as pastor of St. Luke UMC in Dallas, Texas.

Following a rendition of "His Eye Is On The Sparrow," Mr. Gordon Preached. His Scripture was Matthew 28:16-20 which he described not so much as the "great commission" as the "Lord's great expectation." Mr. Gordon declared that the Lord has expectations of us which we cannot leave unfulfilled. Among these, he noted the following. The Lord expects the gospel to be preached and lives to be changed. The Lord expects doors to be opened and the bound to be set free. Evangelism is an expectation, not an option. The Lord expects us to "go", to go beyond the four walls of the church and reach all people. The Lord expects us to make disciples and not just church members. And, if the Lord can expect some things from us, then we can expect some things from the Lord including his presence, his authority, and his power.

A time of congregational singing followed the sermon. The Reverend Ethel G. Jefferson expressed appreciation to those who participated in the service. The Reverend Hayes T. Gainey pronounced the benediction.

Tuesday Morning, The Third Day May 29, 2002

The Love Feast was celebrated at 7:15 a.m. in the W.V. Middleton Fine Arts Center. The Reverends Kenneth L. Smith, Wayne R. Major, and John W. Evans led the service.

Bishop McCleskey called the Conference to order at 8:40 a.m. on Tuesday morning with the singing of "God of Grace and God of Glory" after which Bishop McCleskey led in prayer.

Bishop McCleskey advised the Conference that a month ago Bishop Marshall L. Meadors, Jr., who had been engaged to lead the Bible Study, had notified him that a change in plans made it impossible for him to come to the Session of the Conference. In his place, Bishop McCleskey advised the Conference that he had called on a longtime friend, the Reverend Dr. James C. Howell, to come and lead the Bible Study. Dr. Howell who grew up in Columbia, is a graduate of the University of South Carolina, the Duke Divinity School, and holds the Ph.D. Degree in Old Testament from Duke University. For the last eleven years he has served as Senior Pastor of the Davidson United Methodist Church in Davidson, North Carolina, where the membership has grown during his pastorate from under 500 to over 3,000. He is the author of Servants, Misfits and Martyrs and Preaching the Psalms. He is married and the father of three children. Dr. Howell spoke on the "Beauty of Scriptures" suggesting that we need to trust the beauty and compelling nature of Scripture rather than tying ourselves to dogmatic assertions about Scripture. He suggested that the beautiful moments from our lives which teach us about truth and love and meaning are illuminated and embraced by the beautiful moments of Scripture. He also suggested that there is beauty in the mystery of God and in our inability to fathom that mystery which leads us to honest and open disagreement about Scripture in the church. He noted that the beauty of that kind of disagreement leads to an even greater beauty when we then go out and do what Scripture calls us to do.

Consent Calendar. The Secretary announced that petitions had been received to remove the following items from the Consent Calendar: (1) the Report of the Methodist Oaks, Orangeburg; (2) the Report of the Disaster Response Committee; and (3) the Report of the Native American Committee. With the exception of those three items, Mr. Corderman moved the adoption of the following Reports listed on the Consent Calendar:

The Reports on the Consent Calendar were adopted as listed.

Scholarship Presentations. The Reverend Catherine Jamieson-Ogg, Chairperson of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, encouraged the members of the Annual Conference to read the exciting reports of what is happening on the campuses of the four United Methodist Colleges and Universities in South Carolina and in the eleven Wesley Foundations.

Ms. Jamieson-Ogg announced and presented the following scholarship awards: (1) The Merit Scholarships provided through a portion of the United Methodist Student Day offerings to Yolanda A. Johnson, Kira Nicole Bemis, Megan D. Scott, and Bryan J. Gardner; (2) United Methodist Higher Education Foundation award to William A. Sloan; and (3) The Janie Robinson Thomasson Memorial Scholarship award to Eric B. Bailey.

Francis Asbury Award. The award provided each year by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry is presented by the Conference Board to recognize an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to higher education in the United Methodist Church. Ms. Jamieson-Ogg announced the presentation of the 2002 Award to Dr. Vivian L. Fowler, a Deacon in Full Connection in the South Carolina Annual Conference and an Associate Professor of Religion at Columbia College. Statements of endorsement of Dr. Fowler were shared with the conference, and Dr. Fowler responded in expressing her appreciation for the Award noting in her remarks the historic commitment of the South Carolina Annual Conference to higher education and encouraging the Conference to send students to South Carolina United Methodist colleges and to support these institutions.

Presentation of Hymnals to Clafflin University. Ms. Thelma Hudson, Vice Chairperson of the Commission on Worship, presented, on behalf of the Commission, one hundred United Methodist Hymnals to Clafflin University to be used by the University and the Annual Conference when in session at Clafflin.

United Methodist Schools of Theology. Dr. Russell Ritchie, Dean of the Candler School of Theology at Emory University, was presented to the Conference by Bishop McCleskey. Dean Ritchie expressed appreciation on behalf of all United Methodist schools of theology for the Annual Conference's support of the Ministerial Education Fund. He noted that United Methodism is an "institution creating" Church to a degree not seen in other denominations, and it is a Church that has located its theological schools in university settings combining the pursuit of knowledge and vital piety in a community where the world's knowledge is pursued. Other components of Methodist theological education, according to Dean Ritchie, include an ecumenical spirit; a commitment to inclusiveness, and to the richness of multi-racial, multi-cultural experiences; a commitment to United Methodism and the Church's connectional structure, administration, and worship including a commitment to social witness and social holiness and the "doing" of the Faith.

United Methodist Committee on Relief. The Reverend Mel Luetchens representing the United Methodist Committee on Relief was introduced and presented to the Conference by Bishop McCleskey. UMCOR, according to Mr. Luetchens, serves as United Methodism's relief, development, and refugee resettlement agency in the General Board of Global Ministries. He reported on the United Methodist response to the 9/11 attacks which has totaled almost twenty-five million dollars to date. Mr. Luetchens, who was in New York at the time of the attack on the World Trade Center, indicated that within the first twenty-four hours after the attack, twenty-five pages of calls were received by UMCOR from all over the country offering assistance in all forms, money, time, and labor. Mr. Luetchens indicated that UMCOR has been directly responding through the New York Annual Conference and the districts in the area. Grants have also been made in other conferences for programs to encourage Christian/Muslim understanding, to help in case management in New York, Pennsylvania, and Washington, D.C., and to support rebuilding efforts in Afghanistan through a non-government organization. He reminded the Conference that UMCOR receives no World Service or apportionment monies but rather is supported only by designated or undesignated gifts for its relief and development work. He reported that the South Carolina Annual Conference's giving to the One Great Hour of Sharing offering this year has exceeded last year and ranks third in the Southeastern Jurisdiction. He also commented on the hospital revitalization program and UMCOR's decision to focus attention on the renovation of eight hospitals in Africa and Asia which serve large numbers of persons in the most dire circumstances.

Report of the Disaster Response Committee. The Report, removed from the Consent Calendar, was called to the Conference's attention by Bishop McCleskey in connection with the report from UMCOR. The Report was received as printed.

Committee on Nominations. The Reverend Evelyn C. Middleton asked that Standing Rule No. 19 be suspended to receive a nomination. This was approved. Ms. Middleton placed the name of Ms. Elizabeth Horton before the Annual Conference for nomination as the Hartsville District Lay Leader. It was received and added to the report of Nominations.

Recognition of M.J. Hendrix. Mr. M.J. Hendrix, a Lay Member from the Duncan-Roebuck Charge, Spartanburg District, was recognized for his work in assisting his pastor in making pastoral calls, on an average two hundred per month, in his church and community, and, with the exception of 1958, has represented his church as a lay member of the Annual Conference for fifty-two years.

Report of Offerings. Bishop McCleskey reported that the offering received on Sunday evening for UMCOR totaled $3,612.14 and the offering received on Monday evening for the Africa Initiative totaled $4,201.00.

Report of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Report was presented by the Reverend Ted R. Morton, Jr., Chairperson of the Board. On a moment of personal privilege, Mr. Morton presented to retiring Conference Secretary Delos D. Corderman a reprint of The State Newspaper's series of articles on the Doolittle Raiders. Mr. Morton reminded the Annual Conference that this was the first year that these reports were being brought to the Annual Conference under the auspices of a single board. Mr. Morton reported that nine informational meetings had been held across the state giving persons an opportunity to review the reports and to ask questions. Mr. Morton also reminded the Conference that in presenting this report, he was only "reporting the news" not "making the news." Mr. Morton reported that a "corrected version" of the pension section of the Report could be found beginning on page 202 of the Registration materials replacing the pension section which was distributed in the Pre-Conference materials. He stated that the section of the Board's Report dealing with the health insurance program could be found in the Pre-Conference material beginning on page 57.

Mr. Morton summarized the main recommendations contained in the pension section of the Report. These included a $19.00 per year increase in the Past Service Annuity Rate working towards a goal for Past Service Annuity Rate of one percent of the average annual conference compensation. Mr. Morton reported that another increase could be expected for 2004 as a part of this continuing effort. (The Annual Conference Average Compensation for 2003 was reported at $48,807.00) Mr. Morton stated that the Board is recommending that the benefit for a surviving spouse again be set at seventy-five percent of the formula benefit in effect at the time of death of the participant. Also included are proposed provisions for individual options in funding CPP participation during sabbatical or study leave. Mr. Morton reported that the Board is recommending that the Annual Conference approve an apportionment to the churches for the Pension Program of $4,669,141 for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003, an increase of $578,177, or 14.15%, over the current year. This amount is proposed to fund MPP at 12% of the Annual Conference Average Compensation and CPP at 4.4% of the Annual Conference Average Compensation. Mr. Morton reminded the Conference that as salaries rise, the dollars needed for funding these programs rise also because they are based on percentages.

Mr. Morton directed the attention of the Conference to the Resolution related to rental/housing allowances for retired or disabled ministers found in Report No. 1. He noted that recent federal legislation has put into law the exclusion from federal gross income of the rental/housing allowance for ministers.

Mr. Morton noted that the zero estimated requirement for the "past service payment" shown in Report No. 2 is the result of current and projected funding from income from deposits already on hand with the General Board as reported in the section entitled "South Carolina Annual Conference Funding Plan For Supplement One to the Ministerial Pension Plan As of January 1, 2002," which can be found at the end of the pension section of the Report. Mr. Morton indicated the following corrections to this section: Change the figure 78,509,096 to 78,507,076; change the figure 7,363,811 to 7,363,831.

Mr. Morton reported that a proposed increase of $31,900 in the Administration Requirement for 2003 compared to 2002 represents plans to add another full-time person with anticipated changes in the office staff. Having highlighted these items in the Report, Mr. Morton moved the adoption of the Pension Section of the Report. It was approved as presented.

Prior to presenting the health benefits section of the Report, Mr. Morton introduced the Conference's liaison person at the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Barbara Hora. Mr. Morton pointed out the proposed benefit changes to become effective January 1, 2003, as outlined in the summary at the beginning of the section on Group Insurance. Mr. Morton noted that the Conference Program is predicated on the assumption that Medicare coverage will be the primary coverage for all retired and retiring ministerial members of the Annual Conference. Mr. Morton noted a change in item No. 5, under the summary section, namely the cost sharing fee for office visits (ov) to both General Practitioners and Specialists will be $30 rather than the two figures shown in materials.

Mr. Morton noted that Report Number One defines who is eligible for participation in the health insurance plans adding that Reports Number Two, Three, Four, and Five are largely self-explanatory and contain no changes from last year. In Report No. Six, which details the operating budget for the insurance program, Mr. Morton noted that the requested increase in the apportionment for 2003 of $690,736, or sixteen percent, reflects the heavy claims experience of the Conference. He noted that the Conference's claims experience has been so heavy that next year the Conference will get no benefit from the General Board's "rate smoothing funds" which has helped the Conference's premium costs over the last three years. Mr. Morton indicated that South Carolina is one of seven annual conferences that have had similar negative claims experience. He stated that it is the intention of the Board to begin an active program to encourage wellness and emphasize preventive healthcare.

Mr. Morton directed the attention of the Conference to the material in Exhibit A and Exhibit B which give the details of Conference's proposed plan. In Exhibit A, Part 2 - Optional Coverage, Mr. Morton noted that in item No. 14, $\frac{3}{4}$ time is the requirement for optional coverage for a deacon in full connection serving on less than a full-time basis. He reported that information about pharmacy coverages can be found in Exhibit B, and that pharmacy coverages are the same for active and retired participants.

In summary, Mr. Morton stated that there were three factors that guided the Board in setting out the details of the plan for 2003: (1) the proposed insurance plan is a group plan which must have well-defined parameters and is based on average experience which does not take into account special exceptions; (2) the plan must be beneficial to the participants; and (3) the plan must be affordable to both the participants and this annual conference. Mr. Morton concluded the presentation of the insurance section and moved its adoption.

In response to a question from the Reverend Leonard C. Ripley regarding coverage for local pastors, Mr. Morton called attention to the Adoption Agreement, Part I, Item No. 3, which indicates the inclusion of "full-time local pastors" in the program. A question was raised by the Reverend Donald O. Clendaniel, who transferred into the South Carolina Conference three years ago, regarding the percentage of annual conference funding of his insurance cost in retirement should he retire in seven years with only ten years of continuous service. Mr. Morton indicated that under the proposed schedule, he would be responsible for one hundred percent of the premium cost throughout his retirement. A question was raised by the Reverend Willie Wilson regarding the effect of the mandatory participation upon persons who are in other plans outside the church. Mr. Morton responded that there was an "opt out" provision available for persons in other plans entitled to lifetime benefits noting, however, that group plans are more effective the larger the pool of participants and the broader the range of ages among the participants. He added that the move from voluntary to mandatory is also necessary in order to participate in the "rate smoothing" mechanism of the General Board. A concern was raised by the Reverend Ellen A. Younker regarding the effect of the proposed program upon persons feeling called to service outside of the Annual Conference, such as missionary service, during the latter years of their ministry. Mr. Morton stated that clearly the proposed program is a program for this Annual Conference and that the Board feels a plan cannot be tailored to allow for consideration of various personal career choices and service in other places outside of the South Carolina Annual Conference. The Reverend Rebecca Shirley asked if the need for more participants is desired, why are ordained Deacons not included other than as an option for local churches or their employers. Mr. Morton replied that the coverage for Deacons is a standard provision in the various health flex plans of the General Board. Ms. Barbara Hora responded to this question stating that the Book of Discipline makes participation in the Conference health plan voluntary and optional as some local churches may offer a health plan for these employees. Accordingly, an Annual Conference cannot mandate the participation of its Deacons in the health plan. This is an option available to the Deacon and the local church as the salary-paying unit.

The question and concern was raised by the Reverend Phillip C. Thrailkill that this approach to providing health insurance conference by conference could undermine the connectionalism of the United Methodist Church and that perhaps such a potential problem needs to be addressed by the General Conference in order to make coverage more portable from place to place. The Reverend Clifford R. Gilmer questioned the scenario of retiring prior to age 62 and the effect of that. Mr. Morton responded that the operative phrase for retirement is "in benefit" which one could not do prior to age 62. Mr. David Anderson, a member of the Board, raised the question of the Board's concern about the projected unfunded liability for retired health coverage which Mr. Morton indicated to be in the area of forty million dollars. He indicated that the rules being proposed have come out of the Board's concern to address that issue trying to deal with ever increasing cost on one hand and finite financial resources on the other.

The Reverend John W. Evans questioned the effect of taking study leave or leave of absence upon the requirement of "continuous years" in appointment. It was noted by Ms. Hora that the requirement is "continuous participation" in the program which she indicated to mean that if a person went on study leave and took on the premium payments for coverage in full himself that would constitute continuous participation in the program. The Reverend Keith D. Ray raised the question of how mandatory participation impacts clergy couples and family coverage. The Reverend Delos D. Corderman responded that it would be necessary for one of the clergy couple to be the participant and to be the participant continuously for the number of years required. It would not be possible to switch back and forth.

The Reverend Tommy Tucker questioned the exclusion of part-time local pastors from participation in the program and the effect of later moving from part-time to full-time based on the church's ability to pay. Mr. Morton responded that the years counted for continuous participation would be limited to the years on full-time status. The Reverend Robert D.B. Reeves asked about the premium a person on study leave or leave of absence would have to pay themselves to continue to participate in the program. It was reported that currently the premium for participation on this basis is $716.00 per month and will increase to $898.00 per month in 2003. Mr. Morton again stated the view of the Board that these benefits are "earned benefits" which come with serving in the Annual Conference.

The Reverend Archie R. Bigelow, Jr., moved "that the South Carolina Annual Conference notify the General Board of Pensions and Welfare that we are dissatisfied with Cigna as the insurer of our Healthflex Program." It was seconded. Mr. Morton responded that that message has been communicated. Mr. Morton also stated that Cigna is not the Conference's insurance company. The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits is in effect the Conference's insurance company; Cigna is the third party administrator, providing only the administration as agent for the General Board, and not the benefits. Bishop McCleskey stated that he himself has communicated the same message of dissatisfaction to the General Board, but that the motion is not a part of the report which is before the Conference at present.

The Reverend Donald O. Clendaniel moved "that United Methodist Clergy who have transferred into the South Carolina Annual Conference from other United Methodist Conferences prior to the 2002 Session shall be exempt from whatever changes may be made in regards to the retired healthcare program of the South Carolina Annual Conference." The motion was seconded. Mr. Morton responded that to approve the Clendaniel Motion would in effect create a division within the classes of persons for whom the conference is to provide benefits, thus creating the scenario of treating people within the same group differently which would violate laws regarding insurance programs. The Reverend Wyatt C. Minton, III, spoke in favor of the Clendaniel Motion, noting the issue of fairness.

Bishop McCleskey asked Mr. Clendaniel to clarify the motion he had made to determine an issue of legality as to what the Annual Conference is able to do. Mr. Clendaniel was asked to reread the motion. Bishop McCleskey responded that the Clendaniel Motion does not address the issue of "continuous service." The motion would declare anyone who had transferred into the South Carolina Annual Conference exempt from actions of this conference related to pensions and insurance. Bishop McCleskey added that it is his understanding that that is not legal. The Clendaniel Motion was declared out of order by Bishop McCleskey.

The Reverend Paul W. Harmon moved to amend Item No. 3 under the "Summary of proposed benefit changes effective 01/01/2003," line 2, by deleting the phrase "in the active group health plan of the South Carolina Annual Conference" and replacing it with the words "in an active group health plan of the United Methodist Church." The motion to amend was seconded. Mr. Harmon stated that the purpose of the amendment was to address the issue of continuous service by extending it to include active participation in any other health plan of the United Methodist Church. Mr. Cecil Creighton, lay member of Aldersgate, Sumter, stated that what is being proposed by the Board is no different from what other states and other employers, including the State of South Carolina, where the requirement is 15 years continuous service, require. The Reverend Kim M. Strong spoke in favor of the amendment stating that either we are a United Methodist Church, united across all the Jurisdictional conferences or we are just a "South Carolina United Methodist Church." The Reverend Cassandra Pasley Jackson proposed an amendment to Item No. 4, which was not entertained because it did not pertain to the matter currently before the body. The Reverend James Ellis Griffeth expressed his appreciation for the ten-year rule, rather than a fifteen year requirement which had been proposed earlier. Having served for many years in an appointment beyond the local church, he indicated that he felt that what was being proposed by the Board was fair and stated his opposition to the Harmon Amendment. Mr. Morton was allowed a final statement on behalf of the Board to summarize the Board's perspective on the issue. The Harmon Amendment was declared defeated by a standing vote, taken twice.

The Reverend Harlan E. Wilson, Jr., proposed an amendment to Item No. 4, section b., under "Summary of proposed benefit changes effective 01/01/2003," to add after the words "full time service" "or who pay both personal and institutional share of the insurance while on study leave or sabbatical." Bishop McCleskey stated that it was clear from a question asked previously that persons who do that are participants according to information in the addenda to the Report and, therefore, not necessary to be added.

The Reverend Toni L. White moved to postpone consideration of the Report until a later time to allow additional time for reflection and consideration. The motion was seconded. Mr. David Anderson spoke against the motion to postpone consideration arguing that ample time had already been allowed for consideration of the Report. The motion to postpone was approved.

A Celebration of Retirement. The Conference observed a service of worship and recognition for those entering the retired relationship. Music was provided by the Methodist Oaks Choir under the direction of Mrs. Annie Martha Hills. Prayer was offered by the Reverend John T. Rush. The Scripture Lesson was read by the Reverend Carolyn Malphrus. The Service was led by Bishop McCleskey. The following retiring ministers and their spouses who were present were presented to the Conference by the Reverend Delos D. Corderman: Vernon O. Anderson, Kenneth G. Bobo, Robert N. Carlisle, Annette C. Edwards, William H. Felder, Carlos O. Gardner, Jr., Anthony N. Gavalas, Willis T. Goodwin, L. Junior Graham, Vincent Francis Halter, Donald Sidney Haton, Elizabeth Chestnut Hughes, Charles A. Hutchins, Larry A. Jenkins, Joan Quick Merck, Noble F. Miller, Jr., Daniel A. Morrison, Jr., John T. Rush, Jerry M. Watson, and John M. Williams, Jr.

Those members of the retiring class desiring to do so were given an opportunity to speak to the Conference. The Reverend Willis T. Goodwin, representing the retiring class, and the Reverend Henry A. Altman, representing the new class of full members, participated in the ceremony of the "Passing of the Mantle."

Tuesday Afternoon, The Third Day May 28, 2002

The Conference reconvened at 2:30 p.m. with the singing of "Stand Up, Stand Up For Jesus" followed by prayer offered by Bishop McCleskey.

Report of the Conference Council on Ministries. Mrs. Betty Moss McGuirt, Chairperson of the Council, presented an overview of the Council's Report noting that many people, staff and volunteers, clergy and lay, work together on the Council's programs focused on making disciples of Jesus Christ. She directed the Conference's attention to the Special Days for 2003; the Advance Special Ministries for 2003; the 2003 Programs, Events, Publications, Grants and Awards; the 2003 Proposed Budget, and the various reports of boards and ministries related to the Council. Appreciation was expressed to three retiring chairpersons, Genova McFadden (Church and Society), the Reverend Paul D. Frey (Camps and Retreats Ministries) and the Reverend A. Stephen Holler (Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns). Members of the Conference Council were asked to stand. Mrs. McGuirt introduced the members of the Conference Staff including the Director, Associate Directors, and support staff. She also introduced the five persons assigned to the South Carolina Annual Conference through the 10-10-10 Mission Initiative of the General Board of Global Ministries. She announced that a sixth 10-10-10 Missioner would be coming in July assigned to work with the Department of Juvenile Justice. Efforts were made to show an audio-visual presentation highlighting seven ministries including Hispanic ministries, the Fostering Families program, the Shalom after school and literacy programs, and Native American programs. Bishop McCleskey noted two pending appointments of Hispanic pastors to Hispanic missions in the Charleston and Anderson Districts.

Low County Senior Care. Mrs. McGuirt directed the Conference's attention to a recommendation in the Report of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries to establish a Board of Trust for the Low Country Senior Care, in accordance with Standing Rule No. 54, which in turn would establish by-laws, incorporate, and investigate the feasibility of establishing a senior care facility in the low country, and report to the Annual Conference through the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries. The recommendation was approved.

Report of United Methodist Women. Mrs. Marilyn Murphy, Conference UMW President, presented the Report. The presentation followed the theme "Women of Mission" with anticipated visual effects. Ms. Murphy reported over 20 million dollars given annually to mission by United Methodist Women. Mission is the "reason for doing" for United Methodist Women. Eleven of approximately thirty-five members of the Executive Committee of the Conference UMW introduced themselves to the Annual Conference and related their office and role on the Executive Committee. Past presidents, Sara Shingler, Rubilee Addison, and Harriet Mays, were also recognized. The presentation was concluded with a cheer, "we are United Methodist Women, Women of Mission."

Africa Initiative. Bishop McCleskey reported on the response to the Africa Initiative which included the construction of a building for the Faculty of Theology at Africa University, an endowment for scholarships at Africa University, and support of the appeal, Hope for the Children of Africa. He reported that six hundred and forty-six of the churches in the Annual Conference have responded. These pledges combined with other individual commitments total to date $2,267,300 or ninety-one percent of the goal pledged. Payments on pledges have yielded one-half of the funds needed to construct the building, almost one-half of the goal for scholarships, and forty-eight percent of the goal for Hope for the Children of Africa.

Mr. James H. Salley, Vice Chancellor for Development at Africa University, expressed appreciation to Bishop and Mrs. McCleskey, the Reverend Charles L. Johnson and his staff, the Conference Treasurer and her staff, and the Reverend Ted H. Walter for their leadership and assistance with the Conference's Africa Initiative. He also expressed appreciation to the South Carolina Volunteers in Mission for the four teams sent to Africa University whose work resulted in the construction of a Staff House at the University. The names of the following persons working closely with Africa University were also mentioned: Ms. Elaine Jenkins, the Reverend Charles A. Hutchins, Miss Josefa Bethea, and Mr. John A. Redmond. Mr. Celso Manuel, a student from Angola in his fourth year at Africa University majoring in marketing and management who is currently in South Carolina doing an internship with Mrs. June Willson, was introduced and presented to the Conference.

A slide presentation of scenes from Africa University was shown and narrated by Mr. Salley. Included were pictures of the Theology Building currently under construction as a result of the Conference's support. Mr. Salley recounted briefly the history of the beginning of Africa University and the progress made since 1988. Degrees bestowed on the most recent graduates totaled 187. The University now has 880 alumni, and twenty-nine buildings have been completed. Mr. Salley presented Yollande Mavund, one of the first graduates of the Faculty of Theology. A native of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and currently a student at Wesley Theology Seminary, Miss Mavund brought greetings from Africa University, called by the students, "the Valley of Hope," in all the languages of the student body. She expressed thanks for all being done to help the continent of Africa. Bishop McCleskey reminded the Conference of the planned trip to Zimbabwe, November 8-18, 2002, for the Tenth Anniversary of Africa University and the dedication of the building for the Faculty of Theology.

Report of United Methodist Men. Mr. L.W. Smith, III, Conference President, presented the Report. Mr. Smith reported that the Conference United Methodist Men continue to work across the Conference to encourage local units to move beyond the social arena of "meeting and eating" to the arenas of spiritual growth and outreach. He noted that United Methodist Men are involved in the "prayer line" ministry, prison ministries, habitat for humanity, scouting ministry, tutoring, and mentoring programs. He urged local churches to consider an active United Methodist Men's program. Mr. Smith reported on a new ministry developed since the last conference, the delivery of 54,000 pounds of sweet potatoes that morning to the parking lot of Trinity United Methodist Church and the distribution, within three hours, of those potatoes to shelters, food banks, and councils on aging.

Report of Youth and Young Adult Councils. The Report was introduced by Mrs. June Willson, CCOM Associate Director for Age Level Ministries. The presentation was made against the musical background, "Testify to Love, I'll Be Your Witness." Catherine Shell spoke about the ministry of the Youth Service Fund. Lanecia Rouse spoke about Young Adult Ministry in the Conference and plans for events and activities of the Young Adult Council. Mrs. Willson announced that for the 12th year the Council on Youth Ministries has received the Youth Service Fund Award, being the number one contributor to the Youth Service Fund in the United Methodist Church raising $42,468.66 for the Fund to help youth around the world.

Report of United Methodist Student Movement. Three members of the Steering Committee spoke about the program and activities of the Student Movement and related groups including the Wesley Foundations and campus ministry programs.

The Conference observed a brief recess reconvening at 4:16 p.m. with the singing of "I Am Thine O Lord".

Report of the SEJ Administrative Council. Bishop McCleskey noted the 90th Anniversary of Lake Junaluska Assembly, which began as the Southern Assembly, and which is now a part of the SEJ Administrative Council. The Reverend Jimmy L. Carr, Executive Director of the Council was presented to the Conference by Bishop McCleskey. Mr. Carr's wife, Joy, present in the audience, was also introduced. Mr. Carr noted the names of those from South Carolina serving as members of the SEJ Administrative Council as well as several persons connected to the Conference who serve on the staff of the Council. The Council has seven program agencies including Lake Junaluska Assembly which serves over a hundred thousand persons annually including twelve thousand young people in 2001. Mr. Carr expressed appreciation to the Conference for the resources contributed through the askings for the Jurisdictional ministries. He reported that the Jurisdiction continues to work on diversity in its staff and ministries opening a Work Place Disciple Program this summer for staff.

He noted that the Jurisdiction is in the early stages of a capital campaign for Lake Junaluska to accomplish renovations and improvements to the Assembly. Two additions are being planned, a Disciple Center and a Welcome Center. Bishop McCleskey serves as Chairperson of the Capital Campaign. The Reverend Charles L. Johnson was presented by Mr. Carr to share information about the proposed Welcome Center.

Mr. Johnson made mention of the fact that there is no facility at Lake Junaluska named for an African American. At a meeting of persons from North Carolina and South Carolina, as naming opportunities were considered, the idea emerged of having the proposed new Welcome Center named in memory of Bishop and Mrs. Joseph B. Bethea. Mr. Johnson reported that $550,000 is needed to accomplish this particular naming opportunity. No conference campaign is planned or contemplated, but the opportunity is extended to all who are interested to make a gift or pledge to express appreciation for the service which the Betheas rendered. Mr. Johnson reported that efforts are being made to raise the necessary funds in the areas where the ministry of the Betheas was concentrated. Seventeen persons serve on the Steering Committee and are taking the initiative in this effort. Mr. Johnson reported that pledges of $39,000 have been received thus far.

Bishop McCleskey reported that commitments of over two and a half million dollars have been secured towards the goal of ten million dollars for the Junaluska capital campaign from across the Jurisdiction. Naming the Welcome Center is a part of this effort which is being pursued in the North Carolina, South Carolina, and Western North Carolina Conferences. He extended the invitation to any who would like to join in the effort to remember the Betheas and address the long neglected area of recognizing African-American leadership in the Jurisdiction.

Scouting Awards and Recognition. Mr. Pat Long, Conference Scouting Coordinator, reported that United Methodists continue to be the largest sponsor of scouting youth membership and urged churches to continue to involve scouts in their program. He also noted that scouting ministries are outreach ministries and can be effective means of education and evangelism for youth and their parents. Mr. Long presented the Torch Award, recognizing adult leaders who have given exceptional service to the Scouting program and its youth ministries, to Reverend Kenneth W. Phelps, who has given over thirty years to Scouting including many years of service as the Conference Clergy Scouting Representative and is recognized across the state, the Conference and the Jurisdiction. Mr. Long also announced that the South Carolina United Methodist Men inducted Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey as a "Fellow in the Society of John Wesley" last August at the Boy Scout National Jamboree at Fort A.P. Hill in Virginia in recognition of his witness, vision, and stewardship enhancing the mission and ministry of the Church and his support of Scouting across the state.

The Bishop's Award of Excellence was presented to the following units by Mr. Long, these units having met the requirements during the period since the last Annual Conference:

Cub Scout Pack 190 and Boy Scout Troop 190 of Trinity United Methodist Church, Orangeburg (sixteen years consecutive recognition); Brownie Troop 402, Junior Troop 381, and Cadet Troop 192 of Pinopolis United Methodist Church; new Cub Scout Pack 264 of Bethlehem United Methodist Church, Bennettsville; Cub Scout Pack 9 of Buncombe Street United Methodist Church, Greenville; Cub Scout Pack 114 and Boy Scout Troop 114 of St. Paul United Methodist Church, Spartanburg; and Boy Scout Troop 56 of St. Mark United Methodist Church, Greenville.

Report of the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee. Ms. Carleatha M. Benson reported and introduced the chairpersons of the various task forces – African American Task Force, Korean American Task Force, Hispanic Task Force, and the Native American Committee. She called attention to the Committee's resource table and materials available there including the availability of scholarships for ethnic persons to attend and participate in various programs and opportunities. She introduced Donna Ott, chief of the Pee Dee Nation of Beaver Creek and a member of the Native American Committee, who presented a Prayer Feather to Bishop McCleskey, a necklace for Mrs. McCleskey, and a necklace to the Reverend Charles L. Johnson who advises the Committee. Attention was directed by Ms. Benson to the Committee's Report in the pre-conference materials. Efforts are underway to establish district Hispanic task forces. Support for Advance Special No. 543 was encouraged to support Hispanic ministries. Appreciation was expressed for support of the Native American Sunday offering. The Conference was reminded that each local church is to have a person responsible for matters related to Native Americans. Attention was directed to grants awarded by the Committee and the application criteria and process for grants. Training is being offered by the Committee. Ms. Benson reported that the Committee is working with other boards and agencies of the Conference to further ethnic concerns. Appreciation was expressed to the Annual Conference for its support. Ms. Benson proposed the materials offered in the Report as the Conference's "Comprehensive Plan for Ethnic Ministries," and it was accepted and approved.

Report of South Carolina Conference Communities of Shalom. The Reverend Jack C. Washington spoke about the birthday of the Community of Shalom Ministries, May 6, 1992, the date of the Rodney King beating by police officers in Los Angeles when the General Conference of the United Methodist Church in session took action on a social issue happening in the city where they were meeting. The Community of Shalom Ministries was the result of that event and the unrest which followed the trial of the police officers. Mr. Washington reported that five new sites in South Carolina had completed training since the last Annual Conference, and one site has been retrained for the work of Shalom. New sites are in the Anderson, Greenville, and Orangeburg Districts. A celebration of Shalom Ministries is held annually. The 2001 Celebration included an evening of fun for young people to interest them in the mission of the church, an annual banquet, and a concluding worship service. The Ten Year Anniversary for Communities of Shalom Ministry nationally will be held in December in Washington, D.C. Mr. Washington noted that the South Carolina Conference is the leading conference in the United Methodist Church in the number of Shalom Ministries. Nineteen of twenty-two sites are still active in South Carolina providing a great ministry of churches and communities working together to rebuild and renew community life.

Report of the Board of Church and Society. Ms. Genova McFadden, Chairperson, introduced and presented to the Annual Conference the Reverend Jim Winkler, General Secretary of the General Board of Church and Society. Also recognized were the Reverend R. Clayton Childers, a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference, who serves on the staff of the General Board in the area of conference relations, and Mr. John A. Redmond, a layman from Buncombe Street, who serves as a member and officer of the General Board. Mr. Winkler spoke to the Conference. He noted three goals that he had set for himself in accepting the position of General Secretary: to re-connect the General Board with annual conferences and local churches, to help United Methodists connect justice and mercy in their own lives, and to carry-out the Board's disciplinary mandate to seek implementation of the Social Principles and other social concern statements of the General Conference. Mr. Winkler commented on ways these goals are being implemented including the sending of Christian Social Action to every local church, the hiring of staff to work in the area of annual conference relations, increased representation in the staff of the General Board from the Southeastern and South Central Jurisdictions, efforts to inform and teach United Methodists about issues related to the oppression of people around the world, work with organizations such as the Society of St. Andrew in alleviating hunger, speaking in the "corridors of power" on the tough social issues identified by the General Conference in the Social Principles, efforts to stop internet gambling and hard liquor advertising, support for a global fund for fighting aids, tuberculosis, and malaria, and providing Wednesday noontime Chapel Services at the United Methodist Center on Maryland Avenue in Washington, D.C., for the Capitol area.

Ms. McFadden expressed appreciation to Mr. Winkler for coming to the South Carolina Annual Conference and for his work as General Secretary. Attention was directed to the Board's report in the pre-conference materials. She noted in particular the Board's priorities for the quadrennium: issues of poverty, restorative justice, and elimination of racism which the Board felt were issues which were germane to South Carolina. Resolutions before the Conference dealing with predatory lending proposed by the Reverend Wiley B. Cooper and compensatory education proposed by the Reverend Joseph W. Alley grow out of these issues. She reported that work continues to be needed in the area of restorative justice and the elimination of racism and racial injustice. A resolution "affirming the work of the General Board of Church and Society" was presented as a part of the report. The Resolution, printed in the pre-conference material, was read to the Conference by Ms. McFadden for reasons of the seriousness of the threat to the General Board. Ms. McFadden encouraged persons from South Carolina to attend a conference in Birmingham, Alabama, in August on "Confronting and Combating the Seeds of Hatred, Intolerance, and Violence" sponsored by the Jurisdiction. The report concluded Ms. McFadden's service on the Board of Church and Society. The Report was received with the exception of the Resolution to be considered later during the Conference.

Bishop McCleskey introduced the Reverend Edinson DeArco Pacheco, the Conference's first Hispanic pastor who will be serving in the Charleston District.

The Conference recessed at 5:33 p.m.

Tuesday Evening, The Third Day May 28, 2002

Order for the Ordination of Deacons and Elders. The Service for the Ordination of Deacons and Elders was observed at 7:00 p.m. in the Edward L. Tullis Arena of the Jonas Kennedy Center. Music for the service was provided by Toni Hollingsworth, organist, Julia Quick, violinist, and by the Clergy and Diaconal Ministers' Choir of the South Carolina Annual Conference under the direction of Toni Hollingsworth and the Reverend Debra A.S. Quilling, Coordinator.

The Service was led by Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey who also was the Preacher. The presentations of candidates was led by Mrs. Carolyn Rogerson, the Reverends Patricia J. Parrish, Jimmy J. Montgomery, and Luonne A. Rouse. The Reverend Patricia J. Parrish led the Affirmation of Faith. Scripture Lessons were read by the Reverends Sandra Stevens-Poirel, Whittaker V. Middleton, and Telley L. Gadson. The Crucifer was Barbara L. Reid. Joe Cates was the Episcopal Banner Bearer, and Bennett W. Mazyck was the Acolyte. The offering was received for the Seminary Students Scholarship Fund approved by the 1992 Annual Conference to provide scholarship assistance to South Carolina students attending United Methodist seminaries.

The following person was ordained Deacon: Whittaker Vernon Middleton. The following persons were ordained Elders: Robert Anthony Adams, Henry Allen Altman, John Patrick

Bolin, Kenneth Neal Carter, Telley Lynnette Gadson, Archer Judson King, Wayne Robert Major, Carolyn Rampley Malphrus, Edward Lovell McCutcheon, Kenneth Leroy Smith, Sr., and Sandra Stevens-Poirel.

A reception followed the service.

"The Expectations of Trustworthiness"

Ordination Sermon

I Peter 5:1-11

I Timothy 3:1-13

Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey

Like many of you here, with some degree of regularity I have the experience of boarding an airplane and flying somewhere. You know the program: Check your luggage and get a boarding pass, go through the security checkpoint to the waiting area, listen for your seating section to be called, board the plane, find your seat, stow hand luggage either overhead or beneath the seat in front of you, watch the flight attendant demonstrate safety procedures, wait for the greeting from the flight deck, and, as the captain will say, "Sit back and enjoy the flight."

On several recent flights I have reflected on a basic ingredient of this experience which is essential to our continuing to fly. I was particularly struck by it on a recent flight returning to Columbia from the Spring Council of Bishops meeting. We had to change planes in Atlanta, and after we had left the gate and begun taxiing to the runway for take-off, a strong and violent thunderstorm began to pass directly over the Atlanta airport. The captain came on the speaker and told us that we would have to wait until the storm passed before we could take off. He shut down the engines, and we waited in a long line of planes for about 45 minutes until we were cleared for take-off. It was during the wait that I was reminded again of this basic ingredient which is essential to our continuing to fly. It's simple: Trust. We trust the pilot. We trust the air traffic controllers. Since September 11, as part of the decision to fly again, we trust the enhanced security measures. We trust the whole system of air travel. If we didn't, we'd never get on another airplane.

An ingredient of our trust is our belief that we can count on having certain expectations met. We count on these things for the most part without thinking about them. We count on the designers and manufacturers of aircraft to know what they are doing and to do it well. We count on ground crews to be sure that the plane is fully fueled and that all checkpoints are thoroughly inspected. We count on air traffic controllers to keep up with where the planes are and to guide the pilots in takeoffs, flight patterns, and landings. We trust the pilots to be properly trained, rested, and committed to their responsibilities. And, to move the trust to a higher level, every time we board a plane for a flight we trust all these persons, procedures, and processes with our lives! We count them worthy of the trust. And we act with definable expectations because we count them trustworthy. Trustworthiness is always accompanied by expectations.

That is true in air travel. But it is true of other things as well. In fact, it is true of what we are going to do to these persons before us this evening whom we call ordinands. It is true of all of us here who are ordained clergy. We are trusted. And, along with that trust, come expectations.

First, the trust! A few minutes ago I asked you, the congregation, this question: "I ask you, people of God, to declare your assent to the ordination of these persons. Do you trust that they are worthy, by God's grace, to be ordained?" And you answered in unison: "We do! Thanks be to God!" I hope you grasp the gravity of that question and of your response. For, in a way far more significant than our trust of the persons, procedures, and processes of air travel, you laity trust us ordained clergy with your lives! You trust us with your entry into the Body of Christ through baptism and your nurture in the life of faith through worship, through preaching and teaching and the Lord's Supper, through pastoral care, through the solemnization of marriage, through your life of servant ministry in the world, and through the ushering of your spirits into the full presence of God in services of death and resurrection. You trust us with your lives and with your deaths. And if we are worthy of your trust, we are accountable to the expectations of trustworthiness.

II

That's one of the things the scripture texts for this sermon are all about: the expectations of trustworthiness.

There is the gospel lesson. Three short verses from one of the post-resurrection appearances of Jesus to his disciples. There is this threefold exchange between the Risen Lord and Simon Peter. Three times Jesus asks Peter: "Do you love me?" Three times Peter responds: "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." And three times Jesus charges Peter: "Feed my lambs....Tend my sheep....Feed my sheep." Peter is entrusted with responsibility for ministry; he is charged with the shepherd's task.¹

It should not be any surprise, then, to find that in the first epistle of Peter, written probably 35-40 years later, Jesus is remembered by Peter as the "chief shepherd." In this epistle, reflecting the early organization of the young church, Peter refers to himself as an elder, which was the earliest and most basic office of leadership identified in the early church. He urges other elders to "tend the flock of God that is in your charge." And he reminds them that trustworthy elders come under certain expectations - care of the flock, an exemplary moral life before the flock, obedience to other elders who have longer-standing responsibilities of leadership, humility in relationships with one another, self-discipline, strength in the face of evil, and perseverance in suffering. He reminds these leaders in the fledgling church that trustworthiness carries with it expectations that govern behavior.²

The same theme emerges in the first letter of Timothy. It was most likely written several decades after the letters of Peter, when the church had developed more fully. It reflects a more complex ordering of leadership: bishops, elders, and deacons. Again, however, the words emphasize that trustworthy bishops, elders, and deacons live under certain expectations - integrity, temperance, marital fidelity, experience and growth in faith, humility, seriousness, lack of greed, boldness in proclaiming the gospel.³

I chose these texts from I Peter and I Timothy because they deal with the whole scope of what became ordained ministry in the church: deacons, elders, and bishops. I wanted to cover all of us with this message: that trustworthiness puts all of us under the obligation of expectations. We are not free agents, engaging in ministry under the auspices of our own individual commitments, gifts, and interpretations of ministry. We are bound together in community with all ordained persons, committed to our ministries in covenant with one another, and accountable to the expectations which those who trust us have a right to hold. They trust us with their lives and deaths. They have a right to expect that we will be worthy of the trust.

Now from this point I could go in a number of directions in exploring those expectations. But, in light of the group of ordinands before us this evening, I want to focus that exploration in a specific area of ministry. For the first time since I have served as your bishop I will be ordaining only persons on the track towards being elders in full connection. I will be ordaining one probationary deacon who will later be ordained an elder; and I will be ordaining eleven elders. All these persons are being ordained to the ministry of Word, Sacrament, and Order - preaching and teaching, administration of Baptism and The Lord's Supper, and ordering the life of the church for ministry. All are engaged in pastoral ministry. Therefore, I want to focus on one aspect of that ordination and ministry, aware that much more could be said about this aspect as well as others. I want to focus on the ministry of Word - preaching and teaching, which is the specific calling and task of you being ordained tonight and of most of the rest of us ordained persons in this congregation.

Paragraph 331 of THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE provides a lengthy list of the specific duties of a pastor. Listen to the first item in that list: "To preach the Word, oversee the worship life of the congregation, read and teach the Scriptures, and engage the people in study and witness." Year after year, in the process of consultation between the Cabinet and Pastor Parish Relations Committees, the thing mentioned most when leadership needs of congregations are discussed is strong and faithful preaching. This, then, is the question: In terms of the ministry of preaching and teaching, what do those who trust us have a right to expect?

III

At least two things. And they cover the landscape of our ministry of preaching and teaching.

First, those who trust us have a right to expect us to live our identity as ordained persons.

In his book, THE ORDERS OF MINISTRY IN THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, John E. Harnish declares "that ordination grants a new identity. The individual becomes an ordained representative of the Church, set apart and sent in the name of the Christ and the Church with an identity distinct within the whole people of God."⁴ And he quotes Frederick Buechner:

You will be ordained...and if your experience is anything like mine, you will find that something more even than an outlandish new title and an outlandish new set of responsibilities is conferred in that outlandish ceremony. Without wanting to sound unduly fanciful, I think it is fair to say that an extraordinary new adventure begins with ordination, a new stretch of the road, that is unlike any other that you have either experienced or imagined. Your life is no longer your own in the same sense. You are not any more virtuous than you ever were - certainly no new sanctity or wisdom or power suddenly descends - but you are nonetheless "on call" in a new way. You start moving through the world as the declared representative of what people variously see as either the world's oldest and most persistent and superannuated superstition, or the world's wildest and most improbable dream, or the holy living truth itself.⁵

If that is so, then you can understand why those who trust us are so immensely disappointed when we fail!

You really are different after you are ordained. Oh, in a sense you are exactly the same. You are still the person you were, with the name you have had all along. And to look at you nobody can just tell automatically that you are ordained. But you are different. You are, in a fuller sense than before, representative. You are "pastor." You are officially, as we say, "set apart" by the church to the ministry of deacon, elder. You represent the church in ways that are unique. You have given your life over to the church in ways that other persons have not. The church will assign you your place to live and work. The church will continue to call you to particular tasks and responsibilities. And because you are who you are as ordained, you will have an entree to communities and the lives of persons which you would not have otherwise. In short, people will trust you because you are their pastor, their preacher.

When I finished theological school and went, newly ordained as elder, to my first appointment, for a while it irritated me that people would not call me by my name. Wherever I went - to the community store, the volunteer fire station, the gas station - it didn't matter - wherever I went they called me "preacher." There were times that I wanted to say, "Hey, I have a name!" But over the years I came to see that designation differently. "Preacher!" It was a term of respect. It was a term of a peculiar endearment, even when it came from people who disagreed with me on just about everything. And, most of all perhaps, it was a term of identity. That's who I was - am - have been: Preacher! I represent more than myself. I am responsible for more than my own life. I stand for more in that identity than I stand for on my own. That means they expect me to live like what I stand for. They expect me to live that identity. Do I chafe under it at times? To be sure! But upon reflection, I have come to see that it represents a calling, a response, an authorization, and a sacred responsibility.

There are times in the lives of all us ordained types when we'd prefer just to be ordinary persons. But we give up that freedom with ordination. We take on another identity. We don't always live up to it. But those who trust us expect us to live the identity, and they have a right to. We have not been coerced into it. We have responded to a call. And the church has affirmed our response.

Will Willimon discusses this identity of the ordained in his book CALLING AND CHARACTER. He notes Augustine's claim that ordination marks a person with an "indelible character" that sets one apart in unique ways. He further notes Augustine's distinction between ministerial authority and identity bestowed by ordination and ministerial authority and identity earned over years of faithful ministry.⁶ It's not all completed at once. We spend a lifetime living up to the identity conferred by ordination. Sometimes we do better at it than at other times. But we do well to remember it always. The temptation is for us to forget that we represent more than simply our own selves. As Willimon observes: "Ordination makes us more than we could have been if we had been left to our good intentions and well-meaning devices....I think most of the ethical problems of pastors are not due to our forgetting that we are 'persons,' but rather when we forget that we are pastors....Pastors are called to be more than 'human,' as are all the baptized. The waters of baptism, the imposition of hands upon the head, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, make us even more than human, or perhaps more accurately, truly human."⁷

What does this have to do with preaching and teaching? Simply this: those who trust us have the right to expect us to be in our lives what we preach and teach in our words. They have the right to expect a consistency between the gospel we preach and the lives we live. Soren Kierkegaard said it bluntly for us: "It is absolutely unethical when one is so busy communicating that he forgets to be what he teaches."⁸

It's an amazing thing about United Methodist congregations. The day you move in as their pastor, they trust you. They have a right to expect you to live your identity as ordained, so that what they see on Sundays in the pulpit is what they get every day in your life among them. The word for it is integrity!

Then there is a second expectation. It is really but one extension of the first. Those who trust us have the right to expect us to practice integrity of intellect and spirit in our preaching and teaching. Let me put it more directly. In your preparation to preach and teach, cultivate the habits of study and reflection; and do your own work!

The pastor's life of study, reflection, and preparation is at the same time one of the most important and one of the easiest to neglect aspects of the work of the pastor. It's hard work. It takes discipline. It doesn't look like work to everybody. Nobody sees you do it. People know whether you visit the hospitals, whether you exercise pastoral care of the shut-ins, whether you show up for meetings, whether you are active in the community. When you are involved in things like that, people see you, they interact with you, they hear about you from others. But when you are alone in the solitude of your study, no one else is there. No one sees you. It can even appear that you aren't doing anything worthwhile. Yet, the truth is that neglect of good study and preparation habits will finally be perhaps the most visible neglect of clergy responsibilities. Because Sunday comes! It comes with great regularity! And we had better be prepared for it.

I got this from Bishop Richard Looney, attributed to his homiletics professor in theological school. The professor said to the preaching class one day: "You need to learn to love to preach - love to preach. Because if you don't, people are not going to keep coming Sunday after Sunday to watch you suffer."

Carlyle Marney, Baptist preacher par-excellence of a generation ago, mentor to some of us here, used to tell of an encounter he had with one of his professors in seminary. The teacher said to Marney one day: "Marney! Big man. Big voice. Just right for preaching. But it will be hell if you get up there on Sundays and don't have anything to say." Marney said that comment motivated him to a lifetime of disciplined study and preparation for preaching. Someone else put it more mundanely: "The only thing wrong with having nothing to say is saying it!"

John Wesley urged the preachers under his appointment to read and study regularly. At one conference he said to them: "Steadily spend all the morning in this employ, or, at least, five hours in four-and-twenty. 'But I read only the Bible'....This is rank enthusiasm. If you need no book but the Bible, you are got above St. Paul....'But I have no taste for reading.' Contract a taste for it by use, or return to your trade."⁹ Pretty blunt!

Though we may not often think of it this way, the matter of study and preparation for preaching and teaching is as much a moral matter as are other ethical matters in our lives. It is simply unethical to climb the steps of the pulpit unprepared! Yet how much easier, if ultimately less important, for us to spend time running visible errands for a congregation than spending time in reading, prayer, meditation, preparation in the sacredness of the study.

I have noticed something about us clergy these days. I became particularly aware of it a little more than a month ago at the Spring gathering of our Orders of Deacons and Elders and Fellowship of Local Pastors. I was preaching at the concluding service, and right in the middle of the sermon a cell phone began to ring in someone's pocket or purse in the congregation. It was the first time that had happened to me, though I have heard stories of persons answering their cell phones in worship and carrying on a conversation as they get up and walk out. At any rate, when this phone began to ring I blurted out spontaneously, "I hate those things!" I don't know whose it was, and I don't want to know. That's not the point. Nor do I hate cell phones. They have their problems, but they have their advantages as well; and I use mine a great deal. But I have noticed something about us which cell phones, beepers, e-mail, and the like have brought into our lives: we seem to live as if we think we are indispensable. As if we must always be immediately accessible. Now I believe in us clergy being accessible, available so our congregations can reach us when they truly need us. But I do not believe that means we must be available every moment. There are times when we serve best by disciplining ourselves to be alone with books, with Scripture, for reflection, in prayer, with God. Stanley Hauerwas has a comment worth our attention. He notes that the main skills of clergy today seem to be, knowing how to get along with people, rather than constant study of Scripture, liturgical leadership, and discernment of challenges currently facing his or her congregation. Given the undefined nature of the ministerial task today, only a person of character will be able to sustain the discipline necessary for the development of such skills, for ministers are often rewarded more for being personally accommodating than for preaching in an exegetically responsible way.¹⁰

Those who trust us have a right to expect us to do the kind of study and reflection, reading and writing, that lead to faithful representation of Scripture in our preaching and teaching, even if, as sometimes seems to be the case, there are times when some in our congregation do not know that they need to expect that of us. Such study and spiritual reflection are the ground in which faithful, pastoral, and prophetic preaching is cultivated. And that won't happen unless we have the self-discipline and the character to do it.

Then, this further word of admonition: In doing this work of study and preparation, DO YOUR OWN WORK! Those who trust us have a right to expect that. I am told that one can go to the right website on the internet today and get a complete term paper, on an extensive variety of subjects, even designating whether one is an A, B, or C student, and get a paper of the appropriate quality to appear to be one's own work. I am told that. But I know this. One can go to any one of several websites and get sermons. Complete with "captivating" illustrations. Ready to preach. Now that's easy. It's convenient. It's a ready answer in a pinch when you've had a hectic week and been unable to keep your discipline of study. And once done a few times, it's like so much else done first with uneasiness - it gets easier. But I heard one of my fellow bishops say in a sermon at our Council meeting a few weeks ago, "The cost of evil is always greater than what you see on the price tag."

Evil? Is that too harsh? Only if you can call "unethical" good! I read a few months ago a newspaper article about an Episcopal Church in another part of the country that was in a conflict with its pastor because he had been preaching sermons gotten from the internet. They called it plagiarism. And plagiarism is dishonest.

Do your own work! Struggle with your own investigation and interpretation of scripture. Work with your commentaries. Read in other areas. Know your congregations and the life issues with which they struggle. Then do your own work. Most any congregation I know would rather hear an ordinary sermon crafted out of the authentic struggle of the preacher with the text and the life of his or her people than a brilliant literary masterpiece that comes from someone else.

The Expectations of Trustworthiness! They are, rightfully so, immense. And if you about-to-be-ordained and we long-ago-or-recently-ordained remember that, our ministries will be the richer and more faithful for it.

IV

This peculiar life which we call ordained is both sacred and demanding. It is holy, and it calls for the highest in self-discipline and character. It is the kind of life to which no one in her or his right mind would dare to aspire without the assurance of having been called to it and the authentication of that call by the Church.

For years to come, Sunday after Sunday you will climb the steps to the sacred desk. As you do so, my prayer for you is that you will be both haunted and sustained by the reminder that you are trusted by those who sit expectantly before you. And when you open your mouth to speak, do so as one who lives your identity as ordained, and as one prepared to share out of the integrity of your intellect and spirit. Then, by God's grace, as Peter wrote to the elders, "When the chief shepherd appears, you will win the crown of glory that never fades away."¹¹

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Wednesday Morning – The Fourth Day May 29, 2002

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was celebrated at 7:15 a.m. in the W.V. Middleton Fine Arts Center "in recognition of Native American Ministry." Cathy Nelson and Donna Ott were the lay readers and provided music. The Reverend Sandra Hatchell was the preacher and celebrant.

The Conference was called to order by Bishop McCleskey at 8:38 a.m. The Reverend Lee C. Bines led the Conference in singing, "Blessed Assurance, Jesus Is Mine," followed by prayer by Bishop McCleskey.

The morning Bible Study was led by the Reverend James C. Howell on the topic, "Worship, Sex, Happiness and Holiness in a Post 9-11 World." At the conclusion of the presentation, Bishop McCleskey expressed the Conference's appreciation to Dr. Howell for coming to South Carolina and leading the Bible Study for this Session of the Annual Conference.

Bishop McCleskey announced the order in which reports would be considered during the first part of the morning hour.

Report of the Committee on the Annual Conference. The Report was presented by the Conference Secretary, the Reverend Delos D. Corderman, who indicated that the Resident Bishop has set May 25-29 as the dates for the 2003 Session of the Annual Conference. The Committee recommended that Wofford College, Spartanburg, be named as the site for the 2003 Session. The recommendation was approved. Appreciation was expressed to Claflin University for hosting the 2002 Session. Bishop McCleskey indicated that the Conference may expect to be asked next year to approve Claflin as the site for the 2004 Annual Conference.

Report of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, continued. The Conference again directed its attention to the section of the Report dealing with the health insurance program, the pension part having already been adopted. The Reverend Ted H. Walter proposed an amendment by addition to the Report, a new "Report Number Eight" to read as follows:

Report Number Eight

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits be directed to report to the 2003 Annual Conference the following:

- (1) A retiree healthcare program which shall be constitutional and financially feasible, to include eligible ordained clergy of another Annual Conference transferred by the Bishop to the South Carolina Conference;
- (2) Such transferred United Methodist Clergy shall meet the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits Report requirements of the 10 years in the South Carolina Conference for continuous and consecutive service and with the total 20 years funding requirement which shall take into consideration the combined service years in their former Annual Conference and in the South Carolina Conference as though the connecional service was in the South Carolina Conference in order to comply with the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits Report requirement of 20 years.

The proposed amendment was seconded. Mr. Walter spoke to the proposed amendment indicating that he felt that it addressed the concerns raised during the previous day's debate and would also be helpful in his work as Conference Coordinator of Clergy Services in recruiting clergy to serve churches in the South Carolina Annual Conference.

The Reverend James S. Arant proposed an amendment to the Walter Amendment to add after "eligible ordained clergy" the words "and deacons in full connection." The proposed amendment to the amendment was seconded. Mr. Arant expressed his concern that there be equal treatment and the same consideration allowed for Deacons in full connection in the funding for group insurance upon retirement, the Medicare supplement. Bishop McCleskey indicated his concern in trying to determine if the Arant amendment is in order given the fact that the participation of Deacons in the health insurance plan cannot be mandated and involves the participation of the Deacon's salary paying unit. Mr. Walter stated that according to the Book of Discipline Deacons are included in the category of ordained clergy, and, in his opinion, would be included in the amendment which he proposed. He stated that his amendment is intended to create an opportunity to work out the arrangements of a plan which would be legal and address the issues which have been raised without trying to do so on the floor of the Conference. Bishop McCleskey then ruled that the Walter Amendment included by use of the phrase "ordained clergy" the point raised in the Arant Amendment to the amendment and the Arant Amendment was ruled out of order. Mr. Morton stated that he felt the Board could deal with the matters raised by the Walter Amendment, and that it would be willing to work on that assignment. The Walter Amendment was approved as presented.

Mrs. Betty Nordyke, McCormick United Methodist Church, proposed a substitute for Item No. 10 in Report Number One, that would "retain the present ten year eligibility requirement for retirees to receive full conference benefits for group insurance," moving that "100% be substituted for 0% on line one of the schedule contained in Item No. 10, Report Number One, and strike the remaining lines in the said schedule." The motion was seconded. The Reverend D. Mitchell Houston spoke against the Nordyke Substitute citing the resulting increase in the apportionment to the local churches if the substitute was approved, a current $690,736 increase compared to a possible 1.2 to 1.4 million dollar increase. The Reverend Phillip E. Stout spoke in favor of the Nordyke Substitute, and the Reverend Ray K. Smith spoke against it. The substitute was defeated.

The Reverend D. Mitchell Houston moved the previous question on all that was before the Conference. The motion was approved. The Report as amended was adopted.

The Reverend John W. Culp raised a question about a progress report from the task force studying the issue of direct billing for pension and health insurance benefits. According to Bishop McCleskey, the task force, a representative group from across the Conference, is at work studying the issue of how pension and insurance benefits are to be funded in the future and will bring a report soon.

Publishing House Presentation. Mrs. Betty Moss McGuirt spoke on behalf of Cokesbury and the United Methodist Publishing House. Information about the New Interpreters Bible and "cokesbury.com" was shared. The Reverend Anna G. Miller representing the Cokesbury Action Team and Ms. Lizzie Richardson, Columbia Cokesbury Store Manager, were recognized. The Conference was reminded that a portion of the profits of the Publishing House are now being contributed to the pension program of the Central Conferences. A check was presented from the Publishing House to the pension program of the South Carolina Conference in the amount of $17,667.87.

Report of the Commission on Equitable Compensation. The Report was presented by the Reverend James C. Hunter. The Commission recommended an increase of three percent in the amounts for the three categories of full-time appointment as local church pastors.

Report of the Board of the Laity. The Report was presented by Mrs. Carolyn Rogerson, Conference Lay Leader, who spoke on the theme, "It is Our Ministry." In addition to the information contained in the printed report, Mrs. Rogerson urged the lay members to be active in the connexional ministry of the church interpreting the mission and ministries of the church. She encouraged persons to consider offering for election as delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Report of the Commission on Archives and History. The Reverend Franklin B. Buie, Chairperson of the Commission, introduced the Report. The Conference Archivist, Mr. R. Phillip Stone, Wofford College, was introduced and reported on projects related to the Conference Archives. He noted that over 45,000 entries have already been made into the Advocate Obituary Index. The index which is available on line enables persons to locate obituaries that have appeared in The Advocate across its history. The next project to be undertaken by the Conference Archives will be to develop an index of Methodist Ministers who have served in South Carolina since 1785. This index will provide information about appointments served by the Ministers and years of service. Appreciation was expressed to Mr. Stone for the valuable service which he renders to the Conference as Archivist and the assistance he gives to persons making research inquiries.

Mr. Buie reported on the Commission's work to recognize churches who have made significant contributions within their own congregations in the areas of historical interpretation and preservation. The Herbert Hucks Award for local churches was presented to the following churches: Buncombe Street UMC, Greenville; Trinity UMC, Sumter; First UMC, Lancaster; and to Pisgah UMC, Aynor. The Herbert Hucks Award for an individual was presented to Mrs. Lois B. Burkhalter of Bethel UMC, Columbia, in recognition of her service in many areas including the history of United Methodist Women and the work of the South Carolina Conference Historical Society. Mrs. Burkhalter spoke briefly to the Conference to express her appreciation.

Mr. Buie noted the Commission's interest in recognizing local churches celebrating their bicentennial. The early 1800's was a period of growth for Methodism in America, and many churches will be celebrating a bicentennial in the coming years. The Pisgah UMC, Aynor, and the Sandy Springs UMC in the Anderson District were recognized as churches celebrating their bicentennial during 2002. The Report of the Commission, as found in the pre-conference material, was moved to the record without reading.

Historical Address. Mr. Buie reported on the Commission's request to the Committee on the Annual Conference to reinstate the tradition of the "Historical Address" at the Annual Conference, a request granted for 2002. He noted the role that circuits played in early Methodism "connecting" churches sometimes at considerable distance from each other and reminded the Conference of the "connectedness" which we share as Methodists. To present this year's Historical Address, Mr. Buie introduced the Reverend Dr. A.V. Huff, Jr., Professor of History and Dean of the Faculty at Furman University. Dr. Huff, a member of the South Carolina Conference, also serves as Conference Historian.

FRANCIS ASBURY MOOD: FOR GOD, FOR CAROLINA, AND FOR TEXAS

A.V. Huff, Jr.

I became intrigued with Francis Asbury Mood (1830-1884) twenty years ago when I began working on a history of the Methodists in South Carolina because of a tiny volume, long out of print, entitled Methodism in Charleston, written by Mood and published in 1856. It is the single-most important volume on that subject because so many of the primary sources that he used have since been lost, perhaps victims of the Civil War. I knew that Mood had left South Carolina during Reconstruction and moved to Texas where he became the founder of Southwestern University, the most important Methodist college in the Lone Star State before the creation of Southern Methodist University. In 1886 a truncated version of his autobiography was printed in a biography of Mood. Six years ago I attended a meeting at Southwestern University in Georgetown and went a day early to look at a manuscript version of Mood's autobiography. I took copious notes which I intended to use later. Fortunately, however, just this year Mood's great-granddaughter published an annotated edition of the autobiography. The story is unique for many reasons. It illuminates the history of the Old South, the role of religion in the region, the trials of the Civil War and Reconstruction, and yet another connection between the history of Texas and South Carolina.

Francis Asbury Mood belonged to the third generation of Methodists in South Carolina. The first generation belonged to original societies formed by lay members and traveling preachers just after the American Revolution. The second could be described as the ingathering resulting from the camp meetings of the Second Great Awakening beginning in 1801. The third generation can be traced to the Revival of 1830 that swept across the South.

Asbury Mood was born the very year that the Revival of 1830 broke out.

The Moods had lived in Charleston for two generations, Peter Mood moving from Pennsylvania, probably after the Revolution. He was later described as "an active, warm-hearted, impulsive old Dutchman" who "kept a silversmith shop . . . on King Street." His other grandfather Alexander McFarlane was a sea captain, a merchant, one of the first Methodists in Charleston in 1785 and a lay preacher. Alexander's daughter Amelia inherited Billy, one of the McFarlane slaves. When she married future Methodist Bishop James O. Andrew, Billy became the bishop's slave. In 1844 Northern Methodists turned abolitionists protested a bishop's ownership of slaves, and Bishop Andrew, who could not free his slaves by state law, offered to resign. Southern Methodists rallied to his cause, and the denomination split into northern and southern denominations. One of Amelia's brothers, Henry, a Methodist preacher and eventually president of Columbia College, raised his niece, Julia Mood, who married William Peterkin of Fort Motte, the only South Carolina author to win the Pulitzer Prize.

Asbury Mood's father, John, was Lutheran like the rest of the family. As a youth he passed the first Methodist church building on Cumberland Street, known from its color as the Blue Meeting House, and he was struck that the service was in English rather than in German to which he was accustomed. At home his father warned him against the excesses of Methodism, and forbade him to attend. Later the father relented, and eventually the entire family joined the Methodists. During the War of 1812 John Mood was stationed at Fort Moultrie and was alarmed because members of his company ridiculed the Methodist prayer meetings in camp. The Methodists appealed to General Robert Y. Hayne (later U. S. Senator), who ordered that the harassment stop.

Asbury Mood's religious experience was typical for the evangelical Protestants of his generation. As a member of the church, he says, "I was regular in reading the Scriptures, Private prayer and Public Worship." The churches in Charleston—Cumberland, Trinity, and Bethel—had three Sunday services, which he attended, as well as a service almost every evening, with class meetings during the week. But all of this did not satisfy his spiritual longing: "I attended religious worship, driven only by a sense of duty . . . I felt I was an unpardoned sinner and gloom and sadness filled my soul, which seemed daily to increase." Then in April 1842 he went with his family to Cypress Camp Meeting (near Ridgeville, which is still in existence). After a week of spiritual gloom, he describes a spiritual experience that occurred on Saturday evening:

Walking around the circle of the tents [,] I heard singing in what appeared to be an abandoned tent. As I drew near[,] I recognized the voices of some of my companions; they were engaged in a prayer meeting . . . I fell prostrate on the ground[,] but a moment afterward I felt that I could trust Jesus as my Saviour then.

At once my burden was lifted, my sorrow had fled, light beamed into my soul, and I was filled with gladness. (32-33)

Asbury Mood was placed at first in a private elementary school, and, at the age of ten, he enrolled in the High School of Charleston. His first teacher there was Henry Laurens Pinckney, Jr., later a congressman who became famous for his support of the "gag rule" on abolitionist petitions in the House of Representatives. Upon his graduation in 1846 as First Honor graduate, he gave the valedictory address in Latin (a tradition that continued into the twentieth century).

Soon he was enlisted to become teacher in the afternoons in a school for free blacks operated by two black Methodists, William and Samuel Weston. Despite the fact that it was illegal after 1835 to teach blacks to read and write, there were thirteen schools for free blacks in Charleston, including this one on Beaufain Street. The first teachers were Asbury's brothers, Henry and John, who were students at the College of Charleston. He went to the High School from 8:30 AM to 1:30 PM. At 2:00 p.m. he began to teach until 5:30 p.m. Each student paid $15.00 a year; the teachers received $12.00. At the end of each quarter the teachers received $4.00 for each student in attendance. During the same period of time Asbury also taught in the Sunday School for black children organized by his father in 1832.

In 1846 Asbury passed the entrance examination and was admitted to the College of Charleston. All the faculty were Episcopalians, except the Reverend John Bachman, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church and father-in-law of John J. Audubon. When it was rumored that Dr. Whitefoord Smith, then a Methodist preacher in Charleston and later professor at Wofford, might be elected to the faculty, William Porcher Miles threatened to resign if a Methodist were elected to the faculty. Asbury remembered that there was no contact between faculty and students outside of class. After four years, he had not exchanged five words with any member of the faculty outside their official duties.

Asbury continued his teaching responsibilities in the school for free blacks, was licensed to exhort by his church, and began to hold regular services at the Alms House, the Marine Hospital, and the jail. He remembered that among his African American students at the school on Beaufain Street were later political leaders in the state and preachers during Reconstruction.

Shortly before his college graduation in 1850, he was granted a license to preach, preaching not only in the local Methodist churches but also at the Charleston Orphan House, where the service was enriched by an organ, something unknown in Methodist churches at the time. He determined to enter the ministry full-time, and offered himself for missionary service, first in China, and then in California. He was accepted for California, but he later received a letter from Bishop Robert Paine indicating that westerners were complaining that too many South Carolinians were being accepted, and he was declined.

Consequently, Mood became an itinerant preacher in the South Carolina Conference, which then included part of North Carolina as well. His first appointment was to the Cypress Circuit, stretching north from Charleston through Summerville to present-day Bowman north around Four Holes Swamp and down the State Road. There were 25 churches on the circuit and two preachers. Asbury Mood was the Junior Preacher. His allowance for the year was $100, if the entire amount was raised; if not, he got a percentage. There was a parsonage on the circuit, but it was shared by the two preachers. Most of their time, however, was spent riding the circuit. And it was a lonely life, indeed.

Before leaving Charleston in January 1851 Mood purchased a second-hand buggy and a "clay bank" (that is, a yellow) horse. His first preaching appointment was at Ebenezer Church forty miles north. He traveled the first twenty miles with his brother Henry. They traveled "amid the silence and the sand of the low country," as he put it. They lost their way, and did not arrive at the house where they planned to spend the night until very late. The next morning he got an early start for the forty-mile journey. He wrote: "The lonely ride was before me. The new solemn [moan] of the wind through the lofty pine tree tops sounded like the dirge of all my earthly hopes." He spent the second night with Ben Crook, the class leader at Ebenezer, and the next day they went off to church. He wrote: "It was a cold, dreary, winter's day[,] but a small congregation assembled and I opened my itinerant pulpit labours from I Corinthians X, 12, 'Let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.' It was a lame effort delivered under much embarrassment and fell, seemingly, as cold as the winter's mist that was falling."

By 1856 Mood's health began to fail, and he made arrangements to travel to Europe. After visiting England, France, and Italy, he returned to Liverpool to take ship back to America. The British Methodist Conference was in session there, and he asked to visit a session. But he was refused admission because the Methodist Episcopal Church, South approved of slaveholding. Mood's comment: "Such may be the madness and unreasonableness of good men."

Returning home, Mood attended the South Carolina Conference in December 1857 and was assigned to Greenville. In his autobiography he wrote:

This was a beautiful town . . . but Methodism was very weak. Our membership numbered between thirty and forty, five or six of the males and our church building small, old, and dilapidated. . . The town was the headquarters of the Southern Baptists, Furman University and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and a large female college. . . The stewards at my first meeting seemed very low spirited. . .

In April it pleased God in a very gracious manner to visit our church; it developed into a powerful revival more than doubling our membership . . . From this time all went well, and our little church was crowded every Sunday. [93]

When the Civil War began in Charleston Harbor in April 1861, Mood was presiding elder of the Orangeburg District. Before daylight on April 12, his servant Sammy awakened him with the news that fighting must have begun in Charleston since he had heard "something like thunder since about four o'clock." Mood took the first train to Charleston and went past the family home to the Battery where all the citizens seemed to be gathered. Midday on Saturday, April 13, "Fort Sumter flamed up like a volcano." After church the following day Mood accompanied two of his church officials to Fort Sumter to watch the evacuation. When the federal troops departed, young Franklin J. Moses lowered the Stars and Stripes and raised the Confederate banner. Mood recognized Moses as a former Sunday School student in his church in Sumter. During Reconstruction Moses became one of the most scandalous of the Radical Republican officeholders. Mood was depressed by the firing on Fort Sumter. He wrote: "While I conceded superior wisdom to the officers of our government, I was unable, as I am to this hour [that is, in 1879], to see the design, the wisdom, or the propriety of proceeding as they did." [122-23].

In December 1861 Mood became presiding elder of the Charleston District. Already the federal invasion at Port Royal had disrupted the missions to the slaves at Bluffton, Beaufort, and Jehosse. A major fire had destroyed much of Charleston, including the building of Cumberland Church, one of the oldest Methodist churches in the state. Soon Mood was infected with typhoid fever, and the siege of the city resulted in the consolidation of congregations into one church building.

As the Civil War ended, Mood sent his family to Columbia for safety, and he determined to take passage on a blockade runner to Nassau to collect a shipment of Bibles for the mission to the blacks. He sailed on to Liverpool in time to learn of the capture of Charleston, the burning of Columbia, and the surrender of the Confederate armies. He traveled to London, saw the American minister, Charles Francis Adams, and took the oath of allegiance before returning to the United States. In New York he stayed with relatives who supplied him with funds and clothes to take to his family in Columbia.

Eventually making his way back to Charleston Mood found the Methodist property occupied by T.W. Lewis, a minister of the New England Conference. He claimed possession of the property under an order of the occupying Federal army. Mood's reaction surprised himself:

Up to this event I thought I had been entirely reconciled to the events of the war. I had endeavored calmly to meet the consequences resulting from an appeal to arms, but this struck a side of my affections that produced in me the most distressing results. It seemed to me that all the fierce passions of my nature rose in rebellion to reason, and grace & I confess to feelings of anger, contempt and hate of which I have since been heartily ashamed and for which I have implored God's forgiveness. [140-41]

Eventually in October 1865 the property was restored by the federal government, but Mood was penniless. He undertook editing a newspaper and preached for the Unitarian and Huguenot congregations with the permission of Bishop George F. Pierce. In 1867 Bishop Holland McTyeire was in Texas as Soule University, the Methodist college there was attempting to reopen after the war. McTyeire recommended Mood to become head of the Normal School. At the same time Bishop Paine wrote to propose his transfer to New Orleans, Vicksburg, or Nashville. Mood declined these overtures, but in the winter of 1868 the trustees of Soule University offered him the presidency of the institution. Pastor of Trinity Church, Charleston by that time, he was inclined to refuse, but both Bishops McTyeire and Andrew pressed him. So on November 8, 1868, Mood preached his farewell sermon in Charleston. That week he left by train for Texas.

In Chappell Hill, west of Austin, the prospect was not hopeful. The university building has been used as a military hospital during the war, and the library, laboratory, and furniture had been scattered. Yellow fever had decimated the population of the town, and half of the houses were vacant. Soon the new president and the one faculty member who had arrived, Bond English Chreitzburg from Wofford College, climbed onto the roof and began to repair it. They did so well, that the roof did not leak for years. In January 1869 the university reopened.

Texas Methodists envisioned Soule as the future central university of the state. But that required more than a decade of careful negotiation. There were five Methodist conferences in Texas that did not always agree with one another. By 1873 Mood convinced the trustees to relocate the institution to Georgetown, north of Austin. First, it was chartered Texas University, then Southwestern University. Today it is one of the highly respected liberal arts colleges in the region. Mood himself lived until November 1884. The obstacles he overcame to secure the future of the institution stagger the imagination, yet, as the historian of Southwestern has put it, its genesis "pivots on the political genius, the awesome insight, and the unquenchable spirit of a single, frail man, Francis Asbury Mood."

Recognition of College Presidents. The recognition was led by the Reverend Catherine Jamieson-Ogg, Chairperson of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry. Dr. Caroline Whitson, the new President of Columbia College, spoke on behalf of the College Presidents. She spoke primarily about Columbia College and the values it seeks to instill in its students, its efforts to be connected to the Church and to empower its students to be of value to the world combining scholarship and learning with piety and social justice. Bishop McCleskey commented that the "church-relatedness" of these four colleges in South Carolina is outstanding.

The Conference observed a brief recess reconvening at 11:00 a.m. as the Reverend Lee C. Bines led the singing "O For a Thousand Tongues To Sing."

Report of the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals. The Report was brought by Mrs. Martha Fridy Thompson, Chairperson, who noted that the Committee will be reporting on nine resolutions which are before the Conference.

The first resolution presented was "A Resolution Opposing The Carrying Of Concealed Weapons On Church and School Property." The Resolution was submitted by Daniel R. Bilderback, St. Mark UMC, Columbia, and the Reverend Joe Cal Watson. The Committee recommended concurrence. The recommendation was supported and the Resolution which reads as follows was adopted:

A RESOLUTION OPPOSING THE CARRYING OF CONCEALED WEAPONS ON CHURCH AND SCHOOL PROPERTY

WHEREAS: The General Assembly of the State of South Carolina is debating amending the concealed carry firearms law to allow persons to carry concealed weapons on church and school property, and

WHEREAS: The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church affirms the right of law abiding citizens to keep and bear firearms for the protection of persons and property, as well as for recreational purposes in accordance with the Constitution of the United States of America and the laws of the State of South Carolina, and

WHEREAS: The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church affirms that houses of worship and learning are places of sanctuary in accordance with biblical teaching, custom, and tradition and should be kept holy and safe,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church stands in opposition to any amendment of South Carolina law that will allow for concealed firearms to be carried into houses of the Lord or onto school property.

The second resolution presented was a "Resolution In Support Of Reducing Teen Smoking By Increasing Our State's Tobacco Taxes." The committee recommended concurrence. Dr. Hunter Stokes, Central UMC, Florence, offered an amendment to the "whereases" and the "resolves" which would "raise the age at which persons may purchase tobacco products in South Carolina" and "identify appropriate penalties both to the merchant as well as to the purchaser when the product of this legislation is violated." Mr. Aubrey Hanes, Greenbrier-Gordon Memorial, spoke against the amendment arguing that eighteen year olds are fighting today in Afghanistan to protect our freedom and we should not be telling them that they cannot buy a pack of cigarettes. The Reverend Phillip N. Watry spoke for the amendment and resolution noting the United Methodist Church has a stand against alcohol and tobacco and that we should make statements about the damage which tobacco does. Mr. Bill Crews, Brookland Charge, spoke against the amendment and resolution arguing that imposing a "sin tax" or raising the legal age for purchasing is not the way to go. The problem must be attacked at its root where the crop is planted, not with taxes. The Hunter Amendment was not supported. The Committee's recommendation of concurrence with the original Resolution was supported, and the Resolution as follows was adopted:

RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF REDUCING TEEN SMOKING BY INCREASING OUR STATE'S TOBACCO TAXES.

- WHEREAS: Everyday in our nation, 5,000 kids try their first cigarette. Another 2,000 kids become regular daily smokers, one third of whom will die prematurely as a result of tobacco related diseases, and
- WHEREAS: One of the most effective ways to reduce teen smoking is to raise the price of cigarettes through tax increases; be it
- RESOLVED: That the undersigned organization joins the Campaign for Tobacco-Free Kids urging our state to substantially increase our excise taxes on cigarettes and other tobacco products; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the undersigned organization urges its local affiliates and partners to join this campaign to increase tobacco taxes; therefore, be it further
- RESOLVED: That the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church joins the General Board of Church and Society in making this initiative one of our priorities as we strive to save our children from tobacco addiction.

The next resolution presented was a "Resolution To Convey Clemson Wesley Foundation Real Estate To The Local Wesley Foundation Corporation." The resolution was presented by the Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry. The recommendation of the Committee was to refer the resolution back to the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry. Mrs. Thompson yielded the floor to the Conference Chancellor, Mr. James R. Allen, to speak to the matter before the house. Mr. Allen stated that he understood the purpose of the resolution to be to give to the Clemson Wesley Foundation more flexibility in dealing with their property which lies adjacent to Clemson United Methodist Church which is relocating. The resolution would provide the Wesley Foundation the opportunity to deal with its property should it, too, find a better location. Mr. Allen noted that Par. 2512 of the Book of Discipline requires annual conference approval to convey Annual Conference property with the exception noted in Par. 631.4. The Reverend Catherine Jamieson-Ogg, Chairperson of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, spoke against the recommendation of referral noting that the proposed resolution came from the Board after consultation with the Chancellor, the Clemson Wesley Foundation Board of Directors, and the Clemson Church. She moved as a substitute for the Committee's recommendation that the resolution be approved rather than referred. She argued the need to expedite legal matters related to the property depending upon the course of action chosen by the Clemson Wesley Foundation Board. She noted that the Conference Board will continue to be in consultation with the Clemson Wesley Foundation Board regarding the ministry of the Wesley Foundation at Clemson. The Reverend Michael B. Henderson asked if there was a Board of Trust for the Clemson Wesley Foundation. Ms. Jamieson-Ogg replied that the Board of Directors of the Clemson Wesley Foundation can legally hold the property as long as they incorporate which, she indicated, they are prepared to do. Mr. Henderson questioned to what organization would the proceeds from the sale of the property belong. Ms. Jamieson-Ogg replied that the proceeds would go to the Clemson Wesley Foundation, which is under the jurisdiction of the Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, and would be used to fulfill its mission and ministry to students. The substitute motion offered by Ms. Jamieson-Ogg was approved and became the main motion with the resolution as follows being adopted.

TO CONVEY CLEMSON WESLEY FOUNDATION REAL ESTATE TO THE LOCAL WESLEY FOUNDATION CORPORATION

- WHEREAS, "The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc." (Board of Higher Education) was incorporated as a South Carolina nonprofit corporation on June 1, 1981; and,
- WHEREAS, on February 3, 1982, real estate in Pickens County generally known as the Clemson Wesley Foundation was deeded to the Board of Higher Education; and,
- WHEREAS, the Board of Higher Education desires to convey that property to the local Clemson Wesley Foundation (as permitted by Par. 631.4d)(6) of the 2000 Book of Discipline), to allow it to use, exchange, or sell the property as necessary to best fulfill its mission to students, in trust and subject to the Board of Higher Education's approval and authorization;
- NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc., is authorized to convey the Clemson Wesley Foundation property to the local Wesley Foundation in trust, provided that entity is incorporated.

The next resolution presented was a resolution "To Designate Korean-American Sunday In Commemoration of The Centennial Of Korean-American Ministries In The USA" authored by the Reverend Hyo Shik Kim. The Committee recommended the referral of the resolution to the Conference Council on Ministries. The recommendation of the Committee was approved, and the resolution which follows was referred:

TO DESIGNATE KOREAN-AMERICAN SUNDAY IN COMMEMORATION OF
THE CENTENNIAL OF KOREAN-AMERICAN MINISTRIES IN THE USA

Our mission work among Korean immigrants began in 1903 when a group of Korean immigrants came to Hawaii as laborers in the sugar cane fields. Among this first group of 102 Korean immigrants, more than a half of them were from Nairi Methodist Church in Incheon. To minister to its members, Nairi Methodist Church sent a missionary pastor, Soon Hwa Hong, who was among the first group of Korean immigrants.

The first group of Korean immigrants left the port of Incheon on December 22, 1902 and arrived in Honolulu on January 12, 1903. Upon arrival, a small Christian fellowship group started under the leadership of the missionary pastor Hong. The Methodist Episcopal Church Board of Mission took up this opportunity to serve the newly immigrant population and established the first Korean speaking church in Honolulu, Hawaii in November of 1903. This church, known as Christ United Methodist Church, continues its ministry to this day as a strong Korean-American church in the California-Pacific Annual Conference.

Since its beginning in 1903, the Korean-American United Methodist Church community has grown to become a community of more than 420 congregations with 100,000 members. This trend of growth will continue in years to come. There are also more than 540 Korean-American clergy serving Korean speaking, cross-racial appointments, and various boards and agencies. Among 540 Korean-American clergy, there are more than 100 Korean-American women serving in various places in our denomination.

To celebrate the centennial of Korean-American ministries in the USA, the National Association of Korean American United Methodists has organized the Centennial Planning Council and has set the date, April 24-27, 2003, for the celebration in Hawaii. The Centennial Planning Council is working closely with Boards and Agencies of our denomination to plan the celebration. In 2002, there will also be regional celebrations that will be held in 10 major cities in the USA.

Whereas, Christian ministries among Korean-Americans in the USA first began with support of our denomination's Mission Board; and,
Whereas, the Korean-American United Methodist community has made a significant contribution in the growth of the United Methodist ministries in the USA; and,
Whereas, Korean-American United Methodist clergy and laity have been carrying out faithful ministries of Christ as a part of the United Methodist Church for the last 100 years;
Therefore, Be It Resolved, that South Carolina Annual Conference designate January 12, 2003 as Korean-American Sunday as a sign of supporting the Centennial of Korean-American ministries in the USA and also as an act of joining in the historic event of the Centennial Celebration.

The Committee presented next a "Resolution Opposing Predatory Lending" authored by the Reverends Wiley B. Cooper, Samuel B. George, III, and John W. Culp. The Committee recommended concurrence. The recommendation of the Committee was supported and the resolution as follows was adopted:

RESOLUTION OPPOSING PREDATORY LENDING

WHEREAS: The Scriptures call us to defend the powerless and vulnerable,
WHEREAS: The consistent witness of the church provides that interest, when permitted, should be regulated for the common good, practiced with equity and charity, and is allowable only when the transaction benefits the borrower,
WHEREAS: Predatory lending abuses include excessive loan fees, costly and unnecessary insurance, large balloon payments, huge interest rates, frequent refinancing ('flipping'), charging a higher interest rate than the borrower qualifies for and splitting the additional interest with the lender, and large prepayment penalties.
WHEREAS: Predatory lenders, while affecting every class, prey upon the poor, the aging, and minorities most severely,
WHEREAS: While predatory lending occurs nationwide, South Carolina and other Southern states are disproportionately affected,
WHEREAS: Present South Carolina laws and enforcement are inadequate to address the explosion of predatory lending in our state,
THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and its local congregations commit ourselves to the abolishment of predatory lending in South Carolina, working for legal reform, education of the public, and assistance of those victimized, with persons and organizations of good will.

The Committee next presented a "Resolution To Merge The Board of Education Corporation Into The Annual Conference Corporation" authored by the Reverend Charles L. Johnson. The Committee recommended concurrence, and the recommendation was supported. The resolution as follows was adopted:

TO MERGE THE BOARD OF EDUCATION CORPORATION INTO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE CORPORATION

WHEREAS, the "South Carolina Conference Board of Education of The Southeastern Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church" was incorporated as a South Carolina nonprofit corporation on December 5, 1956, but has not actively functioned as an independent corporation in recent years; and,
WHEREAS, the "South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church" was incorporated as a South Carolina nonprofit corporation on October 2, 1998, and possesses the legal and organizational resources to manage any business or property of the Board of Education corporation;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that appropriate officers of those two corporations are authorized to execute documentation to convey assets and interests and to merge the "South Carolina Conference Board of Education of The Southeastern Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church" into the "South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church".

The Committee reported the "Resolution Against Permanent Storage of Plutonium," authored by the Reverend John W. Culp, with a recommendation of concurrence. Mr. Richard Wilhite, Hartsville District Lay Leader, questioned if the language of the resolution before the body differs from what was handed out earlier. Mrs. Thompson replied that the Committee requested Mr. Culp to rewrite what was earlier distributed in order to have the language adhere to the form of a resolution. Mr. Chris Manley, Anderson District Youth Representative, proposed to amend the Resolution by substituting for the first "resolved" which now reads, "a letter of support from the South Carolina 2002 United Methodist Conference and Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey to Governor Jim Hodges...supporting his stance opposing permanent storage of plutonium at the Savannah River Site" to read "a letter of support from the South Carolina 2002 United Methodist Conference and Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey be sent to the Governor of South Carolina, our members of Congress, and the Department of Energy asking them to work together to find a solution other than the permanent storage of plutonium at the Savannah River Site." Mr. Manley argued that the amendment was necessary in light of the recent ruling by the U.S. District Court of Appeals that the threatened action of Governor Hodges of blocking access of plutonium shipments to South Carolina is in violation of the provisions on interstate trade in the U.S. Constitution. Such action in violation of the Constitution should not be supported by the Annual Conference. The Manley Amendment was approved. The body next voted to support the Committee's recommendation of concurrence with the Resolution as amended. The Resolution as amended and adopted reads:

AGAINST PERMANENT STORAGE OF PLUTONIUM

WHEREAS, we do not want the State of South Carolina to become the final depository for weapons grade plutonium;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that a letter of support from the South Carolina 2002 United Methodist Conference and Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey be sent to the Governor of South Carolina, our members of Congress, and the Department of Energy asking them to work together to find a solution other than the permanent storage of plutonium at the Savannah River Site; and,

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a letter be sent to the Secretary of Energy Abram, 1000 Independence Avenue, S. W., Washington, D. C. 20585, stating our position and asking for a definitive exit strategy.

The Committee on Resolutions and Appeals next presented a resolution "On Appropriate Response To Terrorism and War" authored by G. Tripp Jones, S. Lyman Whitehead, and the John Rowland Class of Union UMC, Irmo. The Committee recommended referral of the Resolution to the Conference Board of Church and Society. The Reverend Philip N. Watry spoke against referral arguing that the Conference has a responsibility to stand behind the government and not defer this to a later time. The Reverend Michael B. Henderson moved to amend the last paragraph of the Resolution which currently reads "be it resolved that the United Methodist Church of South Carolina supports the government of the United States of America in its measured and appropriate response to terrorism in our world" to read "be it resolved that the United Methodist Church of South Carolina urges and encourages our church members to pray individually and collectively for our government and the governments of the world as they deal with terrorism." The amendment was seconded. Mr. Henderson spoke on behalf of his amendment arguing that the church is called to pray for those in government but not to give "blanket support" for any and everything done by government. The Reverend Phil M. Jones spoke against the amendment arguing that the United States had been invaded and attacked and that self-defense is a right given to us by God as citizens of this country and as Christians. The Reverend Michael L. Vandiver spoke in favor of the Henderson amendment expressing his gratitude for the privilege of living in this country but also remembering the faith that calls him beyond this country to acknowledge that all peoples of the world are brothers and sisters in God, and, as Christians, even in the midst of difficult times, we must look beyond the supremacy of any one nation over the other. The Reverend Albert L. Cox spoke against the Henderson Amendment arguing that nothing in the Word of God says that we must "lay down our arms" and not support the government in its fight against evil. He noted that the government is doing a good job, including sending aid to help people in those parts of the world, and there is no reason for us not to take a stand. The vote was taken on the Henderson Amendment. The Chair announced that the Henderson Amendment was approved. Mr. Herb Haines, Union UMC, Irmo, requested that there be a standing vote on the Henderson Amendment. The motion for a standing vote was approved. The question was again put on the Henderson Amendment by standing vote. The amendment was approved.

The Resolution as amended was before the body. The Reverend Michael B. Henderson spoke against the recommendation of the Committee to refer the Resolution to the Conference Board of Church and Society. The Reverend W. Donald Britt raised the question of the Committee's reason for recommending referral. Mrs. Thompson replied that the Committee felt that the Annual Conference needed additional time to study this matter given the differences of opinion and belief that exist. The Reverend Luonne A. Rouse spoke against referral noting that, as someone who might have to go and serve, he would want his Church and his Annual Conference to take the time now to work through this matter so that he could know that they were standing with him and standing behind him. The Reverend Forrest D. Mixon spoke for referral of what he called a "watered down" resolution in the hope that a resolution could come back to the Conference which would stand clearly in support of the people who are willing to give their lives in defense of their country.

A question about the parliamentary situation was raised by the Reverend James D. Dennis, Jr. Bishop McCleskey replied that if the recommendation to refer is not supported, then the Resolution as amended would be before the body to vote either up or down as the body sees fit.

Ms. Nancy Scoggins, Armenia UMC, Chester, expressed the view that we should do both — pray and support the government.

Parliamentary inquiries were made by the Reverend Michael L. Vandiver and the Reverend Louis D. Jamison. Bishop McCleskey replied that the Resolution as amended would be before the body if not referred and also would be subject as such to further amendment by the body.

The question was put on the Committee's recommendation to refer the Resolution, as amended, to the Board of Church and Society. The recommendation to refer was not sustained. Mr. Herbert Haines, Union, Irmo, moved to amend the Resolution by reinstating the "resolved" which appeared originally in the Resolution. Bishop McCleskey ruled such an amendment out of order because it duplicated action already taken and approved by the body.

An amendment was proposed by the Reverend Philip N. Watry to reinstate "support the government of the United States of America." Following counsel by the Chair that such a motion was out of order on the grounds that it proposed to "reinstate" a matter which had already been before the body and had been voted on, Mr. Watry withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Harry Kent moved to reconsider the previous action which was defined by the chair, in response to a question from the floor, as the reconsideration of the Henderson Amendment. The Reverend Samuel B. George, III, spoke strongly against reconsideration stressing the need for a "moral compass" rather than an uncritical endorsement of government action. The Reverend Ralph T. Bowling, Jr., raised a point of order regarding the applicability of the Mr. George's speech to the motion for reconsideration. The Chair replied that it was a speech against reconsideration and, therefore, was in order.

The Reverend A. Clark Jenkins noted that poverty breeds terrorism according to a United Nations report, and that worldwide poverty creates havoc across the globe, arguing that the Conference needs to pray, study and act. The Chair interpreted the speech as being against reconsideration. The Chair clarified for the body that it was debating a motion to reconsider an amendment by the Reverend Michael B. Henderson which had been made to the "resolved" of the Resolution. The Reverend Robert J. Howell, Jr., spoke in favor of reconsideration stressing the need to find a way to bring together faithfulness to our country and faithfulness to the kingdom of God. He urged the Conference to reconsider to allow for the opportunity to forge a document which would allow both concerns to be heard and incorporated into the resolution. The Reverend Clifford R. Gilmer, a Reserve Chaplain in the United States Air Force, spoke urging reconsideration based on observations he made during his experiences as a part of Operation Desert Storm. Questions regarding parliamentary procedure related to the reconsideration were raised by Mr. Phillip Stone and the Reverend Amiri B. Hooker. A motion to call the question on the reconsideration was made by Mr. Rhett Jackson. It was seconded and approved. The Kent motion to reconsider action on the Henderson Amendment was placed before the body and was approved.

The Henderson Amendment was again before the body. The Reverend W. Donald Britt proposed to add a second "resolved" to read: "Be It Further Resolved, that the South Carolina Annual Conference urge the President of the United States, while pursuing the war, to use all diplomatic and political means to achieve a non-violent end to the conflict." It was seconded. Mr. Britt noted our competing interests, loyalty to the country and our desire to be loyal to Christ who called us to be peacemakers. The Chair interpreted the Britt motion to be an amendment to the Henderson Amendment. The Reverend Keith D. Sweatt spoke on the appropriateness of both amendments as representing traditional Christian positions during times of war. The Reverend Philip N. Watry asked about the form of the Britt Amendment in relation to the Henderson Amendment. The Chair replied that the Britt Amendment is being treated as an amendment to the Henderson Amendment by addition so that it can be before the body at this time to facilitate the process. The Chair read the question before the body in its entirety for clarification. A point of order was raised regarding the order of voting. Bishop McCleskey replied that the Britt Amendment would be before the body first. A motion to call the question was made by the Reverend F. LaRue Cook. A point of order was raised by the Reverend Wyatt C. Minton, III, regarding the need to have two speeches for and two speeches against. The Chair replied that only the opportunity had to be given for two speeches for and two against. The body has the right to decide a motion to call the previous question. The motion to call the question and end debate was put by the Chair and was approved.

The Britt Amendment to the Henderson Amendment was placed before the body and was approved. The Reverend Wyatt C. Minton, III, moved the previous question. It was seconded and the Resolution as amended was approved. Questions were raised by Mr. Richard Wilhite and the Reverend Timothy J. Rogers regarding the matter of referral. The Chair advised that what was now before the body was the motion to refer the original resolution as amended, which included the Henderson and Britt Amendments, to the Board of Church and Society. Referral was not supported. The Resolution was then adopted as amended and reads as follows:

ON APPROPRIATE RESPONSE TO TERRORISM AND WAR

- WHEREAS, we as United Methodists must face the realities of the modern world in which good and evil reside; and,
- WHEREAS, we recognize that some people in our world today act with evil and malicious intent toward our society and others; and,
- WHEREAS, it is appropriate to respond to these evil and malicious attacks in order to oppose and suppress future acts of terrorism; and,
- WHEREAS, we must be realistic in our knowledge and awareness of the current political situation in the world today; and,
- WHEREAS, the government of the United States of America is elected by the people and for the people of the United States of America;
- BE IT RESOLVED, that the United Methodist Church of South Carolina urges and encourages our church members to pray individually and collectively for our government and the governments of the world as they deal with terrorism; and,
- BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the South Carolina Annual Conference urge the President of the United States, while pursuing the war, to use all diplomatic and political means to achieve a non-violent end to the conflict.

Bishop McCleskey spoke briefly on the Wesleyan model of "Christian Conferencing" in which persons of equal Christian conviction come together, share agreements and differences, and, through the process of "conferencing," come to conclusions. He noted that this is what the Conference has been doing in its deliberations during the morning.

The Conference then recessed for lunch at 12:35 p.m.

Wednesday Afternoon - The Fourth Day May 29, 2002

The Conference reconvened at 1:40 p.m. as the Reverend Lee C. Bines led the singing of "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms." Bishop McCleskey led in prayer.

Report of the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals, cont. Mrs. Martha Fridy Thompson, Chairperson, presented a "Resolution On Terrorism And War" submitted by the Reverend Samuel B. George, III, and the Reverend Steven M. King. The Committee recommended that the Resolution be referred to the Board of Church and Society. The Reverend Steven M. King moved approval as a substitute for the Committee's recommendation. The motion was seconded. Mr. King spoke in favor of the motion for approval stating that the resolution was a fairly simple one asking that the position of the United Methodist Church, its Bishops, and General Board, be studied in the local churches, and that the government be urged not to use nuclear weapons in this conflict or in the future. The Reverend Stephen P. Taylor spoke against the motion and for referral arguing that the floor of the Conference is not the place to work out the details of this resolution especially in light of the debate over the previous resolution. Mr. Peter Worthington, Simpsonville Charge, spoke against the substitute noting experiences from history when it became necessary to use force to stop the spread of evil in the world during the period of the Second World War. Melinda Hanson-Holloway, Spartanburg, argued that the resolution only serves to reaffirm what we say we believe as a body and what appears in the Book of Discipline. Mr. Wade Chaney, New Hope, Summerville, spoke in opposition to the motion to approve, arguing that we are at war as a result of the events of September 11th and that the Conference should not send a message of indecisiveness given the circumstances of the attack against the United States. Questions were raised by the Reverend Philip N. Watry and the Reverend Paul M. Cheezem. The Reverend Wade H. Everett, a Marine Corp Veteran, spoke in favor of approval. A question about what was before the body was raised by Pal Moore, First Church, Cheraw. Bishop McCleskey replied that what was before the body was an action to place the Resolution before the body for approval instead of the Committee's recommendation, which was to refer the Resolution to the Board of Church and Society. The substitute motion was then defeated by the body. The recommendation to refer was again before the body. Mr. Douglas Cheekwood, New Beginnings, argued that the United States was now in a war not of our choosing and that the Resolution before the body does not fit the situation and should be referred. Mr. Charlie Lorick, Union, Imo, raised the concern that we should not make a "pact with evil" insisting that not to support the leadership of our government at this time would be an outrage. The speech was interpreted as being in support of referral. The Reverend F. LaRue Cook moved the question. The call for the question was approved. The recommendation of the Committee on Resolutions to refer was then approved. The Resolution which follows was referred to the Board of Church and Society.

ON TERRORISM AND WAR

- WHEREAS, the 2000 General Conference of the United Methodist Church's resolution on terrorism states that we "oppose the use of indiscriminate military force to combat terrorism, especially where the use of such force results in casualties among non-combatant citizens who are not themselves perpetrators of terrorist acts . . ." and " . . . condemn all acts of terrorism, with no exception for the target or the source" (The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church, 2000, p. 787); and,
- WHEREAS, the bishops of the United Methodist Church have stated that "Violence in all its forms and expressions is contrary to God's purpose for the world" and have urged non-violent action in response to terrorism ("Bishops' Pastoral Letter"); and,

WHEREAS, the General Board of Church and Society has issued a statement to the church reminding us that the "Prince of Peace instructs us to love and pray for our enemies and refrain from responding to violence with violence" and that "war is not an appropriate means of responding to criminal acts against humanity" (General Board of Church and Society, October 31, 2001); and,

WHEREAS, the Bishops' Pastoral Letter, In Defense of Creation: The Nuclear Crisis and a Just Peace (1986, quoted and affirmed in The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church, 2000, p. 783) stated "we say a clear and unconditional 'No' to nuclear war and any use of nuclear weapons";

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the United Methodist Churches of the South Carolina Conference be urged to study the above statements and the history of the Middle East (including the use of American economic and military power there) and call upon our governmental leaders to find diplomatic rather than military solutions to bring terrorists to justice and end terrorism; and,

BE IT ADDITIONALLY RESOLVED, that the United Methodist Churches of South Carolina urge that nuclear weapons be removed as a first or any option in the current or any future conflict; and,

BE IT ADDITIONALLY RESOLVED, that the Conference Secretary send a copy of this resolution to the President of the United States and South Carolina's national senators and representatives expressing this Conference's desire that military action not be expanded to other countries.

The Report of the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals was concluded.

Resolution of Affirmation of the General Board of Church and Society. Ms. Genova McFadden, Chairperson of the Board of Church and Society, reported conferring with members of the Board of Church and Society, and indicated their wish that the phrase "right wing" be deleted from the sixth "Whereas," of the Resolution. Mrs. Carolyn Rogerson, Conference Lay Leader, spoke in opposition to the Resolution because it implied blanket and total support of the full body of work of the General Board of Church and Society. Mrs. Rogerson argued that the General Board in recent quadrennia has taken positions contrary to positions of the Southeastern Jurisdiction. Mr. Dan Bilderback, St. Mark, Columbia, desiring to support the Resolution proposed to amend the first "Resolved" by deleting "and affirms the work of" and substituting in the place of these words "the continuation of," and to delete the second "Resolved" in its entirety. The motion was seconded. Mr. Bilderback stated that his amendment reflected the fact that while not everyone could agree with all of the things done by the Board, it is important for the Board to continue to exist. The amendment proposed by Mr. Bilderback was supported.

Mr. Bilderback then moved to eliminate the fifth "Whereas" in its entirety and to amend the sixth "Whereas" by deleting the words "a non-affiliated right wing caucus known as" and the words "despite the Board's faithfulness to its purpose and mission." Mr. Bilderback again noted that reasonable people can disagree within the context of deliberation on issues. The Reverend Wiley B. Cooper spoke against the amendment not wishing to question the Board's faithfulness to its purpose and mission. Mrs. Carolyn Rogerson spoke in favor of the amendment. Mr. Rhett Jackson, Trenholm Road, Columbia, noted that the General Board of Church and Society speaks to the Church, not for the Church. Only the General Conference can speak for the United Methodist Church. The Reverend A. Clark Jenkins asked if the General Boards are mandated by the General Conference. The Bishop replied that they were, that they are a part of the Book of Discipline. Mr. Harry Kent moved to amend the amendment by reinstating the words "despite the Board's faithfulness to its purpose and mission." The Kent Amendment was approved. Ms. McFadden was given an opportunity to speak on behalf of the Resolution stating her support for the General Board in its work to speak to the Church in matters related to the Social Principles. The Bilderback Amendments to the fifth and sixth "Whereas" as amended by Harry Kent were supported. The Resolution as amended was then adopted as follows:

AFFIRMATION OF THE GENERAL BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

WHEREAS, from the very beginnings of the Methodist Revival in England, John Wesley and the people called Methodist have effectively combined the dual Christian emphases of personal piety and social justice as they prayed, studied, worshiped, and worked for the elimination of such social ills as slavery and child labor; and,

WHEREAS, the prophet Micah reminded us that God requires nothing more of us than "to do justice, love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God" (Micah 6:8); and,

WHEREAS, the General Board of Church and Society continues in the Wesleyan tradition of providing a prophetic ministry to the United Methodist Church by fulfilling its purpose as defined in Par. 1002 of the 2000 Book of Discipline which states that "the purpose of the board shall be to relate the gospel of Jesus Christ to the members of the Church and to the persons and structures of the communities and world in which they live. It shall seek to bring the whole of human life, activities, possessions, use of resources, and community and world relationships into conformity with the will of God. It shall show the members of the Church and the society that the reconciliation that God effected through Christ involves personal, social, and civic righteousness;" and,

WHEREAS, the 2000 Book of Discipline in Par. 1004 further defines the responsibility of the General Board of Church and Society as being "to seek the implementation of the Social Principles and other policy statements of the General Conference on Christian social concerns. Furthermore, the board and its executives shall provide forthright witness and action on issues of human well-being, justice, peace, and the integrity of creation that call Christians to respond as forgiven people for whom Christ died. In particular, the board shall conduct a program of research, education, and action on the wide range of issues that confront the Church;" and,

WHEREAS, the Institute on Religion and Democracy in its January 1, 2002, issue of UM Action called for the elimination of the General Board of Church and Society at the 2004 General Conference despite the Board's faithfulness to its purpose and mission;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this Annual Conference supports the continuation of the General Board of Church and Society;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Conference Secretary be directed to forward a copy of this resolution to the General Secretary of the General Board of Church and Society.

Report of the Council on Finance and Administration. The Reverend Michael B. Henderson presented the Report in its various sections for final consideration by the Conference. Report No. 2 containing the recommended funding for the Conference Benevolences Fund and the Conference Administration Fund was placed before the body and was approved. Report No. 3 dealing with compensation for the District Superintendents and funding for such district expense items as district offices and district parsonages was placed before the body and was approved. Report No. 4 dealing with such matters as "Special Days," average net funds, and the division of apportioned funds for retirement homes, senior colleges, and camps and retreats was placed before the body and was approved. Report No. 5 setting forth the investment policies of the Council for conference funds was approved as presented. Report No. 6 stating that 2001 Average Net Funds for each district will be printed in the Conference Journal was received as information. Report No. 1 was considered last because it incorporated some figures already approved in the previous reports as well as general and jurisdictional apportionments which cannot be changed. Mr. Henderson presented the entire budget to the Conference. Mr. Bill Bynum, Trinity, Elloree, called the Conference's attention to the fact that the proposed funding for the Alston Wilkes Society is being reduced for 2003 by sixteen hundred dollars. Mr. Bynum, a member of the Board of Directors of the Society, proposed that the amount be restored to $13,100.00. A motion was made to reconsider Report No. 2 in regards to Section A.1(funding for Conference Advance Specials). It was approved. Mr. Bynum's motion to restore the $1,600.00 was seconded. The Reverend Charles L. Johnson spoke a word of caution about changing recommendations on the floor of the Conference which have come through a process of evaluation and consideration by the appropriate Board and the Council noting that the Conference is not privileged to the information or issues which may have resulted in the decision to lower a particular funding recommendation. Mr. Rhett Jackson, Trenholm Road, Columbia, spoke in favor of the restoration citing the work done by the Society for people in great need. The motion to restore the $1,600.00 was approved. The Council was given permission to correct the Report as needed to reflect this change in the totals. Report No. 1 was approved as amended. The Report of the Council on Finance and Administration was then approved as a whole by the Conference. Appreciation was expressed to the members of the Council by Mr. Henderson. The Conference also expressed its appreciation to Mrs. Becky L. Buie, Conference Treasurer.

Nominations. All nominations as presented in the registration materials as corrected by the Committee on Nominations, including all district nominations and nominations by the Bishop, were approved.

Remarks by the Conference Chancellor. Mr. James R. Allen, the Conference Chancellor, shared several items of information with the Conference. (1) Full sized vans can no longer be purchased for use in transporting children to and from school. Vans in use for this purpose on July 1, 2001, can no longer be used for this purpose after July 1, 2006. Vans can be used for other purposes but not for transporting children to and from school. (2) Legislation is pending in the South Carolina General Assembly which would require Clergy to report incidents of child abuse as well as other situations where the potential for child abuse exists. If passed, this legislation would make such reporting mandatory for clergy. (3) Federal legislation has now codified the clergy housing exclusion allowance. The Clergy Housing Allowance Clarification Act of 2002 was signed by President Bush on May 20, 2002. The new law designed to remedy a pending overturn of the clergy housing allowance exclusion by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in California expressly limits the amount of a cash allowance for housing and furnishings to the "fair rental value" of the property. "Fair rental value" is calculated based on the value of the real estate, the furnishings, and the utilities. The housing allowance cannot exceed this figure. Mr. Allen indicated that there is still a chance that the Ninth Circuit will declare the Clergy Housing Exclusion unconstitutional which would place the matter in the hands of the United States Supreme Court.

Charge Line Changes. The list of Charge line changes were noted for information and will appear in the Business Questions.

The Report of the Methodist Oaks, Orangeburg. Having been removed from the Consent Calendar, the Report was brought before the Conference. Mr. Rhett Jackson, Trenholm Road, raised a question regarding the next to last paragraph of the Report, namely, why does there appear to be evidence of so much unhappiness among the residents if the "board members, management, staff and residents...are committed to working together to see...hopes, visions and dreams come true." The Reverend Julian H. Lazar, outgoing chairperson of the Board of Trustees, replied that the Trustees are working with residents, meeting with individuals and with groups, in an effort to address concerns. A resident has now been elected to serve as an "ex-officio" member of the Board. He reported that the administration is working to address concerns and that the majority of the residents seemed pleased with what is being done. The Reverend Keith D. Sweatt raised a question of information regarding the $910,000 expended during 2001 for "resident assistance" in light of some uncertainty about how funds are being transferred. Mr. Lazar replied that the Methodist Oaks receives about $275,000 from the Conference apportionment. This amount is used to assist residents who are unable to pay the full cost of their care. Additional sources of income have to be used to cover this need which on average has been around $900,000 annually. These additional funds come from gifts and other sources as well as from an endowment which had been created using net operating income from previous years. Mrs. Johnnie R. Benson, President of the Methodist Oaks, reported that well over $600,000 had to be transferred during last year to provide the needed amount of funding for resident assistance. This situation has been made worse by the reduction of both Medicare and Medicaid funding. Some sixty residents receive assistance each month with the cost of their care. The Reverend D. Mitchell Houston, Chairperson of the Investment and Audit Committee of the Council on Finance and Administration, reported that the Committee will be reviewing the audit report of the Methodist Oaks purely as a precautionary measure and without prejudice as it is the practice of the Committee to do for all conference-related institutions. Mr. Sweatt asked specifically if the $910,000.00 mentioned in the Report was spent on resident assistance. Mrs. Benson replied that it was. Mr. Jimmy Powers, Main Street, Bamberg, attempted to ask a question about the relationship between the occupancy rate and the availability of funds to assist persons. Bishop McCleskey stated that questions needed to pertain to the report which was before the body, and the question was not allowed.

Mr. Tommy Thompson, St. Paul, Orangeburg, a resident of the Methodist Oaks, attempted to question the third paragraph of the Report by questioning certain employment practices of the Oaks which were purported to classify as "temporary" certain employees of the Oaks with ten years of employment. He argued that this was a social justice issue which needed to be addressed. Bishop McCleskey responded that questions of this nature cannot be resolved in this assembly, that issues such as this must be raised directly with the administration and management of the particular institution. It is not the role of the Conference to delve into, investigate, or instruct the trustees in matters of this nature, the Bishop stated. Mr. Thompson then raised a question regarding the staffing level of the healthcare center at the Methodist Oaks and the number of people being seen. Bishop McCleskey replied that it is not the responsibility of the Annual Conference in session to try to resolve differences between the constituencies of any of the Conference-related institutions and the boards and staffs which administer those institutions. Such matters must be taken by those constituencies directly to the trustees of these institutions. He noted that the trustees of the Methodist Oaks have indicated their willingness to sit down with their constituency and to try to resolve these issues and that such willingness must be taken in good faith. The Reverend Willie Wilson noted that apparently there are legitimate concerns that need to be addressed. He asked if there was a timeline for addressing these concerns by the trustees. Bishop McCleskey replied that a timeline is not something that can be set by the Conference but these issues must rather be entrusted to the bodies which are the appropriate bodies for dealing with them. The Report of the Methodist Oaks, Orangeburg, was received as presented.

Native American Committee. The Report had been removed from the Consent Calendar. Ms. Carleathea Benson, Chairperson of the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee, noted for the record that the Report had been removed in error. The Report was then received as printed.

Omnibus Motion. The Secretary moved that all reports, nominations, and other information printed and distributed in the preconference materials or in the registration packet not previously acted upon be moved to record. The motion was adopted.

Bishop McCleskey concluded the business of the Conference with expressions of appreciation to Claflin University, for its gracious and hospitable hosting of the Annual Conference; to the members of the Annual Conference for the manner in which they conducted themselves; to Mrs. Carolyn Rogerson for her participation and leadership; to the Reverend W. Timothy McClendon, Parliamentarian, for assisting the Chair; to the Assistant Secretaries and the tellers for their service during the Conference; to the Reverend Delos D. Corderman, who concludes eighteen years of service as Conference Secretary; and to the Reverend Roger M. Gramling, who begins duties as the new Conference Secretary on May 30th.

The Service of Covenant Renewal and The Fixing of the Appointments. The Service began at 3:40 p.m., with the singing of "The Church's One Foundation." The Opening Prayer was offered by the Reverend Rebecca J. Shirley. The Pastoral Prayer was offered by the Reverend Vernon O. Anderson. An anthem, "Say It Loud", was presented by the Clergy and Diaconal Ministers Choir. The Scripture Lesson, II Corinthians 5:14 - 6:2, was read by Mrs. Carolyn Rogerson. Bishop McCleskey preached.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT TIME IT IS?

Covenant Sermon
South Carolina Annual Conference
The United Methodist Church
Claflin University, Orangeburg, SC

Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey

II Corinthians 5:14-6:2

Alongside John Wesley there was another John in eighteenth-century England who, in his own way had as far-reaching an influence on the world as did Wesley. His field of endeavor was different from that of John Wesley, but the result of his work transformed a tremendously important aspect of the life of England and of the entire world.

This other John was John Harrison. By trade he was a clock maker. But he used his skills as a clock maker to solve what has been called the greatest scientific problem of his time: the problem of how to determine longitude.¹²

When scientists and cartographers began to try to map the earth, even small portions of it, one of the greatest challenges facing them was how to measure the earth's size and how to plot towns and cities on the earth's surface. Even before the awareness that the earth is round, ancient Greeks used the apparent movement of the sun and stars to establish coordinates on the surface of the earth and estimate its size, as they understood it then. These coordinates, as they were developed over the centuries, came to be defined in relation to the earth's equator, and they consist partly of parallel circular lines "drawn" north and south of the equator, indicating distances from the equator north or south to the poles and points in between. These lines are known as latitude.

Longitude, however, is a different matter. It consists of lines drawn around the earth from north pole to south pole. Longitude tells you where you are on east-west lines. They are not parallel, as are the latitude lines. Points of longitude are more difficult to pinpoint. And there was, for centuries, no scientifically accurate way to determine longitude. There were inaccurate means of estimating longitude, but no one was really sure. Consequently, travel by sea was very uncertain, because a ship's captain could never be quite sure exactly where the ship was at any given moment in time. The sun and stars were used to calculate longitude, but on a cloudy night or in a storm, there was no way at all to determine precisely where a ship was located.

On October 22, 1707 (when John Wesley was four years old) four Royal Navy ships and nearly 2,000 seamen were lost at sea off the southwest coast of England because the navigators, trying to pinpoint their location in a dense fog, miscalculated their longitude and ran into a line of tiny, rocky islands that they thought they would miss. Within a few years, in 1714 to be exact, the British Parliament appointed a panel of scientific experts named the Board of Longitude and offered a prize of 20,000 pounds to anyone who could discover a way to determine correct longitude at sea within one-half a degree. Now if you want a slight indicator of what 20,000 pounds meant in those days, John Wesley had a stipend of 30 pounds a year when he was a student at Oxford - during the years when this offer was outstanding. 20,000 pounds is 667 times what Wesley lived on. If you took an income of $30,000 today, 667 times that would be over $20,000,000. Quite a prize!

It's a far longer story than I have time to tell today, but across the years that John Wesley was leading the formation of the Methodist movement in England, John Harrison was working to solve the solution to the longitude problem. Wesley was born in 1703. Harrison was ten years old at that time. Harrison lived to be 83 years old, dying in 1776. Wesley lived to be 88, dying in 1791. Basically, they were contemporaries, though I know of no indication that they were acquainted with each other. To make the long story short, Harrison solved the longitude problem, but in what was considered by his own scientific contemporaries to be so unorthodox and unacceptable that he was never given the prize by the Board of Longitude. He solved the problem with a clock. He solved this problem that had plagued sailors for centuries by knowing what time it was.

Harrison devised a clock that would operate accurately on the sea. For just one example of his challenge, he had to devise a clock that operated without a pendulum, because the rolling of a ship on the sea easily distorted the time-keeping mechanism of a pendulum clock. He reckoned that if one could know exactly what time it was at a given moment in two places - the point of reference and the point of location of a ship - by calculating the differences in the two times, with reference to the size and shape of the earth, one could calculate longitude. He was correct, though it took him about 45 years to devise the clock which did what he had believed all along could be done. He never convinced some of his scientific contemporaries, but the principles on which he did his work are the principles which to this day govern the determination of longitude. Longitude is measured in degrees, minutes, and seconds from the point of reference, which came to be the Prime Meridian in Greenwich, England. So we all, today, measure our time and our longitude with reference to Greenwich Mean Time. And today ships on the sea and planes in the air calculate their locations using a satellite-dependent Global Positioning System that relies on the principles of time and distance established by John Harrison.

There, in all too short and over-simplified a version, is perhaps the most critical scientific example in history of the importance of knowing what time it is. It was a matter of life and death.

So with the Bible's understanding of time. It is a matter of life and death. It is absolutely essential, from the biblical point of view, to know what time it is. You have to know what time it is to know where you are. And you have to know what time it is to know how to chart the course of your life.

But the two understandings of time - that by which we operate according to the clock and that by which we chart our lives of faith - are two different things. The Bible has a different understanding of time from the one we normally think of. John Wesley was concerned about time in the sense that John Harrison was. You heard me ask the persons we received into clergy membership in the conference earlier this week Wesley's historic questions, and you remember that he was concerned about time: "Are you determined to employ all your time in the work of God?" And, "Will you observe the following directions? Never trifle away time; neither spend any more time at any one place than is strictly necessary. Be punctual. Do everything exactly at the time." He's talking about "clock" time. The kind of time Harrison was concerned about. It's important. It can save your life. But it's not the only kind of time. This is time called by the Greek word "Xronos," spelled in English "chronos." From it we get chronometer - clock. It is time measured in seconds, minutes, hours, days, weeks, months, and years.

But there is another kind of time in Scripture. Wesley knew this as well. It is called by another Greek word: "Kairos." On the vast majority of occasions when the New Testament uses the word time, the word is Kairos. Kairos means the right time, the suitable time, the favorable time. It is the word used to speak of a moment in time appointed by God for some critical, important, even eternal time of awareness, decision, and action. Kairos is God's time. Kairos is the Greek word in the text for this sermon: "At an acceptable time (Kairos) I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you. See, now is the acceptable time (Kairos); see, now is the day of salvation!"¹³

And we ask, the acceptable Kairos for what? The day of what salvation? This text follows Paul's magnificent discussion of his concept that a person who is "in Christ" is becoming a new creation. Such a person is becoming new because God in Christ has reconciled us to God's own self; and God has enlisted those reconciled to God in a ministry of reconciliation. Such a reconciled person is to call others to God. And persons so called and reconciled to God are part of the community known as the Body of Christ. This letter, remember, is written to the church in Corinth. It is not directed at unbelievers. It is the church and the persons within it who are reconciled to God and being made new. And there is the salvation, which means wholeness, health, healing - not only for life beyond this, but for this life as well. It is salvation - wholeness, health, healing - in this community of the reconciled, called to be reconcilers.

So, what time is it? It is God's Kairos time for our being reconciled to God, God's Kairos time for our being made whole by God, God's Kairos time for the Body of Christ, the community, being reconciled to God in Christ. Now, what does this have to do with a Covenant Service and the Fixing of the Appointments in a United Methodist Annual Conference for another year?

Let me tell you two stories. Both of them true. Both of them from close to home.

One of our district superintendents was consulting with the pastor parish relations committee of a church in the district about its pastoral appointment. After considerable conversation about the pastoral needs of the church, the superintendent asked the committee this question: "Now I want to be sure I understand what you're telling me. Are you saying that your primary concern is to have a young pastor appointed to serve you? Or are you saying that you want the best pastor the cabinet and I can find to meet your leadership needs?"

"Oh," said one of the committee members, "we want the best pastor you can find. But don't send us a woman. We've had a woman!"

The superintendent paused, looked at the committee, and asked this question: "Have you had a man?"

The second story - also from a consultation between one of our district superintendents and a pastor parish relations committee. This time the discussion specifically involved one of those situations that we refer to as "cross-racial."

After a proposal was placed on the table for discussion, a member of the committee said to the superintendent: "You need to remember that this is a conservative community." The superintendent responded: "I do not come to you as conservative. I do not come to you as liberal. I come to you as Christian!"

Now - let me share some history with you. Stay with me. I'm going somewhere with this. I'm headed straight for the Bible's understanding of God's Kairos.

In 1956 The Methodist Church officially incorporated into its BOOK OF DISCIPLINE provisions authorizing the ordination of women.

In 1972 THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH began to move away from the exclusive use of male pronouns when referring to offices and leadership positions in our church. Today over 3,000 women serve as ordained elders in The United Methodist Church, over 125 of them in the South Carolina Conference. In addition, the student bodies of our thirteen denominational seminaries are variously made up of one-third to one-half women. The question, where the appointments of women is concerned, is not "if" but "when."

four years before the elimination of the Central Jurisdiction, eight years before the merger of the white and black conferences in South Carolina - four years before we became The United Methodist Church,

THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH declared for the first time that pastoral appointments should be made "without regard to race or color." By 1980 THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH had become even more explicit about what we call "open itineracy."¹⁴ Our current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE says this in paragraph 430.1, the first paragraph in the section on appointment-making:

"Appointments are to be made with consideration of the gifts and evidence of God's grace of those appointed, to the needs, characteristics, and opportunities of congregations and institutions, and with faithfulness to the commitment to an open itineracy. Open itineracy means appointments are made without regard to race, ethnic origin, gender, color, disability, marital status, or age...."¹⁵

What time is it? It's appointment time!

What time is it? It's covenant time!

What time is it? It's God's Kairos time to live appointments as examples of our primary identity - not liberals,

or conservatives,

or young,

or old,

or male,

or female,

or black,

but as CHRISTIAN!

Let me tell you two questions that pastor parish relations committees of our churches will never be asked again by the district superintendents of this conference. We have asked them for too long! Our asking of them is, in a sense, a violation of our BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. It is a transgression against God's Kairos expectations. We will not ask them again!

Number one - "Are you open to the appointment of a woman?"

Number two - "Are you open to the appointment of a person of another race?"

We are making this year, and we will make in future years, appointments on the basis of (as THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE puts it) "gifts and the evidence of God's grace of those appointed, to the needs, characteristics, and opportunities of congregations and institutions...."¹⁶

Because of THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE? Well, yes - in part. But there's another reason.

Do you know what time it is? St. Paul told us:

"For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all....And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them....So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation....So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us.... For he says,

'At an acceptable Kairos I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you.'

See, now is the acceptable Kairos;
see, now is the day of salvation."¹⁷

What time is it?

It's time for us who are "in Christ," and therefore becoming new creations, it's time for us who are "in Christ," in whom "there is no longer Jew or Greek,...slave or free,...male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus....,"¹⁸

it's time - God's Kairos time - for us who are "in Christ" to know that, in the latitude and longitude of his kingdom, our lives are finally safe and saved when they intersect with each other at the foot of the cross!

It's time!

It's God's time!

It's Kairos time!

It's time!

It's time!

Following the Sermon the Conference joined in the singing of "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee." Bishop McCleskey presented the members of the Cabinet expressing appreciation especially to the three members who are leaving Cabinet service: the Reverend Kenneth G. Bobo after eight years on the Hartsville District, the Reverend Vernon O. Anderson after four years on the Florence District, and the Reverend Angelin J. Simmons after eight years on the Orangeburg District. The new members of the Cabinet were introduced: The Reverend Ronald A. Pettit to the Orangeburg District from the Manning United Methodist Church; the Reverend Quay W. Adams to the Anderson District from the First United Methodist Church, Myrtle Beach; and the Reverend Janice Frederick-Watts to the Florence District from the Centenary-Kingsville Charge. Spouses present were also introduced.

The appointments were distributed to the Conference by the tellers following the directions given by Bishop McCleskey. Bishop McCleskey asked that any editorial corrections to the appointments be submitted in writing to the appropriate district superintendent. The Reverend B. Susan Ulmer, Secretary of the Cabinet, announced a number of changes to the appointments as printed. Bishop McCleskey delivered a "charge" first to the Diaconal Ministers, then to the Clergy, and finally to the Laity, after which Bishop McCleskey "fixed" the appointments as the appointments for the South Carolina Annual Conference for the 2002-2003 Conference Year, The Covenant and Covenant Prayer followed after which the Conference sang the hymn, "Make Me A Captive Lord." The Benediction was pronounced by Bishop McCleskey and the 31st Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church was adjourned.

Report No. 3

- A. The compensation for the District Superintendents for the year 2003 will be set at 167% of the Conference Average Compensation, or $81,508.
- B. The Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference, The United Methodist Church, hereby designates up to 15% ($12,226) of the district superintendent's salary for the year 2003 as allocated for parsonage utilities and maintenance, not including maid service and such expenses as paid by the district.
- C. The District Administration Fund will be handled as follows:
- 1) The item "Office Expense" in the District Administration Fund will be for the operation of the District Office to pay such items as secretary, postage, and supplies and will be set at $19,500 per district.
 - 2) Exception: Inasmuch as the Columbia District Office must be in The United Methodist Center, one-half of that office rent will be paid from the Conference Expense Fund.
 - 3) The funds for program in each district are based on the membership of the district, beginning with a base of $3,000 for the smallest membership district and adding $100 for each one thousand (1,000) members, or major fraction thereof, above 15,000. The schedule for 2003 will be as follows:

	Membership	Amount
Anderson	15,552	$3,100
Charleston	24,689	4,000
Columbia	30,646	4,600
Florence	20,249	3,500
Greenville	22,901	3,800
Greenwood	17,564	3,300
Hartsville	20,349	3,500
Marion	21,440	3,700
Orangeburg	19,630	3,500
Rock Hill	16,869	3,200
Spartanburg	17,561	3,300
Walterboro	15,134	3,000

- 4) Travel (in and out-of-district) is set at $120,000 for the total of all districts (or an average of $10,000 per district), insurance & pensions at $204,600 ($17,050 per district), and continuing education at $500 per superintendent.
 - 5) Vouchers for continuing education must be approved by the District Committee on Continuing Education prior to payment. The unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance may be carried forward from year to year during a district superintendent's tenure, not to exceed a total amounting to three year's Continuing Education allocation. Not more than fifty percent of accumulated funds shall be used for travel expenses. The accumulation is cancelled in full when a district superintendent leaves the superintendency. It does not carry forward to the new district superintendent. However, by application to the CF&A in advance of leaving the superintendency, the district superintendent may within a reasonable length of time use the unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance to take training that would assist in his/her return to the parish ministry or other appointment. For the year in which there is a move, one-half of the Continuing Education allowance will be available for each superintendent.
- D. Each District Board of Trustees shall administer all funds for the District Parsonage Fund, which provides funds for parsonage payments, repairs, insurance and furnishings (not to include parsonage utility payments). The moving expenses of an in-coming district superintendent may also be paid from the District Parsonage Fund, not to include more than $150 packing expenses. Each district office shall provide its trustees with regular reports of all receipts and expenditures of the District Parsonage Fund.

- E. Below are the percentages of average net funds that each church is asked to pay to its respective District Parsonage/Office Fund:

Report No. 4

- A. We call attention to the "Special Days" designated by the Book of Discipline and recommend that they be observed with appropriate free-will offerings and that the following special observances be a part of the program of each local church.

Human Relations Day -- January 19, 2003
 Golden Cross Sunday -- February 2, 2003
 One Great Hour of Sharing -- March 30, 2003
 Native American Awareness Sunday -- May 4, 2003
 Peace With Justice Sunday -- June 15, 2003
 Epworth Children's Home
 Mothers' Day -- May 11, 2003
 Work Day -- September 14, 2003
 Church school offering first Sunday each month
 Youth Service Fund Sunday -- September 21, 2003
 (youth offering)
 World Communion Sunday -- October 5, 2003
 Conference Advance Specials Sunday -- November 2, 2003
 United Methodist Student Day -- November 30, 2003

- B. An offering may be taken to support the Bessie Parker Memorial Scholarship Fund as a part of the observance of Women in the Pulpit Sunday, March 16, 2003.
- C. Supporting the request of the Conference Council on Ministries, we recommend the continuation of the Conference Advance Special to fund $16,000 of a "match amount" to support an Hispanic Missioner to South Carolina, to be primarily funded through a grant from the National Hispanic Plan.
- D. We offer the following recommendations:
- 1) That all boards, commissions and committees receiving funds from the conference treasurer shall submit with each voucher adequate supporting data (receipts, bills, contemporaneous travel log, etc.).

- 2) That boards, agencies and conference institutions which are allowed to withdraw lump sums from the conference treasurer shall submit an annual audit (with management letter) by a certified public accountant to the Council on Finance and Administration, along with evidence of fidelity insurance coverage.
- 3) That all boards, commissions and agencies of the conference reimburse persons at a rate of 24 cents per mile when traveling on conference business. In order to encourage car pooling, we recommend that if a car contains two persons traveling on church business, the mileage rate be increased to 29 cents; if a car contains three persons all traveling on church business, the rate be 32 cents; and if a car contains four or more persons all traveling on church business, the rate be 34 cents per mile. Conference employees will be reimbursed at the approved IRS mileage rate for 2003 when traveling on church business. We recommend that other expenses for travel on church business be paid. We also recommend that the guideline amount paid to a person for meals shall be $4.00 for breakfast, $6.00 for lunch and $10.00 for the evening meal.
- 4) That each church place in its budget an amount of at least $500 per year to be used by the pastor as a continuing education fund, and that if the full amount is not used in a given year, the unused portion may be carried forward from year to year during the tenure of a pastor, not to exceed a total amounting to three year's continuing education allowance. Not more than fifty percent of accumulated funds shall be used for travel expenses. The accumulation is cancelled in full when there is a change of pastor. It is also recommended that the health insurance premium be paid by the local church directly to the Office of Ministerial Affairs; if it is done on a salary reduction basis, the amount must be included in the charge conference worksheet which itemizes compensation and benefits for 2003.
- 5) That the balance held for each board, commission, committee or agency on the books of the conference treasurer shall be carried forward from one year to the next and that this shall be taken into consideration in the subsequent budget request.
- 6) That conference boards and agencies may not spend in excess of funds received on budget for the given conference year. Any expenses beyond anticipated receipts (based on previous-year percentage of payment) will not be paid by the treasurer.
- 7) That "average net funds" as used in the calculation of 2003 apportionments shall mean for each church the four-year average of net funds in the years 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2001. When a church has declined for two consecutive years in "net funds," the term "average net funds" shall mean the average of the last two years only; the first year net funds increases, a three-year average will be used, and the following year the normal four-year average. Newly organized churches will be treated in the same manner as other churches of the conference. A four-year average of net funds will be used, but for the years prior to the organization of the new church, the net funds figure will be zero.
- 8) That "net funds" be defined as the total of figures reported on lines 63 through 71 (inclusive) of Table II.
- 9) That once the apportionments are calculated from Table II statistics for any given year, those apportionments cannot be altered. Needed corrections can be made on Table II reports for use in future year calculations.
- 10) That the funds received on the apportionment for Methodist Homes Residents' Assistance (item 15, Report No. 1) be divided 55% to Methodist Oaks (Orangeburg), 30% to Wesley Commons (Greenwood), 15% to Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee (Florence); that the funds received on the apportionment for Senior College Scholarship Fund (item 12, Report No. 1) be divided in three equal parts, one-third each going to Wofford College, Columbia College and Claflin College; that the funds received on the apportionment for Camps and Retreat Ministries (item 16, Report No. 1) be divided 60% to Asbury Hills Camp and 40% to Sewee Coastal Retreat Center.

- 11) That the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration be authorized to grant amounts up to $7,500 from the Conference Contingency Fund to meet any individual emergency or unanticipated need.
- 12) That the salaries and fixed essential expenses of the Conference Council on Ministries (section C of the Conference Benevolences budget) be funded up to 100% of budget by using funds from the Contingency Fund; the remainder of that budget will be funded at the percentage paid on the line item.
- 13) That the salaries and benefits portion of the Campus Ministry budget be funded up to 100% of budget by using funds from the Contingency Fund; the remainder of that budget will be funded at the percentage paid on the line item.
- 14) That the budgets of the Resource Center and the Coordinator of Clergy Services be funded up to 100% of budget by using funds from the Contingency Fund.
- 15) That local churches of the conference incorporate, as recommended in The Discipline. A packet of materials prepared by the Conference Chancellor and the Cabinet is available from the district office to assist in this process. After incorporation, churches should take care to maintain with the Secretary of State, an accurate, up-to-date record of the name and address of their registered agent.
- 16) That boards and agencies making budgetary requests of CF&A for the 2004 conference year have their requests in the hands of the Conference Treasurer by February 26 in order for budget worksheets to be prepared and distributed to CF&A members for study and preparation at least a week in advance of the budget meeting.

Report No. 5

In accord with the disciplinary requirement to publish at least once a quadrennium, the policy of CF&A regarding the investment of Conference funds (2000 Discipline, paragraph 611.5) the following is reported:

- A) Forms of investment authorized:
 - 1) short-term United States treasury bills, government bonds and agencies,
 - 2) regular savings accounts insured by FSLIC
 - 3) certificates of deposit from any federally insured savings and loan association, commercial bank or credit union.
- B) Limitations:
 - 1) no stocks or real estate may be purchased,
 - 2) no corporate or municipal bonds may be purchased,
 - 3) no loans may be made except where authorized by action of Annual Conference.
 - 4) no short-term investment, savings accounts, certificates of deposit, etc., may be purchased from which funds cannot be obtained should a need arise.
- C) The following depositories are authorized:
 - 1) Checking account – Bank of America.
 - 2) Investments – commercial banks, savings and loan associations, and credit unions which are federally insured and located in South Carolina.
 - 3) The United Methodist Development Fund.
- D) Beginning with the conference year 2003, income on invested funds will be credited to the Permanent Reserve Fund of the Conference.

Report No. 6

Following is a listing of the 2001 Average Net Funds for each district for the total Conference. These are the figures used in the calculation of 2003 apportionments.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

Following the mandate of our Vision Statement to "Make Disciples (learners and followers) of Jesus Christ", the Conference Council on Ministries works in three ministry areas: Advocacy, Nurture, Outreach and Witness.

The Conference Council on Ministries team is made up of volunteers, lay and clergy, who serve on Boards, Commissions, and Committees, representatives from each district and the staff and support staff. It is in this team partnership that ministry areas are developed and carried out. Persons in local churches throughout our conference have been strengthened and empowered through participation in the various programs provided by the Council on Ministries.

A priority of the conference staff members is to be out working with persons at the local church level. During this year the staff members worked closely with individual churches. They led district and conference events that have trained and nurtured many persons in ministry area of the church. Charles L. Johnson has given outstanding leadership and guidance as CCOM Director. June B. Willson, Associate Director, Age-Level and Family Ministries; James S. Arant, Associate Director of Nurture; and Jack C. Washington, Associate Director, Outreach and Witness; have given good and faithful service.

Because of their leadership the South Carolina Conference has some of the most outstanding ministries for children, youth and adults in the entire United Methodist Church. The reports that follow will illustrate this. Our staff members are also very active in programs, serving on Boards and leading events at the Jurisdictional and General Church level. We are proud of their accomplishments and their contributions to the United Methodist Church. Five persons were assigned to the South Carolina Conference under the 10-10-10 mission initiative of the General Board of Global Ministries: Sonia Ortigoza, Coordinator of Hispanic Ministries; Millard Lowry, Native American Missioner; Connie Terrance, Director of Columbia Bethlehem Center; Mary Lou Edens, Director of Tracy Jackson Program of GIFT in Abbeville; and Carolyn Little of the Bennettsville-Cheraw Area Cooperative Ministry Outreach. In partnership with the Department of Social Services, Robin Landers and Millie Carter are doing an excellent job leading the Shalom Literacy and Fostering Families programs.

The team is completed by the support staff: Victoria Shearin, Assistant to the CCOM Director and Coordinator of CCOM Administration; Jim Crews, Electronics Coordinator; Betty H. Stalnaker, Resource Center Coordinator; Bonnie Speas, Office Coordinator for Nurture; Veronica Williams, Office Coordinator for Outreach and Witness; Patricia McLean, Bookkeeper; Melinda Pearson and Rebecca K. Shrum, in the Age-Level and Family Ministries office.

The CCOM meeting December 8, 2001 was highlighted with reports from Hispanic Ministries, Native American Ministries, Shalom Literacy Programs, and Fostering Families Initiatives.

The Program Review Committee meeting February 14, 2002, evaluated Programs, Events, Grants, Awards, Line Items and Advance Specials from the past year, assessed projections for 2003 for their feasibility, and made budget recommendations. Ineffective programs were dropped and new ones that better serve the needs in the local church were put in place. The CCOM supported these recommendations on March 2, 2002. The pages following this report contain the 2003 Programs, Events, Grants, and Awards. Line Items and Advance Specials.

VISION STATEMENT SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE 2001-2004

Vision: Make Disciples (learners and followers) of Jesus Christ

Imperatives:

1. Promote disciple making in local congregations through such ministries as DISCIPLE Bible Study, FAITH QUEST, and THE CHRISTIAN BELIEVER, resources through the Board of Discipleship.
2. Develop a focused ministry of evangelism, congregational development, and congregational re-development to relate to Christ and to the Church.
3. Nurture our unity across the lines that sometimes divide us (racially, culturally, theologically, etc. – i.e. nurture unity that also appreciates diversity) while maintaining our doctrinal and Wesleyan integrity.
4. Recruit, develop and nurture trained and committed lay and clergy leadership with an understanding of the differences and the complementary nature of each.
5. Support a focused, conference-wide outreach ministry.
6. Be a visible witness to the stance of The United Methodist Church in concerns and issues of the larger society.

Report 2 -- Part II

THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE ADVANCE SPECIAL MINISTRIES 2003

Alston Wilkes Society: Since 1962, the Society has been in the business of rebuilding lives and providing second chances. We create and support opportunities statewide to help adult and juvenile offenders and ex-offenders, homeless veterans and other homeless people, emotionally- and behaviorally- disturbed children, and the families of these groups of people to become responsible and productive through employment, mediation, life skills, rehabilitation, prevention, volunteerism, and transitional housing services.

Bennettsville-Cheraw Area Cooperative Ministry: This ministry's purpose is to strengthen the local churches in their ministry, and to minister to all of the people in its geographical area by a program of activities which can best be realized through the cooperation of the churches within the parish. The services provided are: Joint Worship, Bible Study, Activities for Children and Youth, Leadership Training in Christian Education, Evangelism, Mission (ex. distribution of food commodities, health fair, mission fair, blood drive, clothes closet and relief kits.), Tutorial Program (K-12) In-School and After-School, Vacation Bible School, Transportation, Newsletter and Shalom Zone (Emergency Preparedness and Disaster Relief, Emergency Medical and Inadequate Housing), Shalom/EPRUS/AmeriCorps and Congregational Resource Center for Strengthening the Black Church.

Bethlehem Community Center - Columbia: The center's purpose is to create a Christ-centered environment that enhances ongoing wholeness through spiritual, mental and physical growth by nurturing and empowering people of the community. Since 1945, the Center has served the Waverly-Edgewood and surrounding communities through outreach programs including child care, after-school tutorial and mentoring, life skills training and referral services. The agency is related to the General Board of Global Ministries of the United Methodist Church and to the South Carolina Annual Conference.

Bethlehem Community Center-Spartanburg: The Center is a multi-serve agency providing an array of programs to residents in Spartanburg County. The Center's day care facility has the capacity to serve 130 children between the ages of two and five. The outreach department facilitates client-centered referrals, provides emergency assistance with food, electrical, heating and rental payments as well as coordinates self-improvement focused programming and remedial academic GED preparation classes. The community services department provides numerous programs related to afterschool tutorial services, fine arts (dance, drama, piano lessons and art), sports and recreational activities, scouting, seasonal camping, primary prevention and leadership programs for community youth. Programming for adults include Bible studies and fellowship, nutritional programs, sewing and craft classes. A computer lab is maintained for all program participants and community residents. The health clinic provides emergency, routine and preventive medical services to community residents. The facility also is available to host other agency sponsored programs to serve the community. Financial and volunteer support for the program and services are needed.

Church and Community Worker: A salary support grant for Bennettsville-Cheraw Area Cooperative Ministries -- Church and Community Worker approved by the National Division, Board of Global Ministries.

Cooperative Ministry: A unique ministry of the religious community serving as an instrument of God's love to those in crisis. Through the Ministry, religious congregations in the Greater Columbia area respond to requests for help from local and transient people, improve the quality of life for the needy and visibly reflect God's care and concern for the total well-being of all persons in our community. This ministry offers direct financial assistance, counseling, information, referrals, clothing, computers and furniture, and long-term programs to address the root causes of poverty.

Crisis Ministries-Anderson: The ministry responds to critical, physical, emotional and spiritual needs of individuals in Anderson, Oconee and Pickens counties. We offer 24-hour Crisis Line; a summer camp for inner-city youth; counseling for victims of rape, drug- and spouse-abuse; crisis assistance; and information and referrals.

Grand Strand Leisure/Crisis Ministries: Responds to critical needs of persons vacationing in or traveling through the Grand Strand area. It provides worship services, Bible study, recreation, a snowbird ministry (October-March), crisis assistance, information and referrals.

Interfaith Community Services, Inc.: Addresses social challenges and meets community needs through advocacy, education, collaboration, research and services. Interfaith Community Services provides training and technical assistance to churches and other community groups working to meet critical social needs, sponsor and support local and state efforts which help people overcome the interrelated barriers of racism and poverty, and develop cooperative programs and resources which respond to the needs of children, young people and families. Current program areas include child care resources and referrals, faith-based community health initiatives and community development.

Killingsworth: This is a transition home for women in crisis. Our ministry is to support, empower, and advocate for women recovering from crisis within a safe, nurturing Christian environment. This includes: room and board, counseling and education, spiritual development, job development and community re-orientation.

Myrtle Beach Campground Ministry: The Myrtle Beach Campground Ministry is an Advance Special that ministers to children and adults visiting six of the area's campgrounds. Services include day camps, crafts, drama, music and evening and Sunday services. A seminary student serves as the campground chaplain and is provided with room and board from Memorial Day until Labor Day. The main goal is to advance Christian education while meeting the religious and social needs of families and individuals visiting the Grand Strand area.

Oliver Gospel Mission: This mission's purpose is to glorify God and to evangelize, educate, and disciple while providing food, shelter and spiritual guidance to the poor and neglected. We have five programs: Chapel, New Life for Men (a 9-month program), Men's Emergency Shelter, Food, and Day Center.

Rural Mission, Inc.: provides human, spiritual and social services to Sea Island residents, migrant workers and transients. It provides migrant headstart services, crisis intervention, scholarship funds, work camp projects, emergency food vouchers (limited), information and referrals for families in need.

South Carolina Christian Action Council: The Council is the statewide ministry of 16 denominations. It is their voice of advocacy in matters of public policy; their facilitator for cooperative ministries in social justice; and the convener and support for matters of faith and order. Through its ministries of Justice and Reconciliation, Health and Peace, and Christian Unity, it facilitates networks of church, private, and government groups working on issues of legalized gambling, criminal justice, children, aging, faith and health, and religious freedom.

United Ministries of Greenville: The United Ministries is an extension of the servant ministry of cooperating congregations in Greenville County. United Ministries assists poor people in emerging from hurting situations by providing for basic needs and by creating environments that allow people to make positive changes. United Ministries has developed a process for helping people move from basic survival to self-reliance. The process includes: Survival (Emergency Assistance - help with rent, utilities, food, heat, medicine; Place of Hope - a day shelter for homeless people; and Travelers Aid), Stabilization (Transitions - helping families access public services; and Adopt-A-House - rehabilitation for low/moderate income homeowners), and Barrier Removal (Employment Readiness - helping find, get and keep jobs; Magdalene Project - working with women who are homeless, addicts, pregnant or prostitutes; and Life Skills - teaching basic skills for health and responsible living.)

United Methodist Relief Center-Mount Pleasant: The UMRC was born of devastation generated by Hurricane Hugo when surveyors discovered deplorable living conditions in many low-country neighborhoods. Its mission is to rehabilitate or replace homes of low-income families in rural areas of the Charleston District who have no other options available. Priority is given to families lacking indoor facilities. All work is carried out through the use of grant funds and volunteer work teams. An additional component, the Helping Hands Advocacy, trains local volunteers to assist families in setting goals and taking the necessary steps to alleviate daily living skills.

The UMRC has added a unique housing program, Elderly Transportable (ET) Housing for the elderly, low income homeowners. These cost effective portable cottages replace extremely substandard homes, providing safe, warm, dry and rent free housing for as long as the qualifying individual is able to live alone.

New Church and Community Worker: Serves as an advocacy for the United Methodist Relief Center, Charleston, as well as with other related ministries.

United Methodist Volunteers in Mission: Its mission is to provide opportunities for South Carolinians to get personally involved in short-term mission projects at home and abroad. Its services include construction, medical care, education, agriculture and supportive services.

Wallace Family Life Center: This is a family-oriented facility whose mission is to provide educational, cultural, recreational, and religious programs to enrich the lives of the people in the Wallace community.

Appalachian Development Committee: Sponsored by the Southeastern Jurisdiction, this project gives assistance to the people of the Appalachian region.

Commission on Religion in Appalachia (CORA): Also sponsored by the Southeastern Jurisdiction, CORA is a partnership of denominations, community groups and congregations whose mission is to work for justice and to express God's love in the empowerment of the people of Appalachia.

THE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

"Keep on loving each other.... Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some people have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those in prison as if you were their fellow prisoners, and those who are mistreated as if you yourselves were suffering. (Hebrews 13: 1-3- NIV) ... and if you will swear by my name alone, and begin to live good, honest lives and uphold justice, then you will be a blessing to the nations of the world, and all people will come and praise my name." (Jeremiah 4:2- NLT).

During 2001, the work of the Board of Church and Society was concentrated in the three established priority areas: Restorative Justice, Issues of Poverty and Eliminating Racism. Knowing that God calls us to work together in harmony, we endeavored to model unity as we worked to give voice and witness to the issues within our priority areas. This is reflected in several ways: the broad reach of Board funded ministries, intentional efforts to include local church members, clergy and persons from other structures in society in program planning and implementation, and working in collaboration with other Boards and Commissions within the Annual Conference.

Restorative Justice – An application was submitted to the General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM) for a 10-10-10 Missioner to be placed at the Department of Juvenile Justice. The near term goal of this placement is to "inform the SC United Methodist Annual Conference of the great need to reclaim the prodigal and troubled children in our state." Long term goals include:

- Interpreting the needs in restorative justice ministry in the United Methodist Churches as well as in other denominations;
- Promoting, educating and advocating for alternatives to prison incarceration, and
- Assisting offenders to re-enter the community.

As of this writing, we await a response from GBGM. In the interim, Reverend DeVon Ruth will continue his able work to advance the mission of the Restorative Justice Ministry.

Issues of Poverty – The goals of this priority area were met through activities implemented by Interfaith Community Services and the Society of St. Nicholas. Interfaith Community Services addresses issues of poverty through its mission to meet the social needs of SC communities by uniting people in need of help with people who can help. Through a collaborative network of families, faith communities, governmental agencies and community based organizations, Interfaith Community Services devotes its energy to combating a range of social problems.

Under the leadership of Reverend Michael Smith, Board funds allocated to support the work of the Society of St. Nicholas were used to provide toys and other needed items for poverty stricken children served by Rural Mission and the Wallace family Life Center. Children from the Orangeburg and Florence areas were served, and the Society's reach extended to Kentucky. In addition, funds are used to serve migrant children in the Johns Island area. This is a tremendous effort involving persons from a diverse mix of faith groups and community organizations. Their success is measured by the sheer numbers served with a small amount of funds - a mere $600.00. 1,078 toys were distributed to 78 children, and 200 blankets were distributed.

Eliminating Racism – The pivotal event for the Board of Church and Society was "Celebrating Our Diversity" – the culmination of the bi-District worship services, and the continuance of the Board's ministry to address the assiduous presence of racism in our society. In this service of celebration, held on July 28, 2001 at the Township auditorium, participants took the opportunity to rejoice in the rich variety of God's creation. Over 200 persons participated in this worship service, and can bear witness to the joy that comes when God's gift of diversity is allowed expression, and the transcending power of God's grace which allows communication across the barriers of race, language and culture. From the planning phase, which involved persons from local churches around the Conference, through the very end of the service, we worked in harmony, and modeled the Christian unity for which we yearn.

We know that we yet have to grapple with the sins of racism, prejudice and exclusion, but to quote Reverend Dr. James Forbes (Riverside Baptist Church, NY): "We need to have celebrations, ... (even) while its still not right.... Every chance we get to celebrate the transcending powers above the racial divisions we ought to celebrate it!" Thanks be to God that on that day, we experienced the truth in Bishop McCleskey's words of wisdom to us: "What does Jesus look like? Look around you-- there you will see the face of Jesus!"

Looking to the Future

In 2002, the Board will maintain its focus on the three established priority areas, while expanding the scope of our work within these domains. Some of our planned ministries and program include:

- A. Children and Poverty- Response to the Episcopal Initiative on Children and poverty. Funds have been allocated for planning and support of collaborative efforts to address the many needs of children living in poverty. Under the leadership of Reverend Joe Alley, the concept of compensatory education will be addressed through this ministry. Support of Interfaith Community Service, Asbury Missioners and the Society of St. Nicholas will be sustained.
- B. Restorative Justice - Planning for interpreting Restorative Justice in at least 50 local churches will continue as we await response from GBGM for a 10-10-10 Missioner.
- C. Eliminating Racism - A new phase of this ministry will begin with the initiation of "Ambassadors for the Ministry of Reconciliation". Through this ministry, we will plan and develop four sessions to train facilitators to lead cross racial/cross cultural dialogue sessions at local churches and in community settings.

In Parting

At the conclusion of the 2002 Annual Conference, my term on the Board of Church and Society will end. I leave loving the work of Church and Society, and hope that in some small way, my work and my contributions have helped to make disciples of Jesus Christ. For as much as I pray that I have been an instrument of God's grace to all peoples, I can say without a doubt that I have gained from this experience. It saddens me to leave a work that I love, but I am thankful beyond measure to have been blessed through this ministry, and know that God continues to work with me in this faith journey.

The work of the Board of Church and Society is that of social justice and social action. The imperative of social justice ministries is to extend Christian love to others, and is marked by actions to eradicate oppression, indifference and intolerance. It is challenging work, and calls us to reach beyond the comforts of our own lives, beyond the boundaries of complacency, and move to know and love others. As Christians and as Methodists, we strive to "continue to love each other with true Christian love." (Hebrews 13:1 - NLT). That may be easy; social justice calls us to "entertain strangers", and remember those who are being mistreated and suffering, as if it were our own. This is why we celebrate diversity - affirming and celebrating God's gift of diversity helps us to learn to love others. Through His gift to us, God is telling us that we are all His people, His Beloved - and our refusal to accept this gift is like slapping God in the face. Let us be thankful to God by graciously and humbly accepting His gift of diversity.

My parting words to the members of this Annual Conference is that God has need of you to be instruments of hope, compassion, peace and justice. Jeremiah responded to God's call despite his initial trepidation. He continued his work through God's reaffirmation. As did Jeremiah, let us seek peace and justice fearlessly. This we can do through the grace and blessing - the reaffirmation - of God.

*Compassion means that if I see my friend and my enemy in equal need,
I shall help them both equally.
Justice demands that we seek the stranger, the broken, the prisoner and comfort them
and offer them our help.*

- Mechtild of Magdeburg (quoted in Open Mind by Diane Mariechild)

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education has experienced another year of successful programs, activities, and training events in the area of Christian Education at the Conference, District, and Local levels. Activities sponsored by the Board of Education focus on the empowerment of local churches, and are designed to meet four major goals: provide opportunities for growth in Christian Understanding; strengthen Christian Education; assist individuals in living the Christian faith in all of life's situations; and helping potential, new, and current members in becoming knowledgeable about the origin and beliefs of United Methodists.

Each year, age-level councils that meet with the Board of Education sponsor training events, retreats, conferences, workshops, programs, and fun/fellowship events to enhance spiritual growth. Highlights for the past year include the following accomplishments.

The Children's Council cast its support for the "Leave No Child Behind" legislative bill, and has made attempts to merge this initiative with the First Steps program. The recently formed Young Adult Council had its first Spiritual Life Retreat at Springmaid Brach in January. As a result of the success of this first effort, the council plans for the retreat to become an annual event to be held the first weekend in January of each year. The Youth Council in the South Carolina Conference is strong, viable, and effective. Participation in programs for youth continues to grow beyond capacity each year. The Youth Choir is now a year-round activity and is available for performances at local churches throughout the Conference.

The Singles Council is on the move. After experiencing a very successful Singles Retreat at Springmaid Beach, the Council decided to have two retreats this year. The Older Adults' Spiritual Life Retreat at Springmaid Beach continues to be a sell out. This event grows more successful each year.

The mission of United Methodists is to make disciples of Jesus Christ. Toward that end, the Board of Education continues to encourage local churches to promote and participate in Conference level Christian Education training events and workshops. Some of these training events include: Disciple Bible Study, Basic Christianity, Christian Believer, FaithQuest, and Companions in Christ. The goal of these training opportunities is to produce strong and knowledgeable Christian Educators who are empowered to develop or strengthen Christian Education programs at the local church.

A hearty "thank you" is extended to all age-level council chairpersons and participants who spend countless hours working to provide opportunities throughout the Conference, Districts, and Local Churches that empower persons of all ages to become more Christ-like.

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

The Conference Council On Children's Ministries had a very busy and productive year. The faith community responded in support of the local "First Steps" program by offering a day of speakers and workshops in two areas of the conference. On May 10, workshops were held in Columbia at Shandon United Methodist Church and on May 11 at Silver Hill United Methodist Church in Spartanburg. Both days were successful in offering ideas and information to local churches in order to assist in helping children get ready for school. Notebooks full of information were distributed to each participant as well as videos and pamphlets on parenting and age level development. The Children's Council will continue to support this project on the state and local level.

The Conference Council on Children's Ministries ended the 2001 year with a fantastic finish! On November 20, Marian Wright Edelman and Rebecca Davis of the Children's Defense Fund came to Columbia for a one-day seminar to promote the "Leave No Child Behind" legislative bill. The seminar was to promote and gain support for the bill, which did pass in January of 2002, and to help organize local groups to get involved in helping children in all areas of the state. The CCOCM for the 2002 year, is seeking to combine efforts with the First Steps Program and the Leave No Child Behind program to provide necessary help in meeting some of the needs of our children in South Carolina. We also want to promote the Children's Sabbath worship and celebration, also of the Children's Defense Fund, by providing training in each district. We hope to get Rebecca Davis back or have Robin Sally to lead the training. Children's Sabbath is celebrated each October.

The Children's Council also wants to encourage churches to work towards fulfilling the requirements to become "A Church for all God's Children." Shandon United Methodist Church is the only church to have met the requirements. Any church interested in more information can contact June Willson's office.

In September of this year, Christian Education Consultations were held in 6 districts. Christian Educators held forums where surveys were completed by the participants. The information gathered will be used for future planning and enables the children's council to stay in contact with the local church and determine needs and interests. Also this year we want to have two persons in each district designated for children's ministries; one as a children's coordinator and one as an advocate.

The booth at Annual Conference was sponsored by the council and distributed the popular Children's Ministries Resource sheets, and the Guidelines for Weekday Ministries. T-shirts were also sold to promote the Annual Conference theme of "A Church for All God's Children". Notebooks from the Faith Steps workshops were also distributed.

The Teaching Church program was begun in an effort to promote local churches children's ministries. Churches with successful children's ministries to share can become a Teaching Church. Contact June Willson's office for more information.

The Conference Council on Children's Ministries strives to inform and support the local church in the area of children's ministries. Thank you for your support.

THE COUNCIL ON OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES

The theme song of the 1986 Olympics began with the words "It is the power of the dream that brings us here." The prophet Joel spoke for God centuries ago, saying "I will pour out my spirit...(and) your old men (women, too!) shall dream dreams." (Joel 2:28)

The Conference Council on Older Adult Ministries not only dreams dreams, they get to work and help make those dreams come alive for countless of their peers in the South Carolina Conference.

The Spiritual Retreat, held February 13-15, 2001, brought our largest ever attendance. Dr. Evelyn Laycock inspired and challenged us with meaningful Bible study; Paul Frey and Thomasina Conyers led us in enjoyable and uplifting music; the Spirited Singers of Union UMC in Irmo shared their talents and joy in singing; Jim Wall provided mind-stretching games and line dancing, as well as a workshop on "All You Need to Know About Older Adult Ministry." Since we were there for Valentine's Day, we had special entertainment by "The Loafers," (Bob Borom and his partners) and a delightful Valentine Party, complete with games and prizes.

Thirteen energetic persons participated in the Mission Event at Sewee Coastal Retreat Center in April, planting flowers to enhance the beauty of the Center. All was not work, however. They visited the Mepkin Abbey in Moncks Corner, and they enjoyed food and entertainment on Tuesday evening with the Praise Band of Wayne UMC and on Wednesday evening with the UMYF of Hibben UMC.

Dreams of traveling and of learning more about our United Methodist Church were fulfilled as thirty-three people traveled six days by bus through seven states and the District of Columbia as we visited ten United Methodist shrines, Duke University, the General Board of Church and Society, the General Board of Global Ministries, the General Commission on Archives and History, and Riverside Church (in New York City).

In an effort to help churches be more aware of our Senior Caravan program, three events were held in cluster groups, with sites in Greenwood, Greenville, and Charleston. The program included worship, fellowship, motivation, and information about the Senior Caravan program. We trust this inspired dreams of greater ministries among their senior adults by the local church representatives who attended.

Dreams become realities only when they are empowered by action. We are grateful to the Board of Education which provides us with supportive power and encouragement. Our beloved staff person, June Willson, not only supports and encourages us, she is a dreamer with us - often drawing us to greater achievements than we ourselves had imagined.

Webster defines a dream as "a goal or purpose ardently desired." Our Council's dream is that God's Holy Spirit will pour out on South Carolina older adults in great measure, to inspire and equip all of us to help fulfill God's dream for the world through Jesus Christ.

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON SINGLES MINISTRY

The Conference Council on Singles Ministry continues to work on strengthening Singles Ministry in the local church. Over 52% of persons in the United Methodist Church are Single.

The Council offered a Singles Retreat, Singles Picnic, One-day Event during the 2001 year. These continue to meet the needs of persons attending each of the events offered by the Singles Council. Debra Quilling lead the One-day event at Shandon United Methodist Church; Mike Henderson and Bart Sistare lead the Retreat held at Union UMC in Irmo. The Singles picnic was a fun day for singles and their children held at Dreher Island State Park.

Under the leadership of the Singles Council, Singles Ministry continues to be a vital part of the program of the South Carolina Conference.

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRY

Two thousand and one was an awesome year for Youth Ministry in the South Carolina Conference. This was due to the outstanding leadership of youth and adults from across the State.

Attendance at Spiritual Life Retreats was a record high with over 4,000 youth and adults participating in the retreats. The Basketball Tournament continues to reach youth who play sports with the Sportsmanship trophy being the coveted trophy. Youth Vision at the Township Auditorium was a tremendous success with youth and adults making decisions to be disciples of Christ. Youth Annual Conference and Leadership Week held at Wofford College had record attendance. Themes of "My Brother's Keeper" for Youth Annual Conference and "Goin Fishing" for Leadership Week were a tremendous guide for our youth and the adults working with our youth. Again, the Seminar at the General Board of Church and Society on Racism was a growing experience for the 54 persons from South Carolina attending. Persons from all ethnic backgrounds in United Methodist Church in South Carolina were a part of this seminar on Racism.

Elected as the Executive Committee for 2001-2002 were: Kristopher Roof – Chair, Brandon Taylor – Vice Chair, Amanda Young – Secretary, Skyler Nimmons – Communications, Catherine Shell – Youth Service Fund Chair, and Christen Richbourg – Project Review Chair. Kris Roof serves on the United Methodist Youth Organization and Brandon Taylor serves on the SEJYMO as Vice Chair. Amanda Young represents South Carolina on the Design Team for the SEJ Convo.

South Carolina youth continue to have Youth Service Fund at the heart of ministry. Youth Service Fund is youth serving youth through giving of themselves to make the world a better place. Youth in South Carolina raised $42,658.66 in 2001. What a tremendous gift our youth give to other youth around the world. Kris Roof and Brandon Taylor and lots of pictures of South Carolina youth are a part of the National Youth Service Fund video that has been released. Brandon Taylor as the YSF Chair for 2001 led a workshop on Youth Service Fund during the General Church United Methodist Youth Organization meeting in Iowa.

The Fellowship of Adults in Youth Ministry continues to be a strong supportive group for persons working in Youth Ministry. The South Carolina Chapter has been the model for encouraging other Conferences to form groups. All of the persons in this organization continue to support and work in youth ministry on the Conference level.

Our youth continue to give of their time and talent to serve God and our youth continue to show us how we should live as disciples of Christ.

THE YOUNG ADULT COUNCIL

The year 2001 was a year of beginnings for the Young Adult Council in the South Carolina Conference. The first college age retreat was held at Springmaid Beach with 87 persons attending. This was a tremendous spiritual growth weekend led by Chris Hughes.

Matt Cunningham and John Foshee from the South Carolina Conference attended the "Rivers of Faith" training event for Adult Ministries through the General Board of Discipleship. This was a training experience for all areas of Adult Ministry where we gained much insight into Young Adult Ministry.

Serving on the Young Adult Council for the coming year is: Caroline Brewer, Hannah Cromley, Lanecia Rouse, Lisa Yebuah, Matt Cunningham, Mike Holly, Narcie McClendon, Suzy Speas, Judson King, TJ Washington, Jason Dean, Tiffany Knowlin, Kristen Richardson, Lane Glaze, Matt & Katie Yon, Doug & Naomi Moore. This tremendous group of Young Adults will be planning and implementing group for Young Adult Ministries in the South Carolina Conference.

THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

The Board of Evangelism has already made progress on the Evangelism Plan adopted by the 2001 Annual Conference. Below are listed the goals and the progress that has been made to date (They are in italics):

- I. Create resources for local churches that will help motivate their members to be involved in the ministry of evangelism. (Plans are being made to produce a workbook for local churches which will give resources for Evangelism ministries)
 - A) Create bulletin cover paragraphs that will motivate UM members for evangelism. These could include stories or vignettes that will be meaningful.
 - B) Create a set of posters with statistics & motivating slogans to put up in churches.
 - C) Prepare an outline for 5th Sunday services of Prayer & Commitment. Give a theme. (This will be included in the material listed above)

D) Encourage local churches to do quarterly Praise and Commitment Services. (This will be included in the material listed above)

E) Produce a resource for speakers and other evangelism resources, which would be included with the outline of Prayer and Commitment services a church could use to carry out their own. (This will be included in the material listed above)

II. Propose the theme for the 2002 Annual Conference to be Evangelism

A) To focus on Evangelism at the 2002 Session of Annual Conference.

(Conference Theme for 2002 – Igniting Ministries "Open Hearts, Open Minds, Open Doors")

B) Have a "Seeker Service" on Monday evening. Invite the community. Promote it throughout Orangeburg as an outreach. Work months ahead to make it happen. (The Board of Evangelism, Commission on Worship, and seven churches from the Orangeburg District have planned the service for the 2002 Annual Conference)

C) Have a booth at Annual Conference. Highlight the ministries of the 5 Star Churches. (Provided at the 2000 and 2001 Annual Conferences)

D) A Wall of Hearts. Place one heart for each member received by profession of faith. (Attempted but could not be done)

III. Partner with Igniting Ministries in the campaign to "market" the United Methodist Church. To encourage further training other than the regional training carried out in 2001. Add to the igniting ministries campaign radio spots & bill boards like we did during Vision 2000 program. (The Board of Evangelism participated by giving money to the Fall Campaign of TV commercials and provided leadership for the four training sessions held during the summer of 2001)

IV. Continue to produce workshops and resources that will help local churches with their evangelism efforts. (8 Workshops done in 2001 along with two Revitalization Workshops sponsored by the Board of Evangelism and Marion & Rock Hill Districts)

V. Create resources for "Prayer Evangelism" and prayer ministries in the local church in cooperation with the Board of Laity. (Two events were held in 2001 – One at Mt. Horeb UMC, Lexington and the other at Buford Street UMC, Gaffney)

The next big project for the Board of Evangelism is to produce a workbook for Evangelism ministries in the local church. It will contain practical, "how to" suggestions for doing evangelism in the local church. This will take at least a year to produce.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

Theme: In Mission Together

Through its theme – In Mission Together – the South Carolina Board of Global Ministries (SCBGM) continually encourages, promotes and implements mission ministries throughout our annual conference.

Scholarships to our institutions of higher learning, namely, Claflin University, Columbia College, Spartanburg Methodist College and Wofford College, are provided through the Belin Trust Fund. Because of the collaborations between the South Carolina Conference and Spartanburg Methodist College, hundreds of young people are empowered to reach their educational and personal goals and develop into responsible persons of faith. Spartanburg Methodist College will educate students from across our annual conference, our state, our nation and our world, thus fulfilling our mission to provide quality education in the Christian tradition to all persons. Among the institutions of higher learning that are connected to the South Carolina Annual Conference, Spartanburg Methodist College is the only residential, two-year liberal arts, church related missional institution in South Carolina.

The Conference Board of Global Ministries continues to support small membership churches through the Church Extension Partnership Program with its three calls per year, Advent, Lent and Conference.

Our Hungrief ministry supports local churches and other community related faith-based ministries such as soup kitchens, food pantries and provides snacks for after-school tutorial programs.

The Communities of Shalom Ministries has 19 active sites across South Carolina.

The 2001 Mission Personnel Committee reported that two 10-10-10 Missioners had been assigned and two were pending. To date, a total of five missioners have been assigned to the South Carolina Annual Conference through the General Board of Global Ministries.

Throughout the South Carolina Conference, families continue to benefit from faith-based support. The Shalom Literacy Ministry, a collaborative partnership between the South Carolina United Methodist Conference and the South Carolina Department of Social Services provides tutorial assistance and community awareness to pre-schoolers, children, youth and adults across South Carolina with the skills and tools for a successful future, thus bridging the gap between church and state. The Fostering Families Ministry strives to assist families develop healthy spiritually, physically, mentally, emotionally, economically and socially.

Mission is the means by which we spread the Gospel, the Good News of Jesus Christ. Being in mission is the responsibility of every Christian. We must love as Jesus loved, live as Jesus lived, and walk as Jesus walked.

God's mission has a global focus, but is expressed locally. The tradition of the United Methodist Church has always been and still is connectional in representation. As a leader in your local church, you have accepted the call to join us in God's mission. Let us be "in mission together" as we move the church into the new century.

Veronica Alston Clinkscales, Chair

SPARTANBURG METHODIST COLLEGE

Spartanburg Methodist College, the only two-year, private, residential college in South Carolina, is proud of our relationship to the South Carolina Annual Conference through the Conference Board of Global Ministries. This special reporting relationship is consistent with our unique mission in higher education to serve students who might not otherwise have the opportunity to earn a college degree.

Each year, a strong class of students who are well prepared for collegiate level work enroll at Spartanburg Methodist College. This year, the high school grade point average of the new students was 2.94 and their average SAT score increased by over 20 points from the previous year. While the academic performance of our entering students is increasing, the College continues to accept some students who need assistance in the development of study skills, time management skills, and our tutorial services. We believe that it is unethical and unfair to students and to our college community to admit students who are not capable of succeeding in college-level work. Therefore, for students who demonstrate this potential but need our caring touch, we provide a variety of learning support resources to help these students to succeed. Students receive this assistance through conferences with their instructors, class tutorial sessions led by our instructors, and through our Student Support Services program. This wonderful program offers assistance with learning disabilities, seminars and workshops designed to promote self-esteem, and personal tutoring services at no expense to the student. Students who demonstrate a willingness to apply themselves, a desire to establish life-long learning skills, and a willingness to undertake the rigors of collegiate level work will always have a place in our academic community.

We are happy to report that our enrollment continues to grow. In August of 2000, 549 (FTE) students enrolled at our College compared to 611 (FTE) students (over an 11% increase) who matriculated at SMC in August 2001. This year, our residence halls were at capacity at the beginning of the fall semester. In response to this growth, the Board of Trustees recently approved a capital project to construct a new 100-person residence hall with four person suites and connections to our mainframe computer resources. The new residence hall is projected to cost $2 million.

In addition to the new residence hall, the College will soon construct a new entrance to the campus, landscape the grounds and facilities, erect new signage for all campus facilities, and relocate several campus roads. We are excited about the improvements that these projects will bring to our campus facilities.

As we plan for the future of the College, two themes emerge as hallmarks of Spartanburg Methodist College. First, our Leadership Development Program continues to provide leadership opportunities for students through residential hall programs, luncheon speakers, seminar programs, the SMC Leadership class and our annual leadership retreat for rising sophomore leaders. When coupled with our distinctive Leadership Transcript, graduates present a comprehensive perspective of their readiness to complete the baccalaureate degree at senior institutions. The second hallmark of the SMC experience is our Volunteer Service Program. Under the direction of our Chaplain, the Rev. Kelli Waters, who also serves as the Director of Volunteer Services, students have numerous opportunities to be in service to others in our community. Two student organizations, T.O.W.E.L.S. and Kappa Sigma Alpha Service Fraternity, offer weekly opportunities for students to be in service to persons in the greater Spartanburg area. In August 2001, we launched a new community service opportunity for our entering class. On their first full day on campus, over 325 entering freshmen and transfer students engaged in service to others at twenty-five off-campus sites. Many of our faculty and staff participated as mentors in this first annual "Freshmen Day of Service" program. Partnerships were established with many United Methodist churches in the Spartanburg District to provide transportation and lunch for the students, faculty, and staff. We believe that there's no better way to begin one's college career than to be in service to others.

In February 2002, the College implemented the first annual "Symposium on Faith and Science" co-sponsored with "The Center for Ethics: Science & Society Program" at Emory University. A generous grant from the South Carolina Humanities Council and gifts from friends of the College helped to underwrite this dynamic program. Dr. Arri Eisen, Director for "The Program in Science and Society" and senior lecturer in biology at Emory University, opened the Symposium by addressing the topic, "Where Has Modern Genetics Brought Us?" The keynote address, "The Relationship Between Neurological and Physiological Processes and Religious Experience," was presented by Dr. James W. Fowler, Executive Director of the Center for Ethics at Emory. Breakout sessions afforded participants the opportunity to engage in dialogue in three areas: "The Ethics of Cloning," "Are Human Beings Inherently Religious?" and "Pastors: A Response to Laity." Participants chose two sessions to attend.

The Board of Trustees of Spartanburg Methodist College recently reaffirmed our commitment to remain a two-year, liberal arts, residential, United Methodist related institution. Our vision is to be the best two-year institution in our region! We continue our mission to educate the mind, strengthen the body, and enrich the spirit. We believe there's no better way to minister to the growth and development of college age students than in the holistic setting of the only two-year, residential, United Methodist related institution in South Carolina, Spartanburg Methodist College.

Charles P. Teague, President of the College

FOSTERING FAMILIES

VISION: The vision of the Fostering Families Ministry is to have individuals, families, and communities that are whole. It is to have families that are healthy spiritually, physically, mentally/emotionally, economically, and socially.

MISSION: The mission of the Fostering Families Ministry is to recruit local churches to engage families in relationships that will help empower them to become whole. By being sure that families have adequate food, clothing, shelter, health care, mental health care, education, employment, and recreation, we can help individuals and families toward wholeness.

All is well with the Fostering Families Ministry. The partnership between our Conference and the Department of Social Services continues. There has been some modification to the way the program is funded. Your prayers and support have been greatly appreciated. While this ministry has seen much transformation during the past year, helping families remains the center focus.

In 2000 work began with the Orangeburg Mission to families. This is a group of women from United Methodist churches as well as other denominations who expressed interest in working with families. Through collaboration with the Department of Health and Environmental Control (DHEC), these women were trained and families were placed with six of the churches. During the Christmas holidays all of the churches came together with the families to celebrate and share. It was a heart-warming experience. Some of the families shared what the relationship with the church had done for them.

The more we work with families, the more we learn that everyone is different. One of the lessons learned this past year is that those families remaining on welfare have many issues that are difficult to overcome. These families require more time, skill, resources, and most of all attention.

Some other activities this past year are: started efforts in Clarendon County to involve United Methodist churches in Clarendon County DSS outreach efforts; worked with DSS Community Development staff to survey and assess needs in McCormick County; partnered with SCDSS Adoption Division to bring awareness to the number of children awaiting adoption in South Carolina; through cooperation with the Advocate, made local churches aware of the need for emergency food pantries/banks—several churches agreed to establish food banks in those underserved areas of our state; and provided training to local churches and districts on starting programs and ministries to reach out to families that are at risk.

This year's objectives include:

1. Work with local church teams to build strong and stable families through direct involvement with mentoring and goal setting.
2. Work with local churches to create, support, and enhance Fatherhood Initiatives that will help fathers become involved in all aspects of the lives of their children.
3. Assist churches in establishing food banks and provide training for volunteers or staff through SCDSS.
4. Assist local churches in establishing programs and ministries that help reduce the risk of child abuse and neglect.

Throughout the year, families have benefited from the faith-based support they have received from our churches. As we continue to help families become healthy and whole, remember it is "shaping our world, one family at a time."

SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE COMMUNITIES OF SHALOM UP-DATE 2002

An Initiative of the United Methodist Church through the South Carolina Conference in consultation with the National Shalom Committee

"Churches and Communities working together to rebuild and renew community life."

The Communities of Shalom initiative was developed by the 1992 General Conference in response to the Los Angeles uprising. Its object is to empower churches and communities to work together to rebuild and renew community life. Through mission-evangelism, collaboration, systemic change and asset building strategies, the South Carolina Conference Communities of Shalom initiative focuses on the following areas:

- Spiritual renewal, including congregational development
- Community economic development
- Strengthen race and class relationships
- Health and healing within the community
- Shalom Literacy
- Fostering Families
- Communities of Shalom is the empowerment of individual lives and the transformation of churches and communities.

Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Seek the Shalom of the community where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its shalom, you will find your shalom.

— Jeremiah 29:5-7

Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

— Isaiah 58:12

The South Carolina Conference launched its Communities of Shalom Ministries on October 1994. Over the years more than 350 participants have completed the Shalom training and 22 Communities of Shalom Sites have been organized across the conference. In the spring of 2001, a one-acre parcel of land was donated for a Shalom Community Garden. Contact Mrs. Carolyn W. Little, P.O. Box 397, Bennettsville, SC 29512—Phone (843) 479-4895.
- The C-M-T Community of Shalom site, under the leadership of Mrs. Gloria P. Cook and the Rev. Stephen L. Love, is housed at Mt. Tabor Baptist Church with a strong emphasis on in school and after-school tutorial programs. They are in collaboration with the "I Have a Dream Program" in Clio. The Elementary and Middle School of Clio welcomed a group of young men who attend High School to participate in the mentoring program and assist in helping the kid's with computer learning skills. Contact Mrs. Gloria P. Cook, 662 Wallace Road, Bennettsville, SC 29512—Phone (843) 479-8889.

Orangeburg District has three communities of shalom site:

- The Bamberg Community of Shalom Mission Cottage site sponsored by Mt. Carmel and Trinity UM Churches, under the leadership of Mr. M.M. Clinkscales, is housed in a new location on Cox Avenue, in Bamberg, SC. The former "crack house" was confiscated by the Sheriff's Department after its use as a drug house for many years. The house was leased to the Shalom Community for $1.00 to house its Community Mission Outreach Ministries. The house will be used as a computer center for the after-school program, a meeting place for Alcoholics Anonymous and Drug Anonymous, and a gathering place for the neighborhood children to include fun and Sunday School training. A summer reading/feeding program, in collaboration with Benedict College, will provide instructions for students and parents to improve computer skills. Contact Mr. M.M. Clinkscales, P.O. Box 336, Bamberg, SC 29003—Phone (803) 245-2004.
- CMP-Rowesville Parish Community of Shalom is under the leadership of Mr. Melvin Cramer. Employment opportunities and building economic assets are an issue for this community. Teaching job skills; helping instill strong work ethics, assisting with the interview process and job retention are a major focus for this group. This site encompasses three communities: Bowman, Branchville, and Rowesville. Contact Mr. Melvin Cramer, 3845 Pate Street, Orangeburg, SC 29118—Phone (803) 531-4325. (NEW SITE)
- Edisto Fork/Trinity Community of Shalom is under the leadership of Mrs. Francenia Williams. The needs identified by this Shalom community are improved race relations, health and wellness, recreation center housing wholesome activities for youth, housing, transportation and long-term care for the elderly, disaster preparedness, and consumer credit counseling. Contact Mrs. Francenia Williams, 312 Ashland Drive, Orangeburg, SC 29115—Phone (803) 534-3119. (NEW SITE)

The Rock Hill District has two communities of shalom sites:

- The Roosevelt Community of Shalom site, under the leadership of the Rev. Amiri B. Hooker and Mrs. Granita M. Boyd, is housed in a neighborhood building donated to the site to be used for ministry in the Roosevelt Community. The community believes unity can and has returned to their neighborhood because the people have been and continue to be involved in its rebirth. Within one year of certification as a Shalom Community, they worked toward developing collaboration with the town officials to provide community recreation, fundraising activities and have received a $350,000 Community Investment Grant from the State of South Carolina, Community Development Block Grant Program to rehabilitate 14 housing units owned by residents of the Roosevelt Community.

A Community Pride Week was developed. Each family was asked to display a yard banner letting others know that they are a part of the Clean-Up Day Organization working to make their community a brighter and better place to live. In addition, the group has sponsored a Little League Baseball Team, The Touchdown Club, A Safe Summer Club, Habitat For Humanity, and a Salkehatchie Summer Service Project. Contact the Rev. Amiri B. Hooker, P.O. Box 179, Clover, SC 29710-Phone (803) 222-5100.

- The Mt. Harmony-Oakridge Community of Shalom site, under the leadership of Mrs. Angela Wilson, is housed at the Clover Chapel UM Church. The Oakridge Community is heavily infested with drugs and other substances that are destroying the lives of young African American males. A Community Crime Watch was developed where neighbors helping neighbors began calling 911 to get help from city officials in cleaning up their neighborhood. A Salkehatchie crew was brought in to do some much-needed home repairs in the community. A Community Clean-Up Day was set and people from other churches and communities came and worked together to renew and rebuild the community life. They believe that living in a healthy place with healthy things to do is the basis for community residents to raise healthy and successful children. Together we can move mountains. We are not just neighbors, said one resident, we are Good Samaritans, and we care for those in need. Contact Mrs. Angela Wilson, 1030 D. Sims Circle, Gastonia, NC 28052-Phone (704) 853-2217.

The South Carolina Conference Communities of Shalom 7th Annual Celebration was held in Camden, South Carolina at the Community Center and St. Matthew United Methodist Church the weekend of February 1-3, 2002. The Theme: "Living The SHALOM" Churches and Communities working together to rebuild and renew community life.

The highlight of the celebration was Youth Fun Night. More than 165 young people stormed the center for a fun time together. A time of praise with both groups and individual talent were presented. They played bible trivia, biblical puzzle, they ate pizza, and sang Praises and Thanksgiving to God for His bountiful blessings. They collected food for the hungry, more than five cases of canned goods and other non-perishable food items were given to St. Matthew Church Food Pantry to be distributed to the less fortunate in the community. More than 200 participated in workshops and 250 were in attendance at the Celebration Banquet.

I thank God for the Communities of Shalom Ministries, and I thank the Conference Council on Ministries for its support of the ministries. Thanks also goes out to the site coordinators and the members for their commitment and dedication to the work of Shalom. We express our thanks to the Conference Board of Global Ministries, and other agencies responsible for making funding possible for the Communities of Shalom Site members to do their work.

May God continue to bless the work of the Shalom Ministries as it continues to grow and spread across this Annual Conference as churches and communities work together to rebuild and renew community life?

SHALOM LITERACY MINISTRY

This program is a collaborative partnership between the S.C. United Methodist Conference and the S.C. Department of Social Services. Through tutorial assistance and community awareness, Shalom Literacy will provide programs to empower pre-schoolers, children, youth and adults across South Carolina with the skills and tools for a successful future.

Presently, students in need are being served in three counties, seven schools, three churches, and one community center. There are five after-school programs serving as a safe haven for students as well as a facility of academic re-enforcement and nutritional support. Beginning in June 2002, an expansion into two other counties is anticipated; including a Hispanic community in the upstate.

In Charleston, a reading program has been implemented at the County DSS office. A tutor is reading to children while their parents work with caseworkers.

A partnership with Benedict College through their Service-Learning Department will serve as an instrument to promote academic success at the Bethlehem Center. Through the efforts of host site personnel statewide, partnerships with local agencies has served as a bridge between at-risk communities in need of assistance and those communities that have begun to be self-sustainable.

Community residents have witnessed, participated alongside, and benefited from our tutors' dedicated work in other community service as well as tutoring:

- Eau Claire Shalom Community site tutors have worked with God's Storehouse to feed the hungry in their community.
- Bluff Road Shalom Community site tutors have inspired the children in their after-school program to research "Black History Moments" and presented their findings at Bluff Road UMC in February during the worship services.
- Bennettsville-Cheraw Shalom Community site tutors have partnered with several local agencies to promote Red Ribbon Week.

After all tutors have completed their term of service, they will receive an educational award to be used to cover specified expenses for higher education.

The Shalom Literacy Ministry attempts to bridge the gap between church and state. The focus is to utilize the faith community to serve academically at-risk students and adults. When they have the right tools and attitude, an at-risk community will achieve academic success and the communities will become a vital part of society.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

The Board of Health and Welfare continues to respond to requests that fall within our committees. We strive to uphold the commission of Christ to be in ministry by assisting United Methodists with health concerns.

Our Golden Cross Sunday offering continues to provide health care scholarships for persons preparing for service in the health care field. It provides medical scholarships to help defer the high cost of medical care that creates financial difficulties for many of our United Methodist families. Golden Cross also assists with housing located in three distinctive areas of our state for retired Methodist Ministers/Spouses.

One Accessibility Grant in the amount of $500 was approved for Eutawville UMC, Orangeburg District.

Health and Welfare moves ahead with the offering of Health and Wholeness Ministry trainings, and assist the "Parish Nurse" in every manner possible.

The Committee is in support of The Low Country Senior Care that was presented by the Walterboro District and other agencies in the area. The Health and Welfare sub-committee worked very diligently on this senior care ministry. Therefore, the board recommends that the Conference establish a Board of Trust for the Low Country Senior Care in accordance with Standing Rule #54. This Board of Trust is to: 1) Establish By Laws, 2) Incorporate, 3) Investigate the feasibility of establishing a Senior Care facility within the Low Country, and 4) Report to the Annual Conference through the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries.

The board voted to disburse the proceeds from the sale of the Elma G. Hill property as follows: $145,000 to construct a duplex cottage at the Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee in Florence, SC. The duplex is to be named "The Hill Cottage" in memory of Mrs. Hill. The remaining monies from the bequest will be invested in an endowment with the South Carolina United Methodist Foundation. The investment is to be named the Elma G. Hill Endowment Fund.

It is awesome the numerous opportunities for being servants for Christ through Health and Welfare. The committee is to be commended for its faithfulness.

EPWORTH CHILDREN'S HOME

It is with great pleasure that we report that Epworth Children's Home is not only financially sound, but also programmatically ahead of most in the family service ministry. In 2001, Epworth's philosophy of Total Team Management/Maximum Family Involvement continued to flourish on our campus.

On March 24, 2001, Epworth Children's Home was honored for attaining the prestigious Educational Assessment Guidelines Leading toward Excellence (EAGLE) accreditation. Epworth received the EAGLE accreditation and plaque at the 61st National Convention of the United Methodist Association during the EAGLE Gala Ceremony held in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Epworth is the first United Methodist Agency in South Carolina to receive the EAGLE, and Dr. Hodges currently serves as a member of the EAGLE Accreditation Committee, the only Faith Based Accreditation in the United States. He is also the newly elected Chair of the Children, Youth and Family Services Section of the United Methodist Association.

Our licensed Residential Care Program is strong and most unique, in that Epworth is able to care for sibling groups. We accept children kindergarten through the twelfth-grade, and maintain a Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) accredited program grades K-8, on campus in our Rudolph C. Barnes Learning Center. Our high school students attend Dreher High School.

The Family Overnight Resource Program enables families to stay on campus and have direct participation in their children's lives. As anticipated, the connections between children and families have continued to be strengthened. This program has become an integral part of our ministry of restoration and reconciliation.

Our program of Parenting Education and Counseling, a collaborative effort between Epworth and the University of South Carolina, continues to be a great success. Epworth is a satellite training facility for USC, and offers concepts, techniques and strategies used to build and merge parent's relationships with their children's needs and behaviors. This conjoint ministry opportunity offers therapeutic intervention and parenting classes, as well as group work, and support groups for parents and children. Dr. Joshua Gold, USC Professor in charge of the satellite-training program, reports that USC and Epworth represent one of the two programs of its type in the United States.

The Rudolph C. Barnes, Sr. Learning Center continues to offer accredited education for our students as well as beautiful new surroundings. Our student to teacher ratio is nine to one, and all our teachers and teaching assistants are certified. In keeping with the Learning Center's commitment to build character education into its curriculum, the children and staff attend Wednesday morning Chapel services on campus. The BLC has also been selected by the Duke Endowment to participate in a Learning Initiative called, "All Kinds of Minds." This new resource-based initiative has been developed to more effectively assist children with learning difficulty. Epworth Children's Home was the first site selected to participate by Duke.

The Epworth Early Intervention Center continues to provide service for infants at risk and young children with disabilities. The EEIC Program serves children in the preschool setting housed in the Epworth Memorial United Methodist Church. Two full-time certified early intervention specialists, visit weekly in the homes of children with disabilities and special needs in the Columbia area.

The Epworth Memorial United Methodist Church sanctuary was rededicated on July 29, 2001, following extensive renovations. In June of 2000, DHEC found asbestosis in the floor tile and lead in the paint around the windows. Immediately the sanctuary was closed and the Board of Trustees approved renovations.

Epworth was blessed again this past year with a number of wills, legacies, and bequests.

We are, however, dependent upon the many fine contributions given to us through the generosity and good will of our many supporters.

THE METHODIST OAKS - ORANGEBURG

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, residents and staff of The Methodist Oaks, we welcome you to Orangeburg and our community. We are so proud of this community and we are pleased to join efforts with Claflin University to host this year's Annual Conference.

The Methodist Oaks is now in its 48th year of ministry to senior adults. We continue to be fiscally responsible and strive to be good stewards of what the Lord has entrusted to us. We strive to ensure that financial shortcomings do not force out otherwise eligible residents. We continue our commitment to serve those adults receiving funds from state and federally funded programs. The Oaks provided $910,000 in resident assistance in 2001.

We were presented with several opportunities to better serve those that live and work at the Oaks. We responded to a long-time need and desire to improve quality of life when we joined efforts with a local physician to provide on-site office visits for our residents. Residents can be seen without the stress of extended transportation and long waiting times. We pray this is the beginning of a long and successful venture.

In May, Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey participated in a Service of Consecration for the Marge G. Thompson Choir Room addition to the Nancy Freeman Stringer Memorial Chapel. The Methodist Oaks' Choir raised nearly $50,000 of the $60,000 needed to complete this project.

Additionally, Bishop McCleskey included in the Service of Consecration, the Deerfield Hall Apartments. The ten patio apartments adjoin the central buildings and feature beautiful views of landscaped grounds and surrounding natural areas.

We hosted the January meeting of the South Carolina Conference Board of Health and Welfare. Residents living in the duplexes, provided by the Board, enjoyed lunch with the members and Rev. Ernest Heape offered their appreciation for a "wonderful Christian place to live." Mrs. Lucy Lee Shuler offered her unit for a tour. We received comments of pride from the members in their association with our community.

The Oaks was blessed with several opportunities this year to "tell our story." We were featured twice on WIS-TV News with interviews of residents and views of our beautiful campus. Our web site was featured on public radio and included an interview with the CEO.

After serving 12 years on the Board of Trustees and retiring from the South Carolina Annual Conference, the Rev. Bob Morris joined our staff to "tell our story" throughout the state, as Director of Charitable Giving. His goal is to "share our story" in churches throughout this conference.

We took the first steps toward recognizing our dream to provide a wellness center by conducting a comprehensive wellness assessment of The Methodist Oaks' community. The response resulted in a custom-designed strategy for the development of a comprehensive wellness program.

After many months of planning and with the generous support of our business partners, we were able to "connect" residents via the airways with the installation of a closed circuit television system. Residents can now learn of upcoming events, the day's menu and other important events from the comfort of their room.

It is our hope and prayer to build on our solid reputation: updating and renovating our physical community to match our unparalleled service. It is our vision to be the premier provider of quality care that encourages resident independence, quality of life and wellness. It is our dream to provide a wellness center to include a heated pool and strengthening equipment. It is our hope that everyone associated with The Methodist Oaks will actively support who we are, where we want to be and the values we endeavor to put into practice.

We face many challenges as we grow and make positive changes. Our board members, management, staff and residents at The Methodist Oaks are committed to working together to see our hopes, visions and dreams come true.

If you have not visited the Oaks lately, please take this opportunity to join us for a meal, visit a member of your church or drive down the avenue of Oaks and enjoy the beauty that surrounds us.

WESLEY COMMONS

Like many other Continuing Care Retirement Communities across our country, Wesley Commons is preparing for the next generation of residents. This new phase in the industry will place a greater demand on institutions for more sophisticated leadership and organizational management. The Retirement Communities of yesterday will not survive this change. Actually, we are now seeing the beginnings of a "shake-out" period in some sectors of Senior Services. Those organizations who did not prepare or those that over extended themselves are now faltering.

The Administration and the Trustees of Wesley Commons hold a colossal responsibility for the life of our organization. The decisions made today will have impact on the lives of generations of residents. Our Mission to serve and remain accessible to the greater portion of society remains grounded in our 30-year history and Ministry. We are honored to report on the success of our growth and our plans for the future.

Upon the completion of our current move-in phase of our expansion scheduled by year end 2003, Wesley Commons will become home to an estimated 450 residents ranging in age from the lower 60's in our neighborhoods to just over the century mark in our health facility. Our new Assisted Living and Special Care House, a gem on our campus, has received accolades from across the industry for its cutting edge design and advanced programming. Our new Chapel/Cultural Building is slated for completion in November of this year and will provide our residents increased space for worship, social, educational and meeting activities. As reported previously, this building is being constructed without debt because of the unprecedented private support of our board, staff, residents and friends. Wesley Commons looks forward to hosting the 2003 Missions Event for the Council on Older Adult Ministries in this wonderful space.

Our ministry to serve our older brothers and sisters continues to grow as a result of the support of the Methodist Homes Support Fund and other private support. This financial support has allowed Wesley Commons to provide just under one million dollars of subsidized care across our campus. Our need for these monies will only increase in the future as state and federal funding for our nation's seniors continues to be reduced. The current level of support we receive from the Conference, while greatly appreciated, is not adequate to meet all the needs of current and future residents who have limited retirement income. This taxes our resources to the limits, and jeopardizes our ongoing ministry of offering subsidized care to some of our residents. In fact this would not now be possible without the constant support of our friends. As we lift up this critical need, we thank you for your past support and solicit your continued help to insure that quality care is available for those who built our great nation and deserve our fullest attention and assistance.

THE UNITED METHODIST MANOR OF THE PEE DEE

In December 1991, the dream of a retirement community where senior adults could enjoy an enriching lifestyle became reality with the opening of The United Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee. The Manor was such a success that in the fall of 1993 100% occupancy was attained, and the need for expansion was indicated by the growing number of waiting list applications. Construction then began on three additional wings – an infirmary (Health Care Center), additional suites in the Wesleyan Suites (Assisted Living), and the new wing of Independent Living apartments. With their completion, 1995 showed the start of our Chapel. The beautiful Chapel, designed specifically with seniors in mind, was completed and dedicated on December 3, 1997. In December of 1998 the first phase of our Patio Homes was started. Phase Two was then started in June of 2000.

Our most recent expansion project was completed in September 1999. This expansion included the renovation of our existing kitchen, expanding the Independent Living Dining Room, removing the wall between the exercise room and the game room, building a new wing to the Wesleyan Suites which included a new dining room, three new activity rooms and a new sitting area, sun room and ten rooms to our Health Care Center. Construction of additional patio homes continues. As of this communication there are 100 Independent Living apartments, 53 Assisted Living suites, 32 Health Care Center beds, a 12 suite special care facility for Alzheimer's and related dementia, and 6 patio homes, with two currently under construction. The Conference has recently purchased a patio home to be used exclusively for retired ministers or missionaries.

The Methodist Manor is more than bricks and mortar, we're individuals united by a common bond. Making a difference is what happens when individuals, local churches, community groups and the annual conference take part in the ministries of the United Methodist Retirement Homes. Those who live with us live longer – so, you help give life! We are grateful to you and for you for allowing us to share with you in bringing God's love into the lives of his older children. We cherish the chances we have with you for making a difference.

THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

A popular button distributed by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry states, "John Wesley was a Campus Minister." We celebrate our roots, for John Wesley was indeed a reformer and advocate for the ministry of education. His movement began on a college campus at Oxford, and continues through the work of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry.

Our Board meets every first Saturday in October and every last Saturday in January. In between these two meetings, much work is done at the local level by Wesley Foundation Boards and by the Boards of Trustees of our four colleges. We are excited about the continued growth and success of our four colleges and Wesley Foundation programs. The reports of each campus minister and each college president follow, so I will only share some highlights in this report:

- New Campus Ministers – In June 2001, the Rev. Ashley-McCoy Bruce became the first half-time campus minister at Furman University. In June 2001, the Rev. Lane Glaze became the new campus minister at Clemson Wesley Foundation. We now have a total of five full-time campus ministers, one half-time, and two part-time.
- New Chaplain – Columbia College's new Chaplain, the Rev. Carl King, has made an impact in his short time already on campus. Carl brought with him experience, having served as Chaplain on a Methodist campus before. His commitment to student ministry and to the college are evident.
- New Ministries – In October, our Board approved short-term funds to the Rev. Jeff Dunn and his church, Christ UMC, as they grow a campus ministry at Coastal Carolina. New partnerships between local churches and the Board of Higher Education will enable us to grow campus ministry on more campuses.
- New College President – Dr. Caroline Whitson is the right fit for Columbia College, and brings with her many years of teaching and administrative experience in another church-related college. Dr. Whitson joins our other successful presidents, Dr. Bernie Dunlop, Dr. Charles Teague, and Dr. Henry Tisdale, in her commitment to value-centered education that makes a difference in the world.

You may find more details of the good news of our four colleges and campus ministry programs in the following pages. Please take time to read and celebrate. The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry thanks the S.C. Conference for funding, prayers, and support as we continue the mission of John Wesley, a Campus Minister who changed the world.

Cathy Jamieson-Ogg, Chair

WOFFORD COLLEGE

"History both defines us and challenges us to transcend what we have been. Wofford has done that. But is there still a place for such an institution, that can learn as well as teach the great truths of democracy and Christianity, that matches knowledge with faith, livelihood with morality? My answer is a resounding yes."

Those words from the presidential inaugural address on April 24, 2001 became something of a prophecy on September 11. Young men and women on college campuses, members of a generation that had matured in a period of "Pax Americana", suddenly found themselves struggling with no longer theoretical questions of rich and poor, tolerance and hate, war and peace. We knew some of those caught up in tragic events – an alumnus and his wife who were traveling to see their grandchildren and died on one of the hijacked airliners; a clergyman from our Class of 1983 who attracted national attention for his work in what had been the shadow of the World Trade Center; a Muslim student who for a time felt distressed and isolated on our campus. Various faith-based organizations, coordinated by Chaplain Talmage Skinner and the Religious Life Council, led the way in the community's response. Seminars, convocations, class and residence hall discussions all helped us focus on being better people in a better college in a better world.

Ongoing progress in a number of others areas also helped make Wofford a better college at the end of 2001. Through the year, the faculty was wholeheartedly committed to a new emphasis on curriculum development, creating new courses that feature team teaching and seminar-style discussions that will complement an already extensive program of off-campus internships and study abroad. The goal was (and is) to provide for all graduates an experience in "integrative learning" that will enable them to make connections, to cross-traditional disciplinary boundaries and majors, and negotiate a world no longer divided so neatly into categories of endeavor. The new initiatives are solidly anchored in Wofford's tradition of individual and personal attention that is becoming more and more recognized nation-wide. For example, in the 2002 edition of Princeton Review's guide, America's Best 331 Colleges, Wofford ranked number 1 on a list of campuses where class discussions are encouraged. Familiar names in this category were Georgetown, Drew, and Rice Universities.

Opened in the spring semester 2001, the new Roger Milliken Science Center features not only first rate teaching facilities for majors in biology, chemistry, physics and psychology, but also the "Great Oaks Hall," the "Acorn Café," and the "Players Corner," spaces that immediately made this fine new building the intellectual crossroads of the campus. Since then, the first floor of the Burwell Building has been remodeled to create a much more attractive center for classes and other meetings, and a patio gathering-place has been added to the Campus Life Building. Wofford's next goal is to make the historic Main Building as functional and attractive as our newer academic structures, restoring Leonard Auditorium, which old grads knew as "The Chapel," to its former beauty and distinctiveness.

All of this continues to be accomplished with a schedule of tuition and fees close to the national average for all four-year independent colleges, resulting in recognition from the Fisk Guide to the Colleges as one of only 22 "best buys" in independent higher education. In addition to careful budgeting and management, Wofford's financial strength is anchored in the generosity of alumni and friends. Especially important is annual support from the Senior College Scholarship Fund of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. For the 2001-2002 academic year, Wofford's financial aid office distributed $15.7 million. More than 8 of every 10 students received some type of scholarship, grant, loan or work opportunity, and the average financial aid package was $16,438. Though increased diversity would be desirable and continues to be a goal, Wofford continues to shine when compared to other Southern Phi Beta Kappa liberal arts colleges, with a minority population of 11 percent across the student body.

Looking ahead toward its 150th year, Wofford is confident that it will continue to be a model for others who embrace and seek to build upon the great tradition of United Methodist higher education.

Benjamin B. Dunlap

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

My first year as president of Columbia College has been an exciting and challenging one. I have crossed the state many times over, meeting hundreds of alumnae, donors, community leaders and friends of the College. I have met extensively with faculty, staff and student leadership. I have hosted a series of 15 dinners in the President's House to get to know all our incoming freshmen. I have attended Student Government Association meetings, soccer games, concerts, Diversity Days presentations, Alumnae Association gatherings, and a myriad other campus and community events. And with each new activity, each new person met, each new connection made, I am even more convinced of the strength and value of this venerable institution.

One of the highlights of this academic year was the selection in November of Speech Language Pathology Professor Dr. Mary Stepling as the "South Carolina Professor of the Year" by the Carnegie Foundation and the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education. Dr. Stepling is the second Columbia College faculty to receive this prestigious national award.

Other highlights included our ranking by U.S. News and World Report for the ninth consecutive year as one of the top 10 undergraduate colleges in the South; accreditation by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) for our undergraduate and graduate programs in education; and selection by The Lilly Foundation for membership in its national network of church-related liberal arts colleges.

A multimedia image campaign was launched by the College this year, with television commercials in the Columbia, Charleston and Greenville-Spartanburg markets; print ads in subscriber editions of Time, Newsweek, U.S. News and Sports Illustrated; and billboards on major interstates.

We revised our campus building plans to include construction of two new apartment-style student residential units, a new student center/dining facility, and a new soccer field. We are looking ahead to the need for a new academic building, the refurbishing of our current residence halls, and a possible arena to enable us to hold Commencement and other large events on campus.

Thanks to increased giving by our alumnae in 2001-2002, we were awarded a $7,500 Challenge Grant by the S.C. Independent Colleges and Universities. Other grants for the year have totaled nearly $250,000 to date, including $64,000 from the U.S. Department of Education for the Governor's School for Excellence and $51,840 from the S.C. Department of Education for integrating technology into the foreign language classroom.

Our total enrollment for 2001-2002 was 1,437, up from 1,298 in 2000-2001, with students from 23 states and 20 countries.

With a heightened emphasis on leadership development for women, as directed by the Board of Trustees, our nationally recognized Leadership Institute is expanding its program offerings and outreach activities.

Our four-sport athletics program continues to grow and to receive increased attention from outside constituencies, including a large number of alumnae who participated in athletics during their years at Columbia College. We anticipate the addition of a fifth sport, most likely basketball, within the next two to three years, with long-range plans to apply for membership in the NCAA Division II.

My focus for 2002-2003 and beyond will be the growth of our endowment – a critical need – and the continuing promotion of Columbia College to multiple statewide, regional and national audiences as an exemplary college for women.

As a United Methodist-related institution, we continue to affirm our relationship to the Church and to the S.C. Annual Conference. After a national search, the College appointed in June 2001 the Rev. Carl King, a United Methodist Elder, as its fourth Chaplain. For our 2001 Opening Convocation, we welcomed Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey, whose address asserted that church-related colleges are "the conscience of higher education." The Rev. Talmage Skinner, Chaplain to Wofford College, delivered the 2002 Founder's Day address in observance of Columbia College's historic relationship to Wofford. And Bishop Woodie White of the Indiana Annual Conference was invited to be the 2002 Staley Foundation Distinguished Christian Lecturer.

Six religious life student organizations actively engage in ministry at Columbia College: Wesley-Luther Fellowship, Baptist Collegiate Ministries, Heavenly Creations Gospel Choir, Clubhouse Gang After-School ministry, Student Christian Association, and United Methodist Women. Only the second collegiate chapter in America, the College's UMW experienced significant renewal this year. And the Women's Division of the General Board of Global Ministries supported our UMW chapter by sponsoring two students' participation in The National Gathering of Teens and College Women. In all, each of the groups contributed to worship leadership in Chapel, served the community through service projects, sponsored Bible studies, and enjoyed fellowship.

The College's religious life also included two unique worship events in 2001-2002 – the gathering of over 400 students, faculty and staff on the afternoon of September 11 for an inter-faith community service of reflection, sharing and prayer, and, several months later, the celebration of the College's first Moravian Lovefeast with the congregation of College Place UMC, with whom we continue to enjoy a prized spirit of cooperation.

Columbia College celebrates its ministry with and through all the churches of the Columbia District and the S.C. Annual Conference. In gratitude for the Church's faithfulness, we look toward a bright future of continued mutual support.

CLAFLIN UNIVERSITY

As Claflin University strives to remain one of "America's Best Colleges," an integration of University life has been evident in the work of students, faculty, staff and administrators. The Claflin University family continues to do the work that separates it from other institutions in its class. The commitment to be the best is evident in the quality of students who chose to attend the University, the level of experience and professional knowledge of the faculty, and the depth of services provided to students to ensure that their college experience is positive.

Student enrollment continues to be strong, exceeding budget assumptions. For the 2002 Spring Semester, the total enrollment is 1,501. Full time equivalency (FTE) for Spring 2002 is 1,420. Of the total enrollment, 1,325 students are from the state of South Carolina, 117 students are from other states in the union, and 59 students are from countries other than the United States. All areas in the student enrollment profile increased in the last year, with the exception of out-of-state students, which is down by eleven students.

Claflin University's strong leadership team has been strengthened by the addition of two additional members of the Board of Trustees. Mrs. Nancy Wilson Young brings a wealth of experience, as she is the founding and current president of the active South Florida Alumni Chapter of Claflin University. She is directly responsible for the Chapter raising and sending Claflin University more than $100,000 in less than five years. Mr. Thaddeus K. Bythewood, Jr. also makes a welcome addition to Claflin University family. He is retired from the E.I. Du Pont de Nemours and Company in Wilmington, Delaware where he began as a Research and Developmental Chemist and retired as a Sales and Marketing Manager in the Fabrics and Finishes Department.

The administrative staff continues to prosper as Dr. George C. Bradley replaces Colonel John T. Bowden, Jr. as the Executive Assistant to the President. Dr. Bradley has worked extensively and studied issues in higher education and brings a wealth of administrative experience having served in a number of positions at the cabinet level at various institutions.

Mr. Leon Brunson, Assistant Vice President for Fiscal Affairs is former Vice President for Business and Finance at Denmark Technical College in Denmark, South Carolina. Mr. Brunson brings a wealth of management skills in Purchasing, Risk Management and Budgeting.

Other Highlights

Center of Excellence in Teaching

The Center for Excellence in Teaching is a reflection of Claflin University's commitment to educational excellence. With assistance from the Bush Foundation, the Center for Excellence in Teaching was founded in 1999 to support faculty in their roles as teachers, scholars, and as members of the wider community. The Center is committed to promoting a spirit of innovation, collaboration, and love of learning as well as enhancing the sense of collegiality among faculty as they expand their intellectual, teaching, and scholarly horizons. The Center provides focus, visibility, recognition and active support for the teaching mission, and gives leadership to the development of a campus climate where teaching excellence flourishes. The Center sponsors workshops, colloquia, panel discussions, and lectures addressing a diverse range of topics on teaching, learning, and scholarship. The center maintains a reference library containing articles, books, videotapes, and audiotapes on various aspects of teaching. The Center's goals are to develop a variety of ways to share the vision, talent, perspectives, and teaching philosophies of all instructors at Claflin; to increase communication about teaching and student learning within and between departments and divisions; to provide opportunities for professional development in teaching to faculty; and to offer recognition and rewards for demonstrated excellence in teaching.

The Honors College

The Alice C. Tisdale Honors College is a prestigious College within the University. The Honors College continues to offer a stimulating, rigorous learning environment for high-achieving continuing students and first-year students who enter the University clearly prepared for success in University-level work. Approximately 200 students are enrolled in the program.

Accreditation

The University was able to announce at the beginning of an exciting spring semester that the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) reaffirmed the accreditation of Claflin University and its academic programs until 2011. Under the leadership of the self-study steering committee, the University family completed the process for reaffirmation from SACS and responded to the recommendations stemming from the visit. Although the next visit is in the year 2011, the University will continuously engage in self-study to ensure that the process of institutional examination becomes a part of the operation of the University and not an event that occurs periodically throughout the life of the institution. Our reaffirmation visit by SACS generated enhanced preparation and work in each area of Claflin's operational components. The five units will continue to work together to assure that their sub-goals; objectives, operational strategies and assessments are tied into the University's common vision statement, guiding principles, goals, objectives, and assessments. The process of "closing the loop" migrated from buzzword to being operationalized by all units.

The Capital Campaign

It is important to provide the financial resources to support the initiatives being developed by faculty, staff, and administrators at Claflin University. The capital campaign initiated in 1996 was an overwhelming success largely because it was a team effort lead by the Trustees. Together, the Claflin University family raised a grand total of $30,273,011, exceeding the original goal of $20,000,000. Equally significant in this overall total is the fact that each of the primary committees reached or exceeded its goal. The Claflin University Board of Trustees reached its goal by raising a grand total of $2,822,170 and the Board of Visitors exceeded its $500,000 goal by raising a grand total of $671,713.

New Academic Programs

Two new undergraduate programs and the University's first graduate program are scheduled to begin in the fall of 2002. The programs are the Bachelor of Science in Bioinformatics, the Bachelor of Science in Biotechnology and the Masters of Business Administration (MBA). The institution has adopted a recruitment plan to assure matriculation of a desired profile of students. The Division of Natural Sciences and Mathematics and the Division of Business Administration have used consultants to target program designs needed to implement their offerings. The programs are being actively marketed to traditional and non-traditional students and applications in sufficient numbers are being submitted for the programs to be initiated in Fall 2002.

Global Perspectives

In order to broaden the scope of academic, cultural, and social understanding Claflin University supports international experiences for faculty and students. The International Program has implemented the linkage between Claflin University and the Instituto Allende in Guanajuato, Mexico where students and faculty from Claflin University will study during the summer of 2002. The Office of International Programs welcomed two exchange students from Kenya as part of the Claflin-United States International University Student Exchange Program. Conversely, Claflin University students, in addition there are two students from Claflin University who are studying in Kenya during the 2002 Spring Semester.

Recent Grants

The Office of Research and grants reported a total of over $10,000,000 in funded projects as of April 2002. The University has received 3 grants in recent months: NOAA, Regional Studies in the Sustainable Management of Coastal and Marine Habitats for Decision-Making, $45,000; USDA, Recruitment of Students to Agricultural Science Through Experiential Learning, $74,428; and The Department of Defense, The Role of Zinc in the Development of Prostate Cancer, $450,000.

The Eighth Annual Presidential Scholarship Gala

The Eighth Annual Presidential Scholarship Gala was held on November 30, 2002 in the Jonas T. Kennedy Health and Physical Education Center. Eight (8) nominees were inducted into the Hall of Fame and the event resulted in a total of $107,135 for the University.

Claflin University is a private, Level III institution, affiliated with the United Methodist Church. Since its establishment in 1869, it has evolved into one of the premier comprehensive institutions in the Southeast. Additional information about the institution can be found on the Internet at www.claflin.edu.

COLUMBIA WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Columbia Wesley Foundation in partnership with Lutheran Campus Ministry is known as PALM (Partnership Among Lutheran and Methodists) on the campus of the University of South Carolina and Wesley-Luther Fellowship at Columbia College. The mission of the Wesley Foundation is to witness to the "Good News" of Jesus Christ to students, faculty, and staff at the University of South Carolina through worship, prayer, study, service, and fellowship.

The Wesley Foundation is a worshipping community. Our Sunday evening service is a casual enlivening worship experience with much student participation - leading prayers, music, reading scripture, presenting drama and occasionally preaching. In each service Holy Communion is celebrated. The style of the service varies from folk to contemporary, gospel, and contemplative.

The Wesley Foundation is also a teaching ministry. Our weekly "Body and Soul" brings together a variety of program topics and bible study for spiritual growth along with an informal meal that follows. The hot topics of faith and culture are discussed in honest and open dialogue. Covenant Discipleship groups offer small groups of students a place to intentionally live out their faith in the context of mutual accountability and encouragement. We also have a Graduate Student Fellowship and a group just for Freshmen.

The Wesley Foundation is a praying community. Weekly Midday Prayer allows for the lifting up of the community's concerns through reflection, intercession, and thanksgiving.

The Wesley Foundation is a serving ministry. Students have done significant service over the past year. Students go to St. Lawrence Place, a transitional housing project for homeless families. Students mentor and tutor the children and build relationships of trust and caring. Visiting a local nursing home on a regular basis and working with Habitat for Humanity and serving at a local soup cellar have been other regular projects. We have a yearly spring break mission trip to Central America to allow students to serve and grow in a new and challenging cultural context. We also have a winter break mission trip to North Carolina and a May Sea Islands Work Project shared with other campus ministries.

Hunger and poverty justice is an area of great concern to our ministry. Through Oxfam America, we hold a yearly Hunger Banquet and Day of Fast for the campus. We educate as well as raise awareness and money for fighting hunger. These campus-wide events have as many as 1,300 participants.

The Wesley Foundation is a reconciling ministry. We reach out across barriers of race, culture, denomination, nationality, and sexual orientation to proclaim the love of God for all people. An African-American campus ministry associate helps to reach across race lines to encourage dialogue and to minister to all students. Our programs regularly challenge us to open ourselves to God's radically inclusive reign. The Wesley Foundation itself is a diverse community. We participate in state, regional, and national events such as Student Forum, United Methodist Student Movement, and, National and SEJ Student Gatherings.

The largest generation of students ever is now entering college. Today's students are seeking an authentic experience of God and a community with whom to share that experience. This is a Kairos moment for the United Methodist Church to be in ministry on the college campus and to reach out with the Good News of Christ.

While a number of conferences are putting campus ministry on the back burner, we are seeing in South Carolina a renewed commitment to ministry and mission on the university campus. Thanks to the conference and local campus ministry boards and local churches that enable this ministry on campus.

Tom Wall, Director

CHARLESTON WESLEY FOUNDATION

Charleston Wesley Foundation celebrated its first birthday as a full-time appointed on January 15th, 2002. We now have established groups on all of the four campuses we served. The Citadel/ College of Charleston group remains the largest and most active. The MUSC group has grown and this ecumenical Wednesday "Soul Café" feeds the bodies and souls of students and staff. The group at Charleston Southern University is small but excited. They are eager to grow on their campus but also desire to join in and fellowship with the other CWF groups in Charleston and the South Carolina United Methodist Student Movement. Students at each of the campuses know that they are welcomed to attend activities on any of the other campuses. We have a student from Trident Technical college who is a regular member of the Citadel/ College of Charleston group.

Charleston Wesley Foundation hosted its first annual Youth Day in October. Eight local churches sent youth and adult chaperones. We had 120 youth and 30 adult chaperones gather at the Citadel for a youth rally, a tour of the Citadel Campus and entrance into the Citadel- Wofford football game. The students of Charleston Wesley Foundation gave talks about college life and Wesley Foundation at their campus. Les Robinson, director of the Citadel athletic department gave an inspiring keynote address. The Citadel wrestling team gave informative campus tours. We are grateful to the Citadel for their generous donation of the youth tickets and cooperation. We are planning to open this event to all the youth groups of the conference in the fall of 2002.

We hosted a dinner and informational meeting for those exploring careers in ministry with the Divinity School of Duke University in the fall of 2001. We had 18 people attend. They were comprised of youth, college students and second career people.

Twelve Charleston Wesley Foundation students attended the SCUMSM Fall retreat at Asbury Hills camp. Twenty-one Charleston Wesley Foundation students attended the SCUMSM spring retreat at Santee State park. Rachel Rogers, president of Charleston Wesley Foundation was elected president of the SCUMSM steering committee; Rebecca Timmerman, secretary of Charleston Wesley Foundation was elected secretary of the SCUMSM steering committee and Aaron Meadows, member of Charleston Wesley Foundation was elected chaplain of the SCUMSM steering committee. We certainly have arrived!

Charleston Wesley Foundation was represented at the College of Charleston's Baccalaureate Service. I gave the Baccalaureate address. I also represented Charleston Wesley Foundation at the College Of Charleston's Martin Luther King Celebration by giving the benediction. I am intentionally visiting the local churches of the Charleston district to interpret and give thanks for their support. Charleston Wesley Foundation gives particular thanks to Trinity UMC- Charleston for the generous use of their facilities and resources. We are also grateful to Asbury- St. James UMC for their support during the transition from a part-time to full- time ministry. Of course without the guidance and support of the Charleston District Wesley Foundation Board this ministry would lack the momentum to effectively serve. We are grateful to all of the churches of the Charleston District and the South Carolina conference for their prayers and support.

CLEMSON WESLEY FOUNDATION

As a native Charlestonian who has been living up north (in North Carolina) for the last decade, I have enjoyed returning to the Palmetto State and the Conference that birthed me years ago. My wife Anne, daughters (Griffin and Grace) and I are slowly making Clemson our home, and we are taking in all that Clemson UMC, the Clemson Wesley Foundation, and Clemson University have to offer.

To begin, Clemson is a much different place than I was anticipating. Students enrolled at CU represent all 50 states and almost 80 different countries. As you could imagine, a student from Minnesota has a different set of ministry issues and needs when compared to a student from Moncks Corner! Because of this geographic diversity, our efforts have been focused on making this campus ministry a place where all students will feel welcomed and loved — no matter where they call home or where they are on their journey of faith. This consistent emphasis on hospitality has resulted in over 800 different students looking to Wesley and Clemson UMC as sources of love, comfort and support. Weekly, well over 120 different students typically come to the "church on the hill" for one of the three worship services offered.

Highlights this year included a fall reunion of former students and staff who had been members of Wesley and/or the Clemson UMC worshiping community during their years in Clemson. Alumni rekindled old friendships with other former students and with Louis Henry, Enoch Hendry and Charles Johnson, former mentors who continue to fulfill that role for many. Other highlights this year included meaningful retreats to the Nantahala Gorge, Mt. Pleasant, S.C., Asbury Hills, and Santee. On a weekly basis, students have benefited from Louis Henry's continued faithful leadership on Tuesday nights, a Service of Prayer and Holy Communion in the newly refurbished Wesley Chapel on Thursday afternoons, and a revised and expanded "Evensong" meal and worship on Sunday evenings. God has indeed blessed our efforts as we have tried to reach students with the message of peace, hope, life and love found in and through Jesus Christ.

We remain indebted to the many pastors, youth pastors, Conference staff and laypersons from throughout the state that assist us in innumerable ways as we seek to minister to the needs of United Methodist students at Clemson. In my short time here, I have realized how strong and important our Methodist connection is. In addition, we are especially thankful for the significant financial and administrative support received from the staff and congregation of Clemson UMC. Through a strong partnership, Clemson Wesley and Clemson UMC have earned the reputation of being places where students are welcomed, loved, nurtured and treated as family.

FRANCIS MARION WESLEY FOUNDATION

Our Wesley Foundation at Francis Marion University continues to attract a small but faithful and diverse group of students for Bible Study, prayer, fellowship and sharing, socials, mission projects, and retreats.

Our main weekly meeting occurs on Tuesday afternoons and usually begins with prayer and a meal or refreshments, followed by a Bible Study/sharing session, and concludes with prayer concerns. Our Bible Study for the Fall Semester generally focused on the weekly lectionary, and for the Spring Semester, we turned to the "Faith Matters" series, a topical program especially suitable for young adults. As in the past years, our members tend to bond as the semester progresses and the sharing becomes more open and intimate.

As a mission project, our fellowship adopted a local independent Christian school for under-privileged children in grades kindergarten through the fourth grade. Our group has visited the school several times, and we provide Christmas gifts for both the children and teachers.

Members of our fellowship have attended national and state retreats of the United Methodist Student Movement. We plan at least one off-campus dinner party each semester. Several out-of-town students attend the church pastured by the campus minister, and the church furnishes van transportation as needed. Pastoral care is available as needed throughout the year.

Our Board of Trustees has been active, and we have discussed ways of creating a greater presence for Methodism on campus in the face of a very active Baptist Student Union, which has a full-time director, a number of weekly activities, and it's own building across the road from the campus. In light of the many "graying" congregations in South Carolina United Methodism, this pastor urges the Conference to be much more intentional in allocating the necessary resources to campus ministries in order to reach more young adults, especially campus programs now served by part-time ministers.

The Wesley Foundation was in a position to render a service to the University Community on the tragic day of Sept. 11, 2001. Coincidentally (to providentially) our regular weekly meeting was scheduled for just hours after the act of terror, and we were able to move from our usual meeting room to a central location around the Campus Sun Dial for a campus-wide prayer service, which was well attended by staff, faculty and students.

A blessing for our organization has come in the person of Mrs. Lisa Woodham, who

FURMAN WESLEY FELLOWSHIP

"Where the people are family, the discussion is real, and your voice is heard." This is our newly created motto that we seek to share with Furman campus. As the first half-time campus minister for Furman, I am pleased to report that our ministry is thriving and adapting to meet the needs of college students today. Wesley leadership also created the following vision statement: Our vision for the Wesley fellowship group is that it will be the spiritual group on campus where all voices are welcomed - an open and inclusive group that remains faithful to proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ and serving God as we have been called within the Methodist tradition. The group has worked hard to convey its message to the campus that Wesley is a place where people are welcomed and invited to share in Christian fellowship and growth. WOW - Wesley on Wednesdays continues to be our main emphasis as a time for praise, worship, Bible study, prayer, discussion, and reflection on life with a variety of programs.

Our year began during the summer where those taking classes or staying in the area attended Bible studies and fellowship outings such as hiking, game night, and Krispy Kreme Bible study. To understand Fall term at Furman, one must realize that September 11 was the first day of class and the tragedy set a mellow tone for the term. The students continued to seek ways to strengthen their faith and serve God. Furman's Wesley student leadership showed sensitivity and maturity in adapting program needs for the first few weeks of class. Our annual POW WOW (Picnic On Wednesday at Wesley on Wednesday) was changed to attend a student-led, campus wide prayer vigil on September 12. Throughout the term students were encouraged to discuss their thoughts in large groups or to seek individual counseling where needed.

Students participated in other fall activities including weekly Bible study and prayer groups, monthly missions, a fall spiritual life retreat at Lake Junaluska in October and a mission trip to Atlanta in November. On the mission trip, students used part of Thanksgiving break to serve Georgia groups including North Fulton Community Charities, the United Methodist Children's Home of Decatur, and Atlanta Food Bank. Winter term welcomed the first annual Wesley function and marked a lighter note for the year. This fellowship event was also outreach to students as each person had to bring someone not already active in Wesley. Plans for the Spring will continue weekly meetings, prayer and Bible study groups with an additional book study about inclusiveness, relating to others, and reconciliation. A spiritual life retreat to Charleston, a mission weekend at the Bethlehem center in Spartanburg, the annual Spring banquet, and monthly missions are also planned.

Long term goals include a yearly foreign mission trip, strengthening the local Wesley board's and local churches role in campus ministry, and more student involvement in district, conference, and general church activities.

The Furman Wesley Fellowship continues to raise money and participate with charities on and off campus including UNICEF, Crop Walk, Relay for Life, Compassion International, local nursing homes, and many more. The group has sponsored and plans other events that bring campus ministry and the local church together including joint worship opportunities, youth night at WOW, and speaking in local churches. Wesley is also committed to ecumenical service and programs both on and off campus.

I am encouraged to see the presence of God evident at Wesley on Furman campus. I look forward to working with student leadership to increase involvement among students, to create awareness at the local church level about campus ministry, and to build an even stronger ministry with students, faculty, and staff at Furman University. As a group we are thankful for the support given to us at all levels - local, conference, and general church that provide us the tools for successful ministry on campus.

ORANGEBURG WESLEY FOUNDATION

"Unite the pair together that are so often disjoined knowledge and vital piety" are the lyrics to the hymn used by John and Charles Wesley for the opening ceremony for the first Methodist related school. It can be argued that the founding fathers were calling for reconciliation and a marriage between the church and the academy, the sacred and the secular, the sanctuary and the university, the prophetic voice and the philosophical voice. Indeed the two need not be estranged from each other, rather compliment.

One of the commitments of the Orangeburg Wesley Foundation is to bring together students and professors involved in higher education in a scholarly and intellectual environment too discuss their faith; share and to be exposed to the faith of Christendom and the church in a safe, caring, and nurturing environment. It is through such a ministry that the church and the university interface and interact in a spirit of love. It is through our ministries that we intentionally strive to bring together "knowledge and vital piety." This report serves as an account of how we have fulfilled our commitment during the past year.

September 11, 2001 ushered in a watershed upon our nation, church and university campus. Our students, like the rest of the world, were distraught and perplexed and filled with many questions. Our ministry sought to respond to the crisis by providing an arena where students could discuss their fears and faith, express their feelings and to discuss the problem of evil in our society. Additionally, we held a campus wide worship service in conjunction with other campus ministries.

We provide weekly Bible Study, which provides an opportunity for students and faculty to study the scriptures and to grow in their understanding of the word. We studied St. Matthew's Gospel and the book of Revelation. The participants select what they will study. Our attendance has grown over this past year and our students come eager to discuss the scriptures.

Weekly discussions on social issues and a meal are provided on Mondays. Persons from the community are selected to speak to the students on the subjects and issues for whom they have expertise. A synopsis of topics discussed were "Love and sex," "People of color in the Bible," and "Ministering to Persons in our Community."

Our students participated in two retreats, fall and winter, sponsored by the various campus ministries. Retreats were held at Asbury Hills Camp and Santee State Park. Our students enjoyed the fellowship and returned excited about the experiences that they encountered. The student's commitment to their faith was expressed through mission numerous times and in diverse ways. Providing thanksgiving baskets and spending a week on the Islands near Charleston, SC repairing homes for residents are a few ways. Additionally, some of our students were part of the Summer Investment Program (SIP) sharing their faith to persons of all ages and in many communities. We continue to thank God and the South Carolina Annual Conference for the opportunity to bring together "knowledge and piety."

WINTHROP WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Winthrop Wesley Foundation strives to affirm, nurture, encourage, support, and challenge students as well as faculty and staff members of this academic community. We unite students through teaching, group sharing, community involvement, worship and pastoral care.

Our week begins with a vesper service each Sunday evening followed by a meal prepared by the students. The Wednesday evening gathering continues to gather the largest crowd each week. A local church provides a home cooked meal for about 50 students. Following the meal, we gather to together to discuss various matters that deal directly and relate to the students lives. The students greatly enhanced this gathering by putting a praise band together. They share their gifts each week to engage the group in singing after the meal.

During the week, several small discussion group are available for students spiritual growth. We continue to share this responsibility with the Presbyterian Church USA and the Roman Catholics. Our ecumenical approach provides an opportunity for us to teach and share our differences as well as our common heritage. This group has had at its core for years, hunger and social justice issues. Wesley continues to lead the academic community and the Rock Hill community at large in various opportunities to eliminate the poverty and hunger that exists in our community and abroad. Our students are directly involved in the leadership of the York County CROP Walk, Oxfam Fast, Home Sweet Homeless, and the Alyce T. Guettler Hunger Run. Together with hundreds others, these efforts raised more than $36,000 during the past year.

We were blessed this year to organize a United Methodist Women unit on campus. The group meets monthly and participates in many ministries. One such ministry is Tuesday's Child Learning Center. The UMW of the district made Tuesday' Child a district mission last year. We are grateful for their continued support of this great ministry. Many Winthrop students gather each day to tutor/mentor these homeless and at risk children from kindergarten to fifth grade. The churches of the district have historically provided much of the resources across the years so that this vital ministry may flourish.

Wesley is involved in many other activities and functions throughout the year. Our students have led the South Carolina United Methodists Student Movement for the past few years. They have held leadership positions on the jurisdictional and general church levels. We encourage those that are in great distance away from home to become part of a church family in the area. Our local congregations reach out to the students in many different ways. Many are involved in Sunday school classes, serving on committees, and some share their gifts in singing in the choir or leading in some other way on Sunday mornings.

We are grateful to the South Carolina Conference for providing us the necessary resources to do ministry on this campus. Because of your commitment, we are making a difference in the lives of many. We have two students that will be entering seminary this coming August in preparation for ministry in The United Methodist Church. Two others are interested in short-term missionary opportunities through our Board of Global Ministries. We are indebted to the church for giving and sharing of themselves so that these bright young minds may grasp hold of what it means to be called.

THE BOARD OF LAITY

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations..." Matthew 28:19a

The Conference Board of Laity has as its mission, the ministry of helping God's people reclaim the biblical understanding of all Christians as ministers by equipping lay persons to be disciples of Christ, and by equipping lay persons to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

The ministry areas of the Board of Laity include Lay Speaking Ministries, the Laity Convocation, Stewardship, and Leader Development.

Lay Speaking Ministries is under the leadership of Mr. Les Heaton, Conference Director of Lay Speaking. His report follows.

For the third year, Lay Speaking Ministries provided leadership training to more than 1,000 lay speakers who attended classes in 30 schools, at 27 different locations, and who participated in 76 courses of 10 hour duration. New courses in Prayer and How to Teach the Bible have attracted great interest and proved to be most rewarding with regard to spiritual formation.

Once again the Annual White Oak Conference was well attended with more than 165 who took part in this weekend training. This is the third year that we have had this event and it has grown in popularity. This is a weekend that starts on Friday and ends with Sunday lunch. Registration was available on line this year and you will find our web page most interesting at www.umcsc.org/USERS/

LAYSPKING. Our training schedules are also listed with other information that is of interest to United Methodists. www.layspeaking.org is our national web site for the Association of Conference Directors and it also has many items of interest to Lay Speakers and others.

For the sixth consecutive year our Ministry has grown and we now have more than 3000 Lay Speakers in our Conference, which is the most in the Southeastern Jurisdiction and probably the most in the entire United Methodist Church. This growth is the result of many dedicated District Directors and Associates who plan and provide the instruction in the local schools. Every district is active and enthusiastic about reaching all who want to become Lay Speakers. Part of our growth is the result of getting out the message that Lay Speaking Ministries is more than "just speaking". We are involved in Leading, Caring, and Communicating the Gospel in our Local Churches and our communities. We now have members involved in Clown and Drama Ministry and almost any facet of the work in making Christ known. Some lay speakers are involved most every Sunday in bringing messages at shelters, nursing homes, and churches. Many have found their way into full time service as pastors.

We give thanks to God for his blessings of growth and dedication as we serve in this Conference. We are thankful for the support of our District Superintendents and pastors who give encouragement to this ministry. The District Directors thank you as well as the lay volunteers for making this work possible.

The South Carolina Laity Convocation is Under The Direction Of Robert Scarborough.

The SC Laity Convocation Task Force planned and organized the SC Laity Convocation that was held August 10 - 12, 2001 at Lake Junaluska, NC. The theme of the Convocation was "Laity in Service", and featured workshops entitled "Faith Sharing", "Worship 101", "How the Local Church Can Be in Mission Where They are", and "The Role of the Laity". These workshops gave the attendees practical and understandable information about how United Methodist laity can serve Christ and advance the Kingdom through our discipleship.

Keynote speakers included the Reverend Ken Nelson of St. John's United Methodist Church in Aiken, SC and the Reverend Rosemary Brown of Monroe Street and Jordonia United Methodist Churches in Tennessee. Special appearances by the SC Conference Youth Choir entertained and inspired the large assembly and gave a glimpse of our United Methodist leaders of tomorrow. Traditions continued with the Lake Junaluska Singers in concert and the Convocation Watermelon Cutting. Attendance totaled 1037 participants, up slightly from the previous year.

The Youth Convocation, themed "Witness", and the Children's Convocation, themed "Called to be a Servant" gave entire families a complete and focused message, with examples, of the difference that can be made in our world by United Methodist of every age. Organizers and leaders are to be commended for the dedication and effort devoted to executing these events.

The 2002 SC Laity Convocation will be held August 9 - 11, 2002 at Lake Junaluska, NC and will feature Dr. Terry Teykl, leading and instructing, inspiring and educating, for a Weekend of Prayer.

Stewardship Task Group

In 2001 the new stewardship resource "Gifted to Give: Stewardship Alive" was mailed to each church. The resource includes 90 pages of stewardship resources for the local church. It is designed for use as individuals or small groups. An additional 2,000 copies were printed for purchase at $5.00 per book.

The next project for the Stewardship Task Group is to produce a stewardship newsletter. It will share current resources; it worked for us and other features. Look for the first publication in the fall of 2002.

Leader Development

The Board of Laity, Leader Development Task Group is working on a vision and making plans. They are currently doing workshops across the conference on meaningful meetings, Character of a leader, "Church Leadership 101", "Church Leadership 201", communications, and discernment. Further resources will be added like conflict management and developing spiritual leaders.

BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS PENSION SECTION

Summary: The recommendations include (1) a $19 per year increase in the Past Service Rate; (2) individual options for funding Comprehensive Protection Plan participation during Sabbatical Leave and Study Leave; (3) 12% Ministerial Pension Plan funding limited by the Denominational Average Compensation.

Report Number One

A. The Board of Pensions requests that the South Carolina Annual Conference fix $454.00 per service year as the rate for annuity payments to retired ministers, which shall include approved supply time prior to admission into full connection. An eligible surviving spouse shall receive 75% of the formula benefit upon the death of the participant.

B. The Board of Pensions requests that an appropriation be made that will give the Board of Pensions (The Pension Fund) $ 4,669,141 for the pension program of the South Carolina Annual Conference for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003 and that this sum be apportioned to the charges of the South Carolina Annual Conference.

C. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed, and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service; and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the South Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference:

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the years 2002 and 2003 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability.
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Revenue Rule 71-280, 1971 C.B. 92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities."

D. Each institution, organization or district to which a minister is appointed shall pay to the South Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits an amount equal to 12% of the appointed participant's Plan Compensation, limited by the Denominational Average Compensation as determined by the General Board of Pensions for the year 2002-2003 for Ministerial Pension Plan funding. An amount equal to 4.4% of the appointed participants Plan Compensation, limited by 200% of the Denominational Average Compensation shall be paid for Comprehensive Protection Plan Funding. Such payments shall be made for each minister so appointed and paid monthly in equal payments each month during the year 2002-2003 or in advance for monthly crediting in twelve equal installments from deposits made in the Deposit Account of the South Carolina Annual Conference with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits by the treasurer of the South Carolina Annual Conference. In the event that monthly credits to the minister in special appointment's Church Account exceed the funds deposited for the minister in special appointment, an interest charge made at 12% per annum shall be made. This interest payment is due the following month with interest charges on a daily factor until the institutional account of the minister in special appointment is current.

II. The fiscal year of the Board of Pensions shall be the same as that of the South Carolina Annual Conference.

III. We request that the 2002 Session discontinue the publication of the Payments to Annuitants and Beneficiaries. The Report includes only Defined Benefit, Disability and Survivors Benefit Fund and Minimum Spousal and Children's benefits rather than the total funds distributed. The 2001 Report of the Payments to Annuitants and Beneficiaries will be available for review by lay members and clergy of the South Carolina Annual Conference at the business office, 4908 Colonial Drive, Columbia, SC, upon request.

IV. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits authorizes one time moving expense grants, not to exceed $1,500, and including up to $250 in verified packing expenses, for newly disabled ministers receiving CPP Disability Benefits, surviving spouses of ministers or newly retired ministers in benefit, moving from the parsonage provided by the charge. Persons moving must file for the one time grant within 90 days of first reception of pension or disability benefits and may use the funds for moving expenses and/or for connection/tap on or hook up fees in the new residence. Note: The $1,500 one time moving expense grant is greater than the average moving expense submitted over the last four years.

Institutional Payments	170,753.00
Request of Annual Conference	4,669,141.00
Total Estimated Income	$4,875,594.00

The increase in the Request of the Annual Conference is $578,717, an increase of 14.15 for 2003. The cost is driven by the 11.38% increase in SC Conference Compensation.

Note: The increase in the request of the Annual Conference (the Pension Fund apportionment, is $578,717, an increase of 14.15%. It reflects increases in Plan Compensation of the participants whose Ministerial Pension Plan and/or Comprehensive Protection enrollment and funding is the responsibility of the Annual Conference. There are additional Comprehensive Protection Plan costs based on the expanded definition of Plan Compensation and the elevation of the ceiling on CPP funding from the Denominational Average Compensation to a maximum of 200% of the Denominational Average Compensation to fund increased Incapacity Benefits and a flat death benefit of $50,000 for actives effective January 1, 2002.

SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE FUNDING PLAN FOR SUPPLEMENT ONE TO THE MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN
AS OF JANUARY 1, 2002

The 2002 Past Service Rate (PSR) is $435, or .99% of Conference Average Compensation (CAC). The conference intends to maintain the PSR around .95% of CAC. For the past several years, CAC has increased by an average of 4% per year, and we expect that pattern to continue. Therefore, we expect future PSRs to increase by an average of about 4% per year.

As of January 1, 2002, assuming 3% annual PSR increases, the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits' actuarial valuation of the plan for the Conference shows more assets than benefit obligations. After including the value of expected additional 1% PSR increases, assets in the plan continue to exceed benefit obligations. The funding plan as of January 1, 2002 is summarized below:

Supplement One Liability Assuming
A PSR Increase of 3.0%	$ (72,707,321)
An Additional PSR Increase of 1.0%	(5,799,755)
Resulting in a total Supplement One Liability
Based on a PSR Increases of 4.0% of	$ (78,507,076)
Current Plan Funding	85,870,907
Funding Surplus	$ 7,363,831

*Assuming 8% interest and the 1983 Individual Annuity Mortality Table.

THE BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS GROUP INSURANCE SECTION

South Carolina is one of seven HealthFlex conferences excluded from the rate smoothing mechanism of HealthFlex for the year 2003. One conference faced a 58% increase in rates if the A-500 plan were continued in 2003. South Carolina faced a 40% increase. If the necessary mandatory participation were not adopted and no changes in plan design were made, the increase in the Insurance Fund apportionment would have been 34% and a 50% increase in the family premium would have been required. Facing unsustainable group insurance cost increases, the Board of Pension and Health Benefits proposes the following to make HealthFlex viable through changes in plan design and cost sharing.

Summary of proposed benefit changes effective 01/01/2003.

1. Move from Voluntary to Mandatory participation as of January 1, 2003. The mandatory category would include those persons appointed on a full time basis for which the Annual Conference has Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan funding responsibility. The difference in claims experience between voluntary and mandatory plans is 17%, from a 126% to a 109% claims factor, among the 26 HealthFlex Plan Sponsors.
 - a. Only the participant for whom the Annual Conference has pension responsibility is required to be in the plan.
 - b. Mandated participants entitled to funded benefits from another group plan may opt out.
2. Effective January 1, 2003 the annual conference contribution to retired participants and/or eligible spouses will be limited to the Medicare Supplement portion. Those in the retired relation prior to 01/01/2003 will be grandfathered in the applicable plan for at least three years.
3. "Effective January 1, 2003, retired or disabled employees immediately eligible to receive pension or incapacity benefits, and who have participation in the active group health plan of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the last ten (10) of which were continuous and consecutive, shall be eligible for participation in the retiree health care program of the Annual Conference."
4. Annual Conference funding upon retirement in benefit shall be based on full time appointment to a local church, or under appointment with pension responsibility by the South Carolina Annual Conference, and shall be based on the following schedule:

10 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	0%
11 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	10%
12 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	20%
13 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	30%
14 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	40%
15 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	50%
16 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	60%
17 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	70%
18 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	80%
19 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	90%
20 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	100%"

- a. Making the provision effective January 1, 2003, will grandfather persons already retired. In 2003 and thereafter participants and eligible dependents will be covered by this provision.
- b. This proposal retains the option of active participants, with at least 10 years of full time continuous and consecutive years of full time service and with pension eligibility at retirement, to be participants in the Group Health plans of the annual conference for the remainder of their lives. However, it also recognizes retiree health care participation as an earned benefit beginning funding at the 11th year and adding 10% funding increments through the 20-year period.

5. Proposed changes in the Active Major Medical Plan

- a. B-$500 PPO/OOA Plan
 - Deductibles the same

Report Number One

The insurance program of the South Carolina Conference is designed to provide its eligible employees (as defined herein) with a comprehensive plan for major medical benefits and a Medicare supplement. The following are eligible for coverage under the program:

1. Those fully employed by a local church either as Elders in Full Connection, Deacons in Full Connection, Probationary Elders, Probationary Deacons, Probationary Deacons/1992 or Diaconal ministers related to and serving a local church within the South Carolina Annual Conference.
2. Ministers who are full time employees of the Annual Conference boards, councils or agencies.
3. District Superintendents.
4. Student local pastors appointed to a charge within the boundaries of the Annual Conference and actively at work.
5. Lay persons who are full time employees of the Annual Conference.
6. Effective January 1, 2003, retired employees who have been under full time appointment to a local church or with pension responsibility by the South Carolina Annual Conference, and who are immediately eligible to receive pension or incapacity benefits, and who have participation in the active group health plan of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the last ten (10) years of which were continuous and consecutive, shall be eligible for participation in the retiree health care program of the Annual Conference.
7. Those retired or disabled employees, referred to herein as lay persons, immediately eligible to receive pension or disability benefits from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits at the beginning of the month following the month in which the retired relation or disability leave with disability benefits takes place, and who had a minimum of ten (10) continuous and consecutive years of active participation in the South Carolina Annual Conference group health plan at the time of retirement or the granting of Basic Protection Plan Incapacity benefits by the General Board of Pensions, and their respective spouses.

8. Ordained ministers from other United Methodist Annual Conferences and ordained ministers from other Methodist denominations and other denominations fully employed by and under episcopal appointment to a local church of the South Carolina Annual Conference to a charge in the South Carolina Annual Conference under the provisions of Paragraphs 337.1 and 337.2 of the 2000 Book of Discipline.
9. Full-time employees, and their eligible dependents, of a local church of the South Carolina Annual Conference currently enrolling no less than 75% of all full-time employees in the Annual Conference group insurance plan. The local church must establish the funding basis with the annual conference on the current advanced premium.
10. Funding for the group insurance plans upon retirement in benefit from the South Carolina Annual Conference shall be based on full time appointment to a local church, or under appointment with pension responsibility by the South Carolina Annual Conference, and shall be based on the following schedule:

10 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan:	0%
11 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	10%
12 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	20%
13 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	30%
14 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	40%
15 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	50%
16 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	60%
17 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	70%
18 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	80%
19 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	90%
20 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	100%

The categories of eligibility 1-9 listed above are categories of access to the group insurance plan of the South Carolina Annual Conference. Funding of persons, other than those appointed as pastors or with pension funding responsibility by the South Carolina Annual Conference, is the responsibility of the salary paying units.

Enrollment in HealthFlex, the group insurance plan of the South Carolina Annual Conference, must be made within the first thirty days of eligibility, the first day at work. Late enrollment or enrollment for January 1st of any year must be completed prior to November 30th of the preceding year.

Eligibility requirements are also set forth in the HealthFlex Administrative Manual published by the Health Care Division of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church, 1201 Davis Street, Evanston, IL 60201.

Report Number Two Major Medical Insurance Benefits

The South Carolina Annual Conference will participate in Health Flex, the managed health care plan of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church.

The lifetime maximum coverage for each eligible insured and eligible dependent shall be limited to $2,000,000.

Other details of the major medical expense plan are contained in the Health Flex plan summary, available from the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Post Office Box 11284, Columbia, SC 29211.

Report Number Three Medicare Benefits

The South Carolina Annual Conference has elected HealthFlex Plan 2 HealthFlex Pharmacy Plan 2 as the Medicare Supplement Plan Option.

Medicare is a Federal health insurance plan, administered under the Social Security Act, for the benefit of persons 65 years of age or older and others specified by amendment. The Annual Conference Insurance Program is designed to provide certain benefits, which begin at the point where Medicare coverage terminates, and in addition, makes provision for some benefits not eligible under Medicare provisions. It is required that all retired participants and/or dependent spouses aged 65 or older shall enroll in Medicare Part A and Part B. In any event, benefits for retired participants and eligible dependents that have attained age 65 shall be computed as though the enrollant or eligible dependent were enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B. Each insured or dependent age 65 or over should be positive that any hospital he/she enters is one which participants in the Medicare program. Our plan does not pay benefits, which are, or could be, paid by Medicare.

Eligible retired enrollants and their eligible dependents as well as participating active enrollants and their eligible dependents who have attained age 65 shall have benefits calculated by the Medicare Supplement approach with the same deductible(s) applicable and the same co-insurance as those enrollants under age 65. This assures Medicare Part A and Part B participants the same co-insurance as those enrollants under age 65 and in the basic HealthFlex plan. This assumes that the active age 65 and over enrollant and dependent shall be enrolled in Medicare Part A and Part B immediately upon reaching the age and status for Medicare eligibility.

A handbook explaining the provisions of Medicare is available from any district office of the Social Security Administration.

Report Number Four Administrative Procedures

Billing: The Board of Pension and Health Benefits sends a quarterly statement to everyone enrolled in the Conference Insurance Program and Flexible Spending Accounts. Statements are mailed in January, April, July and October. Statements are mailed quarterly although payments for group health premiums and Flexible Spending Accounts may be made on monthly basis.

Cancellation of Coverage: It is imperative that each participant in the Conference Insurance Program keeps his/her premium payments current. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits has instructed the Benefits Officer to cancel the insurance coverage or Flexible Spending Account of any participant who does not pay his/her premium by the end of the month for which he/she has been billed.

Ministers Serving in Extension Ministries: For the purpose of proper cost analysis, it is required that all Conference Boards and Agencies, served by ministers and others eligible for group insurance participation, pay for the "institutional share" of the insured's premium. This provision shall apply to the District Superintendents, Conference Staff and those serving United Methodist agencies directly related to and accountable to the South Carolina Annual Conference, should they be eligible for coverage under the provisions of the South Carolina Annual Conference Group Health Insurance Program. In every case the full cost of coverage must be paid by the insured, the employer, or through the combined payments of the insured and the employer.

Premium payments: Premium payments shall be made in accordance with the instructions printed on the quarterly "Statement of Account". Premium payments are due at the first of the month for which the participant is billed.

Applications for enrollment in the Conference Insurance Program are available from the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, P.O. Box 11284, Columbia, SC 29211. If not completed and in the hands of the Benefits Officer within 30 days from the date of eligibility, the applicant will be ineligible until the next following enrollment period.

Claims Procedure: The cost of medical care continues to rise, therefore, the Office of Ministerial Affairs and the carrier audit every claim with great care. Conference Insurance Program participants can render valuable assistance in the claims process by:

1. making certain that they have received all the services for which they are requesting payment.
2. Supplying the documentation required to validate the claim.
3. Refraining from asking for reimbursement for services clearly excluded under the terms of the insurance program.

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits is charged with oversight of the group insurance program of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the benefits of which program are outlined in the reports of the Board submitted to the Annual Conference. The Annual Conference approves the group insurance budget of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Board is authorized to negotiate and contract with carriers or the HealthFlex Plan Administrator to maintain the level of benefits for the eligible participants, as defined by the Annual Conference.

Report Number Five Coordination of Benefits

The purpose of health care insurance is to help meet actual expenses. In line with that purpose, the Conference Insurance Program contains a nonprofit provision, which coordinates our plan with other plans under which an individual is covered so that the total benefits available will not exceed 100% of the allowable expense. Under this plan, if a dependent, employed spouse is covered by another group plan, application for insurance benefits should first be made under the employee's group policy, then application may be made to the Conference Insurance Program for any additional benefits that might be due.

Strict adherence to this policy is essential if we are to maintain good benefits under our program at a reasonable cost. A detailed explanation of the "coordination" provision is contained in the Health Flex plan summary.

Report Number Seven

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits makes the following recommendation for action by the 2002 South Carolina Annual Conference.

- That the Council on Finance and Administration apportion to the churches the sum of $5,007,975 for the Conference Insurance Program to be used as follows:
 - $ 180,491 for administration of the program.
 - $4,827,484 for the Annual Conference share of group insurance funding.
- That participant premium payments be set as follows:
 - Personal Active Plan premiums for eligible clergy/survivor/conference lay employee categories shall be 30% of the single or family coverage premium.
 - Effective January 1, 2003, the single premium shall be $108.00 per month.
 - Effective January 1, 2003, the family premium shall be $270.00 per month

- Personal Medicare Supplement premiums for eligible participants shall be 20% of the rate.

Effective January 1, 2003, the Medicare Supplement premium shall be $50 per month per individual.

- The Annual Conference contribution for participants and their eligible dependents shall be limited to the contribution for the Medicare Supplement for those persons immediately eligible for MPP pension benefits entering the retired relation on and after January 1, 2003.

Report Number Eight

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits be directed to report to the 2003 Annual Conference the following:

- A retiree healthcare program which shall be constitutional and financially feasible, to include eligible ordained clergy of another Annual Conference transferred by the Bishop to the South Carolina Conference;
- Such transferred United Methodist Clergy shall meet the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits Report requirements of the 10 years in the South Carolina Conference for continuous and consecutive service and with the total 20 years funding requirement which shall take into consideration the combined service years in their former Annual Conference and in the South Carolina Conference as though the connectional service was in the South Carolina Conference in order to comply with the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits Report requirement of 20 years.

THE BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The South Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry has completed another year of service to God and to The United Methodist Church. I refer you to paragraph 632 of The Book of Discipline, 2000 for the responsibilities of this Board.

The primary work of this Board is the "enlistment and recruitment of persons for ordained ministry" (paragraph 632 of The Book of Discipline, 2000). As such this Board has interviewed between 50 and 60 persons who are seeking ordination as Deacon or Elder, commissioning as probationary elder or deacon, First Time Full Time Local Pastor, or one of various status changes within the Orders. In addition, the Board has trained Candidacy mentors and Clergy Mentors for guiding candidates through the process of ordination. Qualifications for ordination are found in paragraph 304 of The Book of Discipline, 2000.

The Discipline sets high standards for the character of all clergy. Clergy are challenged and expected to "dedicate themselves to the highest ideals of the Christian life" (paragraph 304 of The Book of Discipline, 2000). During the interview process this year, as occasionally in years past, improprieties were discovered. Therefore, one of the tasks of this Board has been to develop stronger policies to respond to such issues as plagiarism and misrepresentation in materials submitted to The Board for review. Such actions stand over against the standards we are challenged to uphold and undermine the integrity of the ordination process and of The Orders. The Annual Conference will have opportunity to vote on these policy changes during this session of The Annual Conference.

In addition the Board oversees professional certification through The Division of Deacons. We are blessed to have many talented persons serving in a variety of ministries throughout our Annual Conference.

The Board's Committee on Formation in Ministry is continuing the development of the Discipline mandated three-year probationary process. The possibility for this process to strengthen the covenant of ministry and to become a sustaining model of ministry for new pastors and leaders is immense. Our Committee has worked faithfully, examining other Conference structures and utilizing processes already in place within our Annual Conference.

During the year The Board of Ordained Ministry received the resignation of Eben Taylor as the first Chair of The Order of Elder. This Conference is in his debt as he steered us onto a course towards spirit rather than structure. The Board nominated Frank J. Griffith, Jr. to serve as Chair of The Order of Elder. He, along with Kathy James, Chair of the Order of Deacon, and Len Ripley, Chair of the Fellowship of Local Pastors coordinated The Gathering of The Orders on April 19th. Together they are exploring new possibilities of strengthening the Orders of ministry in South Carolina Methodism.

Other Board business included beginning the process of returning oversight of the T. Dennie Smith Fund to Memorial United Methodist Church in Greer; sending a male representative to the International Clergywomen's Conference in San Diego, California; and changing the Conference provider for the Psychological Assessment of candidates for ministry. We continue to provide opportunities for funding Continuing Education and are exploring new avenues of offering support and aid to pastors in crisis.

Members of this Board have exhibited great leadership, integrity and character throughout their work but especially in addressing difficult situations. I present this report of The Board's ministry among you with deep gratitude for their commitment to this important work of the church.

Patricia J. Parrish, Chair

THE OFFICE OF CLERGY SERVICES

Responsibilities Of Coordinator Of Clergy Services

With this annual conference the ministry of administration begins the fifth year for the Office of Clergy Services. A major goal is coordinating conference resources. Dialogue with the Conference Administrative Staff projected more coordination and uniformity of database records in order to eliminate duplication of work in several offices and in the districts. The Office of Clergy Services maintains and provides access to current address, phone, and email data for the conference web page and mailings for the conference. Appreciation is express to the Staff Relations Committee for their support of this process to coordinated data from local churches, districts, annual conference and the GCFA record system. Also, Conference Communications set up permanent email addresses for all clergy and churches.

The GBHEM Conference Staff Network continues to provide opportunity to relate with other annual conferences with persons in similar staff positions. The network meets annually in November to share ideas as well as contact with email.

The Clergy Services functions continues to include recruitment, retention and resource for the Board of Ordained Ministry, District Committees on Ordained Ministry, pastors, laity and the Cabinet. Working with these colleagues continues to be a pleasure and challenge.

Clergy Services web page (www.umcsc.org/ccs.htm) provides information on the steps into ministry for candidates and support data for pastors and district offices. Permanent files on Diaconal Ministers and Deacons are maintained by Clergy Services. Work continues on being a resource to the Annual Conference for Certified Candidacy, Probationary Membership, Full Membership, Associate Membership, Deacons in Transition, Probationary Deacons, Full Deacons, Diaconal Ministers and Transfer/Approval for Service Candidates. This process involved development of candidate files for transcripts, medicals, credit checks, psychological tests, criminal background checks, recommendation from the districts, sermons, Bible Studies and responses to Disciplinary Questions. These materials become a part of the Permanent File Record for the current 1462 records of clergy and diaconal ministers on our computer system. By disciplinary authority this data is available for the Bishop, Cabinet, district committees and the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry.

Mrs. Bonnie Speas continues to serve as the part-time Secretary for Clergy Services and part-time for the office of CCOM Associate Director. Mrs. Speas is using her computer skills in maintenance of the Permanent Clergy Records.

District offices are provided annually with uniform guidelines and time lines. Meetings with District Committees on Ordained Ministry upon request, computer support for district secretaries, maintenance of computer forms and other guidelines are among the resources available to the twelve districts.

This year with 1077 phone inquiries, as well as numerous computer emails, the office of clergy services has responded by dealing with questions on the Discipline, candidacy qualifications, transfer process to SC Conference, and numerous other ministry related concerns.

Clergy Services provided candidate information for visits to the seminaries made in July, August and February to provide support and respond to questions from our Course of Study candidates and seminary students.

The new candidate orientation process was established for a one-day session in June. All applicants for change of conference relations meet with the Coordinator of Clergy Services and BOM Committee Chairs. General Instructions for the applicant interview process in November and February are reviewed. This orientation involves preparation for the Board of Ordained Ministry interviews with candidates for Candidates for Full Membership, new Probationary Member candidates, candidates for Associate Member, Full Deacon, and transitions from Diaconal to Deacon.

The year 2001 Business Questions Report to Clergy Session of Annual Conference is updated upon receipts of recommendations on candidates each month. Continued support from the Bishop's Office and the District Offices has been most helpful and appreciated.

THE COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The most significant fact concerning the work of the Commission on Archives and History is the recent turn of the millennium. While no United Methodist churches will celebrate 1000 years for several centuries, many are celebrating and planning Bicentennials in the next few years. Three parts of the ministry of the Commission relate to these celebrations. The Historical Address, delivered by Dr. A. V. Huff, at this session of the Annual Conference is the most visible. The Conference Archivist, Phillip Stone, has also contributed greatly with an index to obituaries appearing in the Southern Christian Advocate since the beginning. He has also prepared a listing of the Historical Addresses of previous sessions of the Annual Conference. In addition, he has assisted many local church historians in their searches for materials and information. The Commission has also continued presentation of the Hubert Hucks Award for the preservation and celebration of our heritage in local churches.

The Annual Conference, through the Commission, offers bronze grave markers to assist families grieving the losses of those who have served the Conference as ordained ministers. We maintain a supply of the markers in each District Office to be delivered as quickly as possible to each family as the need arises. Eventually, we hope to extend the presentations to include all those pastors who have died in previous years, so their graves may be marked with this sign of love and respect.

We are also interested in assisting future generations to recall who we are today, by offering guidance to local church historians and District Offices with records preservation suggestions. We seek to encourage local historians to assist their District Offices toward the goals of organizing and properly reducing the materials on hand before they are delivered to Wofford or Claflin; providing a broader vision to the local historians; and teaching local historians how to work on their own church's records.

We continue to support the work of the Conference and Jurisdictional Historical Societies, and encourage participation in tours and meetings. Several South Carolinians made a joyful tour of East Coast Historical Sites last summer and several others attended the SEJ Historical Society meeting at Randolph-Macon College.

One of the most difficult tasks we have is helping local churches understand their unique place in history and celebrating that place with them. Every church represents a significant investment of love, time and effort as it continues in ministry year by year. Each one is a monument to sacrifice and loyalty. Some of our congregations have also made significant contributions to the life of the Annual Conference, to Methodism, and to the Church as a whole. While we sometimes recognize these remarkable contributions, each local congregation is invited to celebrate their own heritage. The Commission would like to recognize these celebrations and will, if we are told. The Hucks Award is intended not only as recognition of significant work done on historical preservation and interpretation, but also as an enticement to other congregations to celebrate their heritages, as well.

THE COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS

The Commission on Communications is a part of the Conference Council on Ministries (CCOM) and is under the day-to-day operation of its Director. The primary focus of this year's activities for the Public and Media Relations sub-committee has been participation in the United Methodist national media campaign called Igniting Ministry, a program of coordinated and comprehensive efforts to assist local churches in strengthening their welcoming and marketing skills.

The South Carolina Annual Conference received a $50,000 matching grant and served as a regional training site in April 2001 at Francis Burns UMC for 238 people from North and South Carolina. Participants responded positively to the experience.

In July of 2001, the chair and Associate Director Jim Arant with a team composed of members from Communications and Evangelism provided training at four (4) cluster workshops across South Carolina. In attendance were 395 people representing 165 churches. Responses to both the training and the evangelism materials in the kit were enthusiastically positive.

In addition to the national campaign ads, the grant enabled the conference to cover the entire state with selected television ads between August 22 and September 5. Some local churches and communities also used print and radio media to reach out to their areas. For the campaign the Commission developed evaluation forms, which were sent to pastors and placed on the conference website.

A four-year program, Igniting Ministry national media campaigns will take place during the Advent, Lent, and Back-to-School periods each year for four years. The Commission expects to participate in the plans for additional training and support for local churches during this second year using the supplementary material in UMCOM's Toolkit 1, 2, 3. One local church congregation has already applied for and received a matching grant to implement Igniting ministry in its local congregation.

In addition to participation in the Igniting Ministry Campaign, one of the Commission's goals for the year was greater involvement in national and regional communication organizations. The chair attended the annual meeting of UMAC in Nashville in November and participated in several informative workshops. The Commission is currently examining mission statements from other conferences as it examines and plans updates of its goals.

Another aim of the Commission this year has been to involve District Communicators and work more closely with them in training and assisting the local churches in their districts. Several of the District Communicators were involved in the Igniting Ministry training at the cluster workshops, and all were invited to the Commission's spring meeting to provide input concerning their district's communications needs and to help set goals for future training experiences.

The Electronics area of the Commission on Communications has continued to make computer upgrades including the purchase of a new server. One full-time person has continued to improve the website to keep it current with timely information about conference and local church activities. This area expects to continue to provide the Pre-conference Journal online by the mail out date, to provide up-to-date coverage of Annual Conference during conference, to maintain the networking for the conference center, and to work with Clergy Services to improve electronic communication for pastors. The Electronics area has been pleased that more pastors are using the conference website for communication and more churches are adding their events to an online calendar. Hits are up over 150% in the last two years. Electronics would like to add street addresses or directions for every church to make locating them easier and to encourage churches to send in digital pictures of their activities to keep websites current.

The Resource Center still depends on local church memberships to succeed in its services. This important outreach for our conference added another 130 videos to its catalog and processed over 1,270 orders for videos and music – an increase of 270 over last year's requests. The Center added 67 new seasonal musical selections and has accumulated about 200 preview packages, which it encourages local churches to check out to facilitate decisions about the music they wish to order. The Resource Center also maintains a website that is updated with their new items. Even though the Center has outgrown its area, it continues to provide valuable resources for our conference.

The Commission on Communications has had a busy and productive year because of the hard work and support of both its members and interested clergy and laity. The Commission appreciates the Annual Conference's past funding and support and will need this assistance to continue to help local churches tell their stories while we all learn to be better communicators and to make disciples of Christ.

THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

One of the many lessons September 11th taught us is that people from different places, lifestyles, ethnic origins, economic circumstances, and faith preferences can find common ground and unite for the common good of our global neighborhood. Once again in history the question asked of Jesus takes on poignant significance: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

Simplistically defined, the work of this commission is a search for the answer to that question. To aid us in this search, Avery Cardinal Dulles, S.J., Laurence J. McGinley Professor of Religion and Society, Fordham University, and Dr. David S. Yeago, Michael C. Peeler Professor of Systematic Theology, Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary, were featured at the 2001 LARCUM Conference, speaking on the theme, "Justification Today – What is the Spirit Saying to the Church?" In our time, Lutheran, Anglican, Roman Catholic, and United Methodist churches are seeking commonality on issues that have divided the church for centuries. A major milestone in the movement toward Christian unity is the Joint Declaration on Justification signed between the Roman Catholic and Lutheran churches. This Declaration helps to resolve the central issue of the Reformation. Further, this Declaration provides a model of agreement attained while points of disagreement continue to be discussed.

On January 27, 2002, the LARCUM worship service of prayer for Christian unity was conducted at St. John's Lutheran Church in Spartanburg. This service is always an experience of unity as bishops from different denominations participate in the worship leadership and invite the congregants to celebrate their unity in the reaffirmation of their baptismal vows. It is this commission's goal to keep providing places for discussion of unity and the experience of it within the Christian Church, even while appreciating the unique aspects of each denomination that contribute to the life and welfare of the church universal.

Dr. Zia Hasan, Vice-president for Planning and Assessment, and Information Services, Claflin University, and member of Islam, was our guest speaker at our ecumenical/interfaith breakfast. In a world filled with interfaith tension, where acts of tremendous violence are perpetrated in the name of religion, how are we to believe the Koran to be a book of peace and those who follow its teachings to be seekers of peace? The media present conflicting images of the Islamic world. Dr. Hasan was asked to come and help us sort fact from fiction.

On a personal note, this conference ends my second term with CUIC and The Book of Discipline requires I relinquish my duties as chairperson. It has been my great privilege to serve with the members of this commission as we sought the meaning of Christ's love in our relationships with other denominations and people of other faith. It has been an extraordinary experience and a joy to serve the members of my conference in this way.

THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

Report Number 1

Mission

The Commission on Equitable Compensation exists for the support of full-time clergy and students serving as pastors in the charges of the South Carolina Annual Conference. (See The Discipline, Par. 623.2: "It is the purpose of the commission on equitable compensation to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference by: (a) recommending conference standards for clergy support; (b) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to district superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations.") The Commission on Equitable Compensation supports the overall ministry of the local church, especially in situations in transition. The Commission on Equitable Compensation is the usual means whereby the Annual Conference supports a variety of local church missions through providing pastoral support which cannot be provided locally.

Total Compensation for Clergy

1. The Commission on Equitable Compensation reminds churches and charges that salary is only one portion of total compensation. Churches and charges are urged to consider dispersing compensation in ways that will assist clergy and their families to retain as great a portion of their income as is legally possible. Churches and charges are reminded to consider total compensation and not just think of salary when thinking of clergy family needs. Likewise, clergy are reminded that they are supported in a variety of ways, and total compensation most often exceeds salary.
2. Churches and pastors are urged to keep informed of their income tax responsibilities and rights. Pastors are advised to seek qualified assistance in making decisions that will affect their income tax liabilities.

A. MINIMUM BASE COMPENSATION SCALE

In accord with the mandate of the DISCIPLINE, the commission recommends that the South Carolina Annual Conference fix the following as its minimum base compensation scale, effective January 1, 2003, and continuing until changed by the Annual Conference. The Commission on Equitable Compensation requests that a line item apportionment of $150,000.00 be made to fund the base compensation support required and/or provided under these recommendations.

Please see sections "N." and "O." below, entitled "Reimbursement for Travel and Professional Expenses" and "Reimbursement as Administrative Cost."]

[Note that compensation may be allocated within these amounts by each church as it sees fit, but in no case should the total of "cash salary" plus "Tax-Deferred Annuity" fall below $21,945, for charges where a parsonage is provided and $27,431 for charges where no parsonage is provided, as per CPP, or the pastor risks losing CPP benefits.]

FOR STUDENT APPOINTMENTS:

Each person serving a local church student appointment as pastor shall receive the compensation for his or her category, proportional to the percentage of time serving in a pastoral charge. (i.e., One-half time service would receive one-half the Equitable Compensation for that person's category.) The percentage of time serving the charge shall be determined by the Cabinet.

FOR PERSONS ORDAINED AS DEACON SERVING IN A LOCAL CHURCH

Those persons who have responded to God's call to lead in service and to equip others for ministry through teaching, proclamation, and worship and who assist elders in the administration of the sacraments and are full-time ordained deacons in accordance with Paragraph 303.2 of The Book of Discipline 2000, shall be compensated by the local church not less than the minimum amount for an Ordained Elder of the Annual Conference in accordance with Paragraph 322.14(b) of The Book of Discipline 2000.

Persons who are on track to be ordained deacon but are not yet ordained shall not have a prescribed minimum salary.

Deacons who are employed by the congregation, charge, or cooperative parish less than full time shall be compensated proportional to the percentage of time being served. (Half time would receive not less than half the minimum salary.) Deacons not employed by a congregation, charge, cooperative ministry, or who are appointed under Paragraph 322.14(c) are not affected.

B. Experience Merit

A pastor who has served for 5 or more years in full time service, in the South Carolina Annual Conference, shall receive, in addition to the minimum base, a supplement of $175.00 per year of service for up to 10 years of service.

Example:

Year 5:	Equitable Compensation base plus $875.00;
Year 6:	Equitable Compensation base plus $1050.00;
Year 7:	Equitable Compensation base plus $1225.00;
Year 8:	Equitable Compensation base plus $1400.00;
Year 9:	Equitable Compensation base plus $1575.00;
Years 10+:	Equitable Compensation base plus $1750.00.

C. Housing Allowances

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that all money given to the pastor for housing by the charge he/she serves be considered income if the pastor is not a resident in the charge which he/she serves.

D. Application for Equitable Compensation Support

The District Superintendent shall request the base compensation assistance required by each charge, which must be approved by the Commission on Equitable Compensation before payment can be made. This request from the District Superintendent shall be accompanied by an application form provided by the Commission on Equitable Compensation and completed by the pastor, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, and the District Superintendent, indicating income from all sources.

E. Cross Racial Appointments

If the Bishop and Cabinet, in making a cross-racial appointment, find it necessary to request equitable compensation supplement, special consideration will be given on an individual basis. Guidelines under Section G. (Missional Situations) will apply.

F. Cooperative Parish Ministries

Directors or Coordinators of Cooperative Parish ministries which have been approved by the Board of Global Ministries, and application made by the District Superintendent to the Commission on Equitable Compensation by January 1 preceding the appointment in June of the same year may be eligible for funds not to exceed $7,000.00. No pastor shall be eligible to receive funds unless the charge he/she serves agrees in writing to release him/her for these added duties. Assistance will be provided over a 4-1/2 year period and will decrease by 25% each year after the first year and a half.

G. Missional Situations

Missional Situations are when areas - rural, inner city, transitional or engulfed neighborhoods, or areas where new churches are organized, demand an effective ministry but are not capable of providing such ministries without Equitable Compensation assistance. To be eligible for Equitable Compensation assistance the following procedure must be followed:

1. The District Board for Congregational Development shall be the authorizing body to project a new missional situation.
2. The District Board for Congregational Development will refer this to the Conference Committee on Congregational Development for verification that it is indeed a missional situation, and its priority rank among conference needs.
3. It will then be referred to the Cabinet for approval. The Cabinet will then designate a pastor with at least 4 years experience and request an appropriate base compensation for that particular missional situation.
4. Each missional situation will be reevaluated annually by December 31st each year.
5. Each step of the above procedure must be documented in writing to the Commission on Equitable Compensation by January 1st.

Other provisions:

If known at the time, the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation of a potential missional situation a year ahead of the time it is expected to be effected. In all cases where a new missional situation is to be effected, the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation by January 1st preceding the Annual Conference at which an appointment is to be made providing, at that time, the projected base compensation cost to be incurred in June.

Decreasing Support: Equitable Compensation assistance will be provided over a 4-1/2 year period decreasing 25% each year after the first year and a half as follows:

First Year and a Half: The amount of Equitable Compensation support will be according to the pastor's category.

Special Note: The District Superintendent may apply to the Cabinet for a compensation that is more in keeping with the amount received by this pastor in his or her previous appointment.

After One and A Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by one-fourth.

After Two and A Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another fourth.

After Three and A Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another fourth.

After Four and A Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will cease.

After the first year and a half, an annual "cost of living" increase will be added at the beginning of each calendar year to the amounts paid from the Equitable Compensation Fund in missional situations. For the year 2003, the Commission has determined a "cost of living increase of three percent (3.0%)."

Equitable Compensation funds will not be used for moving expenses, business expense, or church administration.

Note 1. The local church's share of this base compensation schedule is interpreted to mean all sources of income from the local church or from any other source.

Note 2. In all cases where a missional situation is attached to an existing charge, these become charge figures.

New Church Travel: The Commission on Equitable Compensation will provide travel allowance for new church pastors at the following rates:

First year and a half: up to $4,000.00 annually

Second full year: up to $3,000.00 annually

Third full year: up to $2,000.00 annually

Fourth full year: up to $1,000.00 annually

H. Disbursement

Equitable Compensation Funds shall be disbursed monthly, and shall be given only to the pastor involved.

I. Utilities Allowance

The Commission on Equitable Compensation requests that the South Carolina Conference designate 15% (or estimate of actual expenses as requested by recipient) of base compensation support funded by this commission as parsonage utilities allowance. This request is made to satisfy the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service.

J. Investment of Reserve Fund

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that all funds held in "reserve" be invested.

K. Interpretation

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that an interpretation of its task and policy procedures be given as a part of the District Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee Workshops. It is further recommended that this interpretation be done by a member of the Commission upon invitation by the District Superintendent.

L. Compensation Guidance

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that District Superintendents assist churches and charges in setting appropriate compensation and work load packages in accordance with Paragraph 423.3 of The Book of Discipline 2000.

M. Ineligibility

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that the following not be eligible for Equitable Compensation support:

1. Retired supplies;
2. Part-time local pastors;
3. Pastors on leave of absence except as provided in Standing Rule 98;
4. Special appointment categories within the itinerary of The United Methodist Church as defined in Paragraph 335.1. a, b, c of the The Book of Discipline 2000.
5. Deacons as defined in Paragraph 303.2 of The Book of Discipline 2000.

N. Reimbursement for Travel and Professional Expenses

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that each church set up a reimbursement account for travel and professional expenses incurred by the pastor in performing pastoral duties. Reimbursement for non-commuting church-related travel shall be at the IRS rate (currently 36.5 per mile). The pastor(s) shall submit a voucher and a log each month for reimbursement. For reimbursement for actual professional expenses (books, subscriptions, periodicals, etc.) the pastor(s) shall submit a voucher with supporting documentation for reimbursement. The amount set by the charge as reimbursement for travel and professional expenses should be determined after consultation with the pastor(s) (and the District Superintendent, if desired or needed) by the Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee. Each charge should annually evaluate the local needs and expectations of its pastor(s) and set an amount for reimbursement accordingly. Also, the procedures for reimbursement should be clearly stated.

O. Reimbursement as Administrative Cost

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that the reimbursement for travel and professional expenses be a part of the administrative cost of each local church and not considered or reported as part of the pastor's compensation.

P. Vacation Policy

The commission reminds churches and ministers that vacation time plus time for renewal and reflection are an expected part of compensation. Time away is necessary for personal, spiritual, and family health. It is recommended that all ordained ministers and diaconal ministers be granted, as a minimum, annual vacation and days of renewal according to the following schedule:

Years of Service	Number of Weeks
Less than 5 years	A minimum of 2 (including Sundays)
5 years - 10 years	A minimum of 3 (including Sundays)
More than 10 years	A minimum of 4 (including Sundays)

(In addition to the above it is recommended that the minister, regardless of years of service, be granted one day of retreat a month for prayer and reflection. Also, it is expected that the minister will have at least one day off a week.)

"Years of Service" reflect number of years under appointment in the ministry of the United Methodist Church, and not the number of years of service on a given charge.

"Vacation" is meant as freedom from any responsibility in the local church or charge, district, conference area, jurisdiction, or general conference. Vacation should be a time of rest, recreation, and renewal. It should not be interpreted to mean time the pastor works at a church camp, is on a mission trip, a meeting of a general board, an agency of the conference, or a district retreat. Time away from the charge for Annual Conference and continuing education events shall not be considered vacation time.

The charge shall make available as necessary the funds for pulpit supply while the pastor is on vacation.

It is asked that the Lay Member of the Annual Conference communicate this information to the Pastor/Staff Relations Committee and to the local church.

THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

Like the General Commission on Religion and Race, the South Carolina Conference on Religion and Race challenges the conference agencies, institutions, and connectional structures to a full and equal participation of the racial and ethnic constituency in the total life and mission of the Church through advocacy and by reviewing and monitoring the practices of the South Carolina Conference so as to further ensure racial inclusiveness.

The Barbara Boultinghouse Bridge Builder Memorial Award – This commission, along with COSROW, sponsored the Barbara Boultinghouse Bridge Builder Memorial Award. This award recognizes persons or organizations who have built bridges of understanding by promoting equity and inclusiveness for all persons without regard to race, gender, age, handicap, or economic conditions. This year the award was presented to the Rev. Jack C. Washington, Associate Director of the Outreach and Witness Area for the South Carolina Conference Council on Ministries.

The Joseph Benjamin Bethea Distinguished Service Award – This non-monetary award is presented to a member (laity or clergy) of The United Methodist Church who possesses a strong Christian social justice commitment for at least five years preceding the nomination, unless the individual is a youth.

There must be specific efforts toward the elimination of racism and/or building inclusiveness and/or empowerment for racial ethnic minority persons.

Nominees should have been recognized by the CCORR at Annual Conference, but would have been selected by the GCORR at their annual meeting in the fall; however, there were no nominees this year.

Project Equality will monitor the twelve district offices in April. The commission will apprise the conference of the results and recommendations when the process is completed.

Youth Summit on Inclusiveness – A youth summit for racial inclusiveness was held at Claflin University on June 9-10 where they engaged in open and honest dialogue to promote understanding and respect between races. They were encouraged to work for peace and justice in their own communities and churches.

This year's theme for the more than 300 youth who attended was "Make Me An Instrument Of Thy Peace."

Special music was rendered by the Epworth Children's Home Ensemble. The panel discussion was led by Ms. Constance Terrance, the Rev. Sonia Ortigoza, and the Rev. J. Michael Smith.

Conference Training on Empowerment – The theme for this event that was held at Wesley United Methodist Church in Columbia on June 23rd was "Empowering Ethnic Persons for Conference Leadership."

The keynote speaker was Dr. Chester R. Jones, General Secretary, General Commission on Religion and Race.

Two workshops were presented, "Steps Toward Empowerment and Wholeness", and "Steps Toward Reconciliation and Wholeness." The workshop leaders were the Rev. James E. Taylor and Ms. Erin M. Hawkins, Associate General Secretaries, General Commission on Religion and Race.

Members of this commission worked on task forces with other boards/agencies to promote and develop programs of racial inclusiveness. One member served on a task force with the Conference Board of Church and Society to plan and implement the event, "Celebrating Our Diversity", that was held at The Township Auditorium in Columbia on July 28th.

Building an inclusive Church is a part of the ministry of the commission in South Carolina. We are still in the process of establishing bridges among the racial, ethnic, and cultural groups to accept differences and to receive each other's gifts as an integral part of our spiritual growth so that we can truly become One.

THE COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The Commission of the Status and Role of Women (COSROW) continues to seek ways to be advocates for women and celebrate the contributions of women to the United Methodist Church. As a joint project with the Committee of Religion and Race and COSROW the Barbara Boultinghouse Award is given each year. It is given to individuals who have built or are building bridges of understanding across racial and gender lines. This year the award was given to the Rev. Jack C. Washington at Annual Conference of 2001. Along with the bridge builder award the COSROW prepares a guide for Woman in the Pulpit Sunday. The theme for 2002 was "Telling Our Story: Women in Ministry". An excellent lead article, chronicling the history of women in ministry in South Carolina, was written by Beth Burgess Drennan. A feature "Women Share Their Call" was written by several women clergy members, Full Deacons and Elders, of the South Carolina Conference. The newsletter for Women in the Pulpit Sunday was printed and mailed to the pastors and lay members from each church.

THE COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

Although the Commission of Worship continues to place major emphasis of offering Worship Training Workshops in coordination with the various Christian Leadership Orientations held in each district, we were elated in 2001 over the number of requests received to offer workshops in the local churches. Ushers, stewards, acolytes, and other persons participating in worship services are more concerned today about the way they carry out their various responsibilities. The commission members are filling the requests as they come in to us. We continue to stress our willingness to offer training wherever it is needed. We were privileged this year to offer training in the Laity Convocation.

Along with the training, the commission continues to make printed materials available to help educate local congregations in the worship area. The following resources are available in the Nurture Section of the conference Council on Ministries: Worship Nuts and Bolts, The Love Feast, the Hanging of the Greens, and A Directory of Speakers, Resource Persons in Music and the Other Arts in South Carolina.

The commission has purchased communion chalices and other supplies to enhance the various worship services, which are held each year at Annual Conference.

One of the commission's primary responsibilities is to plan, coordinate, and carry out worship services for Annual Conference. Among the services for 2001 were the Memorial/Communion Service, the Early Morning Communion Services, and the Love Feast. Many lay and clergy members of the Conference help to make these services successful. Leadership in these services represents the rich diversity of the United Methodist Church. The members of the commission suggest and select many of the musicians, choirs, song leaders, and other participants for the services. We always appreciate volunteers.

Another strong program emphasis of the Commission on Worship is our shared partnership with the Fellowship of United Methodist in Worship, Music, and the other Arts, which is held in February of each Year.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Committee on the Annual Conference recommends that Wofford College be the site of the 2003 session of the Annual Conference.

Election of the delegates to the 2004 General Conference to be held in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania will take place next year, so the session will be extended by one day. The resident bishop has set May 25 - 29, 2003, the optimum time for the session, given the schedule of Wofford College, as the dates for the 2003 session of the South Carolina Annual Conference. The 2002 session must approve the site.

Dr. C.J. Lupo, Jr. has been designated as the preacher for the Memorial Communion Service at 7:00 PM, Sunday, May 26, 2002 in Tullis Arena of the Jonas Kennedy Center on the Claflin University. Bishop McCleskey will be the preacher for the Ordination/Consecration Service at 7:00 PM, Tuesday, May 28th. The Bible Study leader at 8:30 AM, Tuesday and Wednesday mornings will be Bishop Marshall L. Meadors.

We will celebrate what United Methodists are doing in South Carolina during the session Monday Evening, May 27th. There is Good News and United Methodists share it with Open Doors, Open Hearts, Open Minds. Some creative, diverse ways of sharing our faith and being Christ's Church will be featured Monday evening. Wednesday morning, the Commission on Archives and History will remind us of a South Carolinian's influence on Texas Methodism, Francis Asbury Mood.

On behalf of lay and clergy members of the Annual Conference, the Committee wishes to express gratitude to President Henry Tisdale, Mr. Spencer Anderson and the staff of Claflin University, The Rev. Angelin Jones Simmons, Mrs. Kathryn W. Scarborough, and numerous Orangeburg District volunteers for their hospitality and hard work cheerfully provided.

*J. Lawrence McCleskey, Chairperson
Delos Corderman, Secretary*

THE CONFERENCE STAFF RELATIONS COMMITTEE

The committee has met quarterly during the past year in fulfillment of its defined responsibilities:

- conversation with staff accountable to the committee;
- submission of budget requests for 2003 in accordance with requirements and schedules of the Council on Finance and Administration;
- establishment of compensation for 2002 in accordance with budget parameters set by the annual conference;
- ongoing discussion of conference staffing needs and possibilities for most effectively meeting those needs;
- work towards the establishment of salary ranges for various conference staff positions;
- distribution of a revised employment manual for conference staff and district offices.

The committee has in place processes for responding to personnel changes.

J. Lawrence McCleskey, Chair

THE COMMITTEE ON CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Report No. 1

Through the organizational change at the 2001 annual conference the Commission on Congregational Development is in position to work more closely with the bishop and his cabinet enabling churches across S.C. to become a healthy church in their local community. With this in mind, the Commission on Congregational Development has adopted a tool to begin this process in what is called "The Academy for Church Growth."

ACADEMY FOR CHURCH GROWTH

Purpose: To provide training and support for pastors and lay members in new and existing churches with a focus on becoming a New Vision Congregation.

Participants: Selected pastors who are serving a new church situation, or are committed to being appointed to start a new church, or serving an existing church seeking a new vision.

Lay members who are members of new congregations or churches seeking new vision, accompanied by their pastor in this training process

Format: Year One - Pastors will meet quarterly in a retreat setting. The first and third quarter meetings will be for two nights; the second and fourth quarter will meet one night. Years two and three - Pastors will be joined by lay members from their pastorates.

Subjects: Ministry In a Changing Culture, Assessing Change and Making Transitions, Using Percept and Other Demographic Information Effectively, Marketing the Church, Personal Spiritual Growth, Worship For the Unchurched, Physical and Mental Health, Organizing for Effective Mission and Ministry, and other topics as deem appropriate.

Selection: Participants will be selected based on their gifts and passion for the special type of ministry. The Director of the Commission on Congregational Development will invite them after consultation with their District Superintendent. Participants must covenant to participate for a period of three years. In addition to the Academy events, participants will attend a least one School of Congregational Development or Duke Divinity School New Church Pastors Institute. Other school may be substituted with consent of the Director.

Cost: Participants will pay a $300.00 registration fee. They will be responsible for their travel to and from events, and may be on their own for some meals during events.

Administration: An Advisory Council for the Academy will be comprised from members of the New Church and Reformation Tasks Forces, plus two New Church pastors and two New Vision Church pastors and/or members. The Commission Director shall serve as the Director of the Academy.

Report No. 3

Every congregation in our conference now has access to Percept's Link2Lead website (www.link2lead.com). We encourage you to take advantage on this information about your community. The material will be very helpful as your continue your present ministry and develop new ministry goals. Other helpful tools such as Ministry Area Profile and Re-Vision, may be ordered through the Office of Congregational Development.

Please note that The Commission on Congregational Development has adopted at Annual Conference one (1) funding cycle per year. Churches seeking financial assistance should submit their application on or before February 15th. Application forms and instructions for completion are available through the Office of Congregational Development, located in the United Methodist Center.

Again, I thank God for your support of the ministry of this commission. May the presence of God be with you, your family and your local congregation in the anointed name of Christ our Lord.

DISASTER RESPONSE COMMITTEE

"The greater the preparation - The closer the destination"

We do not need to be convinced about the urgency of disaster preparedness.

After the September 11, 2001 attacks on the World Trade Center, the Pentagon in Washington, D.C., and other places throughout the country, we cannot take our response strategies for granted. With the possibility of terrorism and biochemical attacks, we are challenged to approach preparedness with ever-greater urgency.

One of the main concerns of preparedness is organization. Who is the Disaster Response chairperson in your local church, or your district? It is absolutely necessary that key persons be in place for every local church and district. These individuals will initiate and enable rescue and recovery plans for your area. Is there a recovery plan for your church and district? These are basic questions that must be answered NOW! With grassroots organization in place, the conference and General Church will be better able to aid you in recovery.

We have seen the great work that our General Church has done in recovery efforts in the wake of 9-11 due to its organizational plans. In response to 9-11, UMCOR is still working with churches in the New York and New Jersey annual conferences, providing listening ears, economic support, and pastoral care in designated areas.

UMCOR consultants have provided workshops around the country to address the needs of children and youth following trauma. Because 9-11 is an Unprecedented crisis, UMCOR's response will continue to be developed and explained as the needs become evident. Counseling and case management assistance for persons suffering from economic loss will be available when and if needed. Counseling and support for pastors in parts of New York, New Jersey, Virginia, and the Baltimore-Washington conferences will be provided as the need is necessary.

Gifts may be made to UMCOR Advance # 901125-3 "Love in the Midst of Tragedy". These gifts will be used for recovery from 9-11 tragedies, for the people of Afghanistan, and for other critical situations that may develop as a result of these attacks. Gifts may be made through the local United Methodist Church or by calling (800) 554-8583.

Please mark August 22, 2002 on your calendar. This is the date of your next Conference Disaster Response training and meeting. This will be the time that we will seek to strengthen our preparedness piece on the conference level, which will filter down to the district and local levels.

Let us be ever mindful of the "One Great Hour of Sharing" observances and offering in March of each year. Each local church is to lift an offering on this special day. Our donations to the One Great Hour of Sharing make it possible for UMCOR to respond immediately when disaster strikes (before other offerings can arrive).

I am indeed greatly appreciative for the opportunity to be a part of UMCOR. I was privileged to minister in the New York area, witnessing firsthand the horror and pain that resulted from 9-11. In spite of the horrific disaster, and in spite of the test of our strength in dealing with its aftermath, I believe that God is working (and will continue to work) through our church "to make a way out of no way".

Terrorist hijackers may have leveled devastating blows in their attacks against innocent people, but they will never succeed against God's people. Defeat will never have the last word for the people of God. Through the collective efforts of our churches, we demonstrate that God restores and rebuilds lives. "The greater the preparation, the closer the destination."

Lee C. Bines, Chairperson

THE COMMITTEE ON THE EPISCOPACY

These have been some trying times for our church. The horrific disaster of September 11, 2001 has been etched into our memories forever. We are grateful for the great pastoral leadership given by Bishop McCleskey to our conference, especially during the weeks and months following 9-11. Visits to our districts by Bishop and Mrs. McCleskey for the Bishop's teaching days, were indeed special pastoral blessings in light of the September 11 disaster.

We continue to be encouraged by Bishop McCleskey's outreach ministry within our conference and with other denominations. Further, we are inspired and challenged by the Bishop's strong global ministry that is demonstrated by his goals for the Children of Africa and for Africa University.

"...Jesus said to him a third time, 'Simon, Son of John, do you love me?' ...and he said to Jesus, 'Lord, You know I love you'. Jesus said to him, 'Tend my sheep'." (John 21:15)

Let us continue to embrace Bishop and Mrs. McCleskey as they continue to embrace the ministry of our church on the local, district, conference, and global levels.

Lee C. Bines, Chairperson

THE ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS COMMITTEE

The Conference Council on Ministries is the proprietor of the Ethnic Local Church Concerns (ELCC) Committee of the South Carolina Annual Conference. ELCC is responsible for developing, stimulating, enhancing, and supporting ethnic congregations and leadership for mission and outreach in South Carolina. Through TEACH the ELCC Committee seeks to meet three primary tasks: 1) to enable the incorporation of the work and concerns of the ethnic church into the total program of the Church; 2) to assist in the development and implementation of the conference's Comprehensive Plan for the continued development and strengthening of the ethnic local church; and 3) to develop criteria for evaluating racial/ethnic projects and programs within the conference and for reporting on its work to the Conference Council on Ministries. TEACH is an acronym that stands for Train, Educate, Affirm, Communicate, and Heal. And how shall ELCC TEACH?

TRAIN

- at least one person per year in each district in methods for correctly completing the ELCC Grant Application form. These persons will be available to guide congregations, caucus groups, and others as they prepare their grant applications; thereby, increasing the pool of fundable applications.
- through the Granville A. Hicks Lecture Academy, which is a collaborative effort of the African-American Task Force, BMCR, and Claflin University. The caliber of keynote speakers has been superb and the supporting workshops-enriching.
- through the financial support for local congregation leadership to attend classes of study such as Disciple, Witness, Christian Believer, or other programs that prepare persons for ministries of evangelism or supportive care in times of crises.

EDUCATE

- United Methodist congregations about the potential use of ELCC for supporting programs and ministries in ethnic churches both for short-term and long-term courses of study or outreach ministries, or ministries of nurture such as DISCIPLE BIBLE STUDY, WITNESS, COMPANION, CHRISTIAN BELIEVER, and other courses of study for shorter periods of time.

- through the replication of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Black Methodists for Church Renewal, Inc., Laity/Clergy Leadership Academy Training on a semi-annual basis.
- through the use of tri-district gatherings for information sharing and gathering.

AFFIRM

- by offering an award of excellence in ministry that coincides with the purposes and ideals of the ELCC Committee
- by supporting the task forces (African-American, Hispanic, Korean) and committee (Native American) of the annual conference.
- By supporting the efforts of Black Methodists for Church Renewal, Inc. (BMCR) at the state, jurisdiction and national levels.
- By supporting the advocacy of and working collaboratively with the Commission on Religion & Race (CORR), the Board of Church and Society, the Commission on the Status and Roll of Women (COSROW), and Pastoral Care and Counseling (PC&C).
- By supporting the ministry groups of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Administrative Council (SEJAC) and by providing financial support to the Southeastern Jurisdiction Agency for Native American Ministries (SEJANAM).

COMMUNICATE

- Through the use of brochures, the report to annual conference, and through occasional articles in the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate newspaper.
- Through the establishment and maintenance of Internet web site for ELCC to assist the process of sharing information with churches and receiving information from churches or individuals.
- Through the encouragement of local congregations and individuals to express the needs for ministries among ethnic people as they perceive them.
- Through task force/committee programs and learning opportunities.

HEAL

- By striving to build relationships that build trust, understanding, forgiveness, and respect through the support of Youth Annual Conference (YAC), the Commission on Religion & Race Youth Summit on Inclusiveness, Salkahatchee Summer Service, the SEJ BMCR Harambee, SEJ ELCC and SEJ CORR convocation, and through other opportunities that seek to heal.
- By being in dialogue with our all of God's creation and lifting Jesus as our example of love.

The ELCC Committee continues to seek to be responsible stewards of the funds it receives from the Annual Conference. With a Council on Ministries support budget of $100,000, we are now funded at 100% of the total budget for 2002 only. It is our dream that one day, the Conference will see the need and fund ELCC's budget at 100% permanently.

ELCC has three ethnic task forces and a committee, that relates to the ELCC Committee and provides leadership in our Annual Conference. The three task forces and the committee include: the African-American Task Force (Ms. Mamie Lynah, Chair), Korean-American (the Reverend Hyo Shik Kim and The Reverend Do Bum Huh, Co-Chairs), Hispanic (Rev. Cy Rogers, Chair), and the Native American Committee (Mr. Tracy Pender, Chair). Each task force and the committee is given $2,500, from the $100,000 to cover committee meetings, sub-committee meetings and travel expenses. This leaves the ELCC Committee with $90,000 for support of ethnic ministries.

From the remaining $90,000 funds have been designated for the following:

- Support for 5 ethnic laypersons and 5 ethnic clergy (at $400 each) to attend the Southeastern Jurisdiction BMCR Laity/Clergy Leadership Academy or SEJ BMCR's

Annual Meeting. Persons attending SEJ BMCR shall put their learned knowledge to us by leading workshops at the Laity/Clergy Leadership Training Academy sponsored in the fall of the year through the ELCC Committee. Failure to provide some type of leadership training shall be grounds for ELCC funds to be reimbursed to the Conference. Support in the amount of $4,000 shall be set aside for this event annually.

- Support for 50 ethnic youth in the amount of $200 each (each district represented, if possible) to attend SEJ BMCR Harambee. Youth attending are asked to provide the ELCC Committee with a written report and to share with their local congregations the knowledge they gained from the experience. Failure to provide written reports and share with local congregations shall be grounds for disqualification for future funding opportunities. Support in the amount of $ 10,000 shall be set aside for this event annually.
- Support for 50 ethnic youth to attend the SC Youth Annual Conference (each receiving $100). ELCC committed itself to provide scholarships for ethnic youth across South Carolina to attend Youth Annual Conference (with no more than 4 awards from a church). It is the desire of the Committee to have the youth gain a broader knowledge of the Church and establish Christian fellowship and relationships with other Christian youth from across the conference. Support in the amount of $5,000.00 shall be set-aside for this event annually.
- Support of the Granville A. Hicks Lecture Academy has been requested through the African-American Task Force and accepted by the ELCC Committee. Hence, ELCC will be committed on an annual basis to provide financial support for the Granville A. Hick Laity/Clergy Leadership Academy held at Claflin University. Support in the amount of $2,000 shall be set aside for this event annually.
- Support of the Hispanic Missionary, Sonia Origoza, has been requested through the Hispanic Task Force and accepted by the ELCC Committee. Hence, is committed to this wonderfully new and exciting ministry opportunity and partnership. Support in the amount of $3,000 shall be set-aside annually for the Hispanic Missionary's use.
- Support of the Native American Missionary in SC, Millard Lowery, Jr., has been accepted by the ELCC Committee. Support in the amount of $3,000 shall be set-aside annually for the Native American Missionary's use.
- Support of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Native American Ministries has been requested by the Native American Committee and accepted by the ELCC Committee. Support in the amount of $2,000 shall be set-aside annually for the SEJNAM program assessment.
- Support has been set-aside for the Korean and Hispanic Task Forces at the same level of funding ($2,000 each) as the African-American Task Force for programs they desire to support. Support in the amount of $4,000 will be set aside annually.

The Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee has also set aside $3,000 annually to cover the expense of updating our publications, web site fees, postage and mailings, and any other unforeseen expenses. This leaves a balance of $54,000 for the ELCC Committee to fund grants to local churches, caucus groups, campus ministries, and other organizations that properly complete the application and meet the funding guidelines. No one group can receive funding for more than 4 funding cycles.

The Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee received numerous funding requests. Below is a summary of the grants approved during the 2001-02 funding cycle - April 2001, August 2001 and January 2002.

ELCC Committee Highlights:

The ELCC Committee was proud to have a banner in the processional at Annual Conference. This was the first ever banner to represent all ethnic groups in the conference. We were also delighted to have brochures disseminated at conference that lifted the work of the ELCC Committee, the Hispanic Task Force and the Native American Committee. It is our goal to have this critical interpretative piece available for all the task forces and committee by the 2003 Session of Annual Conference.

The ELCC Committee came together after annual conference at a joint planning meeting in July and decided that our goals for the year would include (1) organization, (2) strengthen our work, and (3) prepare for annual conference. We decided to use the Funding Facts book as a guide to help create a resource piece for ELCC which will explain why ELCC meets, its purpose, the purpose of the three task forces and the one committee, and how all work together to compliment and enhance the work of the conference. We continue to work on this resource piece.

The decision by the ELCC Committee to meet three times a year, instead of two, has proven to be very beneficial. Our ELCC Committee application deadlines are: August 1, January 15, and April 13 of every year. The Funding Committee has established funding guideline. The ELCC Committee Grant Application Funding Criteria and Application Process is as follows:

The SC Conference Council on Ministries Ethnic Local Church Concerns (ELCC) Grant Application Funding Criteria and Application Process

(NOTE: WE DO NOT FUND SALARIES, EQUIPMENT OR TRAVEL.)

Application Deadline Dates: January 15, April 13, and August 1 of every year.

The Conference Ethnic Local Church Concerns (ELCC) Committee has developed criteria for funding that are congruent with the goals of the Annual Conference and with the Conference Comprehensive Plan for the Ethnic Local Church.

The ELCC Committee places a high emphasis on programs, which develop and strengthen the Ethnic Local Church. Hence, the Committee also places its highest priority on requests for funds for programming and outreach ministries.

FUNDING CRITERIA (We strongly suggest that you check with your district's ELCC Grant Writer for assistance in processing a successful grant application. See the back of this sheet for a list of names.)

- All applications must be on the OFFICIAL GRANT FORM. NO PHOTOCOPIES ACCEPTED.
- All applications must have a paragraph stating how the proposed project relates to the Annual Conference Comprehensive Plan (effective after the 2002 Annual Conference) for Ethnic Local Churches.
- All applications must include a detailed copy of the church's or organization's current budget.
- All applications must include (on a separate sheet of paper) responses to Part VI, Sections A-E.
- All applications must include a detailed copy of the project/program's budget. (No assumptions will be made about food costs or any other item/category that is not clearly specified.) The Funding Committee and the Full Committee of ELCC will consider only information listed and not inferred.
- All project/program applications must have a layperson as director. (Exceptions: BMCR, SC African American Clergywomen, District COM Requests, and Cabinet Requests)
- The project/program director must endorse all applications.
- All certifications and proper signatures must be secured for funding approval.
- The District Superintendent must consider and approve the request.
- All applications submitted by agencies and caucus groups must be signed by the chairperson/director and contain all the requested information found above.
- All applicants must have a Progress Report Form on file for funds received from a previous funding award.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Any application received in the Conference Council on Ministries (CCOM) office after the deadline dates (see top of sheet) will not be considered and will be returned to the sender.

The Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee will only consider those applications that have been properly completed, on the "official" grant application form, and have been endorsed by all required persons.

Applications MUST be mailed to the following address:

Conference Council on Ministries
The ELCC Funding Committee
4908 Colonial Drive, Suite 101,
Columbia, SC 29203

Any application mailed to a different address and is not received in the CCOM office by the application deadline will not be considered and will be returned to the sender.

ACCOUNTABILITY

Churches, agencies, and caucus groups receiving funding MUST keep a strict account of how ELCC Grant Funds are used. They MUST also SUBMIT a PROGRESS REPORT FORM within six (6) months of the receipt of the grant award. Failure to do so will result in the church, agency, or caucus group not being eligible for future funding.

All Task Forces and the Committee are to meet four (4) times a year as a full committee. There may be called meetings to deal with urgent matters. Called meetings are handled in conjunction with the CCOM Resource Staff and the ELCC Committee Chairperson.

Tenure criteria were established. The Chairperson, Vice Chairperson and Secretary of the ELCC Committee are now elected for the Quadrennium. The Task Forces' and the Committee's Chair, Vice Chairperson and Secretary are now elected Quadrennially or as need to fill a vacant position. Standing Rule #42, of the 2000 SC Annual Conference Journal, is to be followed for all the Task Forces and the Committee. All members of the Task Forces and the Committee as well as all ELCC Committee members shall notify the Conference Office of non-attendance in order to receive an excused absence. The message should be left with the Administrative Assistant to the Council Director.

The ELCC Committee continues to lift ways in which we as an Annual Conference can "Celebrate our Diversity". Last year, the suggestion was made to build themes around the different ministries in SC during this Quadrennium. The suggestions included:

2001: Hispanics/Latinos (very successful)

2002: Native American

2004: African-Americans

Although our foci is shared during the early morning worship service on Wednesday morning, we celebrate the opportunity we had in 2001 to share the Hispanic/Latino worship experience. It was a wonderful way to celebrate our diversity that by singing the songs of Zion and hearing the spoken word in the cultural richness of the Hispanic/Latinos, African-Americans and Anglos working together. At the 2002 Annual Conference will celebrate Native American worship. The ELCC Committee continues to advocate for the day when these cultural worship traditions will be incorporated into the regular worship service of the conference. There by allowing more constituents an opportunity to experience God's magnificence and his grace as His children of color share the melodious music and soul-stirring word that is lifted to The Master everyday.

The ELCC Committee continues to assist and celebrate the work of The Reverend Sonia Ortigoza, SC Hispanic Missionary, and Millard Lowry, Jr., SC Native American Missionary. God has truly richly blessed us, and we need to share His blessing with as many as we possibly can. The Annual Conference is a great venue.

Although the ELCC Committee voted to start holding some of its meetings at sites that have received funding from the ELCC Committee, this has proven to be difficult to schedule. The ELCC Committee will continue to strive for opportunities where the full committee can participate in a site visit for personal interaction and project/program inspection.

ELCC held a training session last September to train grant writers from across the districts in the technique of writing successful ELCC grant applications. Although we sought very diligently to get a layperson and a clergy person from each district, we were not successful. But we praise God for those that we were able to train. Those trained include:

The ELCC Committee affirms and celebrates the commitment of these trained persons. We feel that they will prove to be a beneficial resource for those writing grants. The grant writers are willing to peruse the application and make sure that it meets the funding criteria. Should a grant writer not be available in your area, the ELCC Committee members are always available to assist.

The ELCC Committee has built upon the work performed last year. It has taken the revised the grant application and funding criteria and put them together in a self-managed application packet. No longer will you get bits and pieces of the required paper work. The new application packet has been mailed to every district office.

The Comprehensive Plan sub-committee worked many long and tedious hours trying to put into place an Annual Conference Comprehensive Plan. This plan is in no way perfected. There will be continued revisions in an effort to perfect the plan and to keep it current and relevant to ethnic ministries in the South Carolina Annual Conference.

The ELCC Committee continues to attempt to provide financial support for the task forces/committee for the production of brochures and program support. One site visit was made this year to ARCH Ministries at Arcadia United Methodist Church on the Spartanburg District. This was a very fruitful visit. We saw a much needed Hispanic Tutorial Program. The program serves approximately 35 children. However, with the closing of industries and with the ageing of the church congregation, this program may not be able to continue. The ELCC Committee along with the Conference Hispanic Missionary and others in the Arcadia community is working to keep this program alive. We note that we must not establish programs in haste just to have a program. We must be sensitive to the needs of those whom we hope to serve.

The ELCC Committee has established a sub-committee to continue the pursuance of establishing Congregational Resource Centers within South Carolina to better meet the needs of small membership churches. The ELCC Committee found that there is a need for a focus on programming of rural and urban settings of small churches. It was noted that there are no Congregational Resource Centers housed in a small rural church. We hope to have this ministry finalized by 2003.

And finally, The ELCC Committee was the recipient of a beautiful electric organ. The organ was donated by Dr. Clyde S. Gorsuch and his youngest daughter, Megan, in memory of his wife, Lois, who died of cancer. They are active members of Clemson United Methodist Church. Through this blessed donation, the ELCC Committee was able to provide our most recent Native American Mission Church, Rocky Swamp, with an electric organ. We give thanks to God for the Gorsuch's spirit of giving and encourage others to consider making such donations to ethnic ministries across South Carolina.

TASK FORCE/COMMITTEE HIGHLIGHTS

African-American Task Force

The African-American Task Force (AATF), under the leadership of Ms. Mamie Lynah, continues to strive to promote the General Conference initiative of Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century. AATF is presently encouraging leadership development for both clergy and laity in the conference. AATF also works with Claflin University in sponsoring the Granville A. Hicks Lecture Academy each year. And the African-American Task Force has been strategically working on the Comprehensive Plan to insure that African-Americans in the SC Conference are represented on boards, committees, commissions, and agencies. The African-American Task Force will be hosting a Laity/Clergy Leadership Academy Training event August 23-24, 2002 in Columbia. Moreover, the task force also seeks to ensure the foci of church facility needs across the conference as well as the need for program resources and the education of church constituency on the structure and polity of The United Methodist Church.

Hispanic Task Force

The South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church has committed itself to address the spiritual, emotional, and social needs of a growing Hispanic presence in our state. In mission and ministry, this Conference is reaching to the oppressed and poor to welcome them as partners in the United Methodist community of faith.

Brought together by one language, Hispanics in the United States represent 21 different nationalities. Coming from many backgrounds and cultures, these partners in the American dream remind us of our own ancestors as they came to this country to escape political and religious oppression as well as to share in the economic opportunities found here. As were our forefathers and mothers, this new segment of the American melting pot seeks after opportunity and freedom. In understanding them, we will come to a better understanding of all those who now call our land home.

Therefore, it is with great hope that ministry continues to be strengthened and developed within our state. These ministries include:

- The strengthening of existing mission centers throughout the state.
- The recruiting and training of lay missionaries and clergy mentors. In February and March of 2001, more than 20 United Methodists participated in the Module I training. This program, offered as part of the National Hispanic Plan by the Board of Global Missions, has prepared United Methodists in all parts of our state for more effective ministry with the Hispanic Community.
- The establishment of faith communities and the encouragement of Hispanic leadership.
- The Support of the Advance Special #543 for Hispanic Ministries in the South Carolina Annual Conference.
- The continued financial support for the Hispanic Missionary position within the conference when the 3-year funding period is up from the General Board of Global Ministries.
- The continued meeting of the Hispanic Task Force of the South Carolina Annual Conference.
- The continued support and encouragement from the Conference Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee.

CCOM – Hispanic Ministry

Our Mission is to respond to the needs, understand the dreams and share the hopes of Hispanics/ Latinos in South Carolina.

The Reverend Sonia Ortigoza, SC Hispanic Missionary, continues to work with the Council on Ministries and the Conference Hispanic Task Force to ensure that needs are being responded to and a clearer understanding of Hispanics/Latinos is being gained by individuals across South Carolina. Below are some of the ways in which Hispanic/Latino ministries are being encouraged and carried out across South Carolina.

1. District Hispanic Task Force

The SC Hispanic Missionary, in conjunction with the Hispanic Task Force and the conference staff representative, is organizing District Hispanic Task Forces. Their mission is to initiate, support, and encourage Hispanic ministries.

Design:

The District Hispanic Task Force shall be composed of at least five (5) members with at least one-third to be laypersons (cluster representation is encouraged).

Expectations of District Hispanic Task Force

Short-Term Goals: (to be attained by the year 2003)

1. Organize and establish monthly meetings
2. Module I-type training for every DHTF
3. Assess the needs of the Hispanic Community
4. Conduct a demographic study (use PERCEPT and other resources available)
5. Identify and record on-going Hispanic ministries
6. ESL Training for every DHTF
7. Create a resource team of person who speak Spanish
8. Begin to formulate plan for ministry
9. Maintain a relationship with the Conference Hispanic Task Force and District Council on Ministries
10. Select a representative to attend and report at the Conference Hispanic Task Force meetings

Long-Term Goals: (to be attained by the year 2007)

1. Establish Faith Communities

2. Establish Outreach Ministries
3. Establish New Congregations

2. Comprehensive Plan

The Conference Hispanic Task Force and the SC Hispanic Missionary have been collaborating on the writing of the section of the SC Annual Conference Comprehensive Plan for Ethnic Ministries. Through this joint effort, they seek to highlight some of the needs, concerns, and ministry opportunities, which are available to United Methodists, and others interested in caring for God's children.

The following workshops are proposed for the coming year.

- Module I: held in February and March with 22 participants.
Purpose: Training Program for Lay Missioner and Pastor Mentor Workshops planned for April and September 2002
- Module I participants meeting
Purposes: To plan and give suggestion for the District Hispanic Task Forces and for the Comprehensive Plan.
- Partners in the Mighty Works of God, for the District Hispanic Task Forces, 46 participants.
Purpose: To develop the first phase of analysis and planning for Hispanic Ministry in each district.

There are a number of Hispanic/Latino Ministries presently underway across South Carolina. Highlights from each are presented below.

Hilton Head Island – Walterboro District

The Hispanic population in Hilton Head Island is around 10 percent. The St. Andrew By The Sea UMC, established it's goals to reach out in our community to encourage interactions through spiritual development, advocacy and tutoring activities in order to promote a better understanding of all of God's children. The objectives are to demonstrate Christian Discipleship and Community Spirit; to introduce functional English to Spanish speaking people; to provide resources when appropriate; to support Hispanic Faith Communities.

St. Andrew By The Sea host a Spanish speaking Faith Community that worships and conducts Bible study classes three days in our facilities. Beginning English classes for Spanish-speaking people are taught two evenings a week. The Hispanic committee assists with specific physical and emotional needs of Hispanics. The church wants to hire a bilingual counselor to attend the Hispanic demand.

St. Paul's UMC, Orangeburg

This church has sponsored ESL classes for around 15 students every week. A bilingual volunteer layperson from the church led the classes, and some others volunteers include College students from Claflin University. In addition, various outreach ministries are provided to address food, clothing, language, and immigration issues, health issues and housing needs. A worship service is provided for special occasions such as, Thanksgiving and Christmas, and Sunday school is being held on Sunday afternoons. The fiesta and Thanksgiving Day gather more than 100 Hispanics every year.

Spartanburg District:

ARCH Ministries is an after school program in the low-income community of UNA in Spartanburg. UNA is a very diverse neighborhood that is home to African Americans, whites, and Hispanics. The after-school program at Arcadia United Methodist Church provides a safe, supervised environment for the children during the hours of 3:00pm to 6:00pm. Homework assistance and tutoring are also provided. A nutritious snack and meal are also served. The program addresses three critical areas of need: Reducing the risk of neglect and abuse, Education and Nutrition. The program currently serves 25 children.

Anderson District

One of the immediate goals of this ministry is to raise the awareness among churches and the people of the Anderson District of the presence and needs of the Hispanic people. To develop an effective ministry that will require the involvement of volunteers as well as the financial support of the churches and people in the district.

Education, health and personal language assistance seem to be the most accessible points for the district involvement, of course, transportation and housing are major needs. A long-range goal is to organize, develop and implement the needed ministries and Hispanic-oriented faith communities and worship experiences across the Anderson District as appropriate.

This ministry is being led by a Hispanic Committee of 12 persons, laity and clergy from various churches of the Anderson District. Hiring a District Coordinator for Hispanic Ministry will be the key to implementing the program in this area.

Charleston District

This area has a great concentration of Hispanics/Latinos. Three churches are involved in this mission, Midland Park, Goose Creek and John's Island. Worship services are held as well as Bible Studies in five Faith Communities. Also, outreach ministries are offered including food pantry, clothing, assistance in immigration issues and alcoholism and drug abuse counseling. Around 120 people weekly, are being served in this area. A pastor and lay missionaries are needed.

Edgefield UMC – Greenwood District

This is a ministry led by the United Methodist Church with the participation of others denominations. In Edgefield County the fastest growing population group is the Hispanics. There are many temporary migrant workers, but there has been a dramatic increase in Hispanics who are permanent residents. Vacation Bible School and Bible study is held. Outreach program is ongoing to meet the needs of the families that are living in trailers such as health care information, translation, and housing repair.

A worship and Bible study is being held at Ridge Spring UMC. A couple of local lay-missionaries, Ben and Amanda Israel, are serving the area.

College Place UMC – Columbia District

This church is organizing a Spanish Course to help Non-Hispanics to be able to communicate and understand more of Hispanic/Latino culture. The computer Lab is serving the community—including Hispanics.

Shiloh UMC – Orangeburg District

Recently started outreach to nearby predominantly Hispanic neighborhood with meeting to involve Hispanics in planning a fiesta to begin to establish relationships.

A volunteer is visiting the neighborhood and distributing New Testament and Bible messages.

Bluff Road UMC, Columbia District

Hispanic volunteer leads Sunday School Class in Spanish. We are working with the Shalom/Literacy Program to attend Hispanic in the after school program.

Gilbert UMC

Is starting a program called "Primeros Passos" that is involving three churches: Pond Branch, Beulah and Gilbert UMC. The goals are: a) To help Hispanic children enter the Gilbert schools ready to learn; b) To equip Hispanic families living in the Gilbert area with skills, knowledge, and resources that will help them function effectively in their environment; c) To build relationships of mutual trust between Hispanic people and the people of the churches.

Several Churches are Involved in ESL and Spanish as a Second Language.

Goals and Strategies:

Hispanic Task Force Report compiled with the assistance of the Reverend Sonia Ortigoza.

Goals	Objectives	Strategies
Breakdown language barriers.	Increase opportunities for employment and social interaction.	Provide English as a Second Language classes in local churches. Provide Spanish classes for those working with Hispanic Outreach.
Help Hispanics to become fully functional in society.	Provide assistance in obtaining necessary papers and documentation, i.e., social security numbers, citizenship papers, drivers license, etc. Provide opportunities for health and wellness.	Learn immigration process and train individuals in local churches and districts to assist individuals in the process or refer appropriately. Provide funds to help cover costs/fees for immigration process. Establish Counseling Centers, at free/minimal charge based on ability to pay, to provide for physical and mental health, alcohol and drug abuse referrals or counseling.
Mutual Cultural Respect	Encourage a basic understanding and respect of the cultural differences that exist between the Hispanic culture and this culture.	Provide Module I, II, III training for members of District Hispanic Task Forces and local church.
Congregational Mobilization	To revitalize Hispanic Ministry Coordinate the development of Hispanic Ministry in the conference	Assist churches in the development of faith communities and community ministries as defined by the National Plan. Hire a missionary to work in the districts or areas that have high Hispanic population. Implement, interpret, and develop the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry

KOREAN-AMERICAN TASK FORCE

The Korean-American Task Force (KATF) has recently re-organized and continues to faithfully meet. The Reverend Hyo Shik Kim and The Reverend Do Bum Huh serve as co-chairpersons for the task force. KATF has identified the areas of South Carolina where there are growing populations of Koreans and Asian Americans. And they have identified three counties that have Korean congregation. The counties are Charleston, Richland and Greenville.

The Korean-American Task Force is working to involve Korean youth in Youth Annual Conference and the Youth Summit on Inclusiveness. KATF will host a workshop, "Lay Leadership Training", in the fall.

The Korean-American Task Force continues to attend programs sponsored by the Southeastern Jurisdiction Administrative Council Korean Ministry Group. These programs are well attended by both youth and adults.

KATF has a unique ministry in that it seeks to meet the needs of both first generation Koreans and Asians who do not speak English and second generation Koreans/Asians who speak English. At some point, the Korean-American Task Force would like to see a ministry in South Carolina modeled after one in the North Georgia Conference. It is a ministry where Koreans are working with the Wesley Foundations to minister to English-speaking Koreans on the campuses they serve.

NATIVE AMERICAN COMMITTEE

As this annual conference opens, it is with great pleasure that Native Americans are the theme for this year's conference. South Carolina native peoples are often known as the "invisible people" because so many do not realize Indian people are here and always have been. Our committee looks forward in sharing the Native American culture and worship with you as part of this year's conference.

The Native American Committee was organized in March 1992. Following is the mission statement adopted by the committee:

The Native American Committee seeks to: promote inclusion of Native Americans in the South Carolina Conference; explore and implement awareness of and appreciation for Native American presence, history, traditions and spirituality; promote Native American Ministries Sunday in this conference and dispense the funds contributed on Native American Awareness Sunday (one half of the funds collected remain in the conference).

The parent organization of the NAC is the Southeastern Jurisdiction Agency for Native American Ministries (SEJANAM) housed at Lake Junaluska. The NAC chair serves as a board member to SEJANAM. SEJANAM provides training and support for this committee. Monies collected for Native American Ministries Sunday are used exclusively for mission projects. The ELCC approved, as annual line item for their budget, the $2,000 dollars requested annually from our conference to SEJANAM to support this jurisdiction.

The NAC met four times in 2001. The following are highlights from 2001:

Our major accomplishment for 2001 is the opening of the first United Methodist Native American church within the South Carolina conference. Rocky Swamp UMC opened its doors in July 2001. Traditional services based on UMC Native American worship services in Oklahoma and values of South Carolina native peoples were implemented. The church is doing well and received local media coverage. The church is located in Neeses, South Carolina. Donna Ott was instrumental in bringing this into being along with assistance from Sandy Hatchell and Cathy Nelson. Donna Ott is the lay leader for this church. United Methodist members are encouraged to visit this church.

Sarah Sanchez continues to produce and publish a newsletter. She has received praise for her contributions. If your church does not receive this newsletter, please let us know.

For her outstanding service and dedication, Sarah Sanchez has received a meritorious membership to our committee. She was the committee's chair from 1992, at the committee's conception, until 2000. Our committee has become a role model for the jurisdiction. A medical center for the Edisto, summer camps, and trips for the Indian youth outside of their community for the first time were accomplished. Many times, she paid from her own pocket to ensure projects were funded. She single-handedly designed, organized and published the newsletter. She brought American Indian representation on the committee from various tribes from within the state. Her tireless efforts, dedications, service before self, and commitment to the native peoples of South Carolina deserve the highest of honors.

We continue to outreach to local tribes with increase trust and cooperation. Our missionary, Millard Lowry, has helped in this effort.

We provided emergency funding request to the Santee Tribe to help keep their office open when they lost their grant to operate. As a result, the tribal office was able to operate until additional funding could be secured.

For the second year, we held our summer camp for American Indian youth. We filled every slot available - 40 Indian youth. We had representation from the most tribes to date including the Catawba. Thanks to Cathy Nelson, Donna Ott and Sandy Hatchell for their hard work on this.

The General Commission on Religion and Race of the UMC awarded the Pee Dee Indian Tribal Association of McColl, South Carolina, a grant of $20,000. The project will allow for heightened sensitivity toward SC American Indians to determine the impact of the state's election commission on SC Indian votes and the use of "other" rather than "Indian" on voter registration forms. Our committee continues to be a strong advocate for improving voter registration procedures that encourage the inclusion instead of exclusion of our native peoples.

Our committee reached out to Fairview and Hickory Grove UMCs, which are located in South Carolina, but part of the North Carolina conference. Members attended worship services at Fairview UMC.

Again, we had members of the committee attend the American Indian Scouting Seminar. This seminar provides an excellent opportunity for networking, learning of traditional values, and interface with native people and youth from across the nation. This year's conference was held in August at Bacone College in Muskogee, Oklahoma. The Musogree-Creek nation was the host. We hope to continue this tradition in 2002.

Our committee has a working relationship with the American Indian Education Foundation. Several South Carolina Indian youth received college scholarships and college packages with supplies. This organization provided school supplies to the Santee Indian children. Charlotte Barker, a former member of our committee, is the Program Director and has been conducting outreach with our tribes in the state. She continues to serve as an ex-officio member. Our chair serves as member of the scholarship approving committee.

Within SEJANAM, our conference continues to be a leader and role model. We are still the only conference with a summer camp for Indian youth. Our conference conducts outreach to our native tribes within the state assisting them on issues impacting their well-being - a key issue encouraged by SEJANAM. We sent a record number of participants to SEJANAM's annual conference. This year's focus was on Indian Health Issues. Our committee paid the registration fee for committee members and all Indian people from South Carolina attending the conference totaling $2,863. Our chair was elected as chair for SEJANAM's subcommittee on communications; thus, a member of the executive board. Our conference will again be well represented at the 2002 conference. Dean and Cathy Nelson (Cathy is Vice Chair) will be presenting statistical information on American Indian populations as part of the conference opening. Donna Ott will speak about the success of Rocky Swamp UMC. Rev. Sandy Hatchell will lead a Morning Prayer session. Our chair will assist with training other Native American Committee members from the entire jurisdiction.

Our committee continues to be a strong supporter and advocate with the Governor's office and Legislative bodies in an attempt to establish an American Indian Affairs commission for the state of South Carolina. Currently, South Carolina is one of three states that has no such commission. Without it, recognition issues for our non-recognized tribes and financial support are limited to non-existent. We are working with the tribes in effort for them to help themselves. They have formed their own ad hoc committee and established set criteria for recognizing South Carolina's tribes to prevent just any group from claiming they are Indian.

We had representation at the 32nd Annual Indian Cultural and Educational Conference in Billings, Montana, thanks to committee member, Auleene Pabst, and Chief David Locklear of the Pee Dee Indian Tribe.

The following are on-going projects from 2001 leading into 2002:

Current, we have a major project ongoing with the Santee Indian people in attempt to renovate tribal member's housing. Their living conditions are extremely substandard. Roofs have open leaks and holes with inadequate sanitation. Our missionary is working with UMC churches in Holly Hill to bring work teams in from Florida to work on and repair these homes.

We have started a draft of our first comprehensive plan focusing on South Carolina's American Indians. We are obtaining facts and statistics regarding their current living conditions, health, social and political issues, and needs. These facts are alarming. The information is being obtained directly from the tribes. Again, a major point is making this "invisible" group of people visible. Government records only show 8,000 Indian people in the state, but their tribal rolls show approximately 40,000. Today, most South Carolinians are hard pressed to name our local tribes. This document will be used as a basis for securing help and even writing grants.

Concerns and Assistance: There are two concerns we need the conference's assistance on:

Native American Ministries Sunday: Although improving, the majority of United Methodist Churches in South Carolina do not have this special Sunday or offering. This year, we had 43 churches participate raising $2,737. These funds are vital if we are to continue our outreach programs, such as summer camp. We are still not reaching our churches, large, medium and small. We encourage each church to have a special service and offering, and it is not limited to the month of April. For instance, the federal government honors Native American month in November. Our committee can provide materials and speakers for this worship service. Please contact us!

Native American Representatives: According to the Discipline and our conference, each church is required to submit a name of a person to be the Native American representative for their church. This person does not have to be an American Indian. The representative's responsibilities are listed below. We strongly encourage each church to provide us the name of their representative. Our committee provides training and support to these representatives. Sadly, our committee has only received one (1) official notification of a Native American representative from all the churches in South Carolina. To their honor, Bethany UMC in Summerville has named an official representative and submitted her name. With your assistance, this number can change!

Local Church Designee for Native American Ministry

Authorization and Purpose (from "The Book of Discipline", 2000, ¶ 650):

"There shall be an annual conference committee on Native American Ministry or other structure to provide for those ministries and maintain the connectional relationship..."

"Every local church at the charge conference shall designate by nomination and election a minimum of one person per charge (without regard to race or ethnic origin) or a designated member of an established church committee to represent the need for better awareness of Native American contributions in the church. These names are to be submitted to the District Superintendent at charge conference to be given to the annual conference committee on Native American ministries."

Suggested Duties:

- 1) Be a contact person to receive and communicate to the local church information, concerns and schedule of events related to Native American Ministry for the conference committee on Native American Ministry and from conference staff.
- 2) Secure the calendaring of and contribute to the planning, promotion and resourcing for the production of the annual Native American Ministries Sunday with special offering with Native American participation if possible (the third Sunday of Easter or at other times).
- 3) Encourage awareness of and appreciation for Native American history, traditions, culture, contributions, and presence in the nation, state and Church (especially the United Methodist Church). This can be done through studies (bibliography of books and videos available from the conference committee on Native American Ministry, or the Southeastern Jurisdiction Agency for Native American Ministry (SEJANAM), and from United Methodist Communications), Native American speakers/teachers, exchange events (i.e., singings, revivals, youth meetings, dialogue sessions, etc.), work teams and by other means.
- 4) Provide name, address and phone number of any person(s) who identifies as Native American in the local church to the conference committee on Native American Ministry for the district superintendent.
- 5) Provide brief report/plan to Charge Conference on local church Native American Ministries Sunday celebration with offering and other activities, programs and events and Advance giving to Native American Ministries.
- 6) Be aware of work of Native American Comprehensive Plan and its resources for use in your local church, district and annual conference.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me through the United Methodist Center in Columbia. Thank you for your time and efforts.

THE COMMITTEE ON PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

The Conference Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling continues to provide service to those among us who are constantly giving of themselves to serve the needs of others. We assist in funding counseling services for clergy, diaconals, and their families. This year, one of our programs is being eliminated because the Cabinet has decided to address its focus in a different manner. We will continue to keep before the Conference the need to address the stress that is often experienced in families who are involved in the change of appointments. Clergy often mentions this issue at various times. We will seek ways to address it. Our current programs are listed below:

Fee Supplement - This program seeks to strengthen the personal and family life of all clergy by supplementing counseling fees of licensed counselors. In the year 2001, approximately 115 individuals or families were assisted through counseling sessions. It is our hope to remove the stigma that often accompanies counseling sessions. It is our hope that the incredible amount of courage it takes to seek assistance will be recognized and respected rather than be viewed as a sign of weakness.

Wellness - The Time To Celebrate, a weekend retreat for clergy and their spouses, was held April 27-29, 2001, at Springmaid Beach. Marva Lackey led the participants through the Myers-Briggs Personality Profile process and explained how they might impact spiritual development, communications within the family and itinerancy issues. This event was very well attended. The committee is already at work planning for 2003.

This committee continues to have representation on the Commission on the Status and Role of Women, and the Disaster Response, and Ethnic Local Church committees.

THE JAMES L. BELIN BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees of the James L. Belin property realize for many reasons, 2001 will be a year that none of us will forget. The oceans are no longer a moat, protecting us from the violence of the world. Our lives are changed forever. However, we have demonstrated the strength of the American will and determination. It is the Board's belief that more have returned to God than at any point in history. Though we are well aware of the effects that the current recession and the event of September 11th have had on the market. The Board has adopted a conservative approach during this time to keep funding at the present level while not reducing the principle available to generate our future income.

The Board of Trustees, through its investment advisor, has used a socially responsible investment philosophy for its portfolio. The fourth quarter was positive: (+ 7.57% versus the target of + 8.53%). Performance for the year was awful (-23.50% versus -7.78% for the target). The most important thing is that the actual realized gain was $193,000. We own stocks that we expect to recover when the market turns around. We did own Enron and sold at $11.51 per share. We were caught off guard along with many others, but managed to salvage about half of our investment. Despite the fund's disappointing absolute return in 2001 programs, projects, churches, institutions, and communities were helped with grants totaling $473,500. The audit for December 31, 2001 shows total assets as being $5,509,945. The Conference Board of Global Ministries allocates the grants, but the Belin Board reserves the right to make recommendations for specific grants and scholarships.

While the Board is committed to conform to the "intent" of the will of the Rev. James L. Belin, its policy remains that of providing for start-up projects and programs and not for funding re-occurring programs.

The Belin Board of trustees was not able to accommodate the total funding expectations of those churches, communities, and institutions engaged in meaningful programs, but desired to have increased momentum. While past performance can never assure future results, we believe the Belin Trust can continue to be rewarding to the Annual Conference in the future.

THE BOARD OF CAMPS AND RETREAT MINISTRIES

God has continued to bless the Board of Camps and Retreat Ministries and the ministries of Asbury Hills Camp and Retreat Center and Sewee Coastal Retreat Center. It has been a busy year at both sites.

The first great challenge facing Asbury Hills this year was the completion of the construction of a new wastewater treatment plant necessitated by revised DHEC standards. With good engineering, a hard-working construction crew, and efforts and contributions far beyond contract requirements by the contractors, the plant went online in July, months ahead of the DHEC deadline. This new plant enables us to continue to be good stewards of God's creation, setting the highest standard for discharge into the Matthews Creek watershed.

In the past year, Asbury Hills saw many other physical changes. New landscaping changes the entrance and appearance of the dining hall. A new camp store offers reminders of life changing days at Asbury Hills. Volunteers, contracted labor, and camp staff combined in the renovation of the bathhouse. A number of cabins were winterized, doubling our winterized space available for use. Negotiations are nearly complete with the Nature Conservancy in an agreement that will add another 200 acres to Asbury Hills.

Programming at Asbury Hills continues to offer many and varied opportunities to experience God in unique settings and activities. This year a gardening program is being introduced to enhance experiences of God the Creator and Sustainer as well as to supplement the delicious dining at Asbury Hills. Parents and church workers are also now enjoying the convenience of online registration for all events at Asbury Hills.

We are grateful for Asbury Hills Director Russell Davis and Program Director Doug Moore. They are dedicated Christian men who serve the Lord with skill and gladness. Camper evaluations overflowing the stories of lives forever touched for Christ bear witness to the effectiveness of their work with a talented staff.

Sewee Coastal Retreat Center hums with activity throughout the year, with over 3,000 persons enjoying its beautiful setting on the Intracoastal Waterway. Sewee this year sponsored its first annual fundraising fishing tournament, an event enjoyed by all participants, and as evidence of Sewee's treasured place in their hearts the top prizewinners donated their winnings back to Sewee!

Sewee was once again the site of Clemson University's 4-H leadership program's Camp Sewee and this coming year will begin a hosting relationship with Hurricane Island Outward Bound, a program coordinating with Charleston County agencies and the Department of Juvenile Justice. Numerous United Methodist Church groups have found Sewee to be the ideal location for retreats and renewal.

Sewee will be enhanced this coming year by physical improvements in the form of a new maintenance building and major renovations of the boat ramp.

The Board is indebted to John Baker for his service as the Director of Sewee Coastal Retreat Center. The impact he has made upon Sewee, its guests, and the community around it is beyond measure.

The Board of Camps and Retreat Ministries looks to the future with high expectations. We have a vision for our ministries that God has given us and we are excited to be able to work to see that vision realized. The Building Committee is poised and ready to begin work on new adult centers at both sites. Meanwhile the Board seeks financial guidance and looks to broaden its donor base in order to speed the realization of these facilities. To that end the Board conducted a search for a Director of Development. We are very pleased to welcome Dr. Rebecca Davis to our ministry team as of March 1, 2002. Dr. Davis comes to us with many talents, rich experience, and great enthusiasm. We are excited to have her working for Camps and Retreat Ministries in South Carolina.

Deep gratitude must again be expressed to June Willson of the Conference Council on Ministries staff. Her boundless energy, her positive outlook, her laughter, and her spiritual leadership is greatly appreciated. The Chair is also profoundly thankful for the efforts and energy of members of the Board of Camps and Retreat Ministries, and the support of the Board of Education and the South Carolina Annual Conference. God is doing great things in our midst.

THE UNITED METHODIST CENTER BOARD OF TRUSTEES

As we reported to you in our last year's report, we have completed the three-year plan for upgrading our heating and air conditioning systems. This past year has seen only basic maintenance to the Center. We have put on hold the completion of our plans for major refurbishing of the Center since we plan major changes in the present facilities.

Your Board of Trustees has contracted with the architectural firm of Goforth Brown & Associates of Florence, S.C., to draw up plans for the expansion of our present facilities. After nearly three years of consultation with the Bishop, the CCOM, and other tenants of the Center, as well as weighing other alternatives, the Trustees have decided to recommend the construction of an addition to the present Center, replace the roof on the existing building, install a sprinkler system in the present building and re-configure some of the present office space in order to meet future needs of our Conference agencies as well as the present needs. It is our recommendation that the offices of the Bishop, Columbia District, Congregational Development, and Clergy Services be placed in the new addition thus allowing the CCOM to have the required space needed for their programs and to provide much-needed storage space to all offices. The present facilities will undergo some re-configuration in order to meet CCOM and future needs of the Conference.

Therefore the Board of Trustees makes the following recommendations for conference approval: 1) that the Board of Trustees be authorized to borrow up to two million dollars for construction of additional facilities and needed improvement of the existing building; 2) establish an apportionment of two million dollars to retire the indebtedness over a period of not more than five years, to begin with the Conference fiscal year 2003.

As we move into the twenty-first century it is imperative that our agencies be provided with adequate facilities to carry out the programs and mandate of the church.

Harry R. Stullenberger, Chairperson

TRUSTEES OF THE S.C. UNITED METHODIST ADVOCATE

The past year has been successful for the S.C. United Methodist Advocate. The Advocate trustees have worked diligently to publish the conference newspaper, and our staff is committed to provide the best and most reliable source of information for South Carolina United Methodists. The objective is to build readership and excellence. The continuing support of the S.C. Conference has given the Advocate the foundation to grow and has prepared the Advocate to address the needs and concerns of our conference. For that support, the trustees are thankful. Listed are some of the accomplishments and future projections of the Advocate to demonstrate our commitment to South Carolina Methodism.

1. On the national level, the Advocate was honored by the United Methodist Association of Communicators. The Advocate received four certificates of merit for general excellence and writing.
2. On the state level, the Advocate was awarded second place for newspaper publications by the S.C. Press Association.
3. The Advocate Online is another way of telling the story of the S.C. Methodism and is updated regularly.
4. There are two full-time and one part-time staff members. We had one intern from Columbia College during the spring 2002 semester. This is the Advocate's second intern, and this program has been a great success.
5. The day-to-day operations are managed by the Advocate's office with outside consultants to assure accountability.
6. The new subscription program has informed more than 1,000 new or transferred members into the United Methodist Church. This program, introduced at the 2001 Annual Conference, is designed to get new members of the United Methodist Church involved in the life of our connectional church and exposed to the Advocate.
7. The newly redesigned Advocate was refined to get more information out to readers in an easier-to-read and -understand format. Responses to the redesigned format were positive.

The Future Outlook: This is a five-year projection of the nature and ministry of the S.C. Advocate in the future.

1. Increase circulation and exposure
2. Improve print quality
3. Review the option for a weekly or bi-weekly publication
4. Review our advertisers
5. Increase the number of staff

The Advocate Board of Trustees and staff are committed to be the best and most reliable source of information on S.C. United Methodism.

THE REPORT OF THE CABINET

Our Diversity Is Our Strength

It is a rare opportunity to serve in a cabinet as diverse as the cabinet in South Carolina. We have perhaps one of the most diverse cabinets in United Methodism in America. In our culture we are still struggling with celebrating diversity. In this new era we will have to come to grips with living in a multicultural society. There are signs all around us that reflect we are not there yet. There are explosive issues all around us that deal with gender, race and class. Too much of our teachings and preaching has been about whose in and whose out. God's grace to all is inclusive.

We continue in a variety of ways to mirror God's grace by living in and working in the world. Let's not be ashamed to proclaim, "God so loved the world..." We struggle to become what Martin acknowledged as the Beloved Community. In the Beloved Community we co-exist with each other. Learning from and respecting each other. Our theology need not be identical. We won't reach a consensus on the flag nor the lottery. We live in a pluralistic society. What holds us together is not fragile humanity reaching up, but God omnipotent reaching down. However, as reflected in the 2002 Book of Discipline under our theological task, "daily we are presented with an array of concerns that challenge our proclamation of God's reign over all of human existence."

Does this mean that God is far removed from our pains and joy? No. God is our contemporary seeking to enlist us in this ministry of wholeness and reconciliation. We are called to be agents of healing and advocates for the down trodden. The Beloved Community is threatened by war (nuclear and conventional), violence, cycles of poverty, and our misguided care for God's creation.

South Carolina is a rural state. Many of our citizens live in sub-standard houses and abject poverty. (Thank God for Volunteer in Missions and Salkehatchie). As a cabinet we worked on building a parsonage to enable full time ministry to take place on the St Thomas charge in Huger, SC. We also have further plans to assist and establish other parsonages across South Carolina where the need is evident.

Our state's economy is suffering causing even greater stress and pain among our citizens. Plants closing and layoffs have affected every local church. Yet, South Carolina apportionments are up from 90.3 to 90.6. No denomination does it better in restoring hope, lifting burdens, and opening the eyes of the blind than United Methodist through our connectional giving arms of ministry all around the globe.

As we seek to construct the Beloved Community we must move beyond lip service and one in Christ and move toward it. How do we go about evangelizing in a world torn in so many ways? What is the good news we proclaim in the midst of a violent and volatile world? The good news is God is with us to bring us out of this chaos. A new day is dawning. We must continue to affirm our strong witness in the social order. Make it such that our love conveys God's love and care for us all. With this we affirm our long commitment to diversity.

This new day is dawning in Africa as we seek to be in ministry and mission with our brothers and sisters in Africa through establishing and commitment to Africa University. Our annual conference went on record unanimously to be a part of this great mission thrust in an effort to raise $2.5 million dollars.

$1,700,000. for a school of Theology building
$300,000. for scholarships at Africa University
$500,000 for "Hope For The Children of Africa"

Thanks to all for sharing in this powerful witness.

Together, clergy and laity, God is calling us to unite in ministry. Our future is bright because God is with us. We lean forward into the future, not alone, but together. Seeing that we have this ministry let us never give up.

*A Clark Jenkins, President
S.C. United Methodist Church Cabinet*

THE CONFERENCE CHANCELLOR

The conference chancellor is the legal advisor to the resident bishop and the annual conference, and is a non-voting member and officer of the annual conference. The South Carolina annual conference has delegated to the episcopal office the duty to screen requests for legal services.

Since the 2001 annual conference, the majority of services have concerned property and corporate issues for the conference and its agencies. The single largest project involved implementing the decision by the 2000 Annual Conference to grant a conservation easement over part of the Asbury Hills property to The Nature Conservancy. Related to this was research into the history of the South Carolina United Methodist Board of Education, a dormant corporation, with an eye to merging that corporation into the Annual Conference corporation. Other issues included conveyance of the Sewee property to the Board of Camps and Retreat Ministries, declining a right of first refusal to purchase property near the old Cokesbury College in the Greenwood District, and a dispute involving access to church property in the Anderson District. Other projects involved the incorporation and connectional status of Low Country Senior Care and Wallace Family Life Center.

Fortunately, litigation was not as active this year. A few small skirmishes involving attempts to subpoena church records, and various local church issues, were handled.

Like every large employer, the conference and its related entities continue to struggle with personnel-related issues. Included were questions concerning the South Carolina payment of wages statute, allegations of sexual discrimination, and termination of employment.

In the previous year I was a presenter on church law issues at the Council of Bishops' Legal Forum; a workshop for seminary professors, sponsored by GBHEM; and the SEJ Church Business Administrator's annual convention. I also led a session for local church trustees at the Columbia District's annual orientation.

THE UNITED METHODIST MEN

SC Conference of UMM continues to grow in number and in spirit. More churches are hearing our message and new fellowships are being organized. Most importantly our focus on nurturing men in spiritual growth is making strides. New leadership is encouraging our men to meet with spiritual emphases, share God's word and reach beyond the walls of the local church through ministries and outreach projects.

April, May and June are the last months for chartering for 2002. We hope to have many more churches to join us. If you have not Re-Certified please do so. We hope to have 350 chartered fellowships before 2003.

For charter information visit our web page at www.ummscc.org or contact your state or district officers.

EVANGELISM, MISSION and SPIRITUAL GROWTH is the tri-ad making up the programs of UMMEN. The following are a few of our programs and outreach.

Events

August 2001 Statewide Men's Rally (Formerly Into the Turn), was held at the Lugoff-Elgin Auditorium on the campus of Lugoff-Elgin High School. The theme was "Refining by the Spirit". Our keynote speakers were Rev. Chris Buskirk, Abiding Harvest UMC in Oklahoma, Rev. Jeff Kersey, Mt. Hobeb UMC, Columbia, Rev. Walter McKelvey, Dean of Gammon University, Rev. George Ashford, Silver Hill UMC Spartanburg, SC, Mr. Clarke Bynum layperson from Sumter, SC, and Mr. Ken Bradford from Society of St. Andrews. Tim McKenzie, Herbert UMC, Georgetown, SC led our music and men's choir.

In February 2002, our Statewide Spiritual Retreat at Springmaid Beach was held. Dr. David Lowes Watson was the keynote speaker and Rev. Ken Nelson, associate pastor at St. John's in Aiken. Workshops were provided on Sharing Your Faith, Leading a friend to Jesus and Balancing the teachings of Jesus.

On August 23rd and 24th 2002, we will hold our annual Statewide Rally at Lugoff-Elgin Auditorium on the campus of Lugoff-Elgin High School. We will start with a golf tournament at Northwoods golf course in Columbia on Friday August 23 at 10:00 AM. We will hold a Praise and Prayer service 7:30PM Friday evening at Lytleton UMC, Camden SC. Our Rally Day will Start Saturday at 10:00AM till 3:30 PM. The cost for both services and Saturday's meal is $30.00. The music will once again be led by Tim McKenzie of Herbert UMC, Georgetown SC. A Men's Choir is being formed and anyone desiring information about the music may contact Tim at (843) 546-0198 or (843) 546-5647. This event has lots of music, praise, and testimony. A UMMen ministry fair will be held in the gymnasium.

PROGRAMS and OUTREACH

Scouting continues to be one of our key ministries. UMMen are encouraging churches to look at scouting as a ministry. In 2002 we will host two Bishop Dinners to promote Scouting one in Orangeburg and one in Florence district. We will continue to encourage all scouting units to promote and encourage participation in the Religious Awards. Our new scouting coordinator, Pat Long Simpeonville UMC, has great plans for our scouting ministry. He is presently compiling a new database for district and local church scouting coordinators. Pat may be contacted at (864) 963-8856.

Prayer Line Ministry continues to grow and more churches sign on each year. Our new Prayer Advocate, Clayton Easter, Rehoboth UMC Columbia brings new interest to this important ministry. We hope to double our participation in the Prayer Line ministry as well as inform and educate local churches about join as a covenant prayer group. Several new areas of our Prayer Line ministry are in the early stages. Several Conferences are testing a Prayer Line Ministry for youth sponsored by UMMen but answered by youth. These test conferences are having great results. A Hispanic Prayer Line is also being evaluated. For additional information on the UMMen Prayer Advocates or any of our programs, contact Clayton Easter at 803-736-1620 or email ceveaster@aol.com. If you have not participated in this ministry we encourage you to do so.

Meals for Millions: Fulfilling the scripture "You give them something to eat"(Mark 6:37)

An outreach of UMMen in partnership with Society of St. Andrew to feed 54 million servings of food to the hungry of America each year. Imagine the day when none of God's children go hungry. Together, let us work toward that end so that God might be glorified. For information contact your state president, LW Smith at 803-788-3011 or by email tigerrag@compuzone.net

State Training was held in 5 districts during 2002. Before March 1, 2003 all districts should hold district wide training.

In Conclusion

Our primary purpose is to declare the centrality of Christ in the lives of men and in all their relationships. Our state objective is to provide opportunities for spiritual growth and outreach to others, so that we grow in our relationship with Jesus Christ and one another. If the men of your church are not apart of the 25% chartered fellowships in South Carolina, we pray that you will consider becoming apart. We would like to meet with you and share where God is leading us in the UMMEN'S ministry.

L.W. Smith, III, Conference UMM President

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Due to a March 1 printing deadline for the 2002 Pre-conference Annual Journal Reports this report covers events and information for the year 2001 that was unreported in the 2001 Journal.

The year began with a President's Consultation in Nashville, TN at Scarritt Bennett and attended by the Conference President, Marilyn Murphy, and Willie Jo Lagroon, Member of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Core Planning Team.

The Treasurer, Alfa Tisdale, happily reported a pledge of $475,001. Total given: $545,102.38. The pledge for 2002 is $483,283.

The Membership Nurture & Outreach Committee under the leadership of June Willson held the biggest attendance to date, 155, at the annual Fun Day held at Rehoboth United Methodist Church in Columbia on February 24.

Capitol Day was held March 8 in Columbia with an overflow crowd of 250 and 82 were present for the first time. The theme was Bridging the Gap-Educational Challenges for 2001. A highlight of this legislative event is always a tour of the Capitol and visits with legislators. Frances Hill, Coordinator for Social Action, is preparing for an even bigger event in 2002.

Attendance is never a concern at the annual Spiritual Growth Retreat at Lake Junaluska and this year was no exception with 1380 women including 277 there for the first time and 154 under the age of 40. Christine Keel, a former Women's Division Director, spoke on Grace is Sufficient. Barbara Borom, newly appointed Retreat Leader, guided the Retreat Committee through a spiritually inspired experience.

Jan Winfield, Executive Secretary for Leadership Development led the Executive Committee in a Team Building Workshop/Retreat at the home of the Conference President on Lake Greenwood.

Many of our women were delegates from their local churches at the Annual Conference at Wofford College in Spartanburg. The United Methodist's Women's President's Report showcased three women representing the Teen Circles, University/College Women, and the Newly Retired Women Units that are presently being emphasized for membership.

At the South Atlantic Regional School, South Carolina was proud to have two of its members elected to leadership positions: Alfa Tisdale, Dean; and Ruby Carter, Nominating Committee Member.

Under the leadership of Dean Mary Reed and Assistant Dean Ann Eford the 2001 School of Christian Mission was deemed a success. Registrar Elaine Means, and Assistant Registrar, Nancy Brunson registered 261 attendees with 54 first timers and 28 under the age of 40. This year's school featured two classes for youth studies.

The next big event in the life of the Conference UMW was the Annual Meeting held at Bethel UMC in Spartanburg. There were 428 in attendance with 21 being under the age of 40 and 75 first timers. Under the leadership of Conference Coordinator of Education and Interpretation, Doris Wilhite, 5,000 to 6,000 health kits were collected, boxed, and sent to UMCOR. A special offering was taken in the wake of the terrorist attack of September 11, 2001 on the United States of America and given to the "Love in the Midst of Tragedy" fund. The regular offering was divided among the five South Carolina UMW Mission projects: Bethlehem Center, Spartanburg; Bethlehem Center, Columbia; Killingsworth, Rural Mission, and Wallace Family Life Center. The twelve districts were challenged to raise $1,000 each to enable Wallace Family Life Center to purchase van insurance so the children could be picked up for the after school program. Instead of $12,000 the districts raised $21,000 in one month. The theme of the Annual Meeting was Forward in Faith, and keynote speaker, Carolyn Johnson, former Women's Division President, was an effective and affable presenter. With an emphasis on getting younger women involved in United Methodist Women, many were included in the program. The Charter for Racial Justice Policies Committee were pleased to present a program highlighting the Hispanic and Native American Mission work being done in South Carolina under the leadership of Sonia Ortigoza and Millard Lowry, Jr. Also recognized was the Theresa Hoover Community Service and Global Citizen Awardee from South Carolina, Regina L. Nesmith. Retiring officer's awarded a Gift of Mission were LaClaire Mizelle, Secretary; Ruby Carter, Spiritual Growth; Education & Interpretation, Doris Wilhite; Committee on Nominations, Betty Jay; and Charter for Racial Justice, Lela Austin.

Officer's Training was held at Philadelphia UMC in Fort Mill with 85 registrants. Jan Winfield and Ressie Mae Bass, Women's Division, led the Conference Officers in a Leadership Training Event following the training of the district officers led by the conference officers.

All of these conference events require many hours of work by a lot of dedicated women who spend many Saturdays throughout the year planning these events. Members of the Conference Executive Committee are privileged to be invited to speak at many units and district events across the state.

The South Carolina Conference had eight new district presidents in 2001: Betty Walker, Charleston; Carolyn Thompson, Columbia; Joyce Lewis, Greenville; Deloris Shade followed by Mary Johnson, Hartsville; Betty Swinton, Marion; Clarece Green, Orangeburg; Willa Mackey, Spartanburg; and Doretha Jenkins, Walterboro. New officers elected were Ella Baker, Spiritual Growth; Mamie Lynah, Education and Interpretation; Nominations Chairperson, Joanne Eubanks; and Nominations Member, Suzy Speas. They are learning with the returning officers how to best accomplish the work of the Conference in carrying out the purpose of United Methodist Women. There is a practical emphasis on Membership, Visitation, and Mission Today programs. More importantly there is a spiritual emphasis on being Christians called by God to meet the needs of women, children and youth.

Marilyn Murphy, Conference President

THE TASK FORCE AGAINST LEGALIZED GAMBLING

This Task Force, named by Bishop McCleskey to represent the United Methodist position on both Video Poker and the state-sponsored Lottery, continues to carry out the mandate to inform United Methodists of the official position of the denomination. We will continue to inform members of the danger of organized gambling. It is our purpose to continue to monitor the increase in lottery games, the advertising methods used, and the way the money received from the lottery is spent. Our goal is to assure that the least amount of harm results from the state's venture into legalized gambling.

The issue of Casino Boats which are located in Horry County is one of great concern to members of this Task Force, and should be for the citizens of the state of South Carolina. We are providing information that enables church members to make intelligent decisions about Casino Boats. We encourage South Carolina United Methodists to make contact with legislators and other elected officials to ban the boats from the state's waters.

The Task Force is concerned about the fact that it is difficult to escape being visibly confronted by the advertisements to play the lottery, the danger this poses to persons who are addicted to gambling, and the message this sends to impressionable minds about organized and state-sponsored gambling. To counter this, we encourage United Methodists to shop selectively. We also encourage those who choose to be involved in an aggressive witness against this practice to use the "Buycott" coupons available from the Palmetto Family Council. They are available at PO Box 11953, Columbia, SC 29211-1953.

We request that each Church Lay Leader, or another designated member of the Church Council, collect and post in a prominent place in each local church the names of community businesses who do not sell lottery tickets with the encouragement that United Methodists consider supporting such businesses.

We invite interested persons to join our Task Force to become involved in our efforts to inform and to encourage support of the position of The United Methodist Church.

Reginald Thackston, Coordinator

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

The Southeastern Jurisdictional Administrative Council celebrates a successful 2001. Under the leadership of President, Bishop William Morris, from the Nashville area and our Vice Presidents, Rev. Hope Morgan Ward and Mr. Frank Furman, we made significant strides for Christ in our service to the United Methodist Church. We appreciate the leadership that the South Carolina Conference provides the Southeastern Jurisdiction through Bishop Lawrence McCleskey, Charles Johnson, Ivan Dinkins, June Willson, Polly Harper and Hammie Chaplin.

A communications audit was conducted in May with United Methodist Communications and we are actively following the recommendations. We are in the process of revamping our telephone, websites and computer systems plus equipping staff to better serve the persons who call for information and attend events. A more unified approach for all Southeastern Jurisdiction publications and brochures will be instituted to better tell our story. Plans are in place to be more intentional in an effort to deal with racism in our institutions and seeking to recruit a more inclusive staff. More attention is being given to building morale for our large staff in our home office at Lake Junaluska. New vision and mission statements are being considered.

The Administrative Council of the Southeastern Jurisdiction has been given two tasks by the Jurisdictional Conference: (1) to provide ministry options around the jurisdiction; and, (2) to administer Lake Junaluska Assembly. We have a great heritage that began in 1913 and continues in a dramatic way into the 21st century, as we serve as a place for developing future leaders of the Church.

In an effort to support annual conferences and local churches in our mutual work of making disciples for Jesus Christ, the Ministry Team and the Junaluska Team continue to strive for events, workshops, seminars and facilities that can be used by the United Methodist Church in our equipping ministry.

The Ministry Team, in 2001, was pleased that all of the ministry options sponsored by the Administrative Council at Lake Junaluska and around the jurisdiction boasted attendance increases. New ministry options were instituted and we intentionally organized listening and sharing sessions with the College of Bishops, directors of connectional ministries and district superintendents. We offered free lodging for cabinets that hold their meetings at the Lake in exchange for time with us to discuss needs they feel the jurisdiction can meet.

The Ministry Team is fortunate to have a new Director of Hispanic Ministries. Rev. David Ortigoza has joined the Ministry staff. We celebrate the ministry of Rev. Young Yoon who has given several years as the Director of Korean Ministries. We will miss his dedicated and diligent work among us.

The Administrative Council appreciates the ministries of the seven Southeastern Jurisdiction agencies: Intentional Growth Center; Archives and History; Southeastern Jurisdictional Agency for Native American Ministries, Inc.; Southeastern United Methodist Agency for Rehabilitation, Inc.; Southeastern Jurisdiction United Methodist Volunteers in Mission; Gulfside Assembly and Hinton Rural Life Center. Cooperation and work among our agencies and ministry staff is at an all-time high. Please note their accomplishments in this publication.

Along with the increased Southeastern Jurisdiction's Ministry attendance, the Conference and Retreat Center at Lake Junaluska had 111,593 guest nights, which is 6.5% over 2000, and the second highest in our existence. We had 445 groups use our facilities and 71% of the persons attending were United Methodist.

This year we implemented the publishing arm of the jurisdiction, Junaluska Resources, in partnership with Providence House Publishers in Franklin, TN. The goal is to publish significant new resources for the Church generated at Lake Junaluska and around the jurisdiction. Sermons by the Lake, by Dr. Reginald Mallett, and, Kadasha Workbook, Experiential Worship for the Next Generation, by Chris Hughes and Jennifer McSwain, along with the CDs, "Live at Lake Junaluska" and "Through the Years with the Junaluska Singers," provide resources to the entire Church.

In order to improve relationships and understanding across jurisdictional boundaries, we have invited the Western Jurisdiction College of Bishops to send representatives to our Ministers' Conference in July. We have also offered the Northeast College of Bishops a place for respite for pastors and staff who have experienced great stress providing support and pastoral care to persons in New York and the Washington, DC areas during the national crisis. We continue to desire to build bridges and foster cooperation across the United Methodist Church.

The Administrative Council was proud to be a sponsoring partner with Habitat for Humanity by giving a lot on the grounds of Lake Junaluska Assembly. This is the second Habitat House built at the Lake and we were proud that Mr. Millard Fuller, the founder and president of Habitat International, visited the new home while it was under construction.

The Council will begin a Workplace Discipleship Program this summer. All of our summer staff will not only have a job, but will also have the opportunity to live, work and worship in an ethnically and culturally diverse situation. They will have opportunities to claim their call as a minister of Christ and to learn what is needed to be a Christian leader for the 21st century. Mr. Marcus Robinson, a business man from Cherokee, NC and Rev. Hardy Tippet, a retired Deacon in full connection, from the Virginia Annual Conference, will coordinate the Workplace Discipleship Program and will make available mentors to all our summer staff.

A capital fund campaign to support the ministries of the Southeastern Jurisdiction and Lake Junaluska is in its early stages. Many of our existing buildings need significant attention plus new facilities are needed to provide the kind of ministry needed for a new day in the church. Renovation of Shackford Hall will begin in August, 2002. Persons who have an appreciation for our ministries and for Lake Junaluska are asked to contact us for more information.

The Administrative Council appreciates the Annual Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction. Fifteen percent of our budget comes from local church contributions to provide the ministry of the jurisdiction.

The Administrative Council of the Southeastern Jurisdiction celebrates the opportunity to serve the United Methodist Church. Please continue to partner with us in a mutual ministry for Jesus Christ.

Jimmy L. Carr, Executive Director

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Candler School of Theology is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition of evangelical piety, ecumenical openness, and social concerns. Its mission is to educate—through scholarship, teaching, and service—faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world.

Among the thirteen theological schools of The United Methodist Church, Candler is the largest. In the fall of 2001, in all of our degree programs, we enrolled 552 students from a total of 50 denominations. These men and women have come to seminary from 133 undergraduate institutions, creating an extremely diverse population intellectually. The diversity is impressive in other ways as well: equal numbers of women and men form the student body; one-fourth of the students are from American ethnic minority groups; the international student cohort is the largest ever; and the students range in age from 20 to 61. Of those who are seeking the Master of Divinity (M. Div.) degree, 62% are United Methodists, and they come to Atlanta from 31 Conferences. They continue a rich heritage, illustrated by the fact that 427 of our alumni are affiliated with the South Carolina Conference.

Candler's connection to the church is not limited to those persons who prepare for ministry by enrolling in our degree programs. Our educational mission is fulfilled also in the continuing relationship we have with congregations of Christian laity in many denominations and traditions. Our faculty lead educational sessions hosted by congregations on Sunday mornings, on weekday evenings, and in extended retreats. Our Office of Church Ministries Education directs the Bill Mallard Lay Theology Institute, which offers six-week courses and weekend seminars. And our many programs of continuing education provide the means for spiritual and intellectual growth needed by every person who serves in ministry.

A great education requires great resources.

The resources available to the Candler community are also those of Emory University. Candler is both a school of the church and a school of the university. Our students prepare for ministry in a vibrant intellectual environment, with internationally renowned degree programs in law, business, and health, plus specialized programs in ethics and the arts, to name a few.

All of those programs, besides the outstanding resources of the Emory University library system and its unique museum, combine Candler's academic and ecclesiastical contexts in a thriving urban environment, making this an extraordinarily fine place to prepare for ministry in the twenty-first century.

Yet the resources at Candler are distinguished in themselves.

Most significant are the 56 members of the Candler faculty who are involved in teaching, advising, research, and writing. Several individuals are new to the faculty this year. Brent Strawn, who teaches Old Testament, previously taught at Asbury Theological Seminary. Thomas G. Long, who is the Bandy Professor of Preaching, is one of the most highly regarded preachers in America. Lewis Ayers, whose field is early church history, earned his doctorate at Oxford University and previously taught at Liverpool Hope University in England. Other new faces on campus include William B. Lawrence, Associate Dean for Development and Church Relations, who formerly taught at Duke Divinity School and most recently was Senior Minister at the National United Methodist Church, Metropolitan Memorial UMC, in Washington, D.C. Also new to our administration are Anna N. Hutto (M. Div. '99), who serves as Associate Director of Alumni Relations and Development, and Peter M. Paulsen, our Communications Director.

At the core of Candler's enduring resources is our outstanding library. This past year, the Pitts Theology Library reached a remarkable milestone in its growth. Among all theological libraries, Pitts is now the second largest in North America, with more than 500,000 volumes. During November, the staff and friends of Pitts Theology Library celebrated its acquisition of a Methodist hymnal from the 1730's as the 100,000th item in the library's special collections. Among the rare materials now available to scholars at Pitts are the thousands of items from the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation housed in the Richard C. Kessler Reformation Collection, tens of thousands of items from English Church history, and many more documents in Wesleyan studies, not least of which are in hymnody.

Financial resources are necessary, as well. As one of the thirteen theological schools in United Methodism, Candler is deeply grateful for the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF), which is apportioned to every one of the 36,000 local churches in the denomination and through which our students are connected to every United Methodist whose contributions support their study. About $1,500,000 comes to Candler each year through the MEF. In addition to that amount, approximately $1,000,000 comes from such sources as local churches and annual conferences whose gifts help fund external scholarships.

Yet, as sizable as those amounts might seem, they are only a small part of our total financial responsibilities. For instance, our students were awarded more than $8,500,000 in aid toward the cost of their education in the last academic year.

Further, we are making plans to construct two new buildings on campus as well as to renovate a third. The collections at Pitts Theology Library continue to grow, and they require not only larger but also environmentally sensitive space. Bishops Hall, which was completed in 1957, requires a thorough interior reconstruction. Our student population is now 50% larger than it was when Bishops Hall opened as the main Candler facility. Our faculty has doubled since then. Construction costs alone for these new and renovated facilities are estimated to exceed $40,000,000.

Increased resources for faculty development and student financial aid will have to be found. In the near future, new faculty will be added in the fields of Biblical studies, Wesleyan theology, and parish ministry studies. Through a planning grant of $172,000 from the Lilly Endowment Inc., we are laying the groundwork for a proposed graduate education program in practical theology.

The needs are immense and the challenges are great. But Candler is committed to building leaders who will, in the wonderful Wesleyan sense of mission, reform the continent and spread scriptural holiness over the land. We are grateful for your participation with us.

www.divinity.duke.edu

Duke Divinity School, which opened in 1926 as Duke University's first graduate professional school, is nearing the conclusion of its 75th Anniversary. Professor Richard Lischer preached the anniversary sermon on Nov. 10 to highlight a year of activities for graduates and friends.

Enrollment for 2001-02 was 475 students from 31 states and 10 foreign countries. Fifty-five percent of the students (62 percent of M.Div. candidates) are United Methodist. They are very prepared for service across the church.

The Divinity School launched several new programs as part of the Learned Clergy Initiative, an innovative effort to help develop a new generation of strong pastors. Funded by a grant from Lilly Endowment Inc., the program is designed to inspire vital leadership for congregations. In fall 2001, the school welcomed the first group of 12 Divinity Fellows, each of whom is focused on a program of study leading to parish ministry. Three sustained learning seminars were conducted in various locations in North Carolina, and the first national Forum on Faith was conducted in Sea Island, Ga. These seminars bring together clergy and lay leaders with divinity faculty and students to cultivate good habits of study, reflection and conversation.

Duke Youth Academy for Christian Formation held its initial two-week residential session, July 8-21, on the Duke University campus. The academy engaged a full complement of 70 rising high school juniors and seniors of diverse races, cultures and Christian faith traditions from across the nation in an intensive experience with Duke faculty and other leaders. The second session will be July 7-20, 2002.

Duke Institute for Care at the End of Life continues to make an impact with important teaching, research and outreach on the "good" death in contemporary communities. The Institute conducted major conferences in Durham and Chicago on African Americans and care at the end of life.

Pulpit and Pew: Research on Pastoral Leadership, a four-year research project that focuses on strengthening the quality of clergy and lay leadership across the country, released selected findings from the National Clergy Survey this spring. The survey is the most comprehensive and representative survey of American clergy ever.

Bishop Kenneth L. Carder, of the Mississippi area, delivered the Hickman Lectures to highlight the annual Convocation and Pastors' School. The 2002 Convocation is set for October 14 and will feature Richard Hays and Roberta Bondi. Other highlights of the Continuing Education program included the second Laité Weekend and an expanded Jameson Jones Lectures schedule, which focused on "Preaching for the Southern Church." Twenty-four UM clergy from the Carolinas and Virginia graduated from the annual Reynolds Program in Church Leadership.

A new partnership between Duke Divinity School and John Wesley College, a South African theological school, came to life during the summer when three Divinity School students spent several weeks in ministry in Africa. We look forward to continuing to prepare men and women for faithful and effective parish ministry.

Active Ministers

JAMES GUYBURN MISHOE

May 22, 1942 – January 3, 2002

"Your life in Christ makes you strong and his love comforts you. You have fellowship with the Spirit and you have kindness for one another. I urge you, then, to make me completely happy by having the same thoughts, sharing the same love, and being one in soul and mind. Don't do anything from selfish ambition or from a cheap desire to boast, but be humble toward one another, always considering another's interests, and not just for your own. The attitude you should have is the one that Christ Jesus had." St. Paul's words to the saints in Philippi describe a saint who served among us, James Guyburn Mishoe.

Jim Mishoe made and kept friends everywhere. He married his dearest friend, Sheryl Waters Mishoe, while he was in seminary and serving Clearwater. They itinerated together to Newberry, Rock Hill, Lancaster, Greer, Simpsonville, North Charleston, Summerville, Laurens and Charleston. Gordon Mishoe was born while his father served Main Street, Rock Hill. Clay was born while Jim was pastor of Zoar Church, Greer. Jim and Sheryl and their sons were always close-knit, interdependent.

Born in Aiken, raised and educated in Conway and its public schools, Spartanburg Methodist College, Wofford College and Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Jim Mishoe's learning experiences were lifelong. He believed the Church exists for the lost and, therefore, focused on opportunities for mission. He participated in Volunteer in Mission teams in the Carolinas and in Brazil and the Philippines. Philippines Christian University awarded an honorary Doctorate of Humanities degree for Jim Mishoe's work in Palapala, Tagaytay City and throughout the Philippines. Good Shepherd Church in Lancaster was Jim's mission congregation. Cherokee Place Church in North Charleston, where Jim was named pastor emeritus and where he served longest, was the focal point of many mission initiatives.

The Mishoes were immersed in the activities of their congregations and the communities in which they lived. Jim served the South Carolina Firemen's Association, Givens Youth Correctional Institute, Charleston Pastoral Counseling Board, and Lutheran Social Services. Jim was a willing contributor rather than an interested observer wherever the Mishoes lived.

The gracious, engaging Jim Mishoe we all knew became unable to function, as he would have wanted, nearly seven years ago. Sheryl and Gordon and Clay had the task of caring for the one who had cared for them. An edge of sadness cut through the life of a close-knit family. Their love and care for one another never diminished. Their sacrifices were many and their way must have been weary. Jim's death was hard – his last years were hard.

Michael Quist wrote: "Every day we must choose ourselves anew – that is, the people who are around us, the places where we are, the things in which we participate. All of that life must become ours, for that life is the 'daily bread' that we must assimilate into ourselves. At the same time, we must offer it to Christ, who asks for it. We must allow Christ to transform it within himself and assimilate it totally so that – with our help – he may actualize the mystery of his incarnation. For man's free and loving 'yes' to his present life is the key to the mystical incarnation of Jesus which lies at the heart of creation." Jim Mishoe said, "yes" to the incarnate Christ. He actualized the mystery of the incarnation and helped others, especially his family, make the same affirmation. For all the gifts and graces of James Guyburn Mishoe we can give thanks. Amen.

JAMES MARION AIKEN

James Aiken was a good Methodist. James Aiken was a good minister. James Aiken was a good church member. However, what distinguished James most was that he was a good Christian. The Reverend James Aiken was a man of deep faith who believed in the power that Jesus could have in the lives of ordinary people. Perhaps James knew this best.

James never married, but one never heard him complain. His health waned in the latter years of his life, but one never heard a peep about unhappiness. James knew, from his own life, that a relationship with Christ transcended the misunderstandings of life and human circumstance. And what James wanted to do more than anything in life was serve this Savior that meant so much in his life. The best avenue, for him, to do that was through surrendering his life to the ministry.

I never knew James during those "appointed" ministry years, but the stories I hear are of a dedicated "workman" who gave his very life to the sharing of the gospel. The James I knew was a dedicated member of the church he loved, Pennington United Methodist Church of Madison, Georgia.

When we first started having youth group meetings at the church, it was the first time in ages that the lights of the church had been on during Sunday evenings. James lived nearby the church and was driving by one of those evenings. He stopped in and walked into a fellowship hall filled with rowdy teenagers. I'll never forget what he said to me: "I just couldn't drive by the church and see the lights on and not stop by to see what was going on." James was afraid he might miss something God was doing in the church he cherished. That was James – always looking to find where God was at work in the church and the world.

When we lost James, we lost a dear brother in Christ. Nevertheless, our Lord gained a valuable "workman." We need more Methodists with James' heart for his denomination. We need more ministers with James' heart for people. We need more church members with James' heart for the local congregation. Above all, we need more Christians with James' heart for Jesus Christ! The Reverend James Aiken's heart was big enough to handle all of those responsibilities, and I, for one, am glad that he chose to let his heart reach out to me.

MAX HENDRIX CHRISTOPHER

December 5, 1915 – November 11, 2001

The Reverend Max Hendrix Christopher died Sunday, November 11, 2001, at The Methodist Oaks, Orangeburg, South Carolina. The service of Death and Resurrection was held on Thursday, November 15, 2001 in the Nancy Freeman Stringer Memorial Chapel at The Methodist Oaks. The interment was at Greenlawn Memorial Gardens, Spartanburg, SC. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Burnett Christopher and four daughters, Mrs. Maxine C. Graves, Mrs. Amelia C. Smoot, Mrs. Susan C. Lee and Mrs. Mary C. Braswell; sisters, Ethel C. Smith, Helen C. Blythe; brothers, T.D. Christopher, Fritz Christopher, six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Max was born in Greenville County. He was the son of the late Walter Lee Christopher and Lou Annie Hendrix Christopher. He was a graduate of Wofford College and attended Candler School of Theology, Iliff Theological Seminary, and Northwestern University.

Rev. Christopher served pastorates in South Carolina since 1940. He served New Zion, Mullins Circuit, Jackson, Ft. Mill-St. John, Chester-Bethel, Aiken-St. John, Greenville-Christ, Columbia-Bethel, Columbia-Trinity, Rock Hill-Woodland. Max retired in 1980 with 40 years of faithful service to the South Carolina Annual Conference and the people of South Carolina.

Max was a dedicated son, husband, father, grandfather and friend. He lived his life before his family and friends as he called his parishioners to live before their families and friends.

He was committed in showing Christ not only to the world, but also to those he loved. He was willing to go where he was needed in order for others to know the love of Christ in their lives. He is remembered for his unconditional love.

Max was a man dedicated to the churches he was appointed to serve. He was there for the challenges of ministry. He was there for the celebrations. He was there in the time of need, and he was there to support, comfort and guide. He was and is highly respected as a man of God.

Max was a man who loved his Lord and Savior. He committed himself to Christ many years ago. He never lost the freshness of Christ's presence over the years. He knew God would guide him. He said, "It is the awareness of God's unmerited love and the alienation the pastor sees in the world that compels him to preach. Behind the normal scenes of life he sees men losing the struggle to possess their own souls. He mourns the brokenness he sees in the struggle of nation against nation, class against class, race against race. He hurts to be the tool of God's healing. As did his Lord, he breaks down the wall of man's greed, lust, fear, frustration, prejudice, addiction, and dropoutism. In his concerns he meets his Lord and knows his call to the ministry is affirmed. There are no bugle sounds or promises of personal glory. The servant is not better than his Lord. So he takes up the cross often crying 'I cannot go', but he goes and in the going he finds the eternal companion and knows joy in God." In his last few years he never lost sight of who he was and why.

FRANK OLIVER GEISSINGER

February 27, 1921 – June 15, 2001

Frank Oliver Geissinger, son of Samuel Henry and Margaret May Geissinger, was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and was baptized June 12, 1921, at Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church, on Pittsburgh's north side. Oliver (as he preferred to be called) attended the local Methodist Church and was active in its youth group. As an officer in his district's youth ministry, Oliver attended a weekend event at a Methodist camp near Pittsburgh. There, in 1939, Oliver met another active Methodist young adult, Erma Mae Green. That chance encounter changed both their lives, as their acquaintance led to friendship, courtship, and their lifelong union. They were married August 2, 1944. Oliver's life had another turning point in 1939, as he began working for the Frick and Lindsay Company, which made and sold machinery for mills and mines. He continued to work at Frick and Lindsay until he retired in 1984.

During the early 1970's, Oliver felt a call to serve as a part-time local pastor for small congregations in the Pittsburgh area. Encouraged by his district superintendent, Oliver began the Course of Study by correspondence in 1975. In June 1976, he was appointed to Walton UMC, whose congregation was meeting in the basement kitchen of its large building on the south side of Pittsburgh. When Oliver left in 1980, the congregation's active membership had grown and had gained a new sense of its vitality and purpose. Due to increased demands on him at Frick and Lindsay, Oliver did not seek appointment in 1980 or 1981. In 1982 he returned to pastoral work, serving Blackburn UMC until June 1984, when Bishop Roy Clark invited him to come to serve the Chesnee Charge in South Carolina. Having retired from Frick and Lindsay earlier that year, Oliver was available. He served the Chesnee Charge from June 1984 to June 1986, when he retired and moved to Beverly Hills, Florida.

From 1975 until his final retirement in 1986, Oliver worked diligently to fulfill the requirements of the Course of Study. Like John Wesley, he rose early in the morning so he could read and write before going to work. Erma Mae typed his assignments and his bulletins for his church services. His work usually came back with praise and excellent grades.

In retirement, Oliver enjoyed painting pictures, traveling, visiting his son, Wayne, and daughter, Audrey, both of whom are elders in the United Methodist Church, and the grandchildren. He and Erma Mae learned to square dance and enjoyed many evenings and two Caribbean cruises in that activity. They were active in the United Methodist Church of Dunnellon, Florida, where he taught a men's Sunday School class for several years. On August 2, 1994, Oliver and Erma Mae celebrated fifty years of marriage accompanied by their children, grandchildren, in-laws, and friends, who gave them a surprise party. By then, Alzheimer's disease and mini-strokes had restricted Oliver's ability to participate fully in life. In February 1997 a more serious stroke and advancing Alzheimer's disease made full-time residential care a necessity. There his devoted wife visited him daily, monitored his care, and took him to worship God regularly within the residence. His pleasant disposition and joyful spirit cheered those who cared for him and made him a continuing blessing and witness to God's grace, peace and love. This gentle and humble servant of God will be remembered for his physical, emotional, and spiritual strength, love of life, people, and his Savior, his devotion to serve God and to be a blessing to all who were privileged to know him.

THOMAS EDWARD GILES

December 14, 1929 – January 12, 2002

T. Edward Giles was born on December 14, 1929, in Birmingham, Alabama. He was the son of Thomas M. Giles and Lillian Meadows Giles.

Ed graduated from Birmingham Southern College and later received a Masters Degree from Garrett Seminary at Northwestern University. He earned a doctoral degree from Drew University.

Ed faithfully served the Methodist church for 44 years in Alabama, Indiana, New York, and South Carolina. He also served as the Regional Director of the New Orleans office of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. He was named Honorary Colonel in the state of Louisiana for his work in inter-faith affairs.

Ed was active in the civil rights movement with the followers of Martin Luther King, Jr. He participated in civil rights marches in the states of Alabama and New York. Even when his family was threatened, Ed continued to participate in the civil rights movement because he believed he had to help make the world a better place for all people. Ed was the kind of man who stood up for what he believed in.

Ed was also especially concerned about the underprivileged, the poor, and the mentally ill. His younger brother and sister remember that, even as a child, Ed was always "for the underdog." He believed that all people had the right to be treated equally. Ed tried to help those who were less fortunate to have a better quality of life. He believed in the welfare of all the world's people and that we are all God's Children. Ed lived what he preached and was a "people pastor."

Ed introduced ecumenical services to many of the communities he served. He also initiated many other new programs and services for his parishioners. Ed was often called a "man before his time" by church members. He was a humble and unassuming person who made a great difference in many communities and in many lives.

Ed served on various boards and committees of the conference throughout his many years of service. He was a member of the Greenville Faith Communities United and of the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill.

Ed's service of Death and Resurrection was held on January 15, 2002. The officiating clergy were Bobbie R. Ethridge and Jimmy W. Dillard. In words that he had used in a funeral service, Ed said that "Life is sacred, but so too is death. Death is a part of life, and it, too, is sacred."

Ed's ministry will live on in the hearts and lives of his family and of the many people he touched.

Ed is survived by his wife of 44 years, Betty Jane Borland Giles, a daughter and son-in-law, Lianne Sherrer Giles Cisson and Scott Cisson, a son, Ted Rodney Giles, and two grandchildren, Micaela Anne and Giles Cisson. He is also survived by a brother, Ronald L. Giles, of Birmingham, and a sister, Juanita Giles Elmore, of Conyers, Georgia.

Memorial gifts were sent to the National Alliance for Research on Schizophrenia and Depression.

"Well done, good and faithful servant. Enter into the joy of the Lord!" Matthew 25:21

SAMUEL RUFUS GLENN

November 8, 1909 – February 15, 2002

The Rev. Samuel Rufus Glenn died on February 15, 2002. The service of Death and Resurrection was held at 3:00 PM Monday, February 18 at Woods Chapel UMC, Greer, S. C. Interment was in the Church's Cemetery. Dr. Robert E. Stillwell and Dr. Clarence O. Pittman officiated.

Born in the Woods Chapel Community November 8, 1909, he was the youngest of ten children of Mollie and William T. Glenn. The Rev. Glenn was a 1931 graduate of Wofford College and Harvard University's Chaplain School. He was a U.S. Army Chaplain in England, France and Germany from 1941 to 1945.

For over forty-three years he served churches in the South Carolina Conference. His appointments were: Pickens Circuit, Wagener Charge; Simpsonville; Trinity, Fountain Inn; Trinity, Greenville; Grace, North Augusta; Main Street, Greenwood; Greenville District Superintendent; Grace, Pickens; and Faith, Greer.

He served as a member of the Board of Trustees of Wofford College for eight years and was a delegate to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences in 1968. He was a member of the boards of the Salvation Army, the Boy Scouts of America, and the Greenville YMCA.

Rev. Glenn wrote an article about himself in 1995 for the newsletter published by Rolling Green, where he lived. He said of his early life:

"My parents were dedicated to making farm life attractive to each member of the family. Each of the ten children was given a certain job according to age and physical ability. This made each child feel important. Our farm produced cotton, grain, peaches, apples, pears, grapes and figs. Plenty of vegetables were available in season to share with our neighbors. An excellent breed of cattle was raised on the farm to increase the family income. Local markets were eager to purchase good quality beef." His hobbies were gardening, fishing and walking.

He continued, "I taught school for two years looking to find my future vocation. The Methodist ministry appealed to me as a place of Christian service. Preparation for this service was achieved through the Candler School of Theology connected to Emory University."

The Rev. Glenn was predeceased by his wife, Myrtle McElrath Glenn, and is survived by a son, Samuel R. Glenn, Jr., and his wife, Jane; two granddaughters and their husbands, Cameron Glenn Chandler and H. Daniel Chandler, Beverly Glenn Neal and Michael A. Neal; two great-grandsons, James Richard Neal and Aaron Michael Neal; and three step great-grandchildren, Danika and her husband, Adam Otto, Timothy Chandler, and Lorri and her husband, Billy Mitchell.

I first came to know Rufus Glenn when I was appointed to be his successor at Trinity, Fountain Inn. He had served the congregation for seven years and seen them through the rebuilding of their sanctuary after it had been destroyed by fire. No minister could have done more to prepare a congregation for a young, inexperienced pastor. I later learned he had told them that my success as a young minister was their responsibility!

Rufus Glenn was committed with every fiber of his being to his Lord and Master. Shortly after his 92nd birthday, with remarkable clarity of mind and warmth of spirit, he delivered from his wheelchair a sermon filled with hope to the residents at Rolling Green.

Rufus said he had prayed: "Lord, you called me to teach people how to live and I have tried to do that. What do you want me to do now?" The answer came back, he said, "I want you to show people how to die." And so he did, peacefully, triumphantly.

EULALIA COOK GONZALEZ

The Rev. Eulalia Cook Gonzalez was the daughter of The Rev. John Edward Cook, and the sister of The Rev. Pierce Embree Cook, members of the South Carolina Conference. She knew what it was to itinerate. After being graduated from Davenport Junior College, Lenoir, N.C., and Columbia College, Columbia, S.C., Ms. Cook taught in South Carolina Public Schools. She itinerated to Scarritt College for Christian Workers to prepare for the missionary work she began in rural Cuba in 1940.

Eulalia Cook, who embodied the Word, wanted to share the gift of literacy. She founded and directed the department of the Rural Church at Union Theological Seminary in Matanzas, Cuba, and was a founder of Branscomb Publications. In 1960 Rev. Ms. Cook, along with other missionaries, was forced to leave Cuba.

Costa Rica became her new base. She worked and traveled extensively throughout Central and South America. During the 1960s Eulalia Cook founded the Alfalit program. She spread the Christian faith developing reading skills, publishing in the vernacular of the people she could reach, and teaching basic education, nutrition, and community development. Her writings for Alfalit and her tireless itinerating contributed to the growth of the organization in Central and South America, Africa, and portions of Europe and the United States.

Eulalia Cook and Don Justo Gonzalez, a bishop of the Methodist Church in Cuba, and a co-worker in Alfalit were married in 1982. After his death in 1994, The Rev. Cook-Gonzalez returned to Costa Rica to live with friends. She continued her literacy ministry until her death on July 14, 2001, at the home of friends in Alajuela, Costa Rica. Her remains were buried in the Cook Family Cemetery near Pergamos United Methodist Church in Florence County. Her journey was long, and her life was abundant.

JAMES RAY GREGG

March 5, 1926 – August 11, 2001

James Ray Gregg was born March 5, 1926, to Mary Talitha Floyd Gregg and Arnold Waid Gregg, in Woodstock, Alabama. He was the youngest of five children, and the son of a Methodist Minister.

At the age of 17, in 1943, he joined the Navy Air Corp serving stateside until a year after the end of World War II.

In July 1946, at twenty years old he met Vivian Ethridge, then seventeen, the love of his life, while managing his brother's restaurant in Bessemer, Alabama. She was applying for a job and, of course, he hired her on the spot. The whirlwind romance began. On September 9, 1946, Jim and Vivian were married, in Alabama. The ceremony was performed by his father and witnessed by his mother in the Methodist Parsonage.

In 1950 he became a Birmingham City Police Officer. His last two years on the Force were spent working in the Juvenile Division with abused, homeless, and underprivileged children. They all wanted to come home with him and the feeling was mutual.

After 3 years struggling with his call to be a minister, he finally enrolled at Birmingham Southern College at the age of 30, in 1956. He remained on the Police Force, and served a small mission church while earning his Bachelor of Arts degree.

At the age of 40, in 1963, he entered the Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta, GA. With Vivian and three children, he lived in a family dorm during the week and drove back to Alabama every weekend where he served a 4 church charge in the North Alabama Conference. After his second year in Seminary, he transferred to the South Carolina Conference, serving Greer-Sharon while continuing to commute to Emory until he earned his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1966.

For the next 25 years he served in the South Carolina Conference. After Greer-Sharon he served Sandy Springs Charge, the Port Royal Charge, Lugoff- St. John's, Clover-First Church and the Kingstree Charge. During these years he served his parishioners with commitment, loving guidance as counselor, friend, and example and total devotion. He was one of the first in the UMC to actively participate in the integration of the church. He was a member, then President, then Lieutenant Governor of the Optimist Club. He volunteered on behalf of the UMC to aid victims in the aftermath of Hurricane Hugo in 1989, receiving awards for his outstanding service.

He retired from the United Methodist Ministry at the age of 65 in 1991. He and Vivian returned to live in Lugoff, SC, where they had become close to many in the congregation of St. John's years earlier.

He was diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease on April 14, 1994. For the next seven years, as he steadily declined, Jim and Vivian resided together in their home in Lugoff, with Vivian as his sole care-provider. On December 26, 2000, he was admitted to Kershaw County Memorial Hospital, and in January 2001, moved to the McCoy Nursing Center in Bishopville, SC. He remained there until July 20, 2001, being readmitted to the hospital at that time. Jim Gregg died at 2:10 am, August 11, 2001, as a natural result of the last stage of Alzheimer's Disease.

CHARLES C. ILIFF, JR.

May 22, 1922 – December 21, 2001

Charles C. Iliff, Jr. was educated to be an engineer and worked in the business world from 1943 to 1974. He then served as Church Administrator at First United Methodist Church in Newton, New Jersey, first on a volunteer basis, and then as a member of the church staff. He pursued certification in Church Administration and was consecrated as a Diaconal Minister in the Northern New Jersey Annual Conference on June 8, 1977.

Just prior to his consecration as a Diaconal Minister, Charles and his wife moved to South Carolina where he had accepted a position at Union United Methodist Church, Irmo. The milder winters and friends in the region encouraged their decision to move south.

On June 8, 1978, Charles C. Iliff, Jr., was transferred as a Diaconal Minister from the Northern New Jersey Conference to the South Carolina Annual Conference. He continued under appointment as Business Administrator at Union, Irmo, until seeking retirement as a Diaconal Minister in 1982. He was dedicated to the church and served capably and effectively on the staff at Union for almost five years.

Following retirement, Mr and Mrs. Iliff made their home in Matthews, North Carolina, where they were active in the Matthews United Methodist Church.

THEODORE EDWARD JONES

July 15, 1913 - June 29, 2001

Ted Jones' ministry began in an unlikely manner. One night while he was alone in the barn on his father's farm soon after the harvest checking on the newly stored crop. He had just received an appointment to Annapolis, which guaranteed a free education during the financial hardship of the Great Depression. As he contemplated both his good fortune and his future, he slowly realized that he did not want to spend his life in the military arts. He wanted to spend his life helping people rather than aiding in their destruction. That night in the barn, he heard the call to the ministry.

He answered the call by declining the appointment to Annapolis, and going to Wofford College instead. There he worked his way through school with part-time jobs. His ministry began even then, as he gave a scholarship he had received for a year's expenses to a friend, requiring that he drop out and work for a year.

After graduating from Wofford with a BA in 1934, he considered furthering his preparation for the ministry at both Duke and Yale Divinity Schools. In the end he chose Duke because he felt that studying closer to the locale he would serve would improve the quality of his ministry. In 1939 he graduated from Duke with a BD.

Completing his preparation for the ministry, he was licensed to preach in 1935; ordained deacon in 1939; ordained elder in 1941; and received into full connection in 1941. Early in his career in 1941, he married Mary Elizabeth Stanton from Red Springs, N.C. - his collaborator and spiritual partner in all things.

He had a life-long interest in service that showed early when big gambling interests tried to start pari-mutual betting in Myrtle Beach in the late forties. Seeing the threat to the ministries of local churches at a family beach, he chaired the committee that led the fight against the gambling syndicate. The syndicate was not easily deterred and threatened harm to his family, who lived in a parsonage in a remote location without a telephone. But, in the end, the syndicate did not prevail, and the churches flourished.

His interest in service showed in many areas. At the community level, he worked with penitentiary prisoners returned to families in Charleston, worked on the mayor's council in several cities, and worked with German war prisoners during World War II at Myrtle Beach.

At the conference level, he served on the Board of the Ministry, 1968-72, and Chair of the Sermon Committee; delegate to the World Methodist Conference in 1970; Secretary of the Cabinet, 1958-61; Secretary of the S.C. Methodist Board of Education 1952-56; and Vice Chair of the Coordinating Council (now Conference Council on Ministries).

Though he felt a clear and powerful spiritual calling to the ministry that night in the barn long ago, his experience in the Great Depression also gave him a sense of the need for resources to do the work of the church. As a result, he became interested in finance. His concern about the importance of finance showed itself early in his career at Beaufort where he retired longstanding debt and started the construction and furnishing of new buildings. Each church member was asked to contribute a week's earnings. During final efforts to raise the funds, the young people and children in the church volunteered to contribute a week's allowance. While at Trinity Church in Charleston in the fifties, he raised $100,000 for building restoration and a new Sunday School building to provide a place for church activities and a means for attracting new members.

Later at the conference level, he chaired the committee to write the first health insurance policy for S.C. Methodist ministers, 1955-57; served on the Commission on World Service and Finance for the period 1961-68, was Secretary, 1961-1964 and Chair, 1964-68.

He always felt that the church needed a sense of vision in order to be successful. Combining vision with his interests in service and finance, he was the organizing District Superintendent for St. Luke's United Methodist, Hartsville, and Aldersgate United Methodist Church, Sumter. During his tenure, thirty-five churches in the district built educational plants, nine built new churches, thirteen built new parsonages, a new district parsonage was built, and the pastors' salaries increased 47%. Three thousand people joined the church through profession of faith, and twenty five hundred by transfer from other churches, in a district with a declining population.

His long career spanned 43 years in the S.C. Conference. Among the United Methodist churches served as pastor were Trinity in Charleston, St. Paul's in Orangeburg, Grace in North Augusta, St. John's in Anderson, and First United Methodist in Myrtle Beach.

Having formed a great love for Wofford College during undergraduate days, he was active in the affairs of the college, serving on the Board of Trustees for the period 1956-61. He was awarded a DD degree by Wofford in 1964, and preached the Baccalaureate Sermon the same year.

After retiring in 1979, he continued his church service as first Secretary of the Association of Retired Ministers of S.C. during 1980-88, and also serving as supply pastor at Salem United Methodist Church during 1981-84.

Dr. Jones passed away from service after a long illness on June 29th, 2001. He is survived by his wife, Mary Elizabeth Jones, his daughter Elizabeth Stanton J. Savage, and son Theodore Edward Jones, Jr.

It was a long odyssey from that night in the barn until his final passage, but for those who knew him well, a verse from Timothy describes his life best:

I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith.

— Theodore Edward Jones, Jr.

PETE JULIAN MILLWOOD

May 13, 1930 – March 28, 2002

The Rev. Pete J. Millwood, loving husband, father, and friend met his heavenly Father on March 28, 2002.

He is survived by his devoted wife of 49 years, Mary Katherine Millwood, and three children, seven grandchildren and a great-grandchild. Children include two sons, Kenneth P. Millwood of Suwanee, Ga. and Johnny R. Millwood of Six Mile, and a daughter, Susan M. Johnson of Rainsville, Ala. His daughters-in-law and son-in-law are Sharon Millwood of Suwanee, Ga., Brenda Millwood of Six Mile and Fred Johnson of Rainsville, Ala. Grandchildren include Steven Millwood (and wife, Paula) of Central, Kenna Millwood of Charlotte, N.C., Dustin Millwood (and wife, Carrie) of Six Mile, Ben Millwood of Suwanee, Ga., Phillip, Paige, and Payton Johnson of Rainsville, Ala. Great-grandson, Brent Millwood, resides in Six Mile. Niece, Jean Barker, resides in Pacolet. The Rev. Millwood was preceded in death by an infant son, Ronald Steven Millwood.

Rev. Millwood began his ministry in 1966, serving churches in the Spartanburg, Greenville, and Anderson Districts. After retirement in 1994 because of disability, he later served the Tabor Church until the time of his death.

Rev. Millwood was a past chairman of the United Christian Ministries of Easley. He was past Master of Fork Shoals Masonic Lodge, a lifetime member of the Keowee Masonic Lodge, and 32nd Degree York Rite Mason. He served as a Meals on Wheels volunteer as well as a literacy volunteer.

The greatest heritage that any person can leave his family and friends is an abundant supply of faith, hope, and love. Pete left that kind of legacy for us to follow.

The service of Death and Resurrection was held at 11:00 AM, Saturday, March 30, 2002 at Grace United Methodist Church, Pickens, SC. Interment was in Hillcrest Cemetery between Pickens and Easley, SC. The officiating ministers were the Rev. Edward H. McDowell, The Rev. Steve A. Patterson, and The Rev. David Ervin.

DWIGHT HILL MIMS

February 25, 1935 – April 6, 2002

A Message from Dwight's Children As Spoken at Dwight's Funeral.

Just last week I was telling daddy's nurse practitioner how my son reminds me of Daddy. "Oh, he must have that twinkle," she said. This moved me considering she had only known Daddy in the final stages of Alzheimer's disease. This moved me, but it did not surprise me.

A Pharisee once asked Jesus, "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the law?" Jesus replied, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it, love your neighbor as yourself."

Loving God and sharing that love with others is not only what Daddy's life was about, but it was who he was. When I asked Daddy if there was one thing he'd like to tell people, he would answer every time without hesitation, "Do all you can for as many people as you can for as long as you can." I know these words came from a deep part of him because they were the same year after year, before and throughout his dementia. As a minister, Daddy would frequently end his prayers asking God to equip us to live our lives so that one day, we would be met by a loving father who would say, "Well done thy good and faithful servant."

Most would assume that Daddy's servant-hood and ministry ended with the onset of his disability. But God only moved Daddy into a new and unique mission field. His life continued to reflect God's Word even after he could no longer read it.

There was a period during Daddy's illness that he would walk out into our front yard to preach to a congregation only he could see. Concerned, he came inside early one day to ask my sister-in-law, Patti, if he should be preaching to these people. They were not paying him. Patti said, "Mr. Mirs, sometimes you have to follow your heart." He immediately returned to his congregation happy to render his services free of charge. Only God and Daddy know what Daddy saw, but I can't help but think of Matthew 5:8, "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God."

One night, when visiting Daddy at the nursing home, I became increasingly concerned for a lady who kept crying out from her room. She would say, "Someone help me, somebody please help me." When I alerted the nurse, she told me the lady did this nearly every night. Sharing my concern, Daddy stood outside her door and prayed for her. I asked Daddy to stay in the hall while I went into her room to try to help. Fortunately, Daddy ignored me and came into the room. He simply leaned over the side of her bed, placed his hand upon her, and said, "I love you and God loves you." She immediately quieted. I did not hear any more cries coming from her room that night. You see, Daddy did not need his memory to share God's love. God's word promises that his mercies are new every morning and though outwardly we are wasting away, inwardly we are being renewed day by day. And nothing can separate us from the love of God, neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else, including Alzheimer's disease.

Nothing unveils a man's true character like being stripped of everything the world sees as valuable. This did not change Daddy's character, it only revealed it. When you think of my dad, you think first of his sweet smile, contagious laugh, and unconditional acceptance. Second, you think of the years of suffering he endured. This may sound like a paradox, but there was one common denominator, and that was his faith.

His was a faith based on who God is, not what God does. His was a hope for what is unseen. God's ways are higher than our ways. We may not always have the answers to our questions, but God's word promises if you trust in the Lord with all you heart, he shall direct your paths. Daddy knew this. Daddy lived this.

In a letter to me, Daddy wrote, "Memorize Romans 8:28 and cling to it: all things work together for good for those who love the Lord." I understand now why this was his favorite verse.

Psalms 30, verse 5, says "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." Morning has broken for you, Daddy. We know your twinkle is now part of a beauty beyond anything we can comprehend. Well done, thy good and faithful servant!

RALPH THOMAS MIRSE

August 8, 1921 – November 26, 2001

Dr. Ralph T. Mirse was born in Salem, Kentucky. He was the son of the late Ralph T. Mirse, Sr. and Ruby Morris Mirse. He began his service to the church in the Kentucky Annual Conference and later served in the New England Conference. He graduated from Asbury College and seminary. He later received a Doctorate in Sacred Theology from Boston University.

He was director of the Department of New Church Development and was instrumental in establishing new Methodist Churches. He was also Vice President of Baker University and President of Lakeland College before coming to Columbia College where he served as President for eleven years. After retiring, the family moved to Hilton Head where he served as Director of Development for the Hilton Head Extension of the University of South Carolina. After retiring from USC, Dr. and Mrs. Mirse returned to Columbia.

Dr. Mirse was also a 32nd degree Mason, a Shriner, and was listed in Who's Who in America. He was a member of Trenholm Road United Methodist Church. He was married to Blanche Allen Mirse for 56 wonderful years. Born to that union were three children, son, Ralph Allen Mirse, daughters, Deborah L. Ladue and SallyAnn Zeigler.

CLARENCE LEGRANDE MOODY, JR.

April 8, 1914 – November 16, 2001

LeGrande Moody kept a file of his sermons. Each time he preached one, he would mark the date and place that it was used. In his latter years, one of LeGrande's favorites was "What the Church Means to Me." He would speak with heart-felt gratitude of the many ways the Church had shaped his life. He recounted how the Church had first told him of God; how its institutions provided him with a college education (Furman, Elon, and Yale Divinity School); and how it had given him a place to serve and bestowed upon him many honors.

LeGrande believed deeply in the goodness and the importance of the Church, and he made it his life's work to strengthen the Church in any way he could. He joined the South Carolina Annual Conference in 1948 after five years of service as a Chaplain in the United States Navy. For the next three decades, he used his talents as a speaker, leader, and administrator to build up the charges to which he was appointed: Whitmire, Epworth Children's Home, Ware Shoals-Hodges, Woodland (Rock Hill), Central (Spartanburg), Grace (North Augusta), Washington Street (Columbia), the Greenwood District, and Central (Florence). Even after his retirement in 1979, he gladly served wherever he was needed.

LeGrande's confident demeanor and authoritative voice naturally commanded respect. His service aboard the USS Texas during the D-Day invasion had tested his character. There, as elsewhere, he was untiring in his service, prudent in his leadership, and honorable in character. LeGrande was, as Chad Davis said of him in his eulogy, an "American hero." In later years LeGrande enjoyed many reunions with the men of his ship and was honored by France with the Chevalier de l'Order National du Merite.

LeGrande was intentional about calling others to join him in the work of strengthening the Church. He had a gift for helping people feel good about their church and their denomination. He enlisted their support for the work of the Church, challenging them to give generously of themselves and their assets to strengthen the Church. He often spoke of the pastoral ministry as a high and holy calling, and he was delighted whenever he influenced a young person to consider that call.

LeGrande Moody was for many years a leader within the South Carolina Annual Conference. When there was controversy, he did not shy away from it; but he always sought to understand differing points of view and to restore unity. He was a delegate to General Conference in 1968, 1970, and 1972. He served as Chairman of the Trustees of Epworth Children's Home, the South Carolina Methodist Advocate, and the Greenwood Methodist Home. He was especially proud of his service on the committee that developed the plan of merger for the black and white conferences in South Carolina.

LeGrande died November 16, 2001 after several years of declining health. A service of death and resurrection was held November 19 at Central United Methodist Church in Florence, where he was Pastor Emeritus. Tom Pietila, Vernon Anderson, and Chad Davis presided. He was interred at the Moody family plot in Dillon, South Carolina next to his beloved first wife, Elizabeth (Lib) Ballentine Moody.

After Lib's death in 1983, LeGrande wooed and married Mary Virginia T. Cannon Moody. He is survived by Mrs. Moody, his daughters Fran and Libby, and four step-children, including this writer.

WILLIAM LAWRENCE JOSEPH NELSON

August 26, 1912 – September 9, 2001

William Lawrence Joseph Nelson, son of the late Joseph and Janetta Bryant Nelson of Pinopolis, South Carolina. W.L.J., as many called him, even his wife, was educated at the Simonton Public School. In June 1931, William graduated from Burke Industrial High School. He was further educated at the Duke University Conference Course of Study School.

At an early age he was baptized at Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church in Pinopolis, South Carolina. In 1922, his family moved to Charleston, where they joined Wesley United Methodist Church. Reverend Nelson was a dedicated member of Wesley United Methodist Church. He worked faithfully with the church school, serving for nineteen years as the elected recording steward of class number 29. In 1937, he became leader of class 22. In 1941, he became an Exhorter in the church; from 1945 until 1972, he served as a lay preacher. From 1945 until 1972, he also served as Charge Lay Leader.

Prior to entering the ministry, he worked as a foreman at Logan and Robinson Fertilizer Company, a laborer at the Naval Shipyard, a Fireman and Switchman on the Railroad, and a Lubrication Specialist.

He received his first pastoral appointment through Dr. Omega Newman, Charleston District Superintendent. He served as pastor of the Mt. Holly Charge: Bethel, Casey, Promised Land, and Solomon Temple United Methodist Churches. From 1972 to 1979, he merged three of the churches to become the Joshua United Methodist Church, Strawberry, South Carolina. Solomon-Temple joined Wesley United Methodist Church in Pinopolis. On May 31, 1977, Reverend Nelson was ordained a Deacon in the United Methodist Church. In 1979 he served and pastored the Harleyville Charge: St. Daniels, Jerusalem, and Morris Chapel. Later he supplied the Cottageville Charge: Jericho, Wesley Grove, and Macedonia United Methodist Churches. Rev. Nelson retired in 1984. Later he was asked to supply Cordesville United Methodist Church. Eventually he returned home to Wesley United Church on Meeting Street. He frequently visited the New Francis Brown United Methodist Church in Charleston Heights with his godson, the Rev. Willis T. Goodwin. All the members call him their "godfather;" they love him, and he loved them.

Reverend William Lawrence Joseph Nelson was first married, on April 5, 1932, to the former Miss Annie Green of Lake City, South Carolina, who predeceased him April 12, 1966. He met and married Ruth Moultrie Singleton on November 10, 1967. He has a daughter Azalee C. Green of James Island, one stepson, Samuel Singleton (Elizabeth), one adopted daughter Marie W. Hill, ten grandchildren, seven great grandchildren.

In 1943, he was elected Worshipful Master of the Lodge. Later, the Grand Master of South Carolina appointed William Lawrence Joseph Nelson as Grand Lecturer of the State of South Carolina. He also served from 1966 until 1970 as Master of the Lodge, at which time he initiated a program for the benefit of widows and orphans, and organized The Order of the Eastern Star (The Easter Light Chapter Number 360, Order of the Eastern Star, Prince Hall Affiliation) of which he was the Worthy Patron, and was later appointed Deputy of the Pythagoras. Rev. Nelson was enrolled in the Prince Hall Masonic Organization for over 60 years as Master and Grand Chaplain of the State of South Carolina until his retirement to the call of the Master of the Universe on Sunday, September 9, 2001.

He was buried at Whispering Pine Memorial Cemetery in Strawberry, South Carolina, near the church which he started and built in his first year of service.

I am eternally grateful to the United Methodist Church for giving him a chance to do what he always loved: building and serving the church and the people of God.

— Ruth Moultrie Singleton-Nelson

HENRY JACKSON PHILLIPS

June 6, 1923 – September 8, 2001

Born in Morvin, North Carolina, June 6, 1923, Henry Jackson "Jack" Phillips was one of six children born to John and Docia Riddle Phillips. His family moved to Greenville, South Carolina when Jack was three years of age. Jack grew up in a close, loving family. He loved sports and enjoyed playing ball with his brothers and neighborhood friends. Jack attended Greenville County schools and graduated from Greenville Senior High School, where he was active in basketball and baseball. After graduation from high school, Jack proudly served his country as a military policeman in the United States Army.

On October 3, 1942, Jack married the former Elzie Brock. At the time of his death, they had been married nearly fifty-nine years. Elzie was always at Jack's side, assisting him in his ministry. Jack and Elzie had two daughters, Shirley Phillips and Janet Phillips Martin.

Jack was called into the ministry in 1951. By this time he had a family and was employed in a full-time job. He enrolled in Furman University and earned his Bachelor's Degree while continuing to work full-time to provide for his family. Jack began his ministry at the Liberty-Ebenezer charge in 1953 serving until 1957. He then went to his home church, Holroyd Memorial and served there, and at Salem until 1963. In 1963, Jack was assigned to the Harris in Greenwood, and served ten years. In 1973, he went to Saint James United Methodist Church in Laurens, where he served for sixteen years. He retired in 1989, and returned to his home in Greenville. Jack went on to serve as Minister of Visitation at Lee Road United Methodist Church and as Interim Pastor at Dunean United Methodist Church. At the time of Jack's death he was Minister at Bethel United Methodist Church.

Jack enjoyed working with the youth of the churches he served. He worked hard to get young people involved in church and urged them to take the right path in life. He developed programs for the youth, and coached and assisted with church league softball and baseball teams.

Jack was committed to the elderly members of the church. He delighted in visiting them and spending time with them. He loved to hear their stories relating to the history of the churches he served. He always took time to visit the sick and those who were in nursing homes. He often took them gifts, flowers, and fruit baskets for Christmas and other special occasions.

If there was ever a man who loved to preach, it was Jack Phillips. When his health began to fail, and he clearly did not feel like going to church, he was so determined and devoted that he seemed to improve when he took his place behind the pulpit. He always preached what God had laid on his heart, and he prayed the sweetest, most beautiful prayers. Jack loved the people he served and always had a wonderful, loving relationship with his members. He never failed to reach out to those in need, or to anyone who needed help or guidance. Jack once said he did not think he would ever stop preaching. He served God until his health would not permit him to continue. He preached his last sermon on July 22, 2001, and was hospitalized on August 21, 2001. He passed away on September 8, 2001, after suffering a stroke and renal failure. Jack was faithful to God, and to His calling until the end.

Jack's former Sunday school teacher wrote the following scripture in Jack's Bible when he was a young boy. He always loved this verse, which is found in Revelation 2:10. "Be thou faithful even unto death, and I will give unto thee a crown of life."

On September 11, 2001, a celebration of the life of God's servant, the Reverend Jack Phillips, was held at Lee Road United Methodist Church in Taylors, South Carolina. The Reverend Doctor Gareth Scott, the Reverend Tony Medlin, and the Reverend Charlie Short conducted the service. Jack's family, fellow ministers, and friends gathered to pay respect to a remarkable man who had devoted over forty - seven years to God's calling and to the ministry of the United Methodist Church. Jack was truly faithful unto death.

Interment was at Woodlawn Memorial Gardens in Greenville.

His wife Elzie, two daughters, Shirley Phillips and Janet Phillips Martin, two grandchildren, a sister, and three brothers survive Jack.

Jack was a devoted and loving husband, father, and brother. He will always live in our hearts, and we will miss him forever.

— Shirley Phillips

ERVIN ROBERT ROWELL, JR.

October 13, 1933 - September 24, 2001

The Rev. Ervin Robert Rowell, Jr., the son of Robert and Hallie Boykin Rowell was born in Kingstree, S.C. on October 13, 1933. He served in the Korean Conflict and was graduated from Clemson University in 1958. He began his career with Texaco and became a district manager before entering the real estate business.

Entering the ministry was for Robert Rowell a late vocation. He became a student local pastor in 1982 and was appointed to Toxaway Church in Anderson. He also served the West Darlington Charge while finishing his Master of Divinity degree at Candler School of Theology, Emory University. Mr. Rowell was pastor of the Nichols Charge and Belair Church before taking incapacity leave in February, 1993.

In 1999 Robert Rowell retired and moved to be near his daughters, Ms. Amanda Rowell Keller and Ms. Robin R. Slater, in Atlanta, Georgia. His daughters, his son E. Robert Rowell, III, and his mother survive. The Service of Death and Resurrection was held at Trio Church, Trio, S.C. Interment was in the Andrews Memorial Cemetery, Andrews, S.C.

JEAN MADELIN CAMPBELL ANDERSON

March 21, 1928-September 12, 2001

When Jean Anderson's body died on September 12, 2001, one day after the national tragedy of 9/11, one of her friends said she could imagine Jean in heaven smiling warmly as she greeted the thousands who crowded the heavenly gates. What an appropriate tribute to someone who radiated good will and who loved her family, her friends, her church, and all those who knew her. We all loved her in return.

Jean was married for fifty-one years to the Reverend L. Porter Anderson, Jr. Their children are L. Porter Anderson, III, of Atlanta, and Elizabeth Anderson Rankin of Columbia. Their grandchildren are Andrew Richard Rankin and Meredith Anderson Rankin. Jean taught in the public schools for almost thirty years, in Atlanta, Columbia, North Augusta, Greenville, Rock Hill, and Columbia Richland District Two, where her final years were as a parent education administrator. She was a member of two professional sororities, ADK and PEO. She received a B.A. degree from Winthrop College and an M.R.E. degree from the Candler School of Theology, Emory University.

Jean was able to reach many people through her love of travel and her talent with crafts. She knitted many sweaters for Angolan orphan children, and, as she and Porter attended Elderhostels, she persuaded fellow learners to do the same, giving them yarn and knitting needles to get them started. She was known for her delicious chicken soup and cornbread which she made in large quantities and took to those who were ill. For years she invited new church members to join her family at the parsonage for Sunday dinner on the day they joined the church.

Jean appreciated people. She never forgot something loving that someone did. She had an unfailing interest in people and sometimes found herself listening to the life story of someone she had just met. She reached out to others even when she was ill. Once during her last days, Porter overheard her saying to a new hospice nurse who had come to care for her, "Now tell me about yourself."

"Hymn of Promise" was one of Jean's favorite hymns. "In our end is our beginning; in our time, infinity In our death, a resurrection; at the last, a victory, unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see." Jean is surely in heaven, smiling down on us.

BETTY STURRUP FERGUSON

September 13, 1936 – August 21, 2001

Betty Sturup Ferguson shared her family's ties of loyalty with Tyer Temple United Methodist Church in Tampa, Florida. The family of The Reverend and Mrs. Samuel Sturup, Betty's adoptive parents, were always present for the Sunday school and worship services at Tyer Temple. Discipline developed early in Betty's spiritual life. She loved music almost as much as she loved her Lord.

Betty Ferguson was a dependable musician for the Sunday school and the assistant organist for her youth choir. The words of her favorite hymns, "Give of your best to the Master, give of the best of your youth" describes Betty's commitment.

The adolescent Betty Sturup worked hard to develop her gifts as a musician and as a speaker. Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune, during her visits to the Methodist Episcopal Churches in the Tampa area, heard Betty perform and speak. Betty matriculated at Bethune-Cookman College, Daytona, Florida.

Margaret Blake Roach, the wife of a Tampa high school principal, was also a trustee of Clark College, Atlanta, Georgia. Because of Mrs. Roach's encouragement Betty Sturup transferred to Clark in the Fall term, 1954. Many African-American students in Atlanta, especially the preacher's kids, met together in the "Fellowship of Faith and Action." This is how Betty and Clifford Ferguson became acquainted.

On June 15, 1960, Betty Sturup and Clifford Ferguson repeated their marriage vows in Tyler Methodist Church before Dr. G.T. Tyer and Dr. Clarence F. Ferguson. Betty and Clifford Ferguson were faithful in all things (1 Timothy 3.11) and they were yoked as helpmates for forty-one years. The words of Charles H. Gabriel's hymn, "Working Together," express the wonderful relationship of Betty and Clifford Ferguson: "Working together, oh, that is the way! Helping each other from day to day. We'll work and we'll sing, and our service we'll bring, and then for God's blessing we'll pray."

— Clifford F. Ferguson

MILDRED FERGUSON GREER

September 8, 1925 – November 26, 2001

Mildred Ferguson Greer, a native of Wahalla, S.C., married Oliver Norwood Greer on June 5, 1948 and moved to Greenville County to teach. The Greers were blessed with three children: Cheryl Greer Fisher, Oliver Wendell Greer and Clarence Butler Greer. The Greer home was solidly based: family, Church and school.

In 1971 Oliver Greer was licensed to preach by the Piedmont District and was appointed to the Cowpens Parish. His long tenure at Cowpens was followed by three years at the East Greenville Charge and four years at Wesley Chapel. Mrs. Greer retired from the school district but not from the Church. The Greers made their home near St. Mark in Taylors and were at St. Mark Church when the doors opened -- if they were not at another United Methodist Church. Their son, Oliver Wendell Greer, like his father, served as a local pastor in Greenwood. He received the blessing and encouragement of his parents in his ministry.

Mrs. Greer believed we are all ministers. She had her ministry. She knew what it was to accept Christ and what it was to "offer them Christ." The Service of Death and Resurrection was held for Mildred Ferguson Greer on December 1, 2001. Her interment was in the St. Mark Church Cemetery. She never was far from God's house.

FERRELL DEON JENKINS

October 20, 1913 – July 10, 2001

Ferrell Deon Jenkins was both a United Methodist minister and a minister's spouse. He began his service in 1931 in the Great Rivers Conference and had longer and longer tenures in larger and larger churches. In 1969 Ferrell Jenkins transferred to the Northern Illinois Conference and served Waukegan, First and Downers Grove before entering the retired relation in 1981. Ferrell and Bonita Jenkins came to South Carolina, to be close to his sister, Mrs. Lester Colloms, and made their home in Spartanburg.

Ferrell Jenkins left three United Methodist clergy sons to carry on his work in Illinois: John Wesley Jenkins, Gary Dean Jenkins, and Donell Deon Jenkins. Ferrell Jenkins joined the staff of Bethel Church in Spartanburg and enjoyed a 16 year tenure. Dr. Jenkins "cut back" by supplying smaller churches in Spartanburg County. He was especially grateful for his experience as pastor of Asbury Church, an African-American congregation in Pacolet, S.C.

A 1933 graduate of McKendree College, Ferrell Jenkins, earned seminary degrees from Garrett Evangelical Seminary in Evanston, IL; and from Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena, CA. Asbury Theological Seminary awarded him an honorary D.D.

Jane Driver Hall and Ferrell Jenkins were married October 24, 1999, following the death of Bonita Jenkins. Theirs was a shared ministry. Ferrell Jenkins described ministry as an "unapologetic call for individual conversion which eventuates in Christian social action. He knew how to meditate and pray, how to preach, to organize, to delegate, and empower.

The service of Death and Resurrection was held for Ferrell Jenkins on July 13, 2001, at Bethel Church in Spartanburg. Interment was in Greenlawn Memorial Gardens, Spartanburg.

SARA STODDARD LAZAR

March 23, 1926 – January 27, 2002

Sara Stoddard Lazar, daughter of David and Mary Sudduth Stoddard, wife of Rev. Julian Lazar, was raised in Spartanburg and nurtured in the faith at Bethel Church. The call to preach, resulting in a transfer from Clemson to Wofford College, brought Julian to Spartanburg where he met Sara. The two were married on September 2, 1950.

Sara was not "chicken" to be a minister's wife, in spite of the fact that their apartment at Duke was a renovated chicken coop! Julian may have been the one called to the ordained ministry, but Sara always found her own place of ministry and service, sometimes in the choir, sometimes directing a day care, always giving love and understanding to the lonely.

Sara was a deeply spiritual person with a very active devotional life. She was also very generous, helping students with their educational expenses. In 1975 the Lazars enjoyed a pulpit exchange in England, and their faith made a lasting impact on that church. But her faith was most evident to us during the days following the deaths of their sons, John and David; she was our strength. God was gracious to Sara and to us by allowing her heart to keep beating for sixteen years longer than doctors predicted, and, during her long illness, she preoccupied herself with the needs of others rather than with thoughts of death. Every church served by the Lazars was represented at her funeral, and that fact is one evidence of her impact on our lives.

LULA ALBERTA WOODBURY ROUSE

May 13, 1928 – April 15, 2002

"In everything do good to others as you have them do to you for this is the law and the prophets."

(Matthew 7:12; Luke 6:31)

My mother was a United Methodist Diaconal Minister and Social Worker, one of the principal leaders in the development of diaconal ministries in South Carolina Methodism and a prominent advocate of racial inclusiveness in the Christian church. Mother's challenge to racial segregation in worship and racial discrimination in the 1960s and through her association with the United Methodist Women helped convince many Methodists to support the cause of cross-racial and inclusive ministries in the South Carolina Annual Conference.

After graduating with a bachelor's degree in education from Allen in 1969, she worked at Bethlehem Community Center in Columbia, SC; the Department of Social Services in Kingstree, SC; Wesley UMC Day Care Center in Lake City, SC; Bamberg County Vocational Center GED Program in Bamberg, SC; and The Department of Social Services in Marion County. As a ministers spouse, Lula also encouraged and supported the pastorates of her husband, The Rev. Bishop Claude Rouse, Sr., in Easley, SC, 1949-58; Bennettsville, SC, 1958-60; Hartsville, SC, 1960-64; Columbia, SC, 1964-71; Kingstree, SC, 1971-76; Lake City, SC, 1976-80; Bamberg, SC, 1980-84, and Chesnee, SC, 1984-85.

Throughout her married life, she was exposed to influences that related Christian preaching and ministries of reconciliation to people of God in the Methodist tradition. Attending local pastors licensing school in the 1980s, she studied preaching and pastoral care. She read and heard the sermons of ministers, including her husband, who preached against worship stratification based on skin color and racism in America. Mother's preaching abilities would become her signature statement as observed by one layperson: "I love to hear Mrs. Rouse preach saying: 'Like John Wesley, my heart is strangely warmed.'" A sweet and classy lady, a powerful and sincere Christian describes the essence of Lula.

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day (2Corinthians 6:5a). On April 20, 2002 this phenomenal Christian was remembered in a Celebration and Resurrection service at Mount Zion United Methodist Church in Kingstree, S.C., with words of comfort from Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey. At her request the service included musical tributes by her granddaughters: Lanecia and Ciona Rouse, and Mrs. Claudia R. Atkinson; verbal tributes from her sons: Bishop, Jr. and Bernard, with Words of Witness from Luonne; and the singing of the Disciples United Methodist Church Chancel Choir of Greenville, SC. At the close of the day, Mother, our "Queen B" (of Bishop), was buried at Devotional Gardens in Marion, S.C.

During her final week on earth, I asked my "laptop theologian": "What is your favorite song?" With a tear easing down her right cheek, she said: "To See His Face." Lord Jesus, Son of God, have mercy!

She is survived by her husband, the Rev. Bishop C. Rouse, Sr., of Marion, SC; three sons: Bishop Claude Rouse, Jr. (Minnie) of Danbury, Conn.; Bernard Jerome Rouse, Sr. (Ruth) of Frederick, MD, and Luonne Abram Rouse (Connie) of Greenville, SC; a sister: Bess Ball of Philadelphia, PA; a foster brother: Dale Barnes of Marion, SC; an aunt: Effie Thomas of Florence, SC; a mother-in-law: Geneva B. Rouse of Orangeburg, SC; a sister-in-law: Ghussan Rouse-Greene (George) of Orangeburg, SC; nine grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

DAISY BELL BOATWRIGHT SULLIVAN

October 11, 1917 – February 20, 2002

Daisy Bell Boatwright Sullivan was born October 11, 1917, in Jefferson, S.C. She was the daughter of William Garfield Boatwright and Daisy Sullivan Boatwright. On December 14, 1940, she married James Garness Sullivan. To this union, which lasted more than 60 years, were born a son, James K. Sullivan, and a daughter, Billie S. Bryant. In time five grandchildren and seven great grandchildren made the family complete.

When her beloved husband responded to the call of Christ to the itinerant ministry, Daisy packed their few belongings and off she went with him and their two young children to be a preacher's wife. For the next thirty years she transformed seven parsonages into loving and caring homes. She was truly a "homemaker." Always supportive of her husband's ministry, she never assumed positions of leadership in the churches they served, though all knew her as a devoted Christian who reached out to others with compassion. While serving the Beaumont Church in Spartanburg she, along with her husband, took this writer under their wings.

Upon retirement this loving couple made their home in Rock Hill until her failing health necessitated their move to Wesley Commons in Greenwood. On February 20, 2002, Daisy went to be with the Lord. Her funeral was held in the Epworth United Methodist Church in Rock Hill with the Rev. John McKinley Williams, III, the Rev. Wesley Farr and the Rev. Will R. Brown officiating.

Surviving Spouses

MILDRED KIRKLAND BATES

June 18, 1915 – August 13, 2001

We should profoundly respect the spouses of persons who respond to their vocation after they are married. Ralph Bates was a lay member of North Charleston Church during the pastorate of A. McKay Brabham. Mildred Bates did not realize she was marrying an itinerant Methodist minister when she and Ralph took their vows on January 2, 1944. I am sure she expected to raise their daughter in her own home after Elaine was born a few years later.

Ralph was a Boy Scout leader, and Mildred taught Sunday School in the North Charleston Church. They helped organize Aldersgate Church in North Charleston in the living room of Ralph's parents home. Ralph Bates answered his vocation and finished college before going to Candler School of Theology. Mildred supported Ralph and Elaine while he was in school. The Bates' journey took them and their daughter to McClellanville, Saxon, Indian Field, Lexington, Calhoun Falls, Sumter, Gaffney, Newberry and Olanda. They bought their last home in Newberry and retired there.

Mildred Bates made lasting friends wherever she lived. She was a close observer, a good listener and sensitive to other's feelings. She loved to read and listen to music. She was able to "...bear other's burdens and fulfill the law of Christ" in every sense of the word. She shared the fruits of the Spirit. When the names of Ralph and Mildred Bates came up in clergy discussion, one minister said: "If there are pews in heaven, Ralph and Mildred Bates will be on the front row." That was a realistic appraisal of a wonderful couple that unselfishly enriched my life and so many others.

LEOLA JOHNSON BROWN

March 5, 1907 – November 22, 2001

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith" II Timothy 4:7

Mrs. Leola Johnson Brown, a daughter of the late Mr. Andrew Johnson and the late Mrs. Elizabeth Hutto Johnson was born March 5, 1907 in Barnwell County. She entered into eternal rest Thursday, November 22, 2001 at the Colleton County Medical Center in Walterboro, South Carolina, following a brief illness.

Early in her life, Mrs. Brown joined the tabernacle Baptist Church in Blackville. She was a very active participant in many church activities. She sang in the choir, worked in the Sunday School, served as a Deaconess, and in later years she was appointed as "Mother of the Church".

She was married to the late Rev. Daniel Henry Brown. The couple had one daughter.

The memory of Mrs. Brown (affectionately called Mama Brown) as a proactive, loving, kind, gentle, but serious minded, lady will linger long in the hearts and minds of those who knew her. She will forever be remembered for being a wise and generous person who always kept her word.

She leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. Annette Creech and Mr. Eugene Creech of Allendale, South Carolina; one step-daughter, Mrs. Sarah Morgan of New York, New York; one granddaughter, Miss Antoinette Creech of Allendale, South Carolina; one adopted grandson, Mr. David (Letta) Marcelious of Washington, DC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

*So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

DAZALEE WALKER BRYANT

May 24, 1918 – June 13, 2001

Mrs. Dazalee W. Bryant was born May 24, 1918. She married the Reverend Stephen Bryant in 1941. Mrs. Bryant died June 13, 2001, in Orangeburg, South Carolina, and was buried in Belleville Memorial Gardens, Orangeburg. Mrs. Bryant was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church. She is survived by a stepson, Mr. Lorenzo Bryant of Orangeburg. Her funeral service was led by the Reverend George F. Manigo, Jr., and the Reverend Dr. Ernest C. Etheredge, Pastor of Trinity Church.

ANNA DELIA MITCHELL COLTER

April 28, 1910 – October 8, 2001

Born in Wolfon, SC, to Gilbert and India Mitchell, Anna Delia Mitchell Colter, was the 14th of 15 Children. She attended the public schools of Orangeburg County. In 1954, both she and her late husband, James Samuel Colter, graduated from Claflin College. James was later ordained as a Methodist Minister and Anna continued her career as a beautician.

Anna Colter, as a career cosmetologist, operated her beauty shop for over 50 years. She, along with Julia E. Breeland (the pioneer in the cosmetology business in South Carolina who lived in Orangeburg) helped organized the first state convention for cosmetologists in South Carolina. She also organized the cosmetologists of Orangeburg Region No. 5 and served as their director until her retirement in July 1991. In 1989, she was selected "Woman of the Year" by the South Carolina State Cosmetologist Association. In 1990, she received the prestigious "Katie E. Wickam Pioneer Award" at the National Beauty Culturists' League, Inc. On May 4, 1991, as a tribute to her, the Orangeburg Cosmétique Club hosted a banquet in her honor.

In her role as minister's wife, Anna organized many women's programs in the churches her husband pastored. After the death of Rev. Colter, Anna joined Trinity United Methodist Church in Orangeburg and was involved with women's clubs in the community. She later moved to Charleston, SC to live with her daughter, Rossie M. Colter, until her death on October 8, 2001.

GERTRUDE BREVARD DIAL

March 3, 1918 – April 2, 2002

Gertrude Brevard was a teacher in Chesterfield County who met and married James Samuel Dial on December 22, 1958, during the Christmas break in the school year. Jim was Superintendent of the Beaufort District. In 1962 James Dial was appointed to the Orangeburg District. In those days the District Superintendent's spouse was the traveling companion, administrative assistant, and the one who kept up with the parsonage families throughout the district. Gertrude Dial did that and more.

At their appointments in Kingstree and Columbia, Gertrude concentrated on the WSCS, United Methodist Women, and the Sunday School programs, which she did willingly and with flair. When the Dials retired in 1980, they plunged into life of Middleton-Rosemond, the new congregation I. DeQuincy Newman was organizing, and which eventually was renamed in his honor.

No one knows how many classes Gertrude Dial taught, or the number of circles in which she participated, or the number of persons she counseled. What she did, she willingly did for the Lord. Her energy was contagious. Her charity was generous, and her love was boundless. "They will know we are Christians by our love, by our love" could have been written to describe Mrs. Dial.

Her sisters Mattie Jones and Lottie Poindexter, her niece, Ruby Glover, and her granddaughter Alicia Dial survived Mrs. Dial. The Service of Death and Resurrection for Gertrude Dial was held at I. DeQuincy Newman Church. Interment was in Crescent Hill Memorial Gardens, Columbia, S.C. "Blessed are they who died in the Lord."

BERTHA WHITE DICKS

February 1, 1906 – March 1, 2002

Our Heavenly Father has once again transformed from earthly labor to eternal rest a faithful soldier "who fought a good fight, finished the course, and kept the faith". Mrs. Bertha Alene Thomas White Dicks, widow of the Reverend Thomas White, Jr., and daughter of the late Grant and Idella Thomas, passed into eternal rest on March 1, 2002.

She lived out her commitment actively participating in the life and work of the church, its ministries and the many organizations in which she served. If her list of priorities were assessed, education would be near the top. She attended Claflin University, Orangeburg, SC and graduated from Morris College, Sumter, SC. "Ms. Bertha" taught Elementary School for more than 30 years and retired from Florence School District #3. She was a faithful member of Wesley Chapel UMC – Lake City, and served in numerous capacities including Chairperson of Education, Sunday School teacher, and member of the Senior Choir. She also served as Worthy Matron of Sunbeam Chapter #224, Order of the Eastern Star.

As a pioneer in the United Methodist Women, "Ms. Bertha" sat on the merger committee of the Women Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild to help form the new organization. Hers was a life of courage, vision, and faith. She fought and conquered. She fought ignorance and conquered it with knowledge. She fought prejudice and conquered it with understanding. She fought hatred and conquered it with love. She is survived by her husband of 25 years, Mr. Alexander Dicks of Lake City, sons: Mr. Grant White of Silver Springs, MD, and Mr. Haskell White of Brandamore, PA; daughter: Ms. Geneva White-Cooper of Bordentown, NJ; and a host of other relatives.

CARLA KATHLEEN SINGLETON DUBOSE

August 3, 1909 – August 12, 2001

Kathleen was the daughter of a minister, the wife of a minister, and the mother of a minister. She was born in Westminster, South Carolina, to J.L. Singleton and Alma Nina Singleton. She had an older sister, Lee Ila.

Kathleen received her Bachelor of Arts Degree from Lander College and a Masters Degree in History from the University of South Carolina. She taught school in Florida prior to marrying C. Frank DuBose and becoming a Methodist minister's wife. She was a "stay-at-home mom" to Carla Frances and David until she went back to teaching to help with her children's college expenses.

She was a musician, a circle leader, and a great cook. She was a Sunday School teacher also, and was able to fill in at a moment's notice.

Kathleen was proud of her children, who became a Methodist minister and a physician. She was also very proud of her grandchildren.

Kathleen is survived by her daughter, Carla Frances, two grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. She was a lifelong Methodist and lived in South Carolina until January 1996, when she moved to Tampa, Florida to be near her daughter. She died at the age of ninety-two in Tampa.

We will miss her.

RHODA REBECCA BAILEY CASKEY JOHNSON

September 1, 1912 – October 23, 2001

Rhoda Rebecca Johnson was born in the Elgin community of Lancaster County, September 1, 1912. She died at Springs Memorial Hospital, October 23, 2001. On October 20, 1968, she married the late Elbert Lee Johnson, a member of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Rhoda was for many years, an active and committed member of St. Luke United Methodist Church. She loved her church, her family and her friends. She was a member of the "Lunch Bunch", a group of retired ministers and widows, who met monthly for lunch and fellowship. Rhoda looked forward to these times with friends as long as she was able.

She is survived by a nephew, Joe Bailey of Lancaster, S.C., and two stepsons, David Johnson of Spartanburg, S. C. and Robert Johnson of Chesnee, S.C.

The Service of Death and Resurrection for Rhoda Rebecca Johnson was held on October 25, 2001 at the St. Luke United Methodist Church. The officiating clergy were her pastor, The Reverend Carlos Gardner, and The Reverend J. Bert Watson. Interment was in the St. Luke Church Cemetery.

IDA MAE HOWE MEREDITH

August 23, 1927 – March 27, 2002

Ida Howe, a graduate of York High School and the Spartanburg General Hospital School of Nursing married George Donald Meredith on November 25, 1948. Mrs. Meredith cared for their three children and continued her nursing career while George worked at his job and used his G.I Bill funds to complete his degree at Lander College.

George was licensed to preach in 1961 and began studies at the Candler School of Theology. The Merediths served at Gainsville Mill Church in Georgia until George was appointed to Springfield, S.C. in 1965. From 1969 until George was appointed to Nichols Charge, George was on Disability Leave and Ida was a full time nurse and care giver. In 1973 George Meredith was again placed on Disability Leave until his retirement.

The Merediths moved to Landrum, where they had lived when the children were born, and made their home on Moss Lane. Ida continued her nursing career at Spartanburg Regional Hospital until suffering a stroke four years ago. Ida Meredith never gave up. She was a self-giving spouse, parent, grandparent, and caregiver. She refused to be overcome by circumstances. She practiced the sufficiency of grace and fully relied on God.

After the Service of Death and Resurrection at the Landrum Church and the interment in Greenlawn Cemetery in Landrum, one of her family realized that Ida had died on George's birthday. One of her grandchildren said, "She had an invitation she couldn't refuse." Ida Howe Meredith never refused anything good.

MARGARET RITCHEY PATTILLO

September 6, 1915 – March 23, 2002

Margaret Ritchey Pattillo, the widow of Urban Randall Pattillo, passed away on March 23, 2002, in Stone Mountain, Georgia. She lived in Stone Mountain the past five years with her daughter.

Throughout her husband's ministry, her primary commitment, next to her family, was supporting him in the churches he served as pastor in Latta, Manning, and Spartanburg, South Carolina, and Mobile, Alabama.

Her professional career was nursing. She retired from the Spartanburg General Hospital in 1981.

After Urban's death in 1985, she continued to live in Spartanburg and was active in the community and her church, Central United Methodist. She is best remembered by her church friends for her informative presentations on the topic of angels.

She leaves to cherish her memory two daughters, Margie McClure of Stone Mountain, Georgia and Anne Sessi of Penngrove, California; son, Pat Pattillo of Matthews, North Carolina; granddaughter, Ashley Swigart of Greenwich, Connecticut; and a sister, Catherine Cooper of Atmore, Alabama.

EUGENIA LANCASTER VICKERY

September 20, 1920 – October 24, 2001

Mrs. Eugenia Lancaster Vickery was always, as wife of the Rev. Thurman Horace Vickery, one of the most supportive helpmates any pastor could want. Across some forty years in parsonages, she poured out her life for the Church and for the pastorates of her beloved "Vick". In every place they lived, including the Rock Hill District while Vick was Superintendent, Eugenia was active in the UMW. She was very artistic, and loved to work with needlework and other crafts as long as her health permitted.

After the death of her husband, she spent her days, most of them as a shut-in, still interested in the church, and in her neighbors at her beloved Lake Junaluska. Mr. Vickery retired in 1980. Since 1951, they had a place at the Lake. As one of her pastors during these days when her activities were greatly curtailed, I found her to be a source of encouragement always. She also kept up with the activities at the Lake, and of her church, First United Methodist Church of Waynesville heart-felt concerns. She also was proud of the family from which she came, and sought to keep abreast of the lives of her brother and sisters and their families.

The service of memory and of resurrection was held on October 26 in Memorial Chapel on the grounds of Lake Junaluska. A large number of Family and friends was in attendance. Unto God be the glory!

CAROLINE ZOLL WASHINGTON

April 10, 1913 – December 24, 2001

Mrs. Caroline Zoll Washington, daughter of the late Mr. Waymon Zoll and Mrs. Laura Jones Zoll, wife of the late Rev. Paul Allen Washington, departed this life December 24, 2001, at St. Tammany Hospital in Covington, Louisiana.

Caroline was born in Eutawville, South Carolina April 10, 1913. She attended Trial School; became a member of Unity Methodist Church at an early age, and in 1968, she joined Doughty Chapel AME Church where she was a faithful member.

In 1930, she joined in holy wedlock to the late Rev. Paul Allen Washington. Nine children were born in this union (five girls and four boys). Two preceded Caroline to the grave – Queen Hester Washington and Melvin Washington.

She leaves to cherish her memories, seven children: Mr. Johnell Washington of Covington, LA; Mrs. Oralee Broughton and Mr. George Washington of Bronx, New York; Mrs. Juanita Richburg and Mr. Waymon Washington, Jr. of Eutawville, SC; Mrs. Laura Mae Simmons and Mrs. Barbara White of Cross, SC; one sister: Mrs. Lillie Mae Zoll Gordon of Covington, LA; three sisters-in-law: Mrs. Ernest Wigfall of Cross, SC; Mrs. Louisa J. Washington of Charleston, SC; Miss Louise Kershaw of New York; four brothers-in-law: Mr. Ellison Gordon of Covington, LA; Mrs. Albert Roberts of Slidell, LA; Mr. Tommy Wigfall of Cross, South Carolina; Mrs. Aaron S. Ferguson of Moncks Corner, South Carolina; two daughters-in-law: Mrs. Elaine Washington of Covington, LA, and Deborah Washington of Bronx, New York; three sons-in-law: Mr. Frank Simmons of Cross, South Carolina; Mr. William Richburg, Jr. of Eutawville, South Carolina and David L. White of Moncks Corner, South Carolina; forty-two grandchildren, nineteen great-grandchildren, three great-great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and many other relatives and friends.

IV. Miscellaneous Rules

I. ANNUAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER AND PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

1. The procedure of the Annual Conference shall be governed by the following in the order listed: The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, The Standing Rules of the Annual Conference, The Rules of Order of the preceding General Conference and the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised. For the purpose of transacting business, the quorum shall be those present and eligible to vote.
2. The official roll call of the Annual Conference shall be the roll signed by the clerical and lay members present. The record of attendance shall be made from this roll.
3. Lay members of boards, councils, commissions and committees; lay members of the Conference Staff; and lay persons who are heads of Conference institutions supported by the Conference, who are not members of the Annual Conference, shall have the privilege of the floor without vote.
4. In order to secure the floor a member desiring to speak to the Conference shall stand at his or her seat, if able, with one arm raised, but shall not move to a microphone until recognized by the chair. At the microphone the member shall first state his or her name and the charge or appointment represented.
5. No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a point of order, a misrepresentation, a parliamentary inquiry, a point of information, or to call attention that the time has arrived for a special order.
6. A member of the Conference may not speak more than once on a question before the Conference until every member who wishes to speak has spoken, subject to rules limiting debate. A member shall not speak for more than three (3) minutes at any time, except by permission of the Conference.
7. When the report of a board, council, commission, or committee is under consideration, the chair shall ascertain, when recognizing a member of the Conference, to which side the member desires to speak: the chair shall not give the floor to any member to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak to the other side. Except for undebatable motions, but not including the undebatable motion calling for the previous question, no report shall be acted upon or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least two speeches for and two speeches against the said proposal. After three speeches for and three against, the question shall be put automatically. However, the chairperson or designated member presenting the report shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken. This right shall prevail in like manner to a limit of three minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, to lay on the table, or any other motion whose adoption is pertinent to the report under consideration.

8. A copy of any motion made on the Conference floor shall be sent to the secretary's desk as soon as the person making the motion returns to his or her seat.
9. The report of a board, council, commission or committee duly presented to the Conference for its action shall be deemed properly before the Conference without the necessity of a motion to adopt and a second thereto.
10. A member rising to a point of order shall state the point as briefly and concisely as possible citing the rule or disciplinary provision invoked in the point of order. A point of order shall be decided by the chair without debate unless the chair submits the question to the body for advice or decision. When the chair rules on a point, debate is closed; but the decision may be appealed to a vote of the body.
11. When a motion is made and seconded and stated by the chair, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or an agency report is made or is published in the Pre-Conference report(s), it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference and may not be altered except by action of the Conference.
12. The main question may be opened to debate under the following motions: to adopt, to commit, to substitute, to postpone, and to reconsider.
13. If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be the same as the order of their listing below:
 1. To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn. (This motion is subject to amendment, or it may be laid on the table.)
 2. To adjourn.
 3. To take a recess.
 4. To raise a question of privilege.
 5. To call for the orders of the day.
 6. To lay on the table.
 7. To order the previous question.
 8. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
 9. To postpone to a given time.
 10. To refer.
 11. To amend or substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment.)
14. Motions that are to be acted upon without debate:
 1. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the Conference finally.
 2. To suspend a rule or rules or any provision of the Standing Rules.
 3. To lay on the table.
 4. To take from the table.
 5. To call for the previous question.
 6. To reconsider a non-debatable motion.

7. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
 8. To call for the orders of the day.
15. When a member moves the previous question, it shall be regarded as applying only to the immediate pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate, and a two-thirds vote of those present and voting shall be required for its adoption. If adopted, the vote shall be taken on the motion to which it applies without further debate.
 16. After discussing a pending question and before relinquishing the floor, a member may make a motion, but not one whose adoption would limit or stop debate.
 17. A motion to reconsider an action of the Conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion proposed for reconsideration is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

18. The report of the Committee on Standing Rules shall be made as a part of the organization of the Conference and as often during the session as necessary.
 - a. All proposed changes in the Standing Rules shall be submitted in writing for referral to the Committee on Standing Rules and then reported out with recommendations after twelve (12) hours.
 - b. It shall require a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote to suspend the rules.
 - c. When the rules are to be suspended, only that specific portion of the rules under consideration shall be suspended.
 - d. The Annual Conference by a majority vote can amend or alter the Standing Rules with or without the concurrence of the Committee on Standing Rules, provided that any change or alteration not originating in the committee on Standing Rules may be voted on after the lapse of twelve (12) hours from the time of its submission to the Conference.
19. It shall be an Order of the Day at the morning session of the first full day of Annual Conference that the floor shall be opened for additional nominations to all boards, councils, commissions and committees to which the Committee on Nominations and parent boards are prepared to make nominations.
20. It shall be an Order of the Day on the third full day of Annual Conference to have the election of boards, councils, commissions, and committees. If additional nominations have been made per rule 19, and if requested by the Annual Conference, ballots shall be prepared by the Conference Secretary for use in the election.
21. The report of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be placed on the Conference Program for information on the first full day of the Conference and for action on the last day of the Conference. When a motion for an increase in Conference Benevolences arises from anyone other than the Council on Finance and Administration and is approved by the Annual Conference, that motion shall be held a minimum of twelve (12) hours and shall require an affirmative vote at a second reading for final approval. If such a motion arises from the Conference floor on the last day of Annual Conference, a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote shall be required for approval.
22. There shall be a Consent Calendar for the session of the Annual Conference composed of items to be "moved to the record without reading" and such other items which do not necessarily require deliberation by the Conference in open session. The Executive Committee of the Committee on Annual Conference shall determine items to be placed on the Consent Calendar and shall distribute a list of those items in the pre-conference materials. Items placed on the Consent Calendar shall be limited to items requiring no more than a simple majority vote for adoption. Prior to the adoption of the Consent Calendar by the session, any five members of the Conference may request that an item be removed from the Consent Calendar, and it shall be removed and considered at an appropriate time as determined by the President and the Secretary. The Consent Calendar shall be adopted by a majority vote of the session.

Voting Procedure

23. At any session of the Annual Conference there shall be a Board of Tellers which shall conduct elections as the Annual Conference may direct. The Board of Tellers shall be nominated and organized by the Conference Secretary and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that this include at least one (1) minister and at least one (1) lay person from each district.
24. Voting shall be by voice or by show of hands or otherwise as ordered by the chair of the Conference. A standing or written count vote may be ordered on call of any member supported by one third of the members present and voting.
25. The Conference shall fix the voting area, also known as the bar of the Conference, at the opening business session and voting on all Conference matters must take place within the prescribed area. The voting area of the Conference shall be distinguished from other areas of the meeting site. Voting shall be by official badge only. When a vote is taken on any question, only those members within the voting bar of the Conference shall be entitled to vote. No member may enter the voting bar after the question is put.
26. Chairs of Annual Conference program boards, councils, commissions and committees and their subcommittees may authorize mail ballots on administrative matters arising between regular meetings of these bodies.
27. Election of Lay Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences System of Nomination: The following system of nomination and selection shall be followed in the election of lay delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences:
 1. District Nominations
 - a. Each local Church may submit nominations to the district superintendent. The district superintendent and the District Board of the Laity will be responsible for requesting a list of nominees from each local church. These nominees shall be selected by the Administrative Board, certified by the Board chairperson and pastor. Only nominations from local churches, prepared on proper forms and received on scheduled time (on or before January 10th), shall be considered for election by the district's lay members of the succeeding Annual Conference.
 2. Conference Procedure
 - a. A maximum of 120 names selected by the Districts shall be listed and presented to the Conference United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, the Conference Board of the Laity, and the Conference Council on Youth Ministry. Each of these may select up to five (5) additional names.
 - b. The biographical format shall be consistent for all nominees and shall be submitted on a form prepared by the Board of Laity. It shall be submitted to the Conference Secretary by the District Superintendent no later than March 1st. It shall include prior years elected to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference; sex; race; age level and a summary of qualifications up to twenty (20) words in length submitted by the nominee. If a biographical sketch does not adhere to specifications of this resolution, the name and sketch shall be omitted from publication in the Pre-Conference Journal.

- c. Provision shall be made for write-in ballots.
- d. The Conference Secretary in preparing the balloting for General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates is authorized to utilize computerization for both lay and clerical ballots.

II. ANNUAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORGANIZATION

28. All boards, councils, commissions and committees shall submit their informational reports and recommendations in triplicate to the Conference Secretary at least twelve (12) weeks prior to Annual Conference. Excluded from this requirement are the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Committee on Nominations, the Committee on Standing Rules, and the Statistical Report.
29. The officers of the Annual Conference, to be elected quadrennially, shall be elected at the Annual Conference preceding the beginning of the quadrennium and shall be as follows:
 - a. The auditor, whom the Council on Finance and Administration shall nominate.
 - b. The chancellor, upon nomination by the Bishop.
 - c. The parliamentarian, upon nomination by the Bishop.
 - d. The secretary, upon nominations which arise from the floor.
 - e. Assistant secretaries as required, upon nomination by the Secretary of the Annual Conference.
 - f. The Conference recorder, who shall be employed by the Conference Secretary.
 - g. The treasurer-statistician, who shall be elected on nomination of the Council on Finance and Administration.
 - h. The Conference Lay Leader, the Associate Conference Lay Leader, and the Secretary of the Conference Board of Laity shall be elected by the Annual Conference on nomination by a nominating committee composed of the representative on the Conference Board of Laity from the Conference United Methodist Men, the Conference United Methodist Women, and the Conference Council on Youth Ministry; three (3) District Lay Leaders to be elected to this nominating committee by the Board of Laity; and three (3) at-large members elected by the Board of Laity, to insure inclusiveness. This nominating committee shall make its report to Annual Conference as Report No. 2 of the report of the Board of Laity without endorsement by the Board of Laity. The Conference Lay Leader, the Associate Conference Lay Leader, and the Secretary of the Conference Board of Laity shall be elected each quadrennium and the tenure shall not exceed eight consecutive years.
30. Compensation for the officers of the Annual Conference shall be determined by the Council on Finance and Administration subject to the approval of the Annual Conference. The Conference Treasurer shall pay those persons from the appropriate fund(s).
31. The number of additional lay members required to equalize lay and clergy representation in the Annual Conference shall be implemented on the basis of the membership reported to the last Annual Conference as follows:

Charge Membership	Number of Lay Members
1 - 675	one
676 - 1,125	two
1,126 - 1,575	three
1,576 - 2,025	four
2,026 - 2,475	five
2,476 - 2,925	six
2,926 - 3,375	seven

The Secretary of the Annual Conference shall be authorized to adjust this base up or down so as to provide the needed number of additional lay members. The Secretary shall notify the pastors of each charge qualifying for additional lay members by August 15th of each year. Local charges shall be responsible for the expenses of such members.

32. The Conference Treasurer shall be the custodian of all funds collected unless otherwise specifically designated. He/she shall be custodian of the funds held by the Annual Conference Trustees. (The Trustees shall administer these funds.) He/she shall be the custodian of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits funds. (The Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall administer these funds.) He/she shall be custodian of all district funds. These and all funds allocated to the various boards, councils, commissions and committees by the Council on Finance and Administration shall be credited by the Conference Treasurer in separate accounts to the boards, councils, commissions and committees. Disbursement of funds to Conference agencies shall be made by the Conference Treasurer upon order by voucher drawn by the secretary or other signer designated by the board, council, commission or committee requesting funds. Vouchers must be accompanied by adequate supporting data (receipts, bill, contemporaneous travel log, et.). The expenses of ex-officio members on Conference boards and agencies shall be charged to the boards, councils, commissions or committees on which they serve as ex-officio members, except district superintendents, whose expenses will be reimbursed by the district.
33. Membership resulting from election by the Annual Conference on all boards, councils, commissions and committees which are considered quadrennial shall not exceed eight (8) consecutive years. In accordance with The Book of Discipline, members of the Board of Ordained Ministry may serve a maximum of three (3) consecutive four year terms. After this period of service that member shall be ineligible for re-election to that same agency until a lapse of two (2) years.
34. Membership resulting from election by the Annual Conference shall be limited to one quadrennial agency and one non-quadrennial agency, except ex-officio members as provided. The Committee on Investigation and the Committee on Petitions to the General Conference shall be considered neither quadrennial nor non-quadrennial.
35. All Annual Conference boards, councils, commissions and committees are considered quadrennial except the following: The Board of Camps and Retreat Ministries; The Board of Pension and Health Benefits; The Committee on Investigation; boards of trust for, The South Carolina United Methodist Advocate; Belin Property; Claflin University; Columbia College; Epworth Children's Home; Wesley Commons; The Methodist Oaks; Spartanburg Methodist College; Trustees of the Annual Conference; Wofford College; The United Methodist Center; The United Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee.
36. The Chairperson of the Conference Committee on Nominations shall notify the Annual Conference Secretary and the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries within ten days following Annual Conference of the names, addresses, local churches, and districts of those elected. Within ten days of notification, the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries will notify the elected individuals of their election. The secretaries of the board, commission, committee or agency will also be notified of those elected by the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries, except at the beginning of a quadrennium.
 - a. The term of office of all quadrennial boards, councils, commissions and committees shall begin with the organization of that board, council, commission or committee and continue until their successors are elected and organized. Board, council, commission and committee members may continue to serve on program implementing task groups through the program year in which their term of office ends.
 - b. At the beginning of a quadrennium all quadrennial boards, councils, commissions and committees shall be convened within sixty (60) days upon the close of the Annual Conference session for organization of the boards, councils, commissions and committees, excepting the Conference Nominating Committee. The out-going chairpersons, except where the Annual Conference has elected a chairperson, shall convene and preside over the organizational meeting. Thirty (30) days prior to the organizational meetings, the outgoing chairpersons, or the newly elected chairpersons, shall send the following to the members:

1. Notice of meeting date and place.
 2. Copies of General and Annual Conference mandates for the boards, councils, commissions and committees.
 3. Outline of present organizational structures of the boards, councils, commissions and committees.
 4. Roster of present and newly elected members showing names, addresses, telephone numbers.
37. Members of general church agencies, who serve as ex-officio members of the related Conference agencies, shall be ineligible to hold office.
 38. Members of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries staff, when appointed as representatives to various Conference agencies, shall be ex-officio members without vote.
 39. Ex-officio members (excluding Conference staff) of all Conference boards, councils, commissions and committees shall have vote (unless prohibited by the Discipline or the Standing Rules), but shall be ineligible to hold office.
 40. No trustee, member of the faculty, manager of any interest, or staff person shall at the same time be a member of the parent or supervising board, council, commission or committee, unless otherwise required by the Discipline or the Standing Rules.
 41. Parent boards may not nominate their own members to any board of trust until said member has been off that parent board for at least one (1) year.
 42. Any member of a quadrennial board, council, commission or committee who is absent from two (2) consecutive meetings of the same, without rendering an acceptable excuse to the chairperson, shall forfeit membership on such board, council, commission or committee and the chairperson shall notify the person of this action. The chairperson shall notify the Committee on Nominations of such forfeiture. The Committee on Nominations shall nominate for election replacements at the next session of the Annual Conference.
 43. When a minister is appointed as District Superintendent, membership on any quadrennial board, council, commission or committee shall automatically cease: provided, that this shall not apply to ex-officio membership on any board, council, commission or committee as required by the Discipline or the Standing Rules.
 44. There shall be an Annual Conference Ministry Advisory Team to facilitate conversation and interaction between Program Services, Administrative Services and Clergy Services. The membership shall consist of: The Resident Bishop, as convener; the Conference Lay Leader, the Conference Council on Ministries Chairperson; the Conference Council on Ministries Director; the Treasurer/Statistician; the President of the Council on Finance and Administration; the Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry; the Cabinet President; and the Conference Benefits Officer.

Conference Boards

45. In making nominations for Boards of Trustees, it is recommended that parent boards or agencies (CCOM, BHECM, EDUCATION, BHW, GLOBAL MINISTRIES) within the framework of the institution's charter (if applicable) maintain at least 25% ethnic minority representation; and when vacancies are filled, at least 25% ethnic minority representation be maintained in the total number of members. It is further recommended that until this representation is achieved, if from one to four members are to be elected, at least one be an ethnic minority; if five to eight members are to be elected, at least two be ethnic minority persons. Nominations from the floor of the session shall comply with the recommended representation.

46. The following Annual Conference Boards shall be composed of eighteen (18) members. It is recommended that twelve (12) be lay persons with at least one (1) lay person from each district and six (6) be clergy persons with no more than one (1) clergy from a district at the time of election, nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations for election by the Annual Conference for a quadrennial term:
 - a. Board of Church and Society shall relate to the General Board of Church and Society. (See functions in Para. 627)
 - b. Board of Education shall relate to the General board of Discipleship, Division of Education. The ex-officio members shall be the chair of The Christian Educator's Fellowship, Council Chairpersons for Children, Youth, Singles, Young Adult, Adult, Older Adult, Family and a representative of the Board of Trustees of South Carolina Camps and Retreat Ministries.
 - c. Board of Evangelism shall relate to the General Board of Discipleship, Division of Evangelism, Worship, and Stewardship. (See functions in Para. 628.3 and 628.5 through 628.7))
 - d. Board of Health and Welfare Ministries shall relate to the General Board of Global Ministries. (See functions in Para. 630.4b(26) through 630.4b(36)) Two additional members may be added to be inclusive of disabled persons as an alternative structure to establishing a committee on disability concerns as required by Para. 649.
 - e. Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries shall relate to the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, Division of Higher Education. (See functions in Para. 631)
 - f. Board of Global Ministries shall relate to the General Board of Global Ministries. (See functions in Paras. 630.2 through 630.4b(25); 630.5) For the 2000-2004 quadrennium the former chairperson of the Commission on Deaconesses and Home Missionaries shall be an ex-officio member with vote.
47. There shall be a Conference Board of Laity composed of the Conference Lay Leader, the Associate Conference Lay Leader, the Secretary of the Board of Laity (these three persons will be nominated by the procedure listed in the Standing Rule 29 h.), Immediate Past Conference Lay Leader, the UMM President or appointee, the UMW President or appointee, and the Council on Youth Ministry President or appointee. The Board may elect Task Group Leaders for the following program areas who will also serve as members of the Board: Lay Life and Work, Lay Speaking, Laity Convocation, Leader Development, Stewardship and other task groups to meet emerging needs. Ex-officio members will include the twelve (12) district lay leaders, a Cabinet Representative (appointed by the Bishop), CCOM Staff Liaison (assigned by the CCOM), and the Resident Bishop. The Conference Board of Laity may appoint up to eight (8) persons to insure inclusiveness.
48. The Board of Ordained Ministry shall be composed of fifty-seven (57) members. In accordance with The Discipline, no less than one-fifth (1/5) and no more than one-third (1/3) of the total membership shall be lay persons. The Annual Conference Coordinator of Clergy Services shall be an ex-officio member, with voice, but without vote. If the Psychological Assessment Vendor is United Methodist, the vendor may serve as an ex-officio member of the Board with voice but without vote, in accordance with the nominating process of The Book of Discipline.
49. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall be composed of eighteen (18) members nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that six (6) be lay men, six (6) be lay women, and six (6) be clergy persons who are active participants in the pension and group insurance plans in which the Annual Conference is the Plan Sponsor.. It is further recommended that the Conference Committee on Nominations select nominees for the board's initial membership from the membership of the Board of Pensions and the Commission on Group Insurance which are disbanding. Years of service on either previous body shall count toward the maximum number of years an individual may serve on the new board. In addition to fulfilling the responsibilities mandated by the Book of Discipline, the Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall supervise the Annual Conference group insurance program. The Conference Benefits Officer shall be nominated by the Board of Pension and Health Benefits and elected by the Conference Staff Relations Committee.

Boards of Trust

50. There shall be a Board of Trustees of South Carolina United Methodist Camps and Retreat Ministries, Inc., an inclusive body consisting of eighteen (18) members. It is recommended that: nine (9) shall be lay persons of whom at least four (4) shall be women; and nine (9) shall be clergy, of whom at least two (2) shall be women.
 - a. Trustees shall be nominated by the Board of Education and elected by the South Carolina Annual Conference for four (4) year terms. Ex-officio members of the Board, without vote, shall be the Directors/Managers of Camps and Retreats facilities and a CCOM staff member assigned by the CCOM Director. The Board shall be divided into three (3) classes of six (6) members each. The Board of Education of the South Carolina Annual Conference may fill vacancies in the Board after prior consultation with the Board of Camps and Retreat Ministries. Trustees shall be eligible for re-election to a maximum tenure of eight (8) consecutive years. After a full tenure of service, a former trustee shall be ineligible for re-election until a lapse of two (2) years.
 - b. The Board of Trustees shall report to the Annual Conference through the Board of Education.
 - c. In accordance with the Book of Discipline, property held in trust by this Board of Trustees shall be subject to paragraphs 2515 and 2516 of the Book of Discipline.
51. There shall be a Board of Trustees of the James L. Belin Property composed of twelve (12) elected members. It is recommended that six (6) be lay persons and six (6) be clergy persons. The Marion District Superintendent shall serve as an ex-officio member of the Board.
 - a. Persons serving on this Board shall be nominated by the Board of Global Ministries.
 - b. The Board shall be organized into four (4) classes of three (3) persons.
 - c. One class shall be elected annually to serve for four years.
 - d. The tenure of the Trustees shall be limited to twelve (12) consecutive years and this tenure shall apply to the consecutive years of present Trustees. After such period of service a former trustee shall be ineligible for reelection until a lapse of four (4) years.
 - e. The Board of Trustees shall report to the Annual Conference through the Board of Global Ministries.
52. There shall be a Board of Trustees of Claflin University composed of not less than nine (9) nor more than twenty-seven (27) members divided into three classes serving three years respectively, elected at the annual meeting of the Board, in accordance with the Claflin University Board of Trustees By Laws. Successors for each class, as their term expires, shall be nominated by a university related agency and/or the Nominating Committee of the Board of Trustees and elected by the Board of Trustees for a term of three (3) years. After twelve (12) years of continuous service, trustees may be placed in a class of Trustee Emeritus.
 - a. The Trustees shall elect their successors from a list of nominees submitted by the South Carolina Annual Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry and the Claflin University General Alumni Association.  1. The Committee shall inform the boards, councils, commissions and committees when reports shall be due in order to maintain the schedule for the Pre-Conference Journal.

 2. No report by any board, council, commission or committee shall be considered by the Annual Conference that has not been distributed at least four weeks prior to the Conference session. Excluded from this requirement are the reports of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Committee on Nominations, the Committee on Standing Rules, and the Statistical Report.
 - b. The Committee shall cooperate with the Conference Secretary in determining the accuracy of the daily minutes. The Committee shall report concerning the accuracy of these minutes to the next Annual Conference session and shall note any discrepancies and/or exceptions and shall cause these to be noted in the Conference Journal next published.
 - c. The Committee shall publish the South Carolina Conference Journal (see The Book of Discipline, Para. 606.3) in one volume and shall have the Journal ready for distribution at least by October 1 following the close of Annual Conference. The Journal shall include the informational reports included in the pre-conference report(s), the deliberations of the Annual Conference, and the Statistical Report.
 1. The chairperson of the Committee, the secretary of the Committee and the Secretary of the Annual Conference shall edit the Conference Journal.
 2. The Committee shall let the contract for the printing of the Conference Journal, and shall provide for the printing at least one year in advance.
 3. One copy will be sent to each charge, to each retired minister and to those mandated by The Discipline. Other copies may be ordered by reservation at a cost of $15.00 each at the previous Annual Conference.

d. The Committee shall be responsible for the publication of the volume entitled United Methodist Ministers in South Carolina, which shall be printed every ten (10) years, and which shall feature biographical sketches and pictures of all the ministers of the South Carolina Conference.

- e. The Committee shall be responsible for the selection of persons to write the memoirs of the ministers and ministers' spouses who have died during the year. These memorials shall be printed in the Conference Journal; those of the minister shall not exceed 600 words and those of spouses shall not exceed 250 words.
67. There shall be a Committee on Congregational Development (CCD) composed of eight (8) at large members, nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference; one representative from each District Board for Congregational Development; and one representative from each of the following: the Board of Global Ministries, Board of Evangelism, Board of Laity and the Commission on Equitable Compensation. The purpose of the CCD shall be to work with the Bishop and Cabinet to provide long term planning and provide the framework for all the efforts of the Annual Conference related to new church development, church redevelopment and congregational revitalization.
68. The Joint Committee on Incapacity shall be composed of two (2) members of the Board of Ordained Ministry (to be named by the chairperson of the Board), the chairperson and secretary of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits and a district superintendent appointed by the Bishop.
69. There shall be a Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns composed of twelve (12) members. It is recommended that four (4) be clergy, four (4) lay women, and four (4) lay men nominated by the Conference Council on Ministries and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that all ethnic groups be included in this membership.
- a. Ex-officio members shall include one representative from each of the following groups: the Commission on Status and Role of Women, the Commission on Religion and Race, the Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling, the chairperson of all recognized ethnic program committees, and two (2) representatives from the Cabinet.
 - b. The Committee shall implement the South Carolina Annual Conference Comprehensive Plan for Continuing Emphasis on the Ethnic Minority Local Church while at the same time carrying out mandates from the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
70. There shall be a Committee on Native American Ministry which shall function as a task force of the Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns.
71. There shall be a Conference Committee on Nominations of twenty-four (24) members composed of two representatives nominated and elected by each district. It is recommended that these be one clergy and one lay representative from each district. The additional members shall include: the resident Bishop; a youth and young adult nominated by the Conference Council on Ministries; up to six (6) at large members, who may be nominated by the Bishop to ensure adequate representation; and the following members: the Conference Lay Leader, an elected representative of United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, the Conference Council on Youth Ministry, a retired member of the Annual Conference selected by the retired ministers, and a district superintendent named by the Bishop. The Chairperson of the Committee on Nominations shall be elected by the Annual Conference. A nominee shall be presented by the Committee on Nominations for consideration at the beginning of each quadrennium. The Conference Committee on Nominations shall elect additional officers at its first regular meeting in the new quadrennium. The following shall be ex-officio members without vote: the chairperson of the Committee on Standing Rules, the chairperson of the Conference Council on Ministries, the chairperson of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women, the chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race, and the chairperson of the Conference Missional Priority Coordinating Committee.

- a. It is recommended that there be one (1) lay person nominated and elected by each District Board of the Laity of each of the twelve (12) districts. Where there is no District Board of the Laity, the one (1) lay person shall be nominated and elected by the church lay leaders of that district.
- b. It is recommended that there be one (1) clerical person nominated and elected from each district by the ministers of each of the twelve (12) districts.
- c. These nominations, both lay and clerical, shall be elected by secret ballot in each district after at least three (3) persons shall have been nominated from the floor of each of the electing bodies. Election shall be by simple majority.
- d. If a member of the Committee on Nominations, who has been nominated by the District moves beyond the boundaries of the District in which he/she was nominated, his/her membership on the Committee shall be terminated, except for the chairperson, vice-chairperson, and secretary, who should continue to serve as members-at-large on the Conference Committee on Nominations until the end of the quadrennium.
- e. When district vacancies occur on the Committee, replacements shall be nominated as per rule 71.c to serve the remainder of the quadrennium. In the event that the elected chairperson of the Nominating Committee is one of the two elected representatives of a district, that chairperson shall become an additional member-at-large and the respective district shall elect another representative for that district, both of whom shall serve until the end of the quadrennium.
- f. Current members of the Committee on Nominations shall not be nominated for membership on any board, council, commission or committee whose membership arises from nominations from this committee.
- g. Ex-officio members of the Nominating Committee shall be excluded from rule 71.f.
- h. The Committee shall make all nominations needed by the Annual Conference except as provided elsewhere by the Discipline or Standing Rules of the Annual Conference. When the Discipline or Standing Rules require nominations be made by other agencies of the Annual Conference, those nominations shall be reported to the Committee no later than March 15 of each year for information only. These nominations will not be submitted to the Annual Conference through the Committee on Nominations.
- i. Nominations of chairpersons of all quadrennial boards, councils, commissions and committees, whose election is not prescribed by the Discipline or other sections of these Standing Rules shall be a nominated member of that board, council, commission or committee and shall be submitted by the Committee on Nominations to the Annual Conference for election.
- j. When nominations are made, the persons nominated shall be consulted and their consent to serve received; whether nominated by parent boards, the Committee on Nominations or from the floor of the Annual Conference.
- k. The Annual Conference Committee on Nominations shall make nominations so that approximately one half (1/2) of the membership of all boards, councils, commissions and committees shall be rotated each quadrennium.
- l. The report of the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations shall include the full name, current address and phone number(s) of each nominee.
- m. It is recommended that the Nominating Committee nominate at least 25% ethnic minority representation to all Conference Boards and Agencies where such nominees originate with the Conference Committee on Nominations. When vacancies are filled and nominations from the floor are offered it is recommended that at least 25% ethnic minority membership be maintained. It is also recommended that until this representation is achieved, if from one to four members are to be elected, at least one be an ethnic minority; if five to eight are to be elected, at least two be ethnic minority persons.

- n. Unless otherwise provided in the Book of Discipline, a vacancy in the membership of a board, council, commission or committee may be filled, ad-interim, by the board, council, commission or committee for the remainder of the Conference year in which the vacancy occurs. At its next session the Annual Conference shall fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term. The respective board, council, commission or committee shall inform the Committee on Nominations of the vacancy and its action.
72. There shall be a Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling composed of twelve (12) persons nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that eight (8) be clergy persons and four (4) be lay persons.
 73. There shall be a Committee on Petitions to the General Conference (see The Book of Discipline, Para. 507) composed of six (6) members nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that four (4) be lay persons and two (2) be clergy persons. This committee shall be considered a task force and neither a quadrennial committee nor a non-quadrennial committee.
 74. There shall be a Committee on Resolutions and Appeals composed of nine (9) members nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that six (6) be lay persons and three (3) be clergy persons.
 - a. Resolutions not initiated by a constituted board, council, commission or committee may be referred to those agencies. Any resolution not referred to a constituted board, council, commission or committee shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals, and shall be reported by this Committee to the Annual conference with a recommendation of concurrence or non-concurrence with rationale.
 - b. Resolutions shall be presented to the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals no later than March 15 of each Conference year in order that they may be included in the Pre-Conference Journal.
 - c. Additional resolutions should be referred to the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals by the end of the afternoon session on the first full business day of the Annual Conference. The group, individual or cluster presenting a resolution must be responsible for printing their resolution for all members of the Annual Conference session. The resolutions considered by the Committee on the first full day of the session shall be distributed by the close of the morning session of the second full business day of the Conference. The Report of the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals will be an 'Order of the Day' the morning of the third full business day of Annual Conference.
 - d. The Committee on Resolutions and Appeals shall on the first full business day of Annual Conference provide time for persons offering resolutions to come before the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals to define and talk about their resolutions.
 75. There shall be a Committee on Standing Rules composed of nine (9) members nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that six (6) be lay persons and three (3) be clergy persons. The following shall be ex-officio members with vote: the President of the Conference United Methodist Women, the President of the Conference United Methodist Men, the President of the Conference Council on Youth Ministry, the Conference Secretary, the Conference Lay leader, the chairperson of the Conference Council on Ministries, at least one district superintendent and the Conference Parliamentarian.

76. The Conference Committee on Episcopacy shall be composed of fifteen (15) members. In accordance with the Discipline (Para. 634), membership shall consist of the following: one-fifth (1/5) appointed by the Bishop, and the balance nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that one-third (1/3) be clergy persons, one-third (1/3) laywomen, and one-third (1/3) laymen, provided that one layperson shall be the Conference Lay Leader. Ex-officio members with vote shall be the lay and clergy members of the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy.

77. In order to provide for consistent Annual Conference staff personnel decisions, management, policy and collegiality, there shall be a Conference Staff Relations Committee composed of the following members, nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference: three (3) lay persons, one of whom has professional experience in personnel/human resource management; one (1) elder in full connection, serving a local church at the time of election; one (1) deacon in full connection, employed by a local church at the time of election; one (1) full time local pastor; and two members-at-large, to insure inclusiveness. The Resident Bishop shall serve as chairperson. Ex-officio members, with voice and vote, shall include the Conference Lay Leader, vice-chairperson; the Chairperson of the Conference Council on Ministries; and the President of the Council on Finance and Administration. No staff member or immediate family member of a staff member may serve on the committee.

III. DISTRICT RULES AND ORGANIZATION

78. There shall be twelve (12) districts in the South Carolina Annual Conference.

79. Where there is a District Conference it shall be composed of all ministers, deaconesses, the church lay leader, the lay members of Annual Conference, the President of the United Methodist Women, the President of the United Methodist Youth Ministries, and the President of the United Methodist Men from each church in the district; the District Lay Leader and Associate Lay Leaders; the District President of the United Methodist Women; the District President of the United Methodist Men; the President of the District Council on Youth Ministry; the chairperson of the District Council on Ministries; the chairperson of the District Trustees; the chairperson of the District Committee on Church Location and Building; the chairperson of the District Committee on Superintendency; and the District Superintendent who shall preside over the Conference.

80. There shall be in each district a District Council on Ministries. The responsibilities of the Council are set forth in paragraph 656 of The Book of Discipline 2000. The District Superintendent shall consult with the District Committee on Nominations in the selection of persons to serve on the District Council on Ministries. The membership of the District Council on Ministries shall include the following: the District Superintendent, the District Lay Leader, the District Director of Lay Speaking Ministries, the District President of the United Methodist Men, the District President of the United Methodist Women, the President of the District Youth Council, the Disaster Response Coordinator for the district, and the Chairperson of the District Board of Congregational Development. Persons representing program areas and additional resource persons may be added. The chairperson shall be elected from the membership. A vice-chairperson and secretary may also be elected from the membership. The selection process shall be in keeping with a spirit of inclusivity. The term of office for members of the District Council on Ministries shall run from the close of one annual conference session to the close of the next. The District Superintendent in consultation with the District Committee on Nominations may act at any time to fill vacancies in the membership of the District Council on Ministries.

81. Where the Discipline allows for a district director, representative, or secretary for a Conference agency, the person or persons named shall be from among the elected members of that agency.

82. There shall be a Committee on Nominations in each district. This committee shall make nominations to be forwarded by the two district representatives to the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations for election by the Annual Conference.

a. The District Committee on Nominations shall be composed of: the District Superintendent as chairperson; the District Lay Leader or his/her designated Associate Lay Leader; the District Director of Lay Speaking; the Presidents of the District United Methodist Men, the District United Methodist Women, the District Youth Council and one other representative of each selected by the respective organization's executive committee. Where there is no District Youth Council, the district superintendent shall appoint two (2) youth members. It is recommended that gender and racial balance be considered in selection. The two (2) Conference Nominating Committee members from the district shall also serve.

b. The District Committee on Nominations shall request of each local pastor, lay leader, Council on Ministries chairperson, United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, and United Methodist Youth Fellowship president possible nominees to serve. Forms designed by the Conference Nominating Committee will be provided each District Committee, which in turn, shall make them available to each local church. These forms shall include biographical data, local church experience, etc., and shall include a space for the possible nominee's signature indicating willingness to serve.

c. The District Committee on Nominations shall review all forms submitted and will forward these recommendations through the two (2) district representatives to the Annual Conference Nominating Committee after signatures indicating willingness to serve have been secured. District Nominating Committees shall be encouraged to be inclusive of the constituency of the district in their nominations.

83. The District Lay Leader and two (2) Associate Lay Leaders, the District Director of Lay Speaking, and the Associate District Director of Lay Speaking shall be nominated by the laity on the District Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. They shall be nominated and elected quadrennially and may serve no more than eight (8) consecutive years.

84. Persons elected by the annual conference to membership on district boards and committees shall begin their terms of service at the conclusion of the annual conference session at which they are elected. Between sessions of annual conference, vacancies on district boards and committees may be filled upon nomination by the District Committee on Nominations. Such vacancies shall be subject to election by the next annual conference and reported by the Conference Committee on Nominations.

85. In accordance with the Discipline (Para. 663.2) the eight (8) elected members of the Committee on the District Superintendency shall be nominated by the District Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference or by the District Conference where it exists.

86. There shall be in each district a District Board for Congregational Development (DBCD). The DBCD shall be elected quadrennially by the Annual Conference, upon nomination by the District Committee on Nominations. Vacancies shall be filled annually by election by the Annual Conference. The DBCD shall be composed of not fewer than five (5) or more than nine (9) elected members, plus the district representatives appointed by the District Superintendent to the Conference Committee for Congregational Development. The District Superintendent or the District Superintendent's designee shall preside over the work of the Board.

- a. The purpose of the DBCD shall be to promote long term planning and provide a coordinating framework for all the efforts of the district related to new church development, church redevelopment and congregational revitalization.
 - b. The responsibilities shall be:
 1. Update population statistics and informational data of the district.
 2. Review facility conditions and congregational vitality.
 3. Develop district strategies and priorities for new church development, church redevelopment and congregational revitalization.
 4. Administer all funds raised at the district level and received from all Conference sources for congregational development.
 5. Submit proposals to Annual Conference boards and agencies (Equitable Compensation, Congregational Development, Trustees of the Annual Conference, Council on Finance and Administration, etc.) for funding of congregational development within the district.
 6. Locally held accounts held by the DBCD shall be audited annually, with copy filed to the Council on Finance and Administration. Funds received and disbursed through the office of the Conference Treasurer do not require audits but are managed by voucher only.
87. Each district superintendent shall transmit the complete list of lay members to the Annual Conference from the district in triplicate to the Secretary of the Annual Conference at least five (5) months prior to the opening date of the Annual Conference.
88. Youth and young adult members of the Annual Conference, and their reserves, shall be elected by the District Council on Ministries from nominations which arise from the District Council on Youth Ministry, District Coordinators of Adult Ministry and from the local churches within the districts. Their expenses shall be borne by the districts electing them.
89. Guidelines for Quadrennial Training of Lay Members of Annual Conference
- a. A training session shall be held in each district no later than January 30 of the year in which delegates are elected to General and Jurisdictional Conferences. The purpose of this session is to prepare local church members of the Annual Conference for this highly important quadrennial process of the United Methodist Church. The training session, which would precede the district nominations for the pool of possible delegates, would include the following:
 1. The important role of Annual Conference lay members
 2. Connectionalism/Representative system.
 3. Functions of General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference.
 4. Commitment and involvement of delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
 5. Process for selection of Bishops.
 - b. This training session shall be planned by the District Superintendent, the District Lay Leader, and a committee of no less than five (5) persons; and include all persons in the district who have served as delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
 - c. A follow-up session may be held in each local church for education of local church members.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS RULES

90. All lay persons employed by the agencies of the Conference shall conform to the compulsory retirement age set for the ministers of the church. Such retired lay persons may be employed on a part-time basis without executive administrative responsibility.
91. All monies to be credited to the accounts of local churches for the fiscal year shall be in the hands of the Conference Treasurer no later than fifteen (15) days after the end of the fiscal year.

92. "Moving Day" for the ministers shall be the second Wednesday following the close of Annual Conference.
 - a. Where special circumstances dictate any alteration of this moving date, the affected persons and the district superintendent involved shall be permitted to make the necessary adjustments.
 - b. Ministers shall be paid during the month of June proportionately by the charge from which they are moved and the charge to which they are moved on the basis of the percentage of Sundays actually served in each charge.
 - c. The moving expenses of the pastor shall be paid by the charge to which he/she is moved, not to include more than $250.00 in verified packing expenses effective in 2002.
93. Pastor's reports to Annual Conference shall cover the calendar year (January 1- December 31) and shall be sent to the Conference Treasurer-Statistician so as to reach that office not later than January 15 of the year immediately following.
94. All support ministries or agencies which receive funds from the South Carolina Annual Conference, but which are not directly responsible to the Conference shall submit an annual program and an audit including a management letter to the sponsoring Conference agency.
95. No requests shall be made for the services of the Conference Chancellor except by the Episcopal Office.
96. Persons applying for Sabbatical shall apply to the Board of the Ordained Ministry prior to February 1st preceding the Annual Conference session.
97. When a leave of absence is granted, and upon the recommendation of the Bishop and the Cabinet, the Council on Finance and Administration shall make a sustentation grant from the Conference contingency funds not to exceed forty percent of the denominational average compensation paid on a monthly basis. All interim sustentation grants shall be reported to the Annual Conference at its next session. Upon the recommendation of the Bishop and Cabinet and the approval of the Annual Conference, the Commission on Equitable Compensation shall continue to fund the sustentation grants in the same monthly percentage for a period not exceed one additional Conference year. No claim may be made on the sustentation fund when disability benefits are granted from the Board of Pension and Health Benefits.
98. All persons at the Annual Conference level who are officially involved in the trial process, including the members of the trial court, the witness at the trial, the counsel for the church, the counsel for the respondent, and the respondent shall receive only reimbursement for vouchered travel, meals, and lodging expenses from the Annual Conference Contingency Fund according to the schedule of payments adopted by the Annual Conference for those involved in the official business of the Annual Conference.

HISTORICAL RECORD OF SESSIONS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

A detailed history of the South Carolina Conference can be found in The History of South Carolina Methodism by Albert D. Betts (Columbia: The Advocate Press, 1982), and the following chronology is based on the information contained in Dr. Betts' history. When John Wesley called his lay preachers together in London on June 25, 1744, to 'confer' on the work of the growing Methodist Societies, the pattern for an annual "Conference" was begun. The practice was brought to America as the Methodist Societies developed here..

In the early days of American Methodism the Conferences were not neatly divided by the geographic boundaries we have today, and, correspondingly, it is difficult to trace precisely a lineage that would make it possible to identify "the first Conference." Dr. Betts refers to the "first American 'Annual Conference'" (p. 34) as the one held in George's Church, Philadelphia, July 14, 1773, on the call of John Rankin who had been sent to America by John Wesley. The work of Methodism in South Carolina was organized in 1785, when a "section" of the Conference was called at Louisburg, North Carolina, on April 20, 1785, at which Francis Asbury presided. About two years later, on March 22, 1787, the first session of a South Carolina Conference was held in Charleston, with both Bishops Francis Asbury and Thomas Coke sharing responsibilities as presiding officers. Sessions of the 1785 Conference are shown in the tables below.

The 1866 South Carolina Conference was organized on April 2, 1866, in Charleston, South Carolina, by leaders of the Methodist Episcopal Church to minister to African Americans, many freed slaves, who would not accept the continued segregated worship of the races. A history of the 1866 Conference may be found in Passionate Journey by John W. Curry (St. Matthews: Bill Wise Printers, 1980.) Pursuant to the 1984 General Conference action which dissolved the Central Jurisdiction to achieve "racial inclusiveness at all levels of the church," the 181st Session of the South Carolina Conference (1785) passed a resolution requesting bishops of the two South Carolina conferences to appoint a committee to work out a plan of merger.* The two conferences became one in 1972. Sessions of the 1866 Conference are shown in tables below.

In 1914, the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, voted to divide the South Carolina Annual Conference (1785) and instructed the conference to fix a line of division. At its 129th Session the South Carolina Conference (1785) created the Upper South Carolina Conference. The two were combined again in 1948. Sessions of the Upper South Carolina Conference are shown in tables below.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2001 AND 2000

1. Nature of Activities:

The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church governs the various boards, commissions, committees and agencies whose purpose is to carry out the programs of the United Methodist Church. The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church is a nonprofit religious organization and is exempt from paying income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. These financial statements report only those transactions maintained by the Treasurer of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

2.1 Financial Reporting:

The accompanying financial statements are based on the accrual method of accounting reflecting income earned regardless of when received and expenses incurred regardless of when paid.

The Conference has three net asset categories: (a) unrestricted net assets, (b) temporarily restricted net assets, and (c) permanently restricted net assets, which are described as follows:

Unrestricted Net Assets - Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions.

Temporarily Restricted Net Assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that they may or will be met either by actions of the Conference and/or the passage of time.

Permanently Restricted Net Assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may be maintained permanently by the Conference. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the Conference to use all or part of the income earned on related investments for program operations. There are no permanently restricted net assets.

To insure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, the accounts of the Conference are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purpose.

YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2001 AND 2000

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued):

2.2 Support and Expenses:

A contribution is deemed to have been received when the cash or other assets including securities, land, buildings, use of facilities, materials and supplies, intangible assets, services or unconditional promise to give such items in the future is received. An unconditional promise to give is a promise, which is not dependent on the occurrence of a specified future and uncertain event to bind the promisor.

Contributions received and unconditional promises to give are measured at their fair values and are reported as increase in net assets. The Conference reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets, or if they are designated as support for future periods. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

The financial statements present expenses in accordance with the overall service mission of the Conference displayed within their natural classifications.

2.3 Cash and Cash Equivalents:

For purposes of reporting the statement of cash flows, the Conference considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

2.4 Investments:

Investments are measured at fair value in the statement of financial position. Investment income or loss (including gains and losses on investments, interest, and dividends) is included in the statement of activities as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless the income or loss is restricted by donor or law.

2.6 Property and Equipment:

The Conference does not maintain investments in a property and equipment fund or record the related depreciation of such property as required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Expenditures for such investments are charged as expenditures in the year of purchase.

3. Investments:

Investments are valued at market value with appreciation being recognized and reported in the Statement of Activities in the appropriate classes. Unless specific prohibited clauses are contained in the gift instrument, funds for investment have been combined into one investment pool. Earned income received on investments by the Conference Treasurer is allocated on the last business day of the year to the Conference Boards and Agencies and to certain district funds on the basis of month-end average balances held by the Treasurer. The cost and market values of investments at December 31, 2001 and 2000 are summarized as follows:

	2001		2000
	Cost	Fair Value	Cost	Fair Value

9. Ministerial Pension Plan and Comprehensive Protection Plan (MPP/CPP) and Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund (CPBF):

The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church participates in a defined benefit multi-employer pension plan administered by the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church. The plan provides pension benefits to retiring members in addition to providing disability income benefits and guaranteed minimum benefits for widows and dependent children of deceased members.

9. Ministerial Pension Plan and Comprehensive Protection Plan (MPP/CPP) and Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund (CPBF) (Continued):

The Conference contributes to the fund an amount equivalent to twelve percent (12%) of each minister's annual plan compensation (cash salary, tax-deferred contributions made, and housing allowance) limited by the denominational average compensation. For lay employees, the Conference contributes nine percent (9%) and the lay employee contributes three percent (3%). CPP contributions for eligible full-time ministers are the equivalent of 4.4% of the minister's plan compensation also limited by the denominational average compensation. MPP and CPP contributions are limited by the current denominational average compensation. Past service defined benefit funding is an annual actuarially determined amount approved by the Annual Conference. Each participant's contributions are fully vested. The Conference Treasurer remitted $ 3,835,000 in 2001 and $ 3,865,000 in 2000 to the General Board of Pensions. The Conference is not liable for any unfunded liabilities under the MPP/CPP/CPBF plans in force.

Past service expenses are charged to the Annual Conference. The 1983 Individual Annuity Mortality Table adjusted with a six percent (6%) interest assumption was used in the determination of these amounts.

Ministers' pension payments received by the Conference Treasurer are remitted to the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church.

10. Accounting for Post-Retirement Benefits Other Than Pensions:

The Annual Conference requires payment of $ 30 per participant per month from retirees for retiree or dependents for postretirement benefits. This policy will change to a premium charge of $ 40 per month effective January 1, 2002.

The Annual Conference sponsors a contributory defined benefit post-retirement medical plan that covers substantially all of its statutory and common-law employees.

The Annual Conference also sponsors a defined benefit post-retirement death benefit plan that covers substantially all of its full-time retired CPP eligible clergy members. This plan is non-contributory, is fully funded, and no change from this policy is anticipated in the future.

Other than the plans identified above, the Annual Conference sponsors no other post-retirement benefit plans.

Legal opinion has been obtained that the plans described above are multi-employer plans as that term is defined in Paragraph 79 of SFAS No. 106. "Employer's Accounting for Post-Retirement Benefits Other Than Pensions". Accordingly, the post-retirement benefit costs are recognized on a current period basis.

11. Comparative Amounts:

The financial statements include certain prior-year summarized comparative information in total but not by net asset class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the organization's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2000 from which the summarized information was derived.

13. Concentration of Market and Credit Risk:

Pooled investments include an overnight investment account with Bank of America totaling $ 2,763,418. The financial institution has a strong credit rating and management believes that credit risk related to this deposit is minimal. There are also four certificates of deposit at First Federal of Charleston. Of this $ 300,000 is secured by federal bonds.

15. Equitable Salary Commission:

Equitable Salary Commission - The Conference treasurer holds investments in Van Kampen mutual funds (US Government Fund Class A). This fund is reserved for the purpose of paying supplemental salary to pastors of local churches that can not afford to pay the minimum salary for pastors as set by the Conference. The market value at December 31, 2001 is $ 361,514 compared to cost of $ 427,019.

The investments are not recorded in the records or financial statements of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church

16. Conference Board of Trustees:

The Conference treasurer holds four (4) loans receivable totaling $ 72,613 at December 31, 2001. The loans are not recorded in the records or financial statements of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

17. SC Departmental of Social Services:

The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church - Shalom Literacy Program entered into a one (1) year contract with the SC Departmental of Social Services beginning January 1, 2002 and ending December 31, 2002. The agreement provides support for Expanding the Governor's Educational Initiative through the Shalom Literacy Program in three (3) communities in the state: Bennettsville, Charleston, and Columbia
